Alix Curlers To Launch Bingo

Annual Meeting Board of Trade to Be Held in March

A nominating committee to bring in a new slate of officers for the Lacombe board of trade was named at an executive meeting in the Lacombe Hotel last Friday.

The committee of three includes Mike Kierluk, Alex Ellis and Fred Pamenter. The new nomination slate will be presented for acceptance at the annual board of trade meeting some time in March. Outgoing president is Mike Kierluk.

Last Rites For Wm. Chalmers Today, 3:30

Last rites will be conducted by Rev. R. H. Thackeray this afternoon at 3:30 from Eventide Funeral Chapels in Lacombe for William Chalmers, 77-year-old Lacombe resident.

He passed away in Lacombe hospital after a short illness on Tuesday, January 2, 1962.

Left to mourn is his wife, the former Louise Voss of Lacombe; five sons, Robert, James, Edward and Ronald, all of Lacombe, and Elden of Edmonton; three daughters, Mrs. Flo Wilson of Saskatoon, Mrs. C. Ostercamp of Benalto, and Mrs. L. Cannon of Edmonton; 35 grandchildren.

Building Pace Down From "Boom Years"

Building permits valued at $381,000 were taken out at the town office during 1961, according to a year-end compilation of figures.

This is a healthy increase over last year's total of $264,595, but well down from the "building boom" years of 1957-58-59 which reached a peak of $717,475 in 1958, when there were permits issued for 43 new dwellings, but this year's total includes the building of only 11 new residences — the same as in 1960.

Biggest single permits issued during 1961 included $165,000 for a federal building, $35,000 for a water reservoir and pumping station, and $28,500 for a new Anglo-American service station.

Here are the individual permits for the last five months:

Public Meeting On Gull Lake Is Cancelled

Public meeting in Lacombe to discuss with provincial government authorities the possibilities of raising the water level at Gull Lake will not be held this month as previously expected, local board of trade secretary Roy Sturgeon stated last week.

The reluctance of government officials to appear at a public meeting until "much more field data" is compiled was given as the reason for the cancellation.

It was originally anticipated that members from boards of trades at Bentley, Rimbey, Ponoka and Lacombe, together with other interested persons would attend an open-forum discussion meeting in January on the subject of Gull Lake waters.

The letter received here from P. L. Grindley, director of water resources, stated in part:

"The panel discussion you mention would be fine as long as it is not a public meeting. I would not want to appear at a public meeting until we have secured much more field data that we have now."

This does not preclude a private meeting with groups from participating boards of trade in attendance, however.

Mr. Grindley said he is quite prepared to hold a closed session with interested boards of trade directors either in his office or at Lacombe, and local secretary R. W. Sturgeon is in the act of contacting the executives at Bentley, Rimbey and Ponoka.

It is hoped to hold such a meeting either here or in Edmonton some time during the week of January 15-20.

ALIX LADY DIES

Mrs. Olive Dean of Alix died at the age of 80 at Lacombe municipal hospital on Wednesday, January 3, 1962. Funeral arrangements had not been made at Eventide chapels up to press time.

Night Shopping on Thursdays?

Town councillors unanimously voted in favor of having a new by-law prepared to permit Lacombe's retail stores to remain open Thursday evenings throughout the year. This by-law is being prepared by the town solicitor.

County Revises School Teacher Salary Average

Education committee of the county of Lacombe has revised its figure downwards from original statistics given about one month ago concerning the new teachers' salary agreement for 1961-62.

Instead of an estimated one million dollars for teachers' salaries, the new figure arrived at is $967,252 — and this includes what the education committee calls "additional costs" for stenographers, teachers' travel allowances, substitute teachers, and overload bonuses.

Subtracting these "additional costs" leaves a net balance of $949,000 for teachers' salaries and supervision of principals. The average salary for 173 teachers in the county (bandmaster Jack Bargran is not included in these figures) is therefore $5,490.71, and not $5,751 as previously estimated by the committee.

Automatic increments for the extra year that teachers have taught in the classroom account for $15,000 of the increases in salaries over the previous year, while raises in the new salary grid account for another $12,800.

Mrs. M. Willie, Former Lacombe Resident, Dies

A resident of the Lacombe district for 20 years prior to 1941, Mrs. Margaret Willie of Red Deer passed away at the Red Deer hospital on Friday, December 29, 1961, at the age of 78.

Funeral rites were held from the Eventide chapel in Red Deer on Tuesday.

Her husband, the late William Willie, predeceased her in 1956. She is survived by four sons, Albert of Calgary, George and Gordon of Lacombe, and Philip of Red Deer; two daughters, Mrs. M. (Teresa) Twidt of Calgary, and Mrs. Harold (Emily) Sudlow of Saskatoon; and four grandchildren.

Thought For the Week...

Have character . . . don't be one.

and is expected to get first reading at the council meeting next Monday.

Lacombe's present early-closing by-law came in for considerable discussion as the council held its last meeting of 1961 at the council chambers on Wednesday evening of last week.

Pre-satisfaction of several merchants at the pre-Christmas store hours was discussed, and it was agreed that summonses should be issued against those merchants who remained open on the Friday evening before Christmas.

"At that time", Mayor R. A. Gordon summed up the general discussion when he pointed out that the council had originally agreed to a board of trade request for Thursday evening shopping hours during the last two weeks of November and the first three weeks of December.

"At that time", Mayor Gordon recalled, "we told the delegation that, providing no complaints were laid, council would take no action against stores which stayed open for night shopping.

"But on Friday, December 22, several stores decided to stay open and all council members received complaints from stores which had not been contacted, and did not agree to the extra opening hours."

This brought up the question of whether or not to prosecute, and by a vote of six to one, council agreed that the store owners who remained open should be prosecuted under the terms of the by-law.

"If the by-law is to be ignored," councillor Boyce commented, "let's throw it out completely. Let's bring this out into the open and see what the merchants do want."

(Summonses have already been issued to the following stores on a charge of contravening the town's early closing by-law on Friday, December 22: Ross and Susan Hardware, Leal's Department Store, Johnstons 5c to $1.00 Store, Morrison & Johnston Hardware, Seley Hardware and Furniture, Wagner's Tom-Boy Store, Jack's Men's Wear, J & P Food Store).

Maximum fine under the by-law for a first offence is $5.00 and costs.

It was following this discussion that council decided to allow Thursday evening shopping in Lacombe the year 'round. "The merchants can remain closed if they wish," Mayor Gordon pointed out, "but in view of the many requests from retail merchants for an opportunity to compete on even terms with other centres as regards evening shopping, I feel we should prepare a new by-law."

New Garbage Bylaw Prepared

A new town garbage by-law intended to cope with the perennial garbage problem was given three readings and passed as the town council held its regular meeting on Wednesday evening of last week.

Councillor Nels Miller, chairman of the sanitation committee stated that his committee members had held numerous meetings and studied the garbage by-laws of many other towns before making the final draft of regulations for Lacombe.

Basically the by-law permits the burning of garbage which is combustible, but makes it mandatory for paper to be burned to be placed in covered containers. Under the terms of the by-law, garbage refuse may be burned outside, but a permit (free of charge) must first be obtained from the town office.

Swimming Pool

Councillor Ivan Stonehecker reported that several estimates on the cost of the proposed swimming pool had been received. "These estimates range from $55,000 to $78,000," he reported, "but further study must be made to check the various equipment included in the various estimates" to committee.

Councillor Hunt, chairman of the general government committee, added an optimistic glow to the meeting when he reported that "it looks as though our finances are going to be in pretty good shape by the end of this year."

A resolution, passed at a recent meeting which called for a grant of $420 to Eventide Funeral Chapel to help subsidize ambulance service in this area, was rescinded by council when it was realized that the town council has no authority to make such a grant.

D. R. McCormick was appointed solicitor for the town of Lacombe for the year 1962.

Councillor N. J. Miller was appointed deputy mayor for the first three months of this year.

Council approved license for Mrs. Esther MacKinnon to operate a retail store to be known as the "Sewing Basket" in the premises currently occupied by Lacombe Electric.

Blackfalds Couple Win Derby Race At Local Hospital

Lacombe's new year's baby was delayed one day at the hospital this year.

Honour of having the first baby of 1962 born at the Lacombe municipal hospital belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ramsay of Blackfalds, who welcomed a fine baby boy at 4:00 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 2.

He weighed five pounds, 15 ounces, but had no comment to make to the editor on being informed he was Lacombe's new year baby. Special gifts will be presented by the ladies' hospital auxiliary, through donations from local businessmen.

Heavy Car Damage In Highway Crash

This 1961 Plymouth belonging to Mr. and Mrs. T. McRobert of Edmonton was almost totally demolished in one of three Christmas holiday accidents on No. 2 highway just two miles south of Lacombe. The front grill was smashed, right door collapsed, and back end crumpled when the car was hit from both ends on an icy stretch of road. Five people were sent to Lacombe hospital with minor injuries in the four-car pileup. — Staff photo

Sneak Thief Steals Clive Christmas Lights

CLIVE — A boy was seen taking light bulbs from the large Christmas tree in town. This is too bad because so many have to be replaced every year, and the effort to brighten the Christmas season outdoors is very discouraging. Two men braved bitter cold weather to put up the tree this year.

Miss Gail Reynolds has returned to Edmonton after spending the Christmas holiday week end with her parents.

The weather man changed his mind and dished up mild weather for Christmas day and Boxing day. Just when we were so glad to welcome moderating weather for holiday travel! However, the world looked beautiful with white frosted trees.

Donald Omar and his sister, Letitia of Edmonton, spent the Christmas holiday in Clive with Mr. and Mrs. A. Omar.

R. L. Reynolds, who has been hospitalized since several weeks before Christmas, was able to return home Wednesday of last week.

Report on Marissa and Hugh Hudhion, brothers of Clive who are hospitalized with heart conditions, is that it will still be some time before they can go back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan McLeod (nee Marilyn Hilsabeck) were Clive visitors during the holiday week from Edmonton.

Omar Chiswell from the senior citizens' home in Lacombe was a Clive visitor during the holiday week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McCormack spent the Christmas holiday in Calgary with their son and family.

Mrs. Cordelia Hilsabeck who teaches out of the district, was home for Christmas and had all her family around her on Christmas day. Also present during the day were Mr. and Mrs. J. Tees and family and Mrs. Tees' father, Mr. Christmas day saw 20 members of her family as her guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Alan McLeod of Edmonton. Alan was a former Clive young man who married Marilyn Hilsabeck.

Other members of the family were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hilsabeck and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hilsabeck and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hilsabeck, and Mr. and Mrs. Evart Brewer and family. It was a real family re-union.

The 'big' day is over, and new hockey and skating outfits are to be seen all around town. Now it's back to school and a whole year to wait for another Christmas. Even a year seems to pass so quickly that Mum and Dad still have to hurry when Christmas day rolls around again.

A former Clive resident, 90-year-old Mr. Cimmerman is one of the Riel rebellion, was seen on T-V Christmas morning, as he was interviewed and given gifts in the Col. Mewburn hospital at Edmonton by members of the Salvation Army.

Mrs. A. Omar has her brother from Calgary visiting her in Clive.

Mr. Hemm who went to Wetaskiwin to buy during the long Christmas week end reported that he ran into a rain shower on the Saturday which iced the highway and caused ice to form on the outside of the windshield. The year 1961

Quiet New Year Is Reported on "Home Front"

"It was a very quiet New Year's" reported Lacombe police chief Orest Bilhun when queried about festive activities on the town front.

Two minor traffic accidents occurred in the waning days of 1961, and two brazen thefts in local households are still unexplained.

The thefts both took place in the early hours of Wednesday morning, Dec. 27, at the residences of Jim West and Ed Johnston on 69 avenue. A sum of $30.00 was reported stolen from the latter's billfold while he slept, and $20.00 from Mr. Johnston's wallet.

One accident took place last Saturday at 2:00 p.m. when a 1956 Ford sedan, driven by Bert Bartlett of Clive collided with a 1954 sports coupe Studebaker, operated by Mrs. Ferguson of Lacombe. Damage to the first vehicle is estimated at $200, and to the other at $100.

The accident took place at the post office corner.

The other mishap on slippery streets occurred shortly after noon on Wednesday, and took place at the intersection of 52 street and 49 avenue.

Involved were John W. Munro of 882, Lacombe, in a 1958 Pontiac, and Mrs. Viola Buschmann of Blackfalds in a 1956 Meteor. Damage to the vehicles is estimated at 800 and $1,200 respectively.

Rev. and Mrs. Ken Campbell, who have recently been appointed to the Land of Brazil under Overseas Crusades. Their wide experience well qualifies them for the work they will be doing in the land of the "Awakening Giant".

Lyell served in the Navy as a radio operator, and upon discharge, attended Multnomah University in Greenville, South Carolina. After graduation in 1951, he pastored a church in Niagara Falls, Ontario, for 4 years.

In 1952, Rev. Smith travelled as an evangelist with Youth For Christ and after a very much time working among young people throughout Lyell and Youth For Christ in Oklahoma City after he and Eva were married in 1953.

Several years in the business world prior to his helped to qualify Rev. Smith for the work as Pastor of Grace Chapel. He is a registered nurse with several years' practice, also Both Lyell and Eva possess talented musically. Lyell is also a gifted vocal soloist, and Eva an able accompanist. With their two children, plan to begin their work in Brazil in 1962.

Fine Decorations at Alix Make Judging Difficult

ALIX — Representatives of the senior citizens' group were requested by the board of trade to judge Christmas lighting in the village. With secretary R. Martin as car driver, the group toured the village on Saturday evening, December 23, and commented favorably on the many attractive displays which gave them trouble picking winners.

Final awards went to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ball for the natural setting, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Patrick for the light display, and to Mr. and Mrs. Chuck McElveen for the Christmas theme. Congratulations, Folks!

They were all pretty, and certainly every effort adds to the Christmas cheer to all who travel the highway, go through the village, or reside in it. A vote of appreciation to all the decorators, and all who enjoyed the displays.

Scouts, Cubs and their leaders and their parents combined to provide all those who patronized their Christmas tree sale effort, and helped haul out and cut the trees.

Lemerton parishioners were glad to welcome Rev. R. Gillard back to the village for the Christmas services on Dec. 24. They were also glad to know that he is getting comfortably established in his new parish where he has visited almost half of the 200-odd attached families in the three weeks he has been there. He was wished a happy holiday which he planned to spend with his parents, at the home of his sister in Brandon, Manitoba.

St. Pancras WA members pleased the January meeting will be held on Jan. 16 at the home of Mrs. Velma (Chuch) McDonald. Kindly note change in date and correction in place of meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bradley and family, guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Marryat, availed themselves of the opportunity to have their second daughter, Katheryne Gale, baptized in the home parish of the wee girl's maternal grandparents.

Miss Geraldine Ditto of Calgary was a New Year visitor here.

Grandma Nielsen, accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nielsen and children, motored to Red Deer for the Christmas festivities.

Christmas season visitors at the home of Mrs. Roland and son, Mrs. H. Simmons, included Mr. and Mrs. Gus Simmons of Edmonton, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Simmons of Red Deer.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mann on the birth of a son in Lacombe hospital on Dec. 22.

Sincere sympathy of friends of former days is offered the sons and families of W. D. Clarke, who passed away in an Edmonton hospital on December 28, and was laid to rest in Lacombe on December 30. Pallbearers were Lloyd Clarke and three time residents.

Mr. Clarke was manager of the Bank of Montreal here, and later village secretary.

During the wet holiday, visits here in the district included Jackie Walper of the Canadian naval forces, who was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Frances Walper and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bradley and daughters of Lethbridge were guests of Mrs. Bradley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Marryat. Other guests at the P. Marryat home included Miss Dorothy Marryat of Lemerton, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Marryat and family of Wetaskiwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Throgen of Bashaw.

Don Kirk of the RCAF at Cold Lake was a guest at the Lloyd Kirk home over the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirk of Stettler were guests of the L. Kirk family at a New Years' dinner gathering.

Mrs. Isabel Rhodes and daughter, Miss Pauline Lofthouse of Stathmore spent a few days with Mrs. Rhodes' mother, Mrs. I. Anderson.

Mrs Mary Rouse was a guest at the Mackenzie home in Calgary during the holidays.

Randy Wearmouth is staying with the Lloyd Kirk family while his parents are preparing for a move to Calgary, where Mr. Wearmouth is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Parlby and sons motored to Strathmore to spend Christmas with Mrs. Parlby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Parlby of Red Deer were Christmas guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Parlby.

A number of the younger girls from the village enjoyed the skating lessons offered in Stettler.

Mr. Holesworth Sr. of Courtenay, B.C., was a Christmas season guest at the home of his sons, J. and E. Holesworth.

University students home for the holiday season include Miss Harriet and Lois Stone, Ralph Holesworth, Ken Shepherd and Charles Stone.

Aristocracy of silk worms in England, these particular specimens on a silk farm near London are given an extra large share of mulberry leaves. The tasty meal is encouraged to be as filling as "boring." They manufactured the silk cocoons which eventually made up a silk cot cover and pillow slips for princess Margaret's baby.

Blackfalds Pioneer, Bert Waghorn Dies

BLACKFALDS — Albert Waghorn, one of Blackfalds' earliest residents, died in Lodner, B.C., on Dec. 22 at the age of 81.

He was born in London, England, and around 1906 came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waghorn, to live in Blackfalds. Up until 1952, Blackfalds was called "Waghorn" for Bert's family.

Mr. Waghorn married Miss Stella Lawton, another early Blackfalds resident, and they had one daughter, Violet.

Mr. Waghorn is survived by his wife Stella, one daughter, Mrs. Violet Bowen, of Blackfalds, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Dec. 27.

Deep sympathy is extended to Mrs. Mary Capron and Mrs. Bob Reid on the death of Miss Hortense Capron.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Rutten and family from Calgary visited during the Christmas holiday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Acre, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dickie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Womacks and Wayne were New Year's guests of the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Hundreds Attend New Year Holiday Dances in Lacombe

New Year's dances were popular in Lacombe over the year-end holiday.

About 100 attended the private party held by the Kinsmen club in the IOOF hall, and everyone "had a ball" dancing to the music of Bob Fossaugh.

In the Legion hall, Legionnaires welcomed some 400 guests at an open house with Stanberg's orchestra in attendance.

At the Lacombe memorial centre about 600 teenagers danced until the early hours of Monday morning to the tunes of Dickie Dawson and his Nite-Riders from Bentley.

OBITUARIES

MATHESON — December 26th, Mrs. Elizabeth Matheson, 1442 4th St., N.E., Calgary, in the 88th year of her age. Funeral Wednesday, December 27th, at 2:30 p.m. from the Chapel of Gray and Roy Funeral Home, Calgary. Rev. Wynne Whitehouse officiating. Interment in Lacombe Cemetery. She came to Lacombe in 1903 and resided there for the most of 59 years. She married by Archdeacon Tims to Alexander Matheson, Lieutenant-Governor and Member of Parliament. Funeral arrangements were entrusted to Gray and Roy Funeral Home, Calgary.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Hal Gidney, Hal-ley, who passed away January 5, 1956.

Time may come, years may pass,
But memories will always last.
Time on his face only revealed
How much he did for us.
Had gave us strength to take it
And courage to face the truth.
But what it meant to lose him,
No one will ever know.
— Chester, Von and girls.

Rockets on Short End of 4-1 Score

Lacombe Rockets carried the majority of the play but still lost 4-1 to the Red Deer Rustlers in a new year's afternoon CAHL game played at Red Deer.

The Rockets fired a 5-0 deficit at the end of the first period, pulled to within 3-1 in early going in the second stanza, then saw Red Deer dent the twine twice before the end of the game.

"We just weren't buy a goal," one Rocket stated after the game. And he wasn't far wrong. Dale Gaume played an outstanding game between the pipes for the Rustlers, but it was lack of finish and ability to put the rubber into the net that cost the Rockets the win.

Lacombe's sole counter came when Jimmy Jones slapped home the puck on a relay from Leone Braithwaite and Vic Denike. Scoring for the Rustlers were Wayne Hanna, Ag Dershey, Monk Burton and Red Fonteyne.

Farmers' Bonspiel Underway Here Next Tuesday Morning

A large entry is expected for the Lacombe board of trade's farmers' bonspiel to be held at the Lacombe curling rink from January 9 to 13.

Entries in the 'spiel will be taken up to 15 noon next Monday, by either Slim Lepine (phone 3-3613 or 3-3600) or Alex Martin, curling rink president, at 3-3401 business hours.

Local business men are asked to form rinks for the bonspiel, but there must be a minimum of two farmers on each rink entered.

The entry fee includes a big supper to be held at the Lacombe memorial centre on Wednesday evening of next week. No games will be drawn that night to allow all competitors to take in this social get-together.

This is the first time the curling club and board of trade have merged their efforts for this event, and a record number of entries is expected for the big event.

22 Rinks Enter School 'Spiel Here

Outside rinks dominated the winners' circle as the Lacombe high school curling club held its annual 'spiel on Monday, Dec. 18.

The entered in the two-day competition which was organized by the local club members with the assistance of J. R. Brown.

Mrs. Rhinds of Penhold eased out the Bill Stewart rink of Lacombe in the finals of the first event.

Curling with Stewart were George Batten, Raymond Reiter and Ken Hamilton. Oil Kings in a game which should provide a lot of excitement. The Rockets have had difficulty with the Edmonton city juniors each time out this year, but tonight have special plans to pick up another two points in the league standings.

Next Tuesday evening, the Red Deer Rustlers will be guests at Lacombe. The Red Deer crew currently lead the top of the league with the Rockets, have won the last two holiday afternoon meetings between the two teams. Faced with this game which is actually a "four-pointer" the Rockets will be going all out for a win.

Game time for both games is 8:30.

Between these two home games, the Rockets travel to Drumheller for a Saturday evening tussle with the on-again, off-again Miners.

Rockets Play Here Tonight, Next Tuesday

Lacombe Rockets, tied atop the CAHL, play three games within the next week.

Tonight, at the stadium here, the locals take on the pesky Edmonton Oil Kings in a game which should provide a lot of excitement. The Rockets have had difficulty with the Edmonton city juniors each time out this year, but tonight have special plans to pick up another two points in the league standings.

Three New Members Accepted into Club By Lacombe Kinsmen

Three new members were welcomed into the Kinsmen club of Lacombe at impressive installation ceremonies conducted at the regular meeting last Friday night in the L.M.C. by Henry Friesen.

Membership in the club climbed to 42 with the addition of Arthur Behur, Bundy Campbell and Bruce McIvor.

Presentation of baby spoons was made by Dr. Doug McFetridge to a number of "proud Kinsmen fathers" during the past year. Bob Thurber, Bill Hutchinson, Bob Duke, Bill Selley and Don Vickerson.

Kinsmen note curling playdowns will be held at Lacombe on January 21, and arrangements to send two rinks to represent Lacombe were left with Harold Johnston.

Alumni Hoop Players Beat H. S. Teams

George Stothart and brother Peter led high school alumni basketball players to a resounding 63-31 win over the present high school "A" team playing in a holiday exhibition bout.

George Stothart scored 30 points for the alumni while Peter, a member of the university Golden Bears team, tallied 20 points to lead the "old grads" to victory.

Ron Lembicz, Royce Henderson and Tom Sherritt, other members of the winning team, scored 15 points between them.

For the LHS squad, it was Mike Reitsma with 15 points. Bruce McFadden with eight. Gerry Perrin with six and Dave Cruickshank with two.

The game was arranged by school athletic director Jim Lievers.

In a game against the high school "B" team, another alumni team won by a score of 31 to 16. Bruce Henderson was top scorer with 13 points for the winners, while Bill Rodger and Tom Kiesil tallied eight and six points respectively.

Brian Johnson led the "B" team's scoring with six points, while Dennis Stonehocker and Rod Smith scored five apiece.

Rural Fire Protection ?

PROBLEM of fire protection in any rural area is aggravated by the distances involved. The new dominion census shows the county of Lacombe population at 6,000, occupying more than 2,000 farm homes. To provide fire protection for this number of units is not a difficult problem in city centres, but spread over miles of country-side the job becomes vastly more complicated.

The time element in a fire is important, sometimes measured in a few short minutes or even seconds. The time lag between the moment a fire is discovered and controlled can mean the difference between no fire loss and total destruction. Yet, because of travelling time on narrow dirt or gravelled rural roads, fire fighting units are inevitably delayed in reaching the scene of a fire.

At the present time, the county of Lacombe has no facilities in either fire protection to rural residents. "Bucket brigades" using the farm well have been formed willingly by neighbors and often serve a useful purpose. A farmer may, if he wishes, request fire equipment from the town of Lacombe or some other nearby village. There are obvious disadvantages to this system: it leaves the centre temporarily without fire defence, and the lack of water pressure on the farm renders all but the "self pumper" type of fire truck virtually useless.

County of Lacombe has been studying rural fire protection for many months, and at the January meeting will be hearing a report from provincial fire commissioner A. E. Bridges on what is being done in some other parts of Alberta. Councillors must come to grips with financial realities: is the investment in fire equipment going to offer sufficient protection to warrant the expenditure? A county fire truck located at Alix for example, wouldn't offer safety to farmers at Bentley, 40 miles away. The main problem, as we said, is one of distance.

Dominion Election In Fall

THE guessing game of whether the next general election will be held on the spring, summer, or fall of 1962 has continued right into the new year. We are pleased to announce that the conjecture can come to an end right here and now. The signs and portents clearly point to an autumn election, to wit:

The two protagonists are Conservative leader John Diefenbaker and Liberal leader Lester Pearson. Tommy Douglas notwithstanding. It is the prime minister's prerogative to set the election date, and he is bound to take into consideration all omens — bad and good. One doesn't have to be too superstitious for instance, to be convinced that good things are more likely to happen on or around one's birthday. Have you checked the birth dates of Mr. Diefenbaker and Mr. Pearson, lately? Mr. Diefenbaker's is September 18, and Mr. Pearson's is April 23.

It is therefore a lead-pipe cinch that the prime minister will call a spring election on supernatural grounds and call for a fall election with cunning and confidence.

The Police And Public Relations

POLICE chief Anthony of Edmonton has deplored the low public esteem to which the police force has descended in recent years. He won't talking about the "bomb and dagger" depicted in television shows, where the policeman bumbles along trying to solve a case while the smooth private operator turns up all the clues and hands over the guilty party at the last minute climax of the 30-minute program. In true life, we know that the police are intelligent and capable of finding "their man" in the old tradition.

What the police chief was getting at was the poor public relations of police forces across the country, and the consequent poor public imagine of policemen generally. We read about a recent case where two or three policemen in trying to break up a fight between two gangs of boys were themselves attacked and beaten up, while a group of adult civilians stood by and cheered on the results. It is the duty of citizens to help maintain law and order, not to condone and even encourage lawlessness. The police require assistance from the rank and file in fulfill their duties, and this cooperation demands public respect and good will. Since relations between the police and the public have sunk to a new low, it follows that the understanding and assistance which it is no necessary is lacking.

Many car drivers, for example, are law breakers. They exceed the speed limit on the highway, keeping an eye on the rear-view mirror for the hogeyman in blue. If they are caught, they vent their wrath on the policeman who is only doing his duty in the public interest. The police don't make the laws. They only enforce them.

But it's the cop who's to blame, and he's cursed and condemned. This attitude on the part of the public isn't fair, but it doesn't help build up a pleasant public image of the police force. Thus, instead of assisting policemen in maintaining law and order, the average law-biter has adopted a neutral attitude of trying to beat them.

Is there a solution to the problem of improving public relations? Most citizens, deep down, are law-abiding and willing to help the police if they are educated in the role they can play. Police forces across Canada would find that a general publicity campaign would be profitable if it embodied information about the difficult tasks confronting them and some of the good work accomplished. They shouldn't be shy in citing real-life cases. The biggest part of the job of keeping a good public image is for the police to get credit for their achievements on behalf of the public they serve.

Reflections of the Times

What Is Freedom

Old words become important in these days of peril for all free men. They become beacons to lead us through the terrors of a threatened Armageddon — a third world-wide war.

Plain words — justice, freedom and truth — all of them hard to define and none used in the western world as frequently as freedom.

What then for the average individual is freedom?

It is in a schoolhouse where children learn of such things as justice, honor and truth, and how nations have been wrecked by the actions of evil despots and false gods.

It is a farmer standing in the quietude of the evening looking over his growing crops.

It is a man closing his store after a day of honorable service to his community.

It is the violence of political arguments; it is the righteous anger of the pulpits.

It is the warm laughter of a girl through the dusk.

It is the howdys in the world and all the hellos.

It is the right to live your life and, if you so desire, to change your job.

It is the privilege of freedom to travel to other countries and talk freely with other peoples.

It is the sig you fill your lungs with and the earth you dig in your garden.

It is the absence of apprehension when a knock comes to your door in the night.

It is the sunrise on the prairies and blue of the night.

It is the sea breaking on wide sands somewhere and the shoulders of a great mountain supporting the sky alone.

It is peace and progress and the hope to leave a better world for the people who will come after.

It is all the right and noble things you do and want to keep on doing.

It is all the things you feel and cannot help feeling.

RURAL FIRE-FIGHTING

A public meeting of considerable interest is to be held at the Legion hall when the matter of the establishment of a rural fire brigade will be discussed.

Fire commissioner A. E. Bridges, of the province of Alberta will be present to offer expert advice on the matter and lead off the discussions. Rural fire fighting units have been established in many parts of Alberta, and with the great improvement in roads and communications that has gone on during the past few years it appears that this is an appropriate time for farmers in this area to give careful consideration to the possibility of setting up a unit here.

Discussions will centre around two main phases of the topic: (a) rural fire brigades and (b) rural fire protection equipment.

TO ERECT SIGNALS

City council Monday night made application for grants to cover a portion of the cost of installing and maintaining two sets of warning signals at railway crossings on 49th Avenue and 47th Avenue.

The lights would be installed at a cost not to exceed $10,000 each and maintenance costs would be about $600 per year. Up to 50 per cent of installation costs and 50 per cent of maintenance costs may be paid by the board of transport commissioners.

MUSEUM POPULAR

1961 has been a record year for attendance at the Drumheller museum. Although there is still two months figure which have yet to be included in the final total. Attendance this year from January 1 to October 31, was 38,721, which is well above the 12-month total of 1960 of 18,664. As November and December 1961 attendance still has to be added to the first ten months of 1961, the total increase for the year 1961 over 1960 will be in the neighborhood of 8,000.

The largest attendance, of course, was in July and August, of this year, when 17,966 registered.

Hog Deficiency Payments

Canadian hog producers will have one of their best years in 1962 in regard to any deficiency payments that might become necessary for hogs sold in the coming year.

The agricultural stabilization board has decided to adopt a new and simpler method of procedure — but it will require farmers to retain all their grading certificates for at least 12 months.

If it should become necessary to make deficiency payments on hogs marketed in 1962, producers will be asked to claim for payment.

The application for payments would be accompanied by a copy of the hog carcass grading certificate. Farmers are therefore urged to keep all 1962 grading certificates issued to them by slaughtering establishments and to keep them until the end of 1962 in case they are needed for deficiency payments. Of course, anyone can buy premium warrants should be detached from the hog grading certificate and cashed by producers.

Producers would be well advised to market all hogs throughout the year under the name appearing on their hog registration certificate.

Those who have not yet registered as hog producers should apply to the data processing service, Canada department of agriculture, Ottawa.

There were no deficiency payments made on hogs in 1961 and it would appear that none will be necessary in 1961 as the cumulative national average price received for hogs is about $37.50 per cwt. well above the national support price level of $22.65 per cwt.

Again I would like to stress that it would be in your interest as a producer to be cautioned of the necessity of keeping your hog grading certificates on file.

Rainyard Your Milk Supply

Because of the increased use of agricultural chemicals, the Canada department of agriculture together with the dairy farmers of Canada and the national dairy council have issued the following recommendations in an effort to guard your milk supply from chemical residues. These recommendations are based on the fact that the food and drugs act prohibits pesticide residues in any amount in milk and milk products.

1. Use only recommended pesticides on animals and buildings. Be 100 percent certain that the label on the commercial product you buy specifies that it may be used on dairy cattle or in the dairy barn or milk house.

2. Do not allow dairy animals to come or feed on plants, forage, or ensilage that have been treated with aldrin, chlordane, DDT, dieldrin, endrin, heptachlor, lindane, or toxaphene.

3. Cannery and other agricultural waste products should not be fed to dairy animals unless the supplier can assure feeders from residues in the animals that will show up in the milk.

Barn sprays — such as malathion or diazinon, ronnel, or malathion. Where residual insecticides are not providing adequate control, these formulations are available. Be sure labels for baits specify use in dairy animals. Do not use DDT, BHC, lindane, chlordane, aldrin, dieldrin, toxaphene, heptachlor, or other related compounds.

Cattle sprays — Use pyrethrins mixed with piperonyl butoxide or MGK264. Some sprays also contain rotenone. These are suitable for use on dairy cattle. Be sure that labels specify use on dairy animals. Do not use DDT, BHC, lindane, chlordane, aldrin, dieldrin, toxaphene, heptachlor, or other related compounds.

Milk houses — Outside, spray walls with "residual" insecticide spray walls and ceiling, if needed, with only recommended "cattle sprays". Avoid contamination of utensils, cans, bulk tanks, etc., when spraying milk houses or barn sprays inside milk houses.

Horn flies — Use pyrethrins mixed with piperonyl butoxide or MGK 264, Lethane, or Thanite as sprays. Sprinkle the back and neck of the animals every three weeks with methoxychlor wettable powder, recommended with malathion dust. Do not dust with malathion within five hours before milking.

Forage — Pasture and crops used for forage and roughage feeds are frequently treated with pesticides. Extreme caution should be exercised and label directions followed exactly when using these compounds. Pay particular attention to the time sprays are applied and consult your local agricultural authorities as pest control practices vary in different sections of the country. Pasture and forage growing near other crops such as orchards and canning crops that require frequent treatment are particularly susceptible to contamination by spray drift.

The World of Trees . . . .

We were last at The Grand Canyon just back of the Mogollon rim. We will now drop five more thousand feet on a twenty road to the Great Basin at about one thousand feet altitude.

This is part of the great American desert and from the bottom of the rim south takes in all of North Western Mexico and from Western Texas to Yuma, and in Mexico and on the road down to San Diego. Live oaks dot the landscape, also the tumbleweed is blown against the fences as in south Alberta over two thousand miles north.

Since a special kind of trees grow on the desert it is worth our study.

Before the Sierra was thrown up, stopping the moisture laden winds from the ocean, large trees grew. This was over a million years ago and in that great length of time the vegetation of the desert has adapted itself to its arid conditions.

Phoenix has ten inches of rain but desert rains come in cloudbursts and quickly dry up, and spells of two hundred degrees for weeks are recorded. Our own seventeen inches of rain does last year) would not last long there. Our five months' winter, when there is no evaporation, is the only thing that insures our crop.

This desert has an elevation from one to about two thousand feet, and is by no means level. The Santa Catalina mountains near Tucson rise over nine thousand feet. As Tucson is over two thousand feet they rise nearly seven thousand feet abruptly from the desert floor.

Owing to the last ice age with its glaciers not coming much south of Montana, this country is not rounded off by the glaciers, and mountains raise abruptly, and often huge rocks stand up straight from the desert giving the desert a wierd appearance.

Having explained the lay of the land, I will tell of the trees and some of the plants that grow in this weird but interesting territory next week.

Make Mealtime a Happy Time

"The true essentials of a feast are only fun and food"

— Holmes

Recipe for a Good Menu

Part 1 — follow Canada's food rules

Part 2 — additional quantities of items and other foods to satisfy appetites and activity needs.

Select ingredients suitable for the season and which will give you the greatest value for the least cost. Combine them into three appetizing meals, adding a dash of "Vitamin Z" (for zest) to each. Prepare to save every possible bit of that precious food value. Serve the meals regularly with laughter and pleasant conversation.

Variety is the Spice

Our food will look and taste better if we plan variety in the following

Texture — some foods crisp, some soft, some hard, some chewy.

Color — there is surprising what a dash of color will do to us when we sit down to a table. If blue and uncommon, there are many ways of adding color appeal: golden carrot strips or a red tomato on our dinner plate, bits of cheery or fruit put on a cookie or dessert. It is fun to experiment with color — using different color contrasts, but we should beware of clashing colors! (For example: carrots, beets and tomatoes clash in color).

Shape — if the potatoes are mashed, let's serve the turnips diced. Notice how much more attractive carrots are when if the carrots are cut in strips instead of diced. Incidentally more food values are saved too.

Flavor — combine contrasting flavors: a sweet with a sour, a bland with a sharp taste. That is why a pickle goes so well with a meatloaf.

Temperature — something hot and something cold (but not on the same plate!).

"Vitamin Z" — for zest. Variety and eye appeal are what give us that this vitamin which often makes the difference between "let's get this over with" and "what a good meal."

Make it a Really Happy New Year with a New Rambler for '62

This could be your year!

Got something in mind you've always wanted? . . . something that would add greatly to your anticipation of the year ahead? A new car, perhaps . . . a hi-fi . . . or an up-to-date TV . . . or even a cottage in the country?

There's no need to let an after-holiday, empty-pocket feeling interfere with the way a shiny New Year could look to you as it gets underway. 1962 could be the year for getting things you want for you and yours.

A TELEPHONE POLE NEVER HITS A CAR EXCEPT IN SELF DEFENCE!

Carry this thought further. A car motor never lets its owner down, unless the motor needs repair. Take crankshafts, for instance. A motor can't run without a good crankshaft, and new crankshafts are expensive. That's why so many come to us with their old crankshafts. We re-grind them, fix and polish them up and they work "like new" . . . at a big saving, too! Come in and let us show you what we can do.

Two-Hour Christmas Program At Bentley Elementary School

BENTLEY. — Bentley elementary school presented a very entertaining Christmas concert in the school gym with each room presenting an item. This made up a program of about two hours which the parents, grandparents and friends of the pupils enjoyed very much.

The Explorer girls held a Christmas party at the home of their leader, Mrs. O. Seward, and invited their mothers, and Mrs. H. Dickau and Mrs. Layden from the WMS. The girls entertained with a play with puppets. They had made to suit out the activity scene. Each of the guests received a copper picture which the girls had made, and the group exchanged Christmas gifts. A lovely Christmas lunch was served by the girls.

The first meeting of the new year of the ladies' hospital auxiliary will be held Jan. 8 at 8:00 p.m. in the hospital rooms.

To begin the season's curling, a mixed bonspiel was held during the holiday week with a large number of members participating in the first curling of the season at Bentley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hergott spent Christmas holidays in Edmonton with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hergott and family, and the New Year's holiday in Calgary with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dunn and boys spent Christmas with relatives in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jabelka and children spent the Christmas holiday with Mrs. Annie Jabelka.

Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Seward extend a cordial invitation to be present at the annual open house to be held in the manse in Bentley on Sunday afternoon, January 7, from 2:30 to 5:00.

Church Women Re-organize

A general meeting of the United church women will be held in the Christian education building Friday evening, January 12, at 8:00 p.m.

There will be presentation of the new group. A model meeting will be described, and the budget discussed. Officers for the new group will be elected, and a division of the membership into proposed units will be presented (names may be changed from one unit to another if desired).

The inaugural meeting will be on Sunday evening at the regular church service, January 14, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Drader and family of Powell River, B.C., were holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ingram and Mr. and Mrs. W. Jaffray and other relatives.

Two Readings Given By By-Law On Store Hours

A by-law authorizing Thursday night store opening throughout the year to 10:30 o'clock was given first and second reading by town council at its meeting Monday night.

Councillor Wes Jackson raised the issue of relaxing the early-closing 6:00 p.m. regulation during the month of December "when merchants do so much of their business leading up to Christmas."

Mayor R. A. Gordon said council would be glad to do what the merchants want, but allowing late-night opening all through December was hardly what the public seemed to want, as complaints to the mayor and to board of trade shopping survey.

It was agreed that if the board of trade comprehend council with an accredited delegation and a firm policy favored by a large majority of merchants, council would consider further alterations to the by-law before third reading (on January 22).

Council Studies Pool Plans

A special meeting of town council has been called for next Monday night to determine estimates on the proposed new swimming pool, its location in town, and other pertinent data. A representative from Western Swim Pools Ltd. of Camrose will be invited to tender a firm bids for a "T" shaped swimming pool.

Members of the recreation committee headed by councillor Ivan Stonehocker estimate that the cost of the pool they have in mind will be about $84,000. Since the provincial government grant toward construction will be in the vicinity of $28,000, a debenture by-law in the amount of about $49,000 is expected to be put before ratepayers at an early plebiscite.

Prior to selecting the T-shaped pool as the best for Lacombe, a four-man delegation from council visited Ponoka, Wetaskiwin and Camrose to investigate the types of pools in operation at these centres.

A splendid five-page brief prepared by the recreation committee on swimming pools also gave consideration to possible locations in Lacombe including: the former ball park property, LMC, east side of 53 street (between Hopkins and Salsman residences), the northwest area of 56 street and Golf Lake highway, the new ball park, arena grounds, and Bruns property. Councillor Stonehocker said his personal choice was the arena site (southwest corner opposite the Swain residence) as best for accessibility to school, size, parking, landscaping, land use, appearance in setting, and least noise disturbances.

Quota Removed on Grain Deliveries To Lacombe Elevators

● An open quota on grain deliveries to Lacombe elevators has been announced by the Canadian Wheat Board, effective immediately.

This is the first time since 1953 that there has not been a grain delivery quota based on a certain maximum number of bushels per seeded acre.

All three elevators in Lacombe have space available for grain.

Juvenile Problem on Wane, Police Chief Reports

Annual police report presented by chief Orest Belkur to town council Monday night revealed a big improvement in the juvenile problem. "The juvenile picture is much, much better" said the police chief.

The full and comprehensive report showed that property damage from local motor vehicle accidents totalled $7,106, compared to $7,070 in 1960. There was an increase in number of motor accidents during 1961 to 36, from 25 the previous year.

Total revenue due to the town was $13,345, compared with $12,124 in 1960.

Councillor Wes Jackson commented that the purpose of the police force is to reduce lawlessness, and he praised the local police department for its good work.

Two Firemen Resign From Local Brigade

Ross Ferguson and Wes Jackson resigned from the Lacombe volunteer fire brigade, at the annual meeting held on Monday night, and their resignations were accepted with "deep regret."

Mr. Ferguson as deputy chief had been a member of the fire department for 14 years, and Mr. Jackson for 19 years, and secretary Gordon Rusk stated "we hate to lose them."

They were replaced by Harvey Whittaker and Jack McConnell.

It was noted that 47 fire calls were answered during 1961, 10 of them in the country. Of the 47 town calls, six were false alarms. None of the fires was serious, but damage losses had not been totalled at the time of the meeting.

Colin Dalzell was re-elected chief, Irvin Todd deputy chief, and Gordon Rusk secretary for his tenth year. Other appointments were:

First assistant chief, Elmer Lelacheur; captain, Frank Chaulker; captain of the hose, Bev Jones; assistant captain of the hose, Bob Hunt; chief engineer, Harold Olsen; assistant chief engineer, Marv Leiske.

Annual ladies' night was held last Friday at the Lacombe Hotel with all members and wives present. Chief Dalzell was in the chair.

Liberal Candidate Present at Lacombe Constituency Meeting

An enthusiastic Liberal meeting was held at the Legion hall Wednesday evening of last week when around 35 turned out to nominate representatives to the Liberal provincial nominating convention at Calgary later this week.

Speaking at the meeting were Earl Hastings, president of the provincial Liberal association, and D. B. Hunter, candidate for the leadership of the Alberta Liberal party.

Lacombe constituency Liberals will be well represented at the meeting in Calgary which starts today.

50 Avenue Improvements Goal of Public Works Committee Here

Underground cables for existing overhead telephone lines and the removal of power lines from the front street to the back lane is visualized on 50 (Barnett) avenue by councillor Wes Jackson to improve the appearance of No. 12 highway through town.

Councillor Jackson is hoping to have a meeting on January 22 to discuss these matters and a curb- and-gutter and new road paving program with engineering planning commission officials, and local phone and power managers.

Local Civil Defence Unit Taking Shape Through District

Villages of Clive and Mirror indicated an interest in joining the Lacombe and district civil defence unit, at a civil defence organization meeting at the Legion hall on Wednesday of last week.

Representatives from these two villages were present, as well as officials from the county of Lacombe and town of Lacombe. Messrs. Stewart and McNally from civil defence headquarters, and Messrs. Bridges and A. E. Bridges from the fire commissioners office.

(Town of Lacombe passed a resolution at its meeting inviting all villages in the county to join the local civil defence unit).

Question of cost to various villages was thoroughly discussed. This would be quite small as it was pointed out that participating groups had to contribute only 12½% of the total budget, usually five protection under emergency shared on a per capita basis.

Total cost to the town of Lacombe and the county for last year's operation was only $650 out of a budget of $3,000.

The central committee and civil defence representatives agreed they would meet with various villages councils to discuss the whole question of emergency measures to be taken in the area, and a tentative date of January 31 set.

Chairman Arthur Wizmore called on Mr. Bridges and Mr. Shuttleworth to discuss the matter of ficials.

Mr. Bridges pointed out that two pumpers had been stationed in this area, one at Lacombe and one at Bentley. This equipment is said to be used for training additional crews and to assist in fire protection.

Local civil defence co-ordinator M. O. Matheson was asked to prepare his budget for 1962 and work out costs to the various villages in order that a complete financial picture could be given to local of-

Tax Income Exceeds Levy At Year End

Tax collections by the deadline date at the end of the year exceeded expectations, reported town secretary Frank Lacey at Monday night's council meeting.

Of a total 1961 tax levy of $236,400, a total of $232,986 was paid by ratepayers, or 96.6% of the current levy. Since the expiry date, an additional $2,000 to $3,000 has been paid.

During the past year, a total of $20,977 in tax arrears was also received out of about $32,000 outstanding. Thus total tax receipts for the year actually exceeded $250,000 by nearly $5,000.

Business taxes also "came in much better than anticipated," said secretary Lacey. A sum of $14,400 was collected out of a levy of $19,388, or 85.4%. In addition, $740 in arrears was collected.

Gull Lake Oil Well "Spudded in" This Week

Drilling of the first "deep test" oil well in the Lacombe area since 1957 was expected to get underway this week on the farm property of O. P. Wedlund, seven miles west and 16 miles north of Lacombe.

Canadian Export Gas and Oil Ltd. (a Canadian independent) and Clark Oil and Refining Corporation with head office in Milwaukee have combined operations to "spud in" the well to be known as CEGO-Clark Gull Lake, located on the northwest quarter of 15-42-28 W4th.

The well will be a test of all possible zones, including the Devonian, down to the top of the Cooking Lake formation, approximate total depth 6,300 feet. It will take a maximum of 60 days to drill. Thirteen to 15 drilling men will be on the job, most of them living in trailers.

The nearest well to it is Calmont Standard Forbes, which is on the other side of Gull Lake.

Manager of Clark Oil is Bud McDonald of Calgary, a former Lacombe resident.

BY-LAW PREPARED

Town residents are urged to read a synopsis of the new by-laws appearing on page four of this issue. A permit is not necessary to burn garden refuse outdoors, as published in error in last week's Globe.

Frank Knight Head Bentley Plant Board

Permanent board of directors, elected at a general meeting of shareholders of the Bentley seed cleaning plant last month, gathered at the plant last Thursday to formulate several important policies.

It was noted that the Bentley seed cleaning plant has cleaned 31,000 bushels of grain to date since the opening last September. Additional help may be hired to handle the extra volume of work.

The plant will also provide shipment and handling of grain for germination testing and grading, although the cost of the testing will still be borne by the farmer.

Grain containing tartarian buckwheat will not be accepted for cleaning at the plant, because it is a prohibitive noxious weed seed insofar as the seeds act is concerned.

Frank W. Knight of Bentley was elected chairman of the board, and William Mickey of Rimbey vice-chairman. Other directors are Harold Peterson of Bentley, Morris Barnes of Blackfalds, Louis Gyori of Rimbey and Victor Johnson of Bentley.

Hans Moos of Eckville and Art Wigmore of Blackfalds are county representatives on the board, and Walter McNary is provincial government agricultural representative. Jim Sebastian of Lacombe continues as secretary.

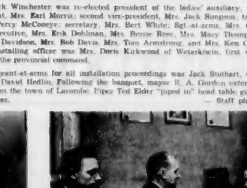
Legion Presentations to Outstanding Citizens

First President, Dr. F. D. Locke Heads List of Award Winners



Dr. F. Dean Locke (left) veteran retired physician of Lacombe has a good laugh with outgoing president Ron Moore, at last Thursday's annual installation and awards night of the Lacombe branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. More than 150 town and district residents were in attendance. Dr. Locke was conferred with a special certificate as charter president of the local branch of the Legion, in expressing his thanks. Dr. Locke compared the first Legion meeting in 1932 at the old Adolphi Hotel with the present splendid Legion hall.

Six other leaders of the community were honored by the Legion.

Lower left, second vice-president Harry Patrick presents certificates to Mrs. Jim Shaw and Mrs. B. H. Thackeray. He alluded to the outstanding work done in the past by Mrs. Shaw with the Girl Guides, and by Mrs. Thackeray with the Cubs.

Below centre: Vice-president Ron Ogilvie makes a presentation to Jack Barrigan and David Rodger. Mr. Barrigan for his tremendous job with minor and senior bands all through the district, and Mr. Rodger for his role as Scoutmaster.

Below right, D. A. (Cark) Calkins is signally honored for his work with minor sports and Martin Knutson for his work with the Cadets, by incoming president Don McCormick.

In accepting office at the installation ceremonies, Mr. McCormick commended the fine efforts of retiring president Ron Moore and the outgoing executive. Don Gleason of Wetaskiwin, district commissioner was in attendance to install the new officers: vice-president, Ron Ogilvie, second vice-president, Harry Patrick, secretary, Al Hushagen; treasurer, W. L. Ingraham; Sgt.-at-arms, Bob Armstrong; chaplain, Rev. Ken Collison; executive, Russ Bentley, Ralph Gainer, Reg Cartwright, Mike Kinchuk, Lew Hittle, John King, Len Thompson, Norman Olafson and Alec Plathan.

Mrs. Jack Winchester was re-elected president of the ladies' auxiliary, with vice-president, Mrs. Earl Morris; second vice-president, Mrs. Jack Simpson; treasurer, Mrs. Percy McCooeye; secretary, Mrs. Bert White; Sgt.-at-arms, Mrs. Cliff Lee, and executive, Mrs. Rick Dahlman, Mrs. Bessie Rose, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. Walter Davidson, Mrs. Bob Davis, Mrs. Tom Armstrong, and Mrs. Ken Cruyeon. The installing officer was Mrs. Doris Kirkwood of Wetaskiwin, first vice-president of the provincial command.

The sergeant-at-arms for all installation proceedings was Jack Stothart, with escort Mrs. David Hedlin. Following the banquet, marque B. A. Gordon extended greetings from the town of Lacombe. Pipes Ted Elder "piped in" head table guests to their places. — Staff photos.

Farmers' 'Spiel Finals Slated for Friday, 7 p.m.

Lacombe board of trade's annual farmers' bonspiel got underway Tuesday morning with 42 rinks in the running for the top prizes. The fact that the temperatures dropped to 30 below to level the bonspiel-opening dull title to dampen the enthusiasm of the curlers.

After a big smoker-banquet at the LMC last night, the boys got down to the business again today, with draws slated for 8:30 and 11:30 a.m., 2:30, 5:30 and 8:30 p.m.

Drawmaster Don McFadden told The Globe yesterday that all four final events are scheduled to start at 7:00 p.m. sharp on Friday.

Rockets at Home Saturday Night, Again Tuesday

- Lacombe Rockets play two home games during the week. Saturday night, they host the resurgent Drumheller Miners in a game scheduled to start at 9:30 sharp. Next Tuesday night, Lacombe's Rockets will be guests in an 8:30 fixture.

With the teams bunched in the league standings, all teams will be flat out to improve their chances of a playoff berth. At this stage of the pennant race, a top game can shift a team from top place to fourth place overnight.

Legion to Help Provide Kiddies With Equipment

Members of the Canadian Legion here have started a campaign to help provide skates and hockey equipment for children under 12 years of age who are unable to obtain such equipment themselves.

Any person in town or country who has unused children's skates or hockey equipment hanging around the house is invited to donate these to Mrs. N. J. Miller, local welfare officer. Mrs. Miller has agreed to see that each equipment is placed where it will do the most good.

Any such skates or equipment may be left at McTaggart-Weidner Motors, Bentley Barber Shop or the IGA Store here. If it is not convenient to deliver the equipment to one of these places, a phone call to 2-4185 will bring a pickup service.

Junior Hockey Squad Plays in Camrose Friday

Lacombe junior hockey squad enters the new year with high hopes of getting back into contention in the central Alberta junior "B" hockey loop. Bentley is currently leading the league with 17 points, followed by Camrose with 12, Red Deer Jrs. with 11, Ponoka and Lacombe tied with four apiece and the Red Deer Jr. "A" squad with 2.

Next game for the locals is scheduled for tomorrow night when they travel to take on the Camrose crew.

Entered in the bonspiel are the following rinks:

Bill Richardson, Ken Ditzler, Ollie Armstrong, Bill Davidson, all of Jaffer; Carl Gleim and Harold Wagner, Clive; Bob Fennell, Nu-Way Hotel, Blackfalds; C. H. Duffield, Sylvan Lake; Harry Hansen, Bentley; Ray Hamble, Rosalie.

Orie Young, Tees, Al Reed, Tees; Jim Bunnage, Alix and Imperial Oil Agency, Alix.

From Lacombe are Al Chiswell, Carl Volstad, H. Stewart, Phil Ackerman, Bill Magilton, Rodger's Home Furnishings, Jim Heath, Miller-Hopkins, Al Thrasman, George Clark, Slim Lemire, Henry Bailey, Lawrence Henderson, Jim Chalmers, W. Blundell.

CITY CURLERS HERE

A large number of local curlers entertained six visiting rinks from Red Deer and Ponoka last Saturday afternoon in a pleasant afternoon-evening social and-dance affair. Scheduled as one-day meeting was organized by local club executive members.

Local Rinks to Play in Provincial Curling Preliminaries

Shorty Todd of Lacombe will lead his curling rink of Legionnaires to Bentley Sunday to take part in the first round of the provincial curling competitions.

Meanwhile, three rinks from Lacombe will fight it out in a double round-robin this week end to see who represents Lacombe in the district Brier playdowns to be held at Rimbey on Saturday, Jan. 20. Skipping the rinks in this local competition will be Bill Magilton, Alex Martin and Tony Tharou.

Hawks Still Unbeaten In Flyweight Loop

Flyweight Hockey

Four teams have been organized in the flyweight division of the Lacombe minor hockey association. The Leafs are coached by Henry Friesen, the Hawks by Dave Malmberg, Rangers by Ed Johnson and the Canadians by Stu Church.

The Hawks have jumped into a big early season lead thanks primarily to the accurate shooting of Rocky Wyrauda. They have not lost a game so far, but have been tied twice recently indicating that the other teams are increasing in strength.

Team records to January 6 are as follows:

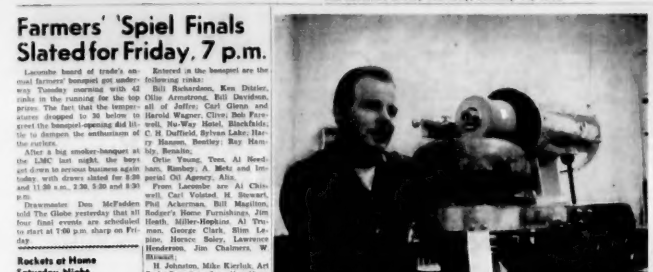
	P	W	T	L	Pts
Hawks	5	5	0	0	14
Leafs	5	3	1	1	7
Canadians	5	2	1	2	5
Rangers	5	0	1	4	1

Schedule to the end of January is as follows:

Jan. 11 - Canadians vs. Rangers.
Jan. 13 - Leafs vs. Hawks
Jan. 16 - Hawks vs. Canadians
Jan. 18 - Rangers vs. Leafs
Jan. 20 - Hawks vs. Rangers.
Jan. 23 - Canadians vs. Rangers
Jan. 25 - Leafs vs. Hawks
Jan. 27 - Hawks vs. Canadians
Rangers vs. Leafs
Jan. 30 - Hawks vs. Rangers.

Minor Hockey Week

Minor hockey week is to take place from January 20 to January 26 this year. Plans are underway for the annual event which sees all players from mites through midgets will have an opportunity to play in their ability. Flyweight players are cautioned about missing any games. There are several good players in the flyweight "pool" who will be moved up to 1 flyweight team to replace any player who shows a lack of interest.



Sharpen Rocks Before Bonspiel

Just in nice time before the farmers' bonspiel which opened on Tuesday, all rocks at the Lacombe curling rink were sharpened by Olson Curling Supplies of Edmonton. Above, Herb Olson is shown at the special sharpening machine last week putting the finishing touches on a Lacombe rock. Olson sharpens rocks an "identical run" on the ice sheets. Diameter of the "cup" under each rock was made exactly five inches, handles were re-threaded, etc. Herb has sharpened rocks for curlers in Vancouver, B.C., Edmonton and Calgary. He visited three curling clubs at Ottawa last summer on this job. Herb, incidentally, is a renowned curler himself. He represented Alberta at the Brier play-downs in 1958.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

	W	L	T	GF	GA	Pts
Lacombe	11	7	0	81	61	22
Olds	11	6	0	64	56	22

Last week's scores: Edmonton 3 at Lacombe 7; Edmonton 1 at Lacombe 7; Edmonton 1 at Lacombe 4 at Drumheller 7; Olds 4 at Edmonton 3; Red Deer 10 at Lacombe 4; Drumheller 1 at Ponoka 7.

Coming week's games: Tonight, Drumheller at Olds. Saturday, Red Deer at Ponoka, Drumheller at Edmonton, Lacombe at Olds; Tuesday, Olds at Red Deer; Ponoka at Lacombe.

McMillan Paces Rockets To 6-3 Win Tuesday

Lacombe Rockets clashed to the top of the CAHL standings Tuesday evening when they whipped the Red Deer Rustlers 6-3 at the local arena. The loss dumped Red Deer to fourth place in the tight pennant race.

The locals went ahead 3-2 in the first period, padded their lead to 5-3 in the second and scored the only counter of the final stanza.

Leigh MacMillan with three counters, George Townsend, Bill Masson and Johnny Young with one apiece counted for Lacombe.

The Rockets picked up the winning shot for 10 minutes of the second stanza as they picked up five of their seven minor penalties. Red Deer players were handed four in the same.

School Bantam Hockey Squad Still Undefeated

Lacombe school bantam squad has yet to lose a game to an outside team this winter.

To date, the classy hockey crew has dumped Bentley 7-3, walloped Olds 11-3 and each has scored Eckville by an 8-0 count. With both lots of scoring punch and a steady defence, the bantam could have one of the outstanding seasons of the year for any junior high school team.

Good luck in future, kids!

School Hoop Tournament Saturday

Twenty-seven teams will take part in a one-day high school basketball tournament to be held at the school gyms here on Saturday. The Central Alberta tournament will feature teams from Delburne, Innisfail, Red Deer composite and separate schools, Stettler, Ponoka, Lacombe, Bentley, Eckville, David Thompson, Rocky Mountain House and Rimbey.

Each centre will send both a boys' and girls' team to the one-day sports fiesta, and gyms at both the high school and the elementary school will be in use throughout the day.

In charge of the draws are Wayne Armistead and Mrs. Sally Henderson of the school teaching staff. First games start at nine in the morning.

CAHL in Dispute with CAHA

Lack of knowledge as to the disbursement of funds from intermediate "A" inter-provincial hockey finals last year, and concern at the financial licking taken by the Lacombe Rockets in those playoffs has prompted threatened withdrawal of the CAHL from future playdowns.

This decision was reached at a league meeting held at Lacombe Monday. Representing the Lacombe Rockets was Percy Thompson.

A note of the league's feelings was sent, following the meeting, to AAHA and CAHA officials.

League executive members also agreed to select an all-star team to play a senior hockey team from Saskatchewan or British Columbia in the Edmonton Gardens on March 14.

Tofoviand Game

A note of the "big-league" status of the CAHL was entered by Leo LeClerc from the Edmonton Oil Kings. All Sunday afternoon home games for the Oil Kings will be televised after January 14. When the Lacombe Rockets play at Edmonton on January 21, for instance, the game will be televised by Edmonton's channel 3 station.

A Sport Editorial

Rockets Paying Price of Success . . . .

This past week has been unofficially observed as "Help Save the Rockets" week among a number of hockey fans and supporters in Lacombe and district. The Rockets' executive, faced with disastrous box office support so far this season, is in deep financial difficulties.

The difficulties are pressing since many obligations must be met immediately. The problem could evaporate, quickly with more fan support at the stadium between now and the end of the season, and if the Rockets make the league playoffs (and they should) a good series playdown would go a long way toward clearing up all their indebtedness.

In the meantime, although a number of local businessmen and supporters have signed bank notes and cheques to provide the Rockets with sufficient temporary funds to keep operating, fan support will still be the final test as to whether or not the Rockets can continue operations in the years ahead. Which brings up several thoughts.

Why are the Rockets in their present plight? Lack of fan support to date, certainly. But contributing equally to the troubles was what it cost the club to win the western Canadian hockey crown last year. The CAHA took all gate receipts in the inter-provincial hockey finals held at Lacombe. The final payoff to the Rockets was only $280, not enough to pay for broken sticks. The AAHA will whittle a long time before they again get the chance to be visited by an inter-provincial final unless Lacombe first gets a firm guarantee of a decent expenses. This feeling is strongly supported by other teams of the CAHL.

For those who wonder aloud whether or not it is worthwhile hooping the Rockets alive, a couple of thoughts. Over the years, Lacombe's intermediate "A" hockey club brings this town more favourable publicity than any other single group. Over the past four years alone, the Town of Lacombe has received $14,491 in percentage of gates from Rockets' hockey games. In a rather paradoxical in note that last year, when the town received $5,362 in revenue from Rockets' home games, the hockey club went in the hole to the tune of some $3,000.

Anyway you look at it, it's a sad story. A hockey club in precarious financial position not because they were bad . . . but because they were good enough to win the championship of the province. If fans of town and district don't want to see this calibre of hockey, all they have to do is to continue staying away from home games. It's that simple.

Population Inches Up

LACOMBE has shown a very modest growth in population, according to the 1961 dominion census, from 3,747 in 1956 to 2,942. This increase is only about half that of the previous five-year period (3,373 to 3,747).

The community remains one of the most steady business towns "in the line". Part of the reason is due to the surprising level of the rural population, which underlays to the general trend by hoisting at 8,000 in this county. The consistency of business is also due in good measure to the initiative of local merchants.

That 3,000 population figure is elusive. Perhaps we should annex the 600-odd residents in our "suburbs" of Rosedale Valley and experimental farm. There would be more satisfaction in cracking the figure within our present town limits, however — something akin to breaking the four-minute mile barrier that stood up in the field of athletics for so long.

The Old Run-Around

THERE will be general disappointment over the sudden cancellation of the proposed public meeting which was being arranged by chambers of commerce in the area to discuss with provincial government officials ways and means of raising the water level at Gull Lake.

The reluctance of government authorities from the water resources branch to appear in public is all the more incomprehending because the suggestion of such a meeting originated from a government member, Hon. A. R. Patrick, local MLA. There is a broadening of communication between the various provincial governments' departments, it seems here.

Board of trade officers here went ahead with plans for a public forum discussion in January assuming that the provincial government was ready and willing to take an active part. Gull Lake is an important tourist attraction in central Alberta, drawing thousands of visitors during the summer season. The shrinking water line is the concern of all for the general welfare of the province.

Chambers of commerce executives at Bentley, Rimbey and Ponoka were eager to join Lacombe to make this meeting as rewarding as possible. The groups met on three separate occasions prior to Christmas so that no details in coordinating would be overlooked. Apparently all these efforts have been a waste of time.

It was a great disappointment to hear from F. L. Grindley, director of water resources, that his complete staff would not attend a panel discussion on public. His reason is even more bewildering: "I would not want to appear at a public meeting until we have secured much more field data than we have now."

Yet Mr. Patrick and other ministers have told us continually that surveys have been taken and all channels explored for diverting Blindman River waters, and that the scheme isn't feasible.

The departments ought to get together and at least give us the same storehouse of authority that they enter into on rail grade sales.

The department ought to get together and at least give us the same storehouse of authority that they enter into on rail grade sales.

Gas and Bath, Sir?

WE have heard of lots of different kinds of promotions aimed at getting businesses in lure more customers, but one of the most unusual is surely "the special" of a new gas station at Osaka, Japan, offering its customers a hot bath while their car is being serviced. The thought behind this unique idea is to relax drivers in this era of high-tension driving and thus reduce the accident toll.

A laudable purpose! But have the enterprising operators considered all the implications? Other service stations might be forced into giving the same extraordinary service to compete on an even ranging, as it were.

The driver of a big high-powered vehicle which eats up the gas could conveniently be in for two baths the same day on a 400-mile trip. On the other hand, the motorist in a sports coupe might not need to fill up the gas tank even after quite an exhausting day's drive. Yet he's the fellow who's been exposed to the elements and could conceivably need the bath most.

Oh, well, these are minor problems. Japan may soon gain world-wide recognition as the cleanest nation on earth.

Heartening Outlook

CANADIAN wheat surplus which has accumulated in recent years has become a profitable cushion after all. Over-production of wheat on the western prairies that had to be stored because it couldn't be sold created a drag on the economy, and was a worry to the farmers.

It is a conundrum that in a starving world so much wheat was lying unsold and unused, because of problems of distribution and payment.

As we enter 1962, it is nice to look back on a year of expanding wheat trade with new main customers. The most important was the large sale of wheat and barley to China, spread over a period of thirty months. This new market brought a tremendous lift to farmers. Other important sales of grain were made to Russia and Poland, and to France which is normally a wheat exporting country.

The benefits of these sales brought economic advantages to other Canadians. Hon. Alvin Hamilton, minister of agriculture, has estimated the China sale alone to be worth $42 million dollars in extra income to railway workers, and to longshoremen and terminal elevator workers at Vancouver.

Wheat producers are taking new heart in dominion government seems choosing their lane and shortening for some wheat production in 1962. That's something to look forward to after the 1961 drought.

Reflections of the Times

The St. Lawrence Seaway

Three years ago there was a great fanfare when Queen Elizabeth and President Eisenhower opened the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Ocean ships were able for the first time to penetrate the heart of North America, and Great Lakes ports were looking to a future of great growth.

The Seaway has just closed down its 135-mile series of locks after its third year of operation. It's a good time to take a look at how much has been accomplished.

It was originally predicted that in the first 3 years it would carry 27,000,000 tons or cargo. Actually 64,000,000 tons have passed through the $400,000,000 inland water-way in that time.

The estimate for this year had been 33,000,000 tons. The figure will probably be reckoned at about 29,500,000.

More important, the tolls collected in the first three seasons are far short of what had been projected as necessary to make the Seaway self-sustaining.

Revenue was less than $13,000,000 this year as against predictions of $17,000,000.

Upshot is that some demands for increased tolls are being heard, particularly in the United States where it originally took considerable pressure to get Congress to approve construction of the Seaway.

It's evident, then, that the Seaway hasn't quite lived up to expectations. But it must be remembered that there was a general recession in North America during its first two years of operation. And this year the demand for ores ore from Quebec fell off with American steel mills operating at less than 70 per cent of capacity.

Seaway enthusiasts insist that the waterway has a great future ahead and confidently predict that within seven years it will be earning enough tolls to pay for itself.

They contend that three years is not long enough time to provide a fair test of whether tolls are realistic.

Another argument is that higher tolls might tend to discourage new ships from entering the Seaway run. That in turn would further cut into revenue.

While the controversy over tolls promises to continue, it must be remembered that the Seaway's development is closely tied to the economy of this continent. The Seaway's success is a measure of the continent's success.

Annual report of the Lacombe fire department shows a total of 27 fire calls answered during 1960. Colin Dalziel is re-elected fire chief, Stan Ferguson deputy chief, and Gordon Rush secretary.

Ten Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jamieson of Alix are recipients of congratulations on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. They have made the name of their Redcoat farm famous, according to Canada permanently from the Old Country in 1922.

Thomas Wilkes is sworn in as police magistrate for the town of Lacombe, by secretary C. B. Hyndman.

Lacombe Generals snap out of five-game losing streak by ramming Bentley Imperials 14-6 in a CAHL fixture. Don Haworth leads the way with four goals, Red O'Shea three, and Fred Rush two, with singles going to Jerry Cowan, Cork Calkins, Al Chiswell, Art Park and Murray MacKenzie.

Bentley merchants change the half-day closing from Thursday to Wednesday afternoons, commencing in 1952.

Beatrice Pepper is elected worthy matron of the Alexander chapter, OES, with Glen Fenton worthy patron, Florence Patrick associate matron, Harry Doepel association patron, Zona Mey Lees secretary, and Gertrude Buggett treasurer.

Rev. Dr. E. H. Lee resigns as rector of St. Cyprian's Anglican church, after a period of 5½ years here. He will take over new duties in a parish near Victoria, B.C.

Stan Crooks is transferred from the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada to Three Hills. His position will be filled here by Dennis Lyseng.

Ray Regnier takes over as coach of the Lacombe hockey Generals, succeeding Jim Miles who resigns voluntarily.

TO SUE FOR OLD ACCOUNTS

City council Monday night decided to turn 39 delinquent accounts for city business license fees over to the solicitor. The accounts total well over the $7,000 mark and some of them are as much as three years in arrears.

It was pointed out that under the city act council have the authority to prohibit the operation of a business for non-payment of license fees.

NIGHT SHOPPING

Following a meeting of the retail section of Stettler board of trade Tuesday morning, the chairman, David Melvin, announced that here at Stettler will be asked to pass a by-law regulating shopping hours in Stettler. In the meantime, the retail section is asking stores to continue to remain open until 9:00 Friday nights.

Mr. Melvin said that about 25 merchants, representing all types of retail outlets of the town, attended the meeting and agreed to ask the council for a by-law which would set shopping hours. Stores would close at 6 p.m. Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 12 noon on Wednesdays and at 9 p.m. Fridays. These hours would be in effect throughout the year.

Several grocery stores in Stettler have been offering the public night shopping every night of the week.

RIMBEY BUILDING UP

Rimbey's building permits, approved by the Rimbey council in 1961, totalled $541,085.00 during that year.

Included in the total was a whopping $244,625 for home construction. $180,000 of the amount was for the recently-completed Rimbey high school, and the balance of $101,000 covered the construction of business buildings and a church.

Included in the business construction permits were a motel, a store building, an ice cream stand, a coin laundry and dry cleaning plant, an office addition, a dry cleaning plant, and a store building addition.

GREEN ACRES

By District Agriculturist Walter McNary

Many farmers are not aware of just what is the federal government's responsibility in the weighing of livestock which is marketed. With this in mind I would like to restate some information which recently was received from the livestock branch of the Alberta department of agriculture.

"The federal government does not supervise in any way the weighing of beef carcasses where animals are sold by rail grade. The scale is not required to be a "weight stamp type", nor is the operator required to be an approved "weigh master".

We are not suggesting that plant weights are incorrect on carcasses. We are suggesting that the average person tends to assume that these weights are under the same scrutiny and authority as other weights on grocery markets and plants, and that weights are stamped and not transposed from the weigh beam to a ticket by pencil.

Many people sell cattle by rail grade and current weight after carefully comparing the advantages and disadvantages. This is strictly a deal between the buyer and seller. Plants will bid on either basis and it is up to the seller to decide which is best for him. The federal grader will grade the carcasses and issue a certificate where he is satisfied that identification to the owner is accurate, but that is the only assurance of authority that they enter into on rail grade sales.

Regional Production School

It appears very probable that a rapeseed production school will be held in Bentley, early in February if things go ahead as planned.

At a meeting of the special crops committee of the county extension council held last fall it was brought to our attention that because of the success in growing rape this past year in the western portion of the county, it is very likely that there will be considerable interest in this crop next year. In view of this the committee felt that a school should be held in the district to acquaint farmers with the growing of this crop.

It is planned that a panel of speakers made up of an processing company, a successful grower and a representative of a rapeseed marketing agency be present.

Manure Boxes Available

At the present time we have three mature R.O.P. Yorkshire boars available for sale to anyone in the county of Lacombe. As these boars are mature and weigh around 500 lbs. they will probably have limited use only. However, they are very good boars and if anyone is interested in obtaining the use of one of them, please contact our office immediately. Phone 2-3872, Lacombe.

The World of Trees . . . .

So we are on the desert. I have driven hundreds of miles here, and except in one place near Yuma where the movie people get their Sahara pictures, there is a district with sand dunes as far as one can see.

The desert is sparsely covered with vegetation, very sparsley in places. There may be 10 or 20 feet between bushes. Few cattle range here, and almost no grass grows. On this low elevation desert sagebrush does not grow. It covers the state of Nevada. The desert there averages 4,500 feet high, and the sage grows from Salt Lake City to the Sierras (about 300 miles).

The sage is the state flower of Nevada. The bush of this lower desert, the Reseota or greasewood, is the commonest bush. It is a compact bush, evergreen and with yellow flowers in spring.

If there has been winter rain, there are flowers. Whole areas in April are covered with bladder pod, a yellow flower of the mustard family. Around Lake Mead, there are lovely evening primroses. These are annuals, and if it rains come into bloom, drop their seed, and die. It may not rain in their district next year at all.

But this is pre-eminently a cactus country, and the biggest growing plant is the Saguaro (sah-wah-ro) giant cactus. Mostly they are 18 or 20 feet high and can reach 50 feet and live two hundred years. The flower is the state flower of Arizona.

They have a shallow spreading root, like the spokes of cart wheel which quickly soaks up a rain shower and conveys it to the trunk which has the power to contract in dry spells and expand in the few wet times like an accordion.

When one of these has broken off on the ground it is seen that they are reinforced with hard wooden strips just as we would reinforce concrete; very necessary, as after rain the trunks will weigh tons. The Indians for centuries have used these hard strips to hold up their clay roofs and walls.

The flowers come in May and open at night and form a purple fruit which the Indians use raw, preserved or dry. The seeds are ground up for flour.

A number of very real trees grow here, but all have peculiar traits for survival in this arid land.

Letters to the Editor . . . .

Blackfalds, Alta.
Dec. 31, 1961

The Lacombe Globe,
Dear Sir:

We enjoy your paper and especially the "Green Acres" column by Mr. McNary. This is a farming district and we think the local paper should have a piece especially written for the farmer. We sincerely hope it will not be dropped.

We like the district news, but in our opinion there could be a little less of the local visitings and ten parties among neighbors.

Sincerely,
John Ball

Good Investment Service Is One of B of M's "21 Ways"

Many Canadians don't know that their local Bank of Montreal manager can help them increase their assets through the buying and selling of securities — that this is one of the "21 ways 2 Million Canadians use the B of M".

Through systematic saving, far-sighted people usually accumulate a reserve fund of cash, some of which could be put to profitable use through wise investment in various securities. Fred Pamenter, manager of the Lacombe B of M branch, is always ready to put his investment knowledge at your disposal. Whatever you choose to discuss with him will be handled in absolute confidence, of course, and when the time comes to buy or sell securities, the bank can look after all the details for you.

With the friendly help of your B of M manager you can increase your income by a wise investment program. Why not drop in at the Lacombe branch of the B of M when you are next passing the bank and have a chat with Mr. Pamenter.

The Homemaker . . .

Across Canada this month many large stores will be advertising their semi-annual "White Sales". Often there are genuine savings at these sales, but remember the lower grades may be offered on the package in the unfinished state.

Shopping Hints

1. Most sheets are packaged in plastic film. Ask to examine in counter sample if one is not made available to you be wary of the merchandise.

2. Read the package label printed on the film Check for thread count, finished size, color that runs to rinsing, and general shrinkage.

3. Hold sheet to light and examine for excessive slubs (uneven yarns), knots or similar defects Sheets are bulletproof of weak spots. Be especially careful of slubs in the centre of the sheet where the water is concentrated

4. Wrinkle a corner of sheet to see if there is a large amount of sizing This will fall out as a chalky powder It may be used excessively on cheaper sheets to cover the weave and give an impression of weight in the sheet.

5 Check the finishing details of hems; stitching, straight seams in the L. shaped corner that make the colors match in sheets and pillow cases.

6 Most good quality sheets have a seven-inch hem, one which is helpful if you have sheets of several sizes in your household.

7 When examining "White Sale" sheets, beware of low thread counts with a starchy feel, or sheets that are sold rather than normally sold and estimated pillow cases and sheets.

Prints may be off-grain and strips woven unevenly

If we are aware of defects and the price is correspondingly low then the sheets may be a good buy Similarly seconds may prove to be a good buy if we are aware of defects Sometimes the mis goods are of first quality and cleared to reduce inventory

NOW '62 LARK
"Car of the Year" Award Winner
The 1962 Lark was selected winner of the "Car of the Year Award" over all domestic cars. Canada Trust and Trader, the nation's leading automotive journal, thoroughly tested every make of our Design, quality, comfort, room, handling, economy, reliability, craftsmanship—every part in the detail, construction and performance of all automobiles sold in Canada. The 1962 Studebaker Lark was found to be the best automobile to buy of all domestic cars.
Performance
Rated tops, with choice of V-8 or 6 cylinder engines ranging to 225 H.P. Widest selection of transmissions—standard, automatic, four-speed floor shift and overdrive. Chosen by many police forces and cab companies.
Comfort
Proved to have more interior room than any other domestic "family car. Well shaped, firm seats reduce tired fatigue. Greatest headroom, leg entry and exit. Driving position and visibility considered smartest.
Reliability
Tests found Lark to be rattle-free, weather-tight, quiet running. Unique, hull-frame design provides excellent rigidity. Engines rated dependable and trouble-free. Winners in First Trans-Canada Rally proved Lark's reliability.
Economy
Careful consideration of gas mileage, low maintenance requirements, overall reliability of car, low cost of repairs, half-ton frames and Canada-wide service facilities earned Lark top honours as a most economical car to operate.
Design
Unanimously lauded by judges as handsome, functional and free from false ornamentation that forces obsolescence. Finish and interior decor of highest quality. Overall appearance—tasteful, stylish.
Dollar Value
Judges examined all manufacturers' list prices against the respective car and selected Lark as the car that gives most for dollar. It was noted Lark's basic price was lowest except for one model, which was a few dollars less.
Public Acceptance
Lark sales have increased 160.2% Satisfied customers across Canada are reporting thousands of miles of trouble-free driving, lower operating costs and superior, all round performance

Swim Pool Plans OK'd

Town council at a special meeting Tuesday night gave first reading to a by-law authorizing an expenditure of $66,000 to construct a T-shaped swimming pool with a capacity of 402 bathers in the town of Lacombe. Before the provincial government grant is calculated at $26,400, a sum of $46,600 would have to be raised locally and the by-law calls for the issuance of debentures in the sum of $40,000 payable over 20 years at interest not exceeding six per cent.

Following first reading, the by-law is being sent to the board of public utility commissioners at Edmonton for approval. A vote of ratepayers on the swimming pool project is expected some time between February 15 and March 15. If it is passed by a two-thirds majority, construction time of 2½ to three months would allow completion of the pool for use this summer.

Mayor J. Milton Ford, Western Swim Pools Ltd. Calgary attended the meeting to submit detailed plans to councillors. The pool is 75 feet long, down one length, and 82 feet wide on one side. It has a 1,000 square foot area and a pool heater to maintain a constant temperature of 82 degrees if desired. A vacuum filter is aimed to give a six-hour turnover of pool water. Depth of water varies from a minimum of 3½ feet to three feet at the shallow ends.

Councillor Manchester said the yearly payments of principal and interest would be about equal to one mill in town taxes.

At the same meeting, council passed a resolution to deposit a sum of $10,000 with the Montreal Trust Co. for a five-year certificate yielding a rate of interest of 5% per annum. "We have had a good year" said mayor R. A. Gordon, who urged that this surplus return as high a rate of interest to the town as possible. The money is part of a sinking fund that councillors foresee being used eventually to build a new town office.

Temperature sledded to 35 below zero yesterday morning according to the experimental farm weather department; only two degrees less than the record -37 set last December 11. The deep freeze is general throughout western Canada.

J & P Truck Lost in Fire At Town Dump

A 1956 delivery truck belonging to J & P Food Store was demolished by flames at the town dump Monday morning and the driver, Chester Lee, narrowly escaped fatal burns in the fresh accident.

Mr. Lee was emptying some garbage from the truck at the manure ground and it is believed the heat from the exhaust on the cold morning ignited fine paper cuttings in some banana cartons.

The flash fire immediately enveloped the truck, and the driver escaped with nothing more serious than singed eyebrows by breaking the front windshield his arm was cut by the broken glass.

About all that remained of the truck were the two front wheels. The lum was covered by insurance.

Gull Lake Discussion in City Yesterday

A private meeting between chambers of commerce officials in this area and F. L. Grindley, director of water resources with the provincial government, was held in Mr Grindley's Edmonton office yesterday afternoon to discuss the water level problem at Gull Lake.

Due to attend from this district were Alex Ellis, Harold Johnston and Roy Sturgeon from the Lacombe board of trade; president, Wilf Thorp and another representative from the Bentley chamber of commerce; and George Wyllie and other officials from the Rimbey chamber.

Since this was a confidential meeting at Mr Grindley's request (the proposed public forum was cancelled), no information was available at press time but some public announcement may be forthcoming for next week's issue.

Government Officials Invited to Lacombe to Clarify County Act

A meeting between provincial government officials and the rural ratepayers of Lacombe county has been called for Wednesday, Feb. 7, at 1:30 p.m. at the county office in Lacombe to clarify some emergent situations of the county act.

Dr. W. H. Swift, deputy minister of education, and A. E. Morgan, deputy minister of municipal affairs, have agreed to attend the meeting.

This was decided on Tuesday of this week at the regular meeting of the county council session and tried to resolve some appar ent contradictory paragraphs in the act.

Junior High Courses To Be Discussed at Home and School

Another film program next with the junior high school curriculum is being arranged for Lacombe and district home and school association meeting at the Lacombe high school Wednesday evening at 8:15.

Junior high school principal H. C. Hinkelman will be introducing some members of the teaching staff for an explanation of courses offered in grades seven, eight and nine.

Parkland Library Continues Growth

Present book stock at the Parkland regional library totals 76,221 volumes, chief librarian Laurence Solomon told The Globe in an interview late last week.

Final report of operations for the last calendar year is not quite completed, but preliminary reports indicate that book circulation will show an increase over the previous 12-month period.

The library added 5,234 volumes to its juvenile section and 5,234 new books to its adult section during 1961. Discarded books totalled 1,412 during the year, so that volumes showed a net increase of

Other Libraries Serve

Of particular interest to the general public is the attention given to individual requests for specific books.

"During the year, we had 73 requests for a particular title not carried on our shelves," Mr. Solomon states. "These requests were met by borrowing from outside sources."

These books came from libraries all across Canada, from Victoria, B.C., right through to St. John's, N.B.

In some cases [illegible] library board at Ottawa had no record of the volumes requested being on any library shelf in Canada. In such cases, we went to the States," Mr. Solomon reported. Books were borrowed from Ohio, North Carolina and Pennsylvania libraries.

Work Starts on New Union College Church

Construction of the new Seventh-day Adventist church that will seat 1,200 persons got underway "on the hilltop" late last week. The building contract, awarded jointly to Alex Ellis Construction and N. C. Anderson of Lacombe, is in excess of $200,000. Two laminated beams are shown in the above picture being swung into position last Thursday afternoon. The church is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy some time this year.

School Bus Policies Attacked By Delegation From Blackfalds

Suggested changes in a school bus route at Blackfalds to cut down on student bus travel time which could well apply to other areas were submitted by Bob Carlyle of Blackfalds and Roy McNaught of Bentley, at Tuesday's meeting of the education committee.

"Children are leaving for school [illegible] and returning home after dark," stated Mr Carlyle, in pleading for an end to unnecessary "side trips" to isolated farms when a student could walk to the main road, and for fewer stops when children could do a little more walking to an assembly point.

The time saved would allow buses to leave on a route at a later hour and give students more time at home in the early morning and late afternoon. The cost saving is also a factor, he said (the estimate is 35 cents a mile to run a bus).

Mr Carlyle also took issue with the committee on having buses arrive at schools earlier than is necessary. He claimed buses have arrived at Bentley as early as "20 minutes to nine," when five minutes before the start of school is early enough.

Committee policy is at least ten minutes before the school bell this time factor brings the minimum for bus drivers trying to adhere to schedules and meeting with "heavy roads on occasion)

Mr McNaught and Mr Carlyle also reiterated a certain hazard in the district concerning a bus operating in the town of Lacombe to pick up school children.

The local representative, J. S. McCormack, replied that this applies only to small children, to those living at least three-quarters of a mile from the school, and as a necessary service to close the schools at noon during the lunch hour for rural children.

The suggestions raised by these two gentlemen were left to the bus committee for further study.

Many Delegations

It was a busy afternoon for delegations.

Elmer Calkins of Bentley attended the meeting to request permission to change four shields on a county-owned bus, payment of $65.00 a month to store and care for this bus, and an increase of $2.00 a day for the Gull Lake bus route.

Approval was given to change the four shields, the monthly payment to store and look after the bus was deferred to the next meeting for further study, and an increase of $1.00 a day was allowed on the Gull Lake route according to the terms of the schedule. (Mr. Calkins is operating a 56-passenger bus on this route instead of a 48-passenger).

Milton Hayden of Red Deer was present to submit Eckville [illegible] specifications and quotations to convert coal furnaces to gas-fire or to install new gas furnaces.

Norman Marbael of Battlewood attended the meeting to ask for some consideration in travelling expenses, whereby four grade 12 students are brought to Lacombe Monday morning and taken home on Friday night.

The committee felt that the board-and-room allowance given to these students for their stay in Lacombe was sufficient.

Dirk Kauer was another delegate asking what the committee could do to have the bus make the one-mile trip down the hill (this side of the Joffre bridge river crossing) to pick up his children.

Because of the icy condition of the hill during the winter months, the committee felt it would be endangering the lives of other children riding in the bus to negotiate this hill but would submit a bill when he drives his children to the top of the hill in his own car.

Let's See Now... How Many Bottles?

Eddie Mah Fay (foreground) and Stan Weeks are pictured compiling the total number of bottles collected, following the Lacombe Kinsmen's post-Christmas town-wide bottle drive on Wednesday of last week. Four Kinsmen and 18 Kinettes volunteers were on the job for the door-to-door pickup. There was a smaller collection than usual — 200 dozen soft drink and beer bottles. Net profit to the club was $47.00.

Icy Roads Responsible For Two Motor Accidents

Icy road conditions contributed to two small road accidents in the town of Lacombe during the past week police reports.

Ronald Wayne Leach and Glen Clark, both of Lacombe, were in collision at the intersection of 53 avenue and 52 street on Monday of last week. Damage to Mr Leach's 1953 Dodge was estimated at $40, and to Mr Clark's 1956 Dodge Sedan about $40 00.

On Wednesday of last week, William J. Tucker of Penhola in a 1956 Chev collided with Henry Boger of Lacombe in a 1962 Mercury one-ton. Damage to the truck amounted to about $150. The accident occurred at the intersection of highways No. 2 and 12.

Perry W. Pratt reported theft of his automobile from a parking spot on 53 avenue and 50 street between 9:00 and 10:30 p.m. last January 6. The vehicle was returned to the original parking spot and found there at 1:45 p.m. on January 7.

Mr Pratt told police the speedometer showed the car had been driven 115 miles, and that half a tank of gas had been consumed.

BUILDING SOLD

A tender in the amount of $12,000 from the Masonic lodge in Lacombe was accepted for purchase of the former school district office on 49th avenue and other tenders were received from Hannes Seeds, by the school committee which sits in the county office on Tuesday.

Ask Town to Defer Action on Shopping Hours

Lacombe and district board of trade has requested town council to defer giving third and final reading to a by-law which would allow Thursday night store shopping to 10:00 throughout the year, until a cross-section opinion of merchants is obtained.

At a board of trade executive meeting last Monday morning, it was agreed that a suitable questionnaire be drawn up by a committee consisting of president Mike Kinluk, vice-president Al Leal, secretary Roy Sturgeon, and director Jack Bisthart.

An effort will be made by the committee to take these questionnaires around personally to store keepers, so that an accurate assessment of their wishes concerning late shopping hours can be [illegible]

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Minister Takes Issue With Globe

Edmonton, Alberta,
Jan. 13, 1962.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I have noted on previous occasions that I don't enjoy writing letters to the paper, but some things just natural as Cecil Lake concluded "The Old Sun Around" seems to require some clarification since it is directed at me in caption:

1. That the engineers of Water Resources had refused to take part in a joint panel with the engineers of a Calgary firm of consulting engineers as I had suggested after the Board of Trade members had quoted to me statements purported to have been made by the Calgary firm on certain possibilities of getting water from the Bloodman river into Gull Lake.

2. That there was, therefore, some sort of breakdown in communications between the various provincial government departments".

I want say to you once again that I think it regrettable that you have gone off in a half-cocked manner in your editorials, as someone's reporter. I have repeatedly tried to point out to you, and to your weekly association that we are living in an age where a phone call or a letter could have clarified such a situation and avoided such nasty accusations. However, I do recall you once saying to me that you preferred "starting up" than hated of course that I prepared to clear the panel in Lacombe.

I don't think it is fair that the public should be so misled by such irresponsibility. Besides, had you taken the trouble to check over the Board of Trade office you could have read the correspondence between the president and Mr. Grimley, informing him that the Calgary engineers would not take part in the panel." Mr. Grimley then served down an invitation to address a meeting as an alternative with my full knowledge and approval.

Let me explain I have been very concerned, like many others, about the present low level of the water in Gull Lake. Through many decades of intermittent wet and dry years, the lake level has fluctuated, but seems to be steadily reaching new lows during dry spells. Government engineering studies on the feasibility of damming the Blindman river entered my mind and relayed to the secretary of the summer village several years ago, which indicated little or no successful possibilities. Studies were then made on the North fork and when I brought together the public and private groups of engineers last spring they agreed that the height of land north of the lake was a positive barrier in such a plan. It was to let the public hear a similar discussion and also to put an end to a lot of unfortunate rumour that I proposed to divert the panel to Lacombe.

The Calgary engineers did not at the spring meeting that more detailed mapping be done south of the lake in the hope of discovering a breakthrough in the ridge that had not yet shown up. Mr. Grimley not only had this done but set up a further study which has come up with a new possibility. This new proposal will require months of engineering study and of course, like the others will not raise the water level of the lake, but could stabilize it and slow down deterioration. It has many ramifications and economic implications which may prove to be unfavourable. To spell it out this early could give rise to false hopes, and no governmental engineer would be that irresponsible. Nor would he wish to involve myself.

It was for these reasons that Mr. Grimley, after discussing it with me, turned down the alternative invitation. At this time he would be forced to tell the public that no solution had been found to the problem. However, he agreed as an alternative the opportunity for the executive to discuss the new studies at his office. Such meeting is taking place this week in Edmonton.

Sincerely,
A. R. Patrick, M.L.A.

Loft

(Lacombe Organization for Teens)

(Girls, Afternoon, superior)

Last Friday, Lacombe Teens enjoyed a hayride through the frosty countryside. Although the cold weather discouraged several from joining in the fun because of colds, coughs or 'flu, there was a complete turnout of members for the activities in the Legion hall after.

In the basement of the hall, teens were taking advantage of all the forms of recreation that the Legion members enjoy, plus some of our own twisting. Ping pong, darts and other games help aid to make this evening a tremendous success.

On February 2, "LOFT" is opening the second annual "Sweetheart Dance". Music will be by the Concords from Edmonton. Time is 8:00 to 1:00. Everyone who attends is asked to get in the mood by letting their hair down and joining the Bostock clan for the evening.

The Legion hall is the scene of all the activity, and our canteen will serve typical fare pizza and java topping the list. This dance is open to all "teenagers who care to make the scene. Plan on attending and having a terrific evening with the added entertainment in the way of bingo players. pantsy readers and any spontaneous free style artist or musician in the crowd.

Lacombe Four-Point WI Discusses 1962 Program

Lacombe 4-point WI met at the home of Mrs. O. G. Vogel with 8 members present. Mrs. Chester Miller read the program for 1962.

The president Mrs. J. E. Mytton read the program for 1962.

Mrs. J. I. Woodrow gave a short talk on the branch history of the WI and asked for a committee to help her. It was suggested the four charter members who still are members, Mrs. J. I. Woodrow, Mrs. Dave Hill, Mrs. M. E. Shaw and Mrs. J. S. Mytton act on the committee.

It was moved that the club join the film board for part of a year. It would be possible to obtain films on Australia, as that is the country the club is studying this year.

Mrs. O. G. Vogel will be the new education convenor and also she will write up the new programs for the year.

The roll call was answered with a safety hint for the home. There were some real good hints, a lot about electrical appliances and many more.

Mrs. Susie Atkinson read an letter and will, stating a will plays a very important part in our lives.

Three of the members, Mrs. J. S. Mytton, Mrs. O. G. Vogel and Mrs. J. E. Mytton put on a short comic skit named "The customer is always right" — sometimes we wonder.

Mrs. J. E. Mytton won the contest. Mrs. J. I. Woodrow with a few chosen words presented Mrs. O. G. Vogel with a cup and saucer for her four years in office.

Don't forget the farm forum meeting on February 3 with Mrs. Susie Atkinson for WI members and their husbands and anyone else wishing to attend.

The next WI meeting will be with Mrs. N. E. Shaw on February 14 at 2:00. Co-hostesses are Mrs. J. S. Mytton and Mrs. J. I. Woodrow for handwriters, and Mrs. John Schnell and Mrs. O. G. Vogel for cake.

The roll call — bring a short Valentine verse; the project, bring a batch of home-made candy to be auctioned; the group discussion, Australia's history and settlement.

Soaps or Detergents

How are we going to choose intelligently a laundry product for our individual needs when there are so many products to choose from and so many factors to determine our choice?

The labels on such products are not always accurate, and the cost of a package is not a reliable indication of quality. The cost will depend on the number of washes you can get from a package. How then can we choose a product for our particular use? Perhaps these will help.

Types of Cleaning Agents

Soaps — have been on the market for a long time. They are made by combining fats, oils and/or vegetable fats with what gives a soft soap whereas a hard fat will give a hard soap. Coconut oil when added will give a better lather. Limestones are that soaps form a scum on hard water, shrink woolens and will not lather in cold water.

Synthetic Detergents — were first produced after world war one. They are made by combining vegetable fats and oils and petroleums through a chemical reaction.

Why do we use soaps or detergents?

To penetrate the oily dirt that clings to the fibers to hold the dirt in suspension after it has been removed by agitation.

What should you consider when buying a soap or detergent?

1. The water you are using if it is hard or soft. The detergents will form suds in hard water.

2. Type of fabric you are going to wash e.g. mom's overalls or a baby's sweater.

3. Soil to be removed — heavy grease or light soil. Detergents are very good at even using grease therefore they are very good for washing dishes and both tubs but they remove the oil from your hands.

Classifications

There are light (mild) or heavy duty (strong) soap and detergents.

Mild soap — composition is 83 to 97% soap water, sodium chloride Examples are Lux, Ivory Snow or Flakes

Strong soap — composition is 55 to 80% soap water, alkaline builders, fluorescent dyes Examples are Rinso, Duz

Mild detergents are Vel, Drift Wash and Joy.

Strong or all-purpose detergents are Tide Fab Surf Cheer and Breeze.

Bleaches

Suntide was the first synthetic bleach and it is still very effective. But because you cannot depend on the sun shining every day, bleaches and whiteners in bottles and boxes are today's washday routine The following bleaches are common on the market

Chlorine

Used in the wash with soap or detergent, chlorine removes oil and stains. It should not be used on silk, wool acetate or nylon marked "do not bleach." Used on any of these it may turn them yellow and weaken the fibres of wool. It will not harm vat-dyed colors, but be sure clothing is washed vat-dyed before using it

Clothing must be rinsed thoroughly to remove possible odor. Stubborn stains can be removed before washing by soaking in concentrated solution. Chlorine comes in liquid and dry form. Follow directions carefully.

Perborate

This bleach is for "unbleachables." Milder and slower acting than chlorine, it is safe for all fabrics Perborate works best in hot water and, if used regularly, it helps to keep things bright, but it will not remove oil or stains as quickly or completely as chlorine Available in liquid and powder form.

Optical Dyes

These products are in most soaps and detergents. Although you cannot see (or feel) optical dyes, they start the fabric After several washings they do make fabrics look whiter It is best to add chlorine bleach toward the end of the wash period (if added earlier the bleach counteracts the effect of the dyes)

Bluing

This is a blue colorant, which like optical dyes tints material a fabrics age they sometimes turn to their natural yellow re or losing the dye that makes them white Bluing can give old fabrics a new appearance

There are eight big differences between good sound ir seems and reasons that sound good seem

Spring Fashion

Spring raincoats appear on the fashion scene along with the first snow Above, spring preview, on the left a reversible poplin raincoat in white and mint green with the sole vent lined in the contrast

The back is flared the cuffs turn back and the slit flap pockets are button trimmed.

He will have 2,184 pay days to save for his retirement

His first pay cheque — the first of many more to come! What he plans to do with that money, as he goes along, is important. He can do many worthwhile things. One of the most desirable is to set aside some money regularly for his later years, to guarantee that he'll be able to take things easier when his pay cheques stop. This needn't be just a dream. With the stroke of a pen you can make your pay cheques start to guarantee future security. Your Life Insurance agent can show you how to make your pay days provide you with guaranteed protection now plus a guaranteed income for retirement; you can't have either. Make sure of tomorrow, today.

ONLY LIFE INSURANCE CAN PROTECT YOU THESE FIVE WAYS

1. Guaranteed retirement income. You have an income you can never outlive.
2. Guaranteed immediate protection, from the moment you qualify.
3. Guaranteed protection, no speculation, no gambling. You know exactly the number of dollars in sums
4. Guaranteed lump(s) at big expense times You can guarantee funds for future expenses such as sending children to college
5. Guaranteed protection for the home. Your family will never inherit an unpaid mortgage.

When can a father afford to relax?

A father can only afford to relax when sufficient income is guaranteed for the family no matter what may happen to him.
The investment a father chooses to safeguard his family's future is undoubtedly the most significant purchase of a lifetime. Each year more Canadians look to the one guaranteed investment—life insurance. With a practical life insurance program, a father can build assets to realize future dreams while he protects, daily, all that he holds dear.
In 1961, Manufacturers Life paid out over $66 millions to families who made this investment in their future—vital dollars, for these were received at a time of great need!
It was a record year for payments and a record year in protection for new policyowners. If you too want to guarantee a financially secure tomorrow for yourself and your family, why not call the Man from Manufacturers today.
HERE ARE OTHER HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 75TH ANNUAL REPORT
New Insurance in 1961 ..... $ 591,360,557

Working wives like cooking corned beef because it offers two different kinds of meals. Try this one for the second day.
RED FLANNEL HASH
Combine equal parts cooked corned beef, coarsely chopped, with chopped, raw potato and 1 cup finely chopped, cooked or canned beets. Add as much finely chopped onion as desired, enough light cream to moisten, and salt and MALKIN'S pepper to taste. Turn into a hot frying pan with a small amount of fat. Spread the hash evenly over the pan. Using low heat, cook until brown on the underside. Fold over like an omelette, and serve at once with chili sauce or ketchup.

Clive Gas Service Disrupted For 2½ Hours Last Week

CLIVE — The gas service suddenly went off in Clive third Monday evening. Within seven years for and they made haste in getting here with a group of workers. After about 2½ hours all was back to normal.

The man made a house in house check to see all gas appliances before they left. Clive came time after midnight. Fortunately the weather had moderated some what and temperatures were just below zero. No one reported for a month thereafter from lack of heat.

Friends of Miss Hazel Maynard, one time member of Clive teaching staff and now a resident of Red Deer will be sorry to hear of the death of Miss Dewdney, 81 year old father. Sympathy will go out to her at this time.

One thing, although the wind blew and snow piled thirty feet per cubic spring coal situation would be coming out to give all a feeling that spring isn't too far away.

Even though the temperature did go to about 30 below, it was preferable to the seven inches of wet snow in Vancouver. And for 29 degrees with wet snow can seem much colder than 30 below with a dry light powdery snow. One thing about the weather.

"No Place Like Home," Says Burglar Bill

If you took the advice of Burglar Bill, you'd keep all your valuables at home. Under the mattress, maybe. Or in that old teapot which lost its spout.

But Bill's advice isn't entirely objective. He figures if you leave your valuables at home . . . even in a "safe" hiding place . . . he stands a better chance of getting his hands on them.

Much better advice comes from Fred Pannetier, manager of the Lacombe branch of the Bank of Montreal. "Keep your valuables really safe in a B of M safety deposit box," says Mr. Pannetier. "For personal strong box, exclusively yours, costs less than two cents a day, and it pays for itself over and over again in peace of mind alone," he adds.

Hundreds of thousands of Canadians use B of M safety deposit box facilities. Their valuables — bonds, stocks, stock certificates, insurance policies, deeds, birth certificates, passports and other important family papers — are safe and sound behind the steel doors of the B of M vault.

Forget what Burglar Bill says. Mr. Pannetier says, "Clean out those closets, drawers — and teapots, too. Bring your valuables into the bank instead."

No sir, we respectfully submit that what North American boys and girls need is not fifteen minutes of physical exercise a day but fifteen minutes of pressure in intellectual exercise.

In this short period they might ponder the purpose of existence their relation to their fellow man and the potential of society. In other words, they might try to think about some important questions.

They might have someone read Moses or Aristotle or St. Paul. They might hear Plato say "The unexamined life is not fit life for a man." The little daily exercise might help to bring about some moral fitness.

Reckless violence has a cause. It is caused by the pressure of a society which has for its basic strength The cult of violence as information is soon reflected in real life There is also a cure for violence It is the inculcation of the principles of personal responsibility

If the youth of this generation do not learn to control their animal urges in their in people's become, then it is to be hoped the They will become physical member, not stronger

Bentley Discusses Recreation

BENTLEY — At a joint meeting of the council of the village of Bentley and the Gasahing building committee on January 19 the following were present:

Mayor C W Rupert, councillors E A Calkins and A B Herman, and committee members Fred Carl Hall, Glen Hall, Norman and Ed Jahrson

After discussing rink business and making a few recommendations re finishing the project the building committee felt that their work was done and the time had come to bring their activities to a close and dissolve the organization

Members of the building committee wish to thank all those who helped in the drive to raise funds and build up the skating rink in the village and were given a hearty vote of thanks

The following provisional recreational committee was appointed by council to act pro-tem until it is formally incorporated by the proper by-law, to administer the skating rink and other recreational activities in the community

A B. Herman, representing council; E W Jahrson representing the school, Gordon (Barney) Elliott representing the citizens of Bentley and Glen Nelson and Jim Farli, representing the Bentley rural area.

Mercury Climbs To 46

Welcome relief in the current cold spell was greeted with pleasure by Lacombe and district residents when the temperature began to climb to many as just Sunday. The crazy gin low burst, dipped below the freezing mark at 28

This is the warmest day in this part of central Alberta in over a two month. The weather department at the Lacombe experiment at farm reported 51 above last November 15.

Still January of 1962 remains one of the colder months on record by the most since the mean minimum temperature for the month was -24. This is coldest in 17 years, back to 1950 when the mean minimum temperature was -28.

Last year, the minimum average was six above. The warmest on record was 1936, 9.2. Experimental farm reports that 54-year average is -6, so as of last week end this year January was 18 degrees colder than the long-term average.

Hardly a record we envy, but there it is!

A trace of rain accompanied the mild spell, making both car and pedestrian traffic hazardous Local police reported no accidents despite the icy conditions

Plan This Pool For Lacombe

This type of concrete swimming pool could be opened on at Camrose is what town council has in mind for December if the forthcoming $60,000 debenture vote is approved. The structure at the base will provide "facilities for bathers, as well as pool rooms, showers etc." There will be a wide deck space beyond the T shaped pool Ten-foot deep end of the pool is located under the diving board at the bottom of the "T" while three-foot shallow water for youngsters will be at both sides of the top of the "T" Pool capacity is 672 bathers, and heating units are to maintain a constant water temperature of 82 degrees if desired. Filter system allows a six-hour turnover of pool water This projected design is the work of Western Swim Pools Ltd of Camrose, president.

Relief Bills Increasing

THE [illegible] is now giving out [illegible] relief payments this month. These relief payments are down around $38.00 a month to over $100 a month. Of the total the provincial government welfare department assumes 80% of the cost. The leaves 20% to be borne directly by the ratepayers of the town.

While we may not all agree with some social services programs started and then enlarged by the three levels of government no one will dispute the need to assist families which are destitute particularly when children are involved.

In some cases people apply for material and most reluctantly and on temporary bases only. often at this time of the year to carry them over the winter months when work is hard to get. There are always a few free-loaders too, who try to take advantage of the situation and obtain all they can for nothing.

This is on all occasions to all agencies involving government handouts. It is impossible to draft legislation that will cover all emergencies, and the weaknesses of human nature. In the case of maternal aid the good must be taken with the bad in order to provide equal treatment to all. We could never stand for starvation in today's society in the midst of plenty.

Town council exercises reasonable prudence in judging the merits of each application for material aid. It is not always money well spent but money that needs to be spent.

Let's Pull All The Blinds

THE government's ban on liquor advertising in Alberta publications has something to commend it, because advertising helps to increase sales and excessive drinking is detrimental to society. The Manning government finds itself in the position of defending a policy which it must enforce outside the province, however.

Reading matter from other parts of Alberta and much of it contains liquor. Canada and United States periodicals advertising which the Social Credit administration seems dedicated to stamp out. Since it is powerless to do so it should remove present barriers which its leaders and at least be fair to all.

The current policy is inconsistent. The government itself is guilty of promoting liquor sales. It and [illegible] the location of a liquor outlet in the city of Edmonton with a neon sign. Pedestrians passing on the street can look through the windows of many vendors' stores in the province and see the wares on display in the shelves. Is a picture of a liquor bottle praised in a newspaper any less an eye-sore?

This question was put to the Alberta cabinet by a weekly newspaper delegation last week. As a result we have a suspicion that the public might in the near future observe blinds being installed in the private windows of some liquor stores. If th. government would put up blinds to conceal the flood of liquor advertising coming in from outside the province Alberta publishers would feel there was little discrimination

Clive Lagoon Freezes, Causes Some Concern

CLIVE — A little trouble occurred at the sewer lagoon when outlet pages from the town, which empties into the lagoon from ... during the very cold weather. Apparently there is not quite enough water going through to prevent freezing. The cold weather should correct the trouble.

Should weather turn cold again and trouble start, the could grow serious but inconvenient to all those who are hooked up to the sewer. This is the first winter of the project, and possibly the recurring trouble can be ironed out before next winter.

Rain showers occurred both last Monday and Wednesday nights, made all walking outdoors, like skating rinks. As soon as temperatures rose above 32 ... the ice ... and ... footing re-gained.

Friends of former Clive resident, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dalziel ... will be interested to know that they recently became great grandparents, when their grandson Peter Reed and his wife became parents of a son. Peter Reed is also a grandson of the former Lacombe experimental farm superintendent and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed.

W. Boehm is having his house ... painted with a very attractive ... siding, in white with blue trim and aluminum doors. The siding ... also of aluminum. A decorative note to add to the color of this corner of town.

Seeking Data

Rain on Friday all day made the country look like "the spring break-up." Some horses, which were grazy late last fall, were washed clean, and looked as green as spring. The moisture will be welcome to the farmers, because, actually, the snow-fall has not been very heavy here this winter. Curling will have suffered as it is natural we have an open winter. This reporter remembers a thaw and a rain like Friday's was followed at nightfall by a raging blizzard, 30 or 32 years ago.

The Clive ... club will hold a valentine tea on Feb 14 at 2.30 p.m. in Clive United church. All are given a hearty welcome to attend.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Eddie McKay who passed away February 9, 1962.

In our hearts you will always dwell,
Loved and remembered every day.
Memories we have by the dozen,
But the best of you was Love.

Sadly missed by Mom, Dad, Sisters and Brothers.

In loving memory of Mrs. Ethel Mae Lee who passed away February 9, 1962.

Time heals the heart they say,
But not with those who loved you dear.
Memories are all we have left to us,
But what a memory we have.

Sadly missed by husband, children and grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank those who made our recent anniversary such a happy occasion. Thanks for the beautiful gifts and many expressions of friendship. Thanks to those who helped with the program and to Mrs. Shaw who played the piano. Personal and sincere thanks to Rev. Lewis and the members who served lunch so graciously.

Short-Term Freedom For Pigs After Accident

(From our own correspondent)

ALIX — A serious mishap on No 12 highway on the overpass near Alix was narrowly averted on Monday evening of last week. The highway, as result of rain, fall between 5.30 and 6.00 became heavily ice coated and was extremely slippery

A car travelling east had difficulty reaching the peak of the slope and in backing down skidded to the wrong side of the road

A trailer truck loaded with pigs took the ditch to avoid striking the car The pigs were thrown from the truck to it upset Luckily pigs were all herded into Buckley's yard and reloaded ... another truck

The car passengers proceeded home uninjured

Loft

(Lacombe Organization for Teens)

(By Lois Atkinson)

The Bristol dance held Friday night was a complete success and everyone had a wonderful time Dena Bain and Tom Boodoo were judged as the "Beatniks of the Evening". The chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs D McFadden, were the judges for this contest

We would like to express our gratitude to these couples for helping to make our dance a success.

The original decorations black leotards, nylons, nets and black draping helped to set the mood but the co-operation of all the Kats and Kittens was what really made this dance swing

On March 23, 1962, LOFT has its chief social function of the season. "The Teen Queen Ball". At this dance one of Lacombe's teenagers is chosen 'teen queen to reign for one year and represent Lacombe at the provincial conference in the Alberta teen queen contest

Less year's queen, Miss Leslie Kerr will crown LOFT's next leading lady at this ball. Prior to the semi-formal dance, queen candidates will be judged at a formal tea

Taxes Come in Well

TOWN ratepayers did a pretty fair job in clearing up their taxes before the penalty clause came into effect at the end of 1961. Secretary Frank Lavery reports 89.4% of all business taxes paid and 89% of the property taxes. In addition 90% of the school taxes were paid leaving about the percentage as usual, where only the businesses actually exceeded the totals owing.

Naturally this puts the town of Lacombe in an enviable financial position with a surplus of some ten to fifteen thousand dollars on the year's operations. This is cold cash in the bank, not just a book entry.

The high percentage of tax payments speaks well for the earning capacity of local, town and district. Taxpayers are doing their best to meet their most pressing obligations and the fact that over 80% of them were able to do so last year reflects the buoyant economy of the community.

Teachers' Salaries

A NEW round of teacher salary negotiations will soon be opening in Lacombe. In Red Deer they've already started. The teachers committee chairman is reported to have requested high er salaries because "teachers making over $10,000 per year comprise only 1.2 per cent of the total teachers. Only two other occupations, farmers and government employees, exceed this percentage, namely, 2.6 and 1.5 per cent."

It's interesting to note that farmers, as the group has a large portion of the teacher salaries, are included in the lower group in any event it is not a difficult job to quote some statistics to support one's view. It is easy to prove this statistic in 1960 the average salary of Alberta teachers exceeded average labor force earning by 30 per cent. It could also argue that teachers are very high enough.

The statistic is taken from a report by R. E. J. Hansen, department of agricultural economy of the university of Alberta who was appointed by the Alberta school trustees association to make a study of the salaries of teachers in Alberta. Dr. Hansen's report parallels that of the Cameron commission. He urges higher standards because teachers are given permanent certification and while actions edging the difficulties of the application of merit rating, he believes this is a pre requisite.

Dr. Hansen gives the opinion that teaching offers attractive salaries for people who possess certain abilities. Consequently he says the basic teaching profession may not be able to attract enough people of the right calibre for long term teaching. Instead, he says, teachers remain in the profession for short periods of time, then move into other occupations. And there will be an increased demand for supply conditions." In other words from an economist's point of view present salary levels are adequate to retain present standards of education.

Why is Fluoridation Nixed?

WHY opposition with people in cities, towns on the north American continent who want fluoride added to municipal water supplies to prevent dental decay in children and adults who don't have it, because too many persons are opposed to having their drinking water tampered with.

Here in Lacombe we are in the most fortunate position of having just the right amount of fluorine present in our water in a natural state. In fact, Lacombe's water is about as pure in chemical content as it is possible to be.

Dental authorities say that the fluorine in Lacombe's water has no adverse beneficial effect on teeth but those who move to town as adults, when the teeth of their second teeth appears to be established. But children born and growing up here do seem to have better than average teeth, which confirms the arguments of fluorine advocates.

Opponents of fluoridation won't have the human hand mixing fluorine with their water, which is a rather specious argument because if the fluorine is already in the water as it is in Lacombe that's presumably all right. The only difference is that nature put it there instead of man.

Only The Plot is Different

A MAN who won $120,000 on a T-V quiz program in the United States has admitted to perjury after earlier testifying in court that he wasn't given answers to questions on the show.

The news item is relatively unimportant because quiz has since become a nasty word in television circles in the States. For years it was the most popular type of show possible, drawing audiences of millions who wasted breathlessly to see whether the contestant could surmount the next hurdle of questions and win a new round of thousand dollar bills.

Now we know what a hoax the buildup was. Contestants were carefully vetted and rehearsed to give the right reaction to a difficult question. The funnel-eyed lover, whose eyes were the bonds of perpetuation on the forehead were all staged props. Most people have gambling instincts, and they loved it. The sponsors reaped in the dollars in advertising returns.

The audience was cheated, it turns out, and quiz shows will be black-listed for years to come.

There are still ham actors on television today, and some of the professionals aren't as good in their cowboy or henchman roles as the old-time quiz smasheurs. But at least they're not fooling anybody.

Reflections of the Times

Hundreds - - But Only a Few

We have no aversion to a good comic strip that is well thought out and can present a fact or satire, or just leave us with a homey feeling but the spread of comics, and magazines styled as comics that have hit the news stands in the last few years has created such a problem that one looking for a good magazine or pocket book or book, has to wade through hundreds of copies of this gibberish before he can see most of the well written and accepted magazines on the news stand.

The dollar impulse of the comic magazine publisher has become as great that in merchandising he has forgotten he is dealing with people's minds. It is almost as good as a good TV show to read the front covers as they sit on the news stand or try and guess what relationship the cover sometimes has to the book. It is a lot of trash that most communities could do without. And we like comics.

We believe there is room for history, animal comics, homey, well spun stories and tales of courage and daring. But some are so far fetched and imaginative (?) as to make us believe we have had the D.T's for two weeks.

Let a have comics, but let's keep them in their place in relation to all other [illegible]

January, 1942, is the second coldest on the 34-year history of records kept at the Lacombe experimental farm.

Final payment on the electric organ is reported at the annual meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's United Church.

Councillors Alf Price and Percy Parsons are returned by acclamation in the town council by acclamation. Filling vacancies on the local school board are F. McCormick, A. M. Frussell and John Gilmour.

One Year Ago

Dr. W. J. DeCourcey former Lacombe resident, dies at Rumbey at the age of 81.

Mild weather returns, with above-freezing temperatures every day during the week reaching as high as 52 on February 6.

Quack action on the part of the fire department quelled a blaze that broke out in the kitchen [illegible] of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carr of Mirror.

Members of the country council spend three or four days making a complete tour of roads and schools in the district.

Ten Years Ago

Spacious new $60,000 Lux Theatre holds an official opening, with proprietor Jim Pursell welcoming a large number of visitors.

Rev. F. C. Austin conducted last rites from the Anglican church at Mirror for Mrs. Jean Elizebeth Cassidy 67-year-old district pioneer.

Lacombe rink wins the grand challenge event at the Red Deer open bonspiel. Skip Tom Larsmer leads his rink through undefeated with Fred Sherart third, Harry Leggett second and Basil Bonnar lead.

Breakings are reported by two Chev businesses. A sum of $32.50 is taken from L. O. Williams garage but nothing is missing from Beaver Hardware.

Expenditures during the year climb to a new high of $150,000 as is revealed in the town of Lacombe financial statement for 1951.

Busty-five ladies sit down to a banquet commemorating the first anniversary of charter night of the Lacombe Kinettes with visitors coming by charter bus from Wetaskiwin, Ponoka, Stettler and Red Deer Mrs. Allen Avery, president, was in the chair for the social program.

INDUSTRY AT BROOKS

The newest addition to local industrial life is Brooks Meat Packing Plant which opened for business under its owner, Steve Kroll. The plant caters to the slaughter of animals for packaging, processing and sharp freezing, will prepare and cure hams, bacons, etc and Mr Kroll plans to manufacture all kinds of sausage made in summer, garlic and liver plus head cheeses of several varieties, for both custom and retail trade.

A new two-storey building has been constructed near B.C. Pea Growers in southeast Brooks complete with livestock pen and loading ramp. The building contains a modern abbatoir for slaughtering, three coolers and one sharp freezing room, plus packaging and retail facilities.

VOTE AT WETASKIWIN

A plebiscite has been called for February 7 to obtain the proprietary electors approval of debenture borrowings totalling $34,000 for the purchase of land in the city's north-eastern outskirts to expand the present sewage disposal system. The plebiscite requires a two-thirds majority vote to pass.

APPROVE RURBEY LOAN

The federal government has approved a loan of $18,000 to the town of Rumbey, to assist in the construction of a sewage treatment project.

Made under the national housing act the loan is for a term of 25 years, with interest at 5½% per annum. The loan is based on an estimated cost of $28,200.

Rumbey is presently served by water distribution and collection systems, with sewage treatment limited to the use of two small settling tanks. The NHA loan will assist in the construction of an eight-inch gravity outfall sewer 2,000 feet in length, a stabilization pond in the northeast section of the town and another south of town.

SPIDERS NEAR BROOKS

Black widow spiders may be prevalent in the Tilley district, there being five such spiders found in one house alone. These spiders are easily identified from their color and the red hour glass mark on the abdomen. The specimens found were in the basement.

The bite of the black widow is poisonous but not necessarily fatal, it being estimated that only 5% of victims succumb, mostly children or unhealthy adults. Various factors influence the degree a bite might be serious, such as how much venom the spider injected and the strength of the venom.

Farm Business Co-op to Organize

In order to finalize the organization of a central Alberta farm business co-operative, an open meeting of all interested farmers in Central Alberta will be held in the memorial centre banquet room in Lacombe, Tuesday night February 13 starting at 8:00 p.m.

A recent meeting of some of the members of the previously organized Central Alberta Farm Business Management Association, and some interested farmers discussed the possibilities for such a business co-operative. One of the main services to be provided by such a organization would be a complete farm accounting and marketing service. Other services to help farmers with their business operations could be included as the organization as it develops.

Farm bookkeeping is recognized as one of the necessary evils of the farm not only for income tax purposes but to give the farmer a clearer picture of his whole operations. Through the Municipal Accounting service members of the Farm Business Co-op would be provided with an envelope system whereby they would post all receipts and invoices. The envelopes would then go to the headquarters of the Co-op where they would be recorded. Members would then receive a monthly statement of their affairs and their receipts and investments would be returned to them. An abstract or summary for those wishing it would be a complete analysis of their farm business pointing out the weak points and exactly what the labour earnings are on that farm.

Anyone wishing further information on the proposed Central Alberta Farm Business Co-op is invited to attend the meeting Tuesday evening.

Many FUA locals can do and do carry on effective agricultural extension in a district but things as boom meeting with agricultural speakers at meetings where dinner, supper or a dancing may [illegible] are only effective agricultural extension for those who [illegible] FUA groups in their area.

Recently I had the pleasure of meeting with the executive of the Spruceville FUA, one of the most active locals in this area. [illegible] example of an extension group in action. [illegible] Farm Management Short Course [illegible] Extension Service [illegible] Short Course [illegible] Agricultural Representative [illegible] and keeps a close [illegible]

Hog Grader

Recently a meeting [illegible] with representatives of the [illegible] Alberta Pork Producers [illegible] with a view to the [illegible] hog grader in the district so that we could determine whether or not there is the hog quality competition.

The results of this meeting are most encouraging as many farmers have already sent in their grade readings for hogs shipped in 1961.

We would appreciate receiving much more of this information at the end of January so early in February so that the necessary calculations can be made. All slips sent in to us will be dealt with quickly and returned to their senders. This information is kept strictly confidential.

The World of Trees . . . .

To give just of all the different trees here would be too tedious, besides I don't know all of them. There are 13 different kinds of Oak with different leaves. Some have pleas long shaped leaves like willow and some have pointed leaves like maple but all oaks, have the usual acorn with the seed in a little cup.

The hard white oak seems to be the most useful, and as far as I could see the same as the English Oak. Its coal which appears to be solid, it grows wonderful. Ashlars in bugs bushes, mostly red.

The Beech tree likes a lime soil and is not well represented. The Walnut family is represented by seven varieties. The Hickory and Pecan are of that family. The Walnut, as we all know, is one of the finest cabinet woods. The Hickory cannot be beaten for tool handles, and some hickory nuts are good to eat.

Further south, in Louisana and Texas, the Pecan is grown in plantations for the nuts.

The Walnuts we get are grown in California English Walnuts are grafted one native wild stock.

Our native Balm and Poplar [illegible] is the common [illegible] is universal across northern States and to the Arctic Basin wood or Linden, a very useful soft hardwood, of greenish in color and of the poplar family, is common here.

Six or seven kinds of Maple, including sugar maple, are native and five kinds of Ash, which is almost as good for handles as Hickory.

The Elm has five kinds here, including the hardrock Elm, a hard strong wood as good as white Oak, but without the beautiful oak grain.

The edible chestnut grows here as it does in England. The nuts don't seem good in England and I could never find good ones.

In Lisbon, they sell them on the streets as they do in London, already cooked. Italy grows good chestnuts and they were part of the ration for the Roman legions.

Letters to the Editor . . . .

[illegible] Globe
Lacombe, Alberta
Dear Sirs:

With your kind permission I would like space in your paper to return to the farmer via fellow farmer. On farm expert I may speak to you a remark on this subject but of course consider the facts we will understand that the farmer is victim of advice handed out by those men in the public press [illegible] and publicity on one hand and the farmer on the other hand. Advice being handed out by men who both ought and ignorant.

On the contrary the farmer is one class that has produced an abundance of all kinds of goods at a very low price. Why do we credit [illegible] but possess advice. We do not object to [illegible] but if we do need [illegible] and we know where our experimental farm are and where our D.A's office is located. [illegible] to [illegible] us.

Our D.A.'s are pushing a [illegible] that is [illegible] under adding up our wealth. [illegible] and a large supply [illegible] Some bank gives me a months statement for a few cents and returns my cheque. I never saw in the summer except assessment dropping into my business.

I wonder if our local [illegible] ever would like an interview. Let the D.A. tell the banks how to give cheaper credit — tell the stores how they could sell better goods for less or the machine men how to lower the high prices and produce a better machine. He would quickly be told what the cause was.

For example we pay twenty cents for a poor loaf of bread made from the world's finest wheat. The farmer only gets about two cents for the wheat in the loaf. Why not give the baker advice as to why bread is so poor and so high priced? When we say poor bread we except our local bakery who do make excellent bread.

A lady recently paid a bill of $12.01 in a supermarket and her [illegible] said we wonder why [illegible] many were getting rich. Her shopping bag contained six bottles of cold drink, three pour of oranges, two long playing records, forty pounds of softener salt, one box of cornflakes, one long bath died mop, one egg beater and one quart of milk. Only the cornflakes and the milk came from the farm.

32 cents the farmers share of the 12 dollars.

Professor D.R. Campbell of Ontario Agricultural College was asked at a recent conference if it was fair that the label on a can of tomatoes cost more than the farmer was paid for the contents. He replied that it did not matter that it was a matter of philosophy as well as economics. Such [illegible] thing of exactly.

At present farmers are being advised but pushed into [illegible] by our D.A. and V.L.A. experts. Yet those men full well know that a large supply of dairy products on hand and that a reduction in the price paid producers is the only [illegible] to meet immediate [illegible] which dairy business of course can be made out to be a profitable venture are books but it is a venture made profitable by the slave labor of farmer's wives.

There are a lot more things I could say but I do not wish to presume further on your kind indulgence. I would like an opportunity to debate with a farm expert on the topic "Resolved that advice given by government agricultural agents is largely detrimental to the interests of the farming community."

Yours Truly,
G.A. Fretwell

More Bad Cheques Circulated in Town

Lacombe police urge merchants to "beware" cashing cheques for strangers, as the bogey of bad cheques continues to haunt the district.

Since the first of the year no less than eleven worthless cheques have been passed in Lacombe stores, and police emphasize that restitution is difficult. Four warrants are out for arrests against persons making them.

Amounts of cheques cashed by local storekeepers vary from $10.00 to $200. All eleven cases occurred in the month of January.

The month of February has been quiet on the bogus cheque front — so far.

Fire Razes Joffre Home

JOFFRE — A three-bedroom house and all contents on the Ralph White farm, 1½ miles north of Joffre, burned to the ground in a fire of unknown origin on Wednesday morning of last week about 8:00 o'clock.

Four of the five children had just finished breakfast and were getting ready for school when Mrs White smelled smoke from the basement. When he opened the basement door, the fire was already well started. The occupants had no time to salvage anything. All they could do was flee from the flames.

Mrs White who was in Lacombe hospital with a new baby is reported to return home that day.

No estimate on value of the house was immediately available. The dwelling was recently enlarged and modernized. It contained many valuable appliances including televisions, electric dryer, refrigerator and deep freeze full of meat. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Mirror Lady, Mrs. Lund Dies After Long Illness

Mrs Violet Ruth Lund of Mirror passed away at the Lacombe municipal hospital on Thursday February 8, 1962 at the age of 62 years after a lengthy illness.

The late Mrs. Lund was born at Lamerton, Alberta on May 17, 1899 and resided in the Bentley and Bashaw districts before returning to Mirror to reside. She was united in marriage to Roy Lund on January 22, 1918 at Bentley.

Mrs. Lund was a member of the Mirror WA and WI and also was a member of the George school community club at Bashaw for a number of years.

She is survived by her loving husband, Roy of Mirror, five sons, Melvin and George of Edmonton, Cecil of Calgary, Raymond of Red Deer, and Leonard of Toronto; two daughters Mrs. Ted (Lucille) Hansen of Bentley and Mrs Melville (Olive) McDonald of Red Deer.

There are three brothers, Wilfred Graham of Edmonton, Jesse Graham of Donalda, and Montrose Graham of Byron, three sisters, Mrs. Len (Myrtle) Darby of Grande Prairie, Mrs Carter (Rubina) Anderson of Qualicum Beach, B.C., and Mrs Leon (Dorothy) Cooper of Port Alberni, B.C.; and 13 grandchildren. She was predeceased by two brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, February 13, 1962, at 1:00 p.m. from the Mirror Anglican church with Rev. K. M. Colin son of Lacombe officiating. Interment took place in the Bentley plot, Mirror cemetery. Eventide chapel of Lacombe had charge of [illegible]

Heart Attack Claims Life of W. J. Salomons

William Jacob Salomons B. passed away suddenly at his home near Lacombe on Saturday February 10, 1962, as the result of a heart attack. He was 76 years old.

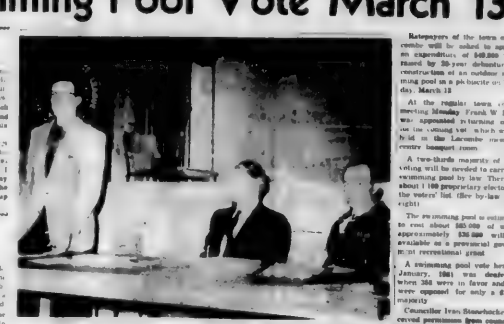
He was born in Drenthe, the Netherlands on June 2, 1885. In April of 1909, the late Mr. Salomons, his wife and family came to Blackfalds, Saskatchewan. They moved west of Lacombe in 1936 where they have resided ever since. In June 1961 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

He is survived by his wife, six daughters, Mrs. (Alma) Bekkering of Abbotsford, B.C. Mrs (Minnie) Talsma, Mrs (Margaret) Kamp, Mrs. (Audrey) Bekkering of Abbotsford, B.C. Mrs (Hilda) Brouwer, twenty - four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the First Christian Reformed Church. Interment was made in the church cemetery. Eventide funeral chapels had charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers, grandsons of the deceased, were Clerk Bekkering, David Abma, John Talsma, Hank Kamps, Bill Kamps and Bill [illegible]

Swimming Pool Vote March 13



At Meeting of Artificial Breeders

which he attended last October as local delegate is Mr. Henderson of Lacombe (left) was elected the speakers at the annual meeting Wigmore of Blackfalds who was chairman at the meeting, and at right is secretary Jim Johnston of Lacombe.

Ratepayers of the town of Lacombe will be asked to approve an expenditure of $40,000 to be shared by 10-year debentures to construction of an outdoor swimming pool on a pic bicycle on Tuesday, March 13.

At the regular town council meeting Monday Frank W. Lees was appointed returning officer and the following vote will be held in the Lacombe municipal secretary's office.

A two-thirds majority of those voting will be needed to carry the proposal by law. There are about 1 100 proprietary electors in the voters' list (flee by-law page right)

The swimming pool is estimated to cost about $65 000 of which approximately $36 000 will be available as a provincial government recreational grant

A swimming pool vote here in January, 1961 was defeated, when 304 were in favor and 236 were opposed for only a $2.2% majority

Councillor Ivan Stonebucker received permission from council to negotiate with the county for land on the southwest corner of the rink grounds, where the proposed swimming pool would be located

The committee vote given authority to proceed with negotiations for purchase of this county owned property, at the next council meeting on February 22

100 Feeders Meet Here Last Week

Over 100 cattle feeders from all parts of Alberta, from the Peace River country south to the border, converged on Lacombe last Friday for a meeting at the LMC to discuss problems of mutual concern.

Bill Henderson of Lacombe was chairman, and Jack McKinley of Lacombe secretary.

One of the most pressing problems which delegates hope may be rectified, is the short buying season from October 1 to February 28, with the year-end cutoff on August 31 at which time all feeders' loans must be repaid in full.

These dates are set in legislation by the provincial government which guarantees up to 25% of the Lacombe loan.

Feeders will request a revision in the act which would make it possible to buy stock at any time of the year, with expiry date for repayment to be one year from the first date of purchase — at which time the account will be settled individually with the account.

This type of individual "revolving credit" would lift present restrictions and give farmers latitude and unity in purchasing cattle, but in marketing.

Two other resolutions will be forwarded to the provincial department of agriculture for consideration.

One of these will ask the government to consider changing the rule prohibiting financing female cattle over one year of age and allowing financing of females up to two years.

The other will request the government to allow higher limits on loans for purchase of feeder cattle.

The Present limits are $2,500 for [illegible] feeders, and $5,000 for consecutive years.

It was decided to have another general meeting and informal discussion next year. Left to arrange the time and place were committee members of the two local feeders' associations.

There are 30 such associations in the province, and most of them were represented at last week's meeting.

Terms Expire on County Council

ART KESTON R.R.1

VICTOR JOHANSON Bentley

Returning officer Cyril Ireaside of Blackfalds will receive nominations to fill vacancies in division one and six, between 2:00 and 4:00 tomorrow afternoon in connection with the annual meeting of the county of Lacombe. Terms of office expire for councillors Art Keston of Alix and Victor Johanson of Bentley, respectively. Ratepayers from the town and villages in the area are especially invited to attend the morning session starting at 10:00 at the Legion hall, when school affairs will be fully discussed. Meeting in the afternoon will be devoted to municipal affairs.

Mark Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Rose will be at home to their friends on Wednesday, February 21 from 2:00 to 5:00 and from 7:00 to 9:00 on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. No gifts by request

Town Ratepayers to Have Tax Discounts

Principle of allowing tax discounts for early payment, which was discarded by town council about five years ago, was revived in a by-law given the necessary three readings at the council meeting Monday night.

The new regulations allow a discount of 4% on general taxes on real property paid on or before March 31, and 3% on general taxes on real property paid after March 31 but on or before May 31.

There will be no discount on taxes on frontage tax and [illegible]

Councillor Wilf Hunt and his committee has calculated that the above discounts will give ratepayers an incentive to pay their taxes early, and will cost the town about the same amount as the present interest paid on tax penalty bank loans ($2,427 last year).

Since the mill rate is not normally set as early as March 31 ratepayers can receive a discount on "guess-timate" based on last year's taxes, after which a refund or additional small payment can be made later when the mill rate is set.

Another tax change being considered by council is to assess buildings for business tax on a square foot basis, instead of on a rental basis as heretofore. Committee will meet with the assessor to discuss this matter further.

It was felt the contemplated change could not be done before June 1, if it is adopted this year.

Secretary Frank Leary reported tax arrears of slightly more than $8000 — Council agreed that delinquent accounts be referred to the solicitor for action.

Shopping Hrs.

Results of a questionnaire re [illegible] shopping hours was received from the board of trade.

It was noted that of 58 [illegible] replying, only 10 indicated a preference for one-night shopping per week. The majority favored the present regulations with council acting special Christmas shopping hours in December.

The matter was referred to committee for further study.

Miscellaneous

Application for a building permit was approved to W. R. Petrie for construction of a $10 500 dwelling on 54 avenue between 54 and 55 streets.

Payment of $180 for a building licence was accepted from Fraser & Son of Edmonton, contractors of the new federal building here.

Lacombe police report for January complaints received and investigated, approximately 100 business places found unlocked after hours; one fatal fines due town for month $415.00

Council will sit as a court of revision to hear nine appeals against property assessment on Monday March 12, at 8:30 p.m.

Fish and Game Annual Meeting Monday, Feb. 19

Annual meeting of the Lacombe and district fish and game association will be held next Monday, Feb. 19, at 8:00 p.m. in the Legion hall.

President Ed Todd will be in the chair to conduct the meeting, which will include a commemoration of the year's activities and an election of new officers.

A smorgasbord lunch will be served later in the evening. The public is cordially invited

First Fallout Shelter Built in Lacombe

Town of Lacombe has its first fallout shelter. Town council was informed at a regular meeting Monday night that a fall-out shelter had been built in the basement of the town fire [illegible]

Don Bewshaar and Cliff Bain have representing National Surveyed Shelters Ltd., Edmonton were present at the meeting to submit plans which have been approved by the federal government.

The railway shelter was ordered by the department of national defence, and was built some last week at a cost of about $700. The size is 8 x 14, contains double bunks, and is now complete except for wiring

The city representatives told council they are ready to construct fallout shelters in private homes, if desired. Cost averages "around $600" for the approved plan.

Three Resolutions

This year saw of three delegations at the meeting.

Arnold Brum was present to discuss with council the proposed development of his property east of 50 street and north of 54 avenue, facing Lacombe schools.

His committee is subdivide about 750 feet of acreage into [illegible] on the east side of 50 street, fifteen lots and other installations, which would cost about $5 00 per foot, is being held up pending completion of surveys

Masonic Temple

Jack Rogers of Bentley and Tom Sait of Lacombe attended the meeting as representatives of the local Masonic lodge

They submitted drawings showing prospective renovation to the former Lacombe school divisional office building, valued at about $6,000.

It will be known in future as the Lacombe Masonic Temple Lot

A meeting room upstairs will be for the exclusive use of the lodge and Eastern Star. There will be a banquet room for special occasions, and some office space arranged to rent to tenants.

Rockets scored four goals in the second period Tuesday night to sink Drumheller Miners 6-3 in a wild and woolly hockey fixture at the stadium here before about 1,500 fans.

Lacombe's scoring was divided between Clare Drake, Ed Zemrau, Murray Dan, George Townsend, Guy Menage, Austin Smith, John Young and Al LaPlante, all of whom scored once.

Lacombe led 3-2 at the end of the first, only to have Drumheller step out early in the second period. The Rockets then tallied five times without an answer.

Bruce Ellsett, who goes north next of town, was the door prize winner, and a wild broomball game between the second and third periods gave the Kinsmen Boys' Band a chance to show off its stuff.

Lacombe's Rockets sparked by the return of Al LaPlante, won a game they wanted badly last Saturday night when they dumped the second-place Ponoka Stampeders at Ponoka The score was 6-4 by the time the final bell went.

LaPlante, who left the team last December for a two-month tour of Europe returned to the lineup and blasted four goals before he surprised Ev Patterson in the Stamps net Playing for the Rockets, as usual, was Duke Graves of the Red Deer Rustler fame, who replaced Ron Hicks who was called up to local pro ball the San Francisco Seals of the western Canadian professional league.

Laugh McMillan and Jimmy Wilson each scored for the Rockets to go with LaPlante's four tallies For the Stampers, it was Truth with two and Ulendale and Gee with one apiece

Sportsmen's Dinner Big Event Here on March 2

Town and district residents are looking forward to a sportsmen's stag being sponsored by the Kinsmen club of Lacombe at the Lacombe on Friday evening March 2

Top-notch sports talent will be on hand for the big event, including such well-known personalities as Leo Lalonde and Henry Senger of Edmonton, and Frank McCool of Calgary

LeCuyer, veritable general manager of the Edmonton Oil Kings, will be master of ceremonies.

Henry Senger will act as announcer for a panel discussion on hockey and football

McCool will recall some anecdotes about his hockey days with the old Lacombe Athletics in the late 1920's, and later as goal-keeper with the Toronto Maple Leafs when he recorded two consecutive shut-outs on Bentley rink Ratten.

Kin Garth Wagner, in charge of the event, promises the presence of several other "top-notch" sports circles who will be announced soon.

Eagles Play Red Deer Here Friday

A big "sweet" game for the undefeated Lacombe Eagles will be played here tomorrow night at the school auditorium when Red Deer comes calling in a central Alberta basketball league fixture

The local boys have five straight wins as the first half of the drive is completed, while Red Deer's record lies in the hands of Kaye ter by two points earlier in the season.

Action like that is at store for hockey fans at all games of the highly-regarded Central Alberta hockey league. Rifle and Pistol Club Starts Regular Shooting Practices

Over 30 were out last week at Lacombe's newly-organized rifle and pistol club held its first regular "shoot." Wednesday and Friday evenings in the range at the jubilee stadium Both rifle and pistol practices were being enjoyed by those present Over 25 members have so far been signed up by the club and many from town and district residents are showing interest in joining

Local Midgets Advance In Provincial Playoffs

Lacombe midget hockey club, coached by Andy Whyte, have won their first two series in the provincial playoffs, and now are waiting to take on the Stettler midget club to advance on the Alberta playdown trail

The Lacombe lads had no difficulty to date in the team's first provincial home-and-home tilt they thumped Wetaskiwin 13-4 at Lacombe and continued the treatment at Wetaskiwin with a convincing 10-3 score

Next team up for the bumps was Ponoka in two games held at Ponoka that Saturday and Sunday the local midgets won by scores of 10-3 and 12-1.

So now it's Stettler next and local hockey fans will watch the locals well in their home-and-home games against the strong Stettler team Dates of the games have not yet been set

Players on the Lacombe team are Clinton Fystro, Frank Palmer, Dale Lemke, Billy Todd, Dennis Smith, Kim Kaufmann, Ed Konnigsmeer, Jerry Bailey, Steve Stossbneff, Andy Borsch, Walter Mand, Jim Towle, Frank Chabot, Stettler Dallas Dales

Attend Your Annual Meetings

MOST important meetings of the year to rural residents are being held in the month of February.

The first is the annual meeting of the county of Lacombe to be held tomorrow. The county administration was responsible for an expenditure of three million dollars in 1941. That is a lot of money. It controlled municipal and school affairs, and all aspects of the year's operations will be explained. It is hoped there will be a good attendance from the town and village, as well as surrounding districts.

Monday February 26, is annual meeting night for all towns and villages. Local government is the purest form of government, since it is closest to the people. To be properly informed the people must attend their own annual meeting. Again, good attendance is stressed.

Just a Small Raise

A SMALL, news note tells us that the president and council secretary of the Dominion Rubber have accepted a voluntary 20 percent reduction in their salaries. In accepting

In Canada, advance publicity has been given that a private member will introduce a bill during the present session at Ottawa calling for a raise in salary for members of parliament from $4,000 to $5,000 [illegible]

Apart from the doubtful aspect as to whether Canadian citizens are getting value for the $10,000 paid to MP's now, there is the further question of the example our government representatives will be setting for other trades and industries if the bill is adopted and becomes law. We are an age of inflation and the pressure created by high-er wage demands as nearly all walks of life courts a great force against a "hold the line" policy to which the government itself gives lip service

It must be nice to be able to vote many money to the parliament, whenever the dollars run a little short

The Cold, Cold North

THERE hasn't been the warmest winter on record by any means, but we still take exception to the bleak and pessimistic American who believes all his cold temperatures on Canada

A couple of weeks ago, for example a particularly severe "arctic mass of air" hung over wide areas of the United States bringing chilling temperatures. They were bemoaning their warnings in the southern fruit belt Chicago was shivering in 11 below zero weather, a centre in northern Texas reported two below, and the coldest spot was Drummond, Montana, at 42 below

Now it so happens that at the same time the mercury was skirting a few degrees above zero in the northern climes of Alberta But as far as our U.S neighbors are concerned, any deep freeze always comes "from the north."

"Tain't necessarily so. A wind from the south might have brought Montana's extreme cold into Alberta the next day Thus Americans would never believe!

One Reason For Unemployment

OUT of [illegible] returning army in the country, 51 percent of those receive honors completing grade 8 or less. Those entering statistics on the field of education should give all intelligent Canadians pause for thought.

The reasons for student dropouts are many inability of the student to succeed in school, economic requirement necessity to earn a living early in life, apathy in the classroom, failure to realize the greater opportunities afforded by a higher education, victim of a broken home, etc

It is also true, as J D Campbell of the provincial government vocational department said recently, that 70 percent of the jobs available today are classified as "skilled" That is, they are openings for students who have a minimum of five years' training, beyond grade 12

Mr Campbell says the obvious deficiency in labor has been filled, up to now by immigrant labour The problem remains with what's to be done with the thousands of unskilled workers who reach the natural'ed blue market with a grade eleven education or less

One of the most obvious and satisfactory answers is for parents to see that their children [illegible] secondary education, and further training beyond that level if at all possible The children and the country will be the better for it

Election, Anyone?

PRIME minister John Diefenbaker has all the observers and experts guessing on when the next federal election will be held It's possible that he will call a snap election between the time this is written and appears in print But it's hardly likely

Mr Diefenbaker is an astute politician. There are some arguments that can be advanced showing that it would be better for his Progressive-Conservative party to hold an election in the spring

But remember or other we imagine the prime minister is enjoying the spectacle of seeing his opponents banging on the ropes The Social Credit party would like to rattle a national mike but hasn't a member in the house to do the job Tommy Douglas is running around the country shrugging the voters as new democratic party leader, but without holding a seat in parliament This must be a trifle embarrassing to him The Liberals would like to make a noise at Ottawa but they're drowned out by 200 sitting Conservatives

The opposition parties are handicapped, and Mr Diefenbaker knows it Perhaps it suits his purpose best to continue the status quo as long as possible The Conservatives appear serene and happy on parliament hill It's the opposition that looks uncomfortable

To the co-ordinator of model parliament on the campus — from the office of president Ernest C Manning — comes [illegible]

"While wholeheartedly endorsing your aims and objectives, the council does not feel that moving the model parliament from convocation hall to the legislative buildings would add sufficient merit to the functions to warrant abandoning the long-standing tradition of restricting the use of the legislative chamber to the work of the legislature and a few limited functions where have a definite relationship to the crown."

In short, the answer is "no"

A brief presented to the premier last December by the political science club was only the latest of a series of attempts over the past four years to convince the power-that-be of the proposition that model parliament in the provincial buildings would be advantageous not only to campus and provincial politics but indirectly and inevitably, to national politics

Manning, the Model Premier

The [illegible] presented to premier in support of the move, among others

1 The atmosphere of the legislative buildings would add an air of respect and realism to proceedings

2 It would promote greater interest as model parliaments on campus and throughout the province

3 It would raise interest in politics in general to a more mature level

The brief pointed out that in other provinces model parliaments use the legislative buildings, and in fact that in Alberta the legislative buildings have been used by other groups (e.g. Boy Scouts)

Manning's reply lists arguments against the move, that many groups request the use of the legislative buildings and that to accede to model parliament while denying others is unfair, while to open the building to all groups would not be acceptable to the people of the [illegible]

These may not be all the factors affecting Mr Manning's (and the executive council's) decision. In any case, it would seem that our model parliament is rated either too low or too high — maybe both. Perhaps it's not worthy of legislative body, specifically designed to equip university people for the job of running their nation's governments. In other words, its function is quite in line with the purposes for which government buildings exist — for government is a process of learning, as it is of legislating.

On the other hand, perhaps we are rated higher than we suppose in the practical calculations of the council across the river. It is likely that a party other than Social Credit will form the government in model parliament. It may be that the prospect of a government other than Social Credit sitting in a hall politically sanctified for twenty-five years would at this point seem prematurely unexpedient, perhaps even a bit impious Which might be taking life a [illegible]

SUBDIVISION AT STETTLER

Town of Stettler received its 1961 financial report from the auditors at the regular council meeting Tuesday night and it contained good news for the ratepayers as it showed a surplus of $18,500 after picking up a deficit of $8,316 from the previous year Total revenue was $161,317.

It is interesting to note that taxes receivable are down about $4,000 to $20,-000.

With a revenue of $60,000, the waterworks system had a surplus of $5,000.

Council is negotiating with an out-of-town organization to provide a dog-catching service

Mail-in Farm Accounting

The [illegible] Alberta farm business Co-op Association is being [illegible] and by next harvest [illegible] recommendations to our office This organization is for the sole purpose of assisting farmers to do a better job of taking care of their own business.

As district agriculturist the past few years, I can safely say I believe that what we can with the organization to the good where it is, took after itself This goes along with other A-gricts department of agriculture's policy regarding organizing of any farm service which the farmers themselves feel to be of benefit

The mail-in accounting service which goes along with the central Alberta farm business co-op will keep all farm records strictly confidential the same as would any private accounting office

In conclusion I would ask the readers of this letter to sincerely consider this question, is it necessary for a farm manager to keep records support and promote his own business My own answer yes, definitely No matter what kind of business we are referring to, it does not support and promote a farm business be [illegible] and is forced out of business It also makes many [illegible] very comfortable to [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible]

It is then can a farm manager stay in business if he does not promote and support his own business keeps no daylight in [illegible] those on a surplus market and keeps on buying substitutes thereby supporting a million, perhaps multi-million business and cutting his own throat. I would all this in plain language poor management. By using the words of my opponent it would read inefficient, ignorant.

Yours truly,

Around the Clock . . .

By One of the Hands

Hi, Dumbo! Haven't seen you for a long time!

I hate February.

You haven't changed, Dumbo Still grumbling, I notice

I've got a right to grumble in February. There's always [illegible] this month. It's cold, I'm tired and winter by the time February gets around.

February has some wonderful features. It's "Heart Month," you know.

Yes, February's the heart of [illegible]

How, now, Dumbo. We owe a lot to February. Think of the number of famous people born in that [illegible]

Like who?

Like Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, and Sir Harold MacMillan, British prime minister. Abe Lincoln, too.

That's not very many.

The World of Trees . . . .

The state of Virginia interests me with its historical houses and their pillared porches. Our west is new and has not had time to acquire much history The United States was born when the James river and has 200 years of history. These places are associated with early presidents.

I was over Berkeley house, the home of the ninth president, William H Harrison, and the home of the tenth president, John Tyler, which is an old old house—300 feet long, built in 1700. The Tylers still live there

One of these homes has an unusual avenue of a small kind of cedar, pathway trimmed with white flowered dogwood in full flower The cedar was almost black The avenue would be about half a mile long and was quite striking

One of America's show places is here: "Washington's house" The back of the big house looks over the Potomac River, which was a favorite view of the first president. The estate is large and the flats by the river covered by woods must have looked lovely in the fall with the mixed hard woods and then although almost leaves with a few pines for contrast He had a fine garden and used to experiment with plants.

Those old estates were pretty much self supporting

There was the dairy, the blacksmith shop and carpenter shop and they made their own bricks. Their skilled labor was brought over from England and they had slaves for the rougher work.

The Governor's house in Richmond, the capital, is another old house with a history Many prominent people have stopped here King Edward VII. The Queen Mother, Churchill, Dewey, Thackeray, and most of the presidents. It has a really lovely kind of a sunken garden and in the spring blazing red azalea and white dogwood.

To our standards, these houses are very large but would not be hard to live in with plenty of help [illegible] [illegible] everything is very green.

Letters to the Editor . . . .

Dear Sir:

Would you please allow me a little space in your paper for a few remarks I'd like to make to the theme "The Farmer versus the farm expert." After reading Mr. Fretwell's letter over and over again, I find the entire contents nothing else but very destructive criticism.

One must be a very intelligent farmer that does not need any advice But don't forget there are hundreds and thousands of farmers who do need advice and I am one of them.

A large percentage of my little [illegible]

If winter fog endurnies rain in the spring, then this portion of Alberta should have enough to give the crops a good start From Edmonton outskirts to beyond Hobbema on Saturday evening, the fog was so dense that traffic was almost a crawl, so motorists used the centre white line-guide.

Mr and Mrs John Bell drove to Mr Zelinski in Edmonton on Sunday to visit Mrs Zelinski who has been hospitalized three weeks in University hospital at Edmonton. It will be remembered that this time last year Mr Zelinski was in the hospital in Edmonton following a serious brain operation He is still handicapped by being crippled and dependent on a wheel chair

Friends are sorry to hear of Mrs Zelinski's illness as she has young children at home with... tenders difficult for... concern. Friends... of a speedy and complete recovery.

Is Your Home Getting The Care It Deserves?

Failure to make repairs to your house immediately can be downright expensive One piece of falling plaster that's overlooked or left to take care of itself so often leads to another And then the final expense is much greater

If your house is in need of improvements repairs, paint jobs and the like — and your ready cash can't take care of the cost, see Fred Pomeroy, manager of the Lacombe Bank of Montreal branch about a Home Improvement Loan H.I.L.'s are available at the B of M for all kinds of worthwhile purposes Small or large

They're inexpensive, too — the interest is less than one half of one per cent a month — and you repay in easy monthly instalments, plus interest. So, if you have the repairs or improvements in your mind, call on Mr Pomeroy at the B of M tomorrow He will be glad to show you how a Home Improvement Loan can help you.

County Affairs In Good Shape

About [illegible] the annual meeting of the county of Lacombe last Friday in the Legion Hall with Malcom Fisher of Lodge Heights as chairman and Lorraine Bowen as secretary.

School and municipal administration were discussed and after making plans for the operation of the Parkland regional library and Rimbey three-way hospital. A large number of questions relative to the interest of those in attendance

[illegible] county chairman's report, page 10 field supervisor's report page 10]

John Othilus of Lacombe from the accounting firm of Watt, Gower & Othilus outlined features of the financial statement

The surplus of $60,000 ($50,000 from school and $10,000 from municipal) was derived mainly from revenue items received by the county which were not expected like licence fees from mobile and seismic equipment, and additional government grants. Also, expenditures were about $3,000 less than budgeted for.

Tax receipts of $1,000,000 exceeded the current year's levy by nearly $30,000 "which is a good sign" he said pointing to more payments of arrears of taxes

Regional Library

Councillor Mrs. E. E. Atkinson reported that about 140,000 books were circulated in the county by the Parkland regional library. Total circulation was 414,000 in all areas served by the library.

She invited visitors to a book display of about 1,000 books in the Lacombe elementary school auditorium from March 6-9 inclusive

Mrs Simons of Clive asked if there was some way to get better book service from the library

Mrs Atkinson replied that the questioner was probably referring to junior books which was correct. "It is a hard problem to get hold of enough of these books," said Mrs Atkinson because students in grades one to three can read a book in one night and then they want more There is a short age of books for this age group

Rimbey 3-Way Hospital

Reporting on the operation of this hospital, councillor A E Wimmer of Blackfalds said it was not a financial burden on the county as it was years back now that there is a "new provincial hospital scheme" There was a credit balance of $10,000 at the end of the year.

The hospital has 35 patients at present, and improvements include the installation of new-type beds and the construction of a fire

Question Period

Mrs Martin Sherrig of Erkville [illegible] said [illegible] was such a dangerous railroad crossing on school buses near Erkville [illegible] not delay. It is impossible to see a train 30 yards away from either direction, due to the contour of the land, and "some day there will be a real catastrophe"

Earl Giles of Tees stated that he could foresee a water problem for livestock this year. He was wondering if water could not be pumped to farms from existing creeks and water sources under a dominion government PFA program. "Could our local councillor look into this?" he asked

Geoff ey Fretwell of Clive noted that the field inspectors comments in his report on the short age of feed in this area, "yet grain is moving out of our elevators all the time" Could the council use "freeze" existing grain in county elevators?

Fire, Police Protection

Councillor Wigmore explained the type of equipment available on a truck at Bentley which would help protect county farmers against fire The truck in most cases 970 gallons of water, "plenty of hose", and could travel at good speed to fires.

The cost is about $7,000 he said, and six such units critically placed throughout the county would "run just over $40,000." In addition, towns and villages are willing to co-operate in making their equipment available.

Some discussion also centered around police protection in the area.

Operetta, Forum At Next Meeting Of Home and School

A stage presentation by grade five students and a forum discussion on driver training in schools will feature the monthly meeting of the Lacombe and District School Home and School Association next Wednesday.

Please note a change in both time and place — at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the junior-senior high school instead of the high school.

Mrs. B Williams grade five class will present Hansel and Gretel promptly at 8:00, and then will be followed by a short panel discussion on driver training with four speakers Mrs Sadie Atkinson, a driver examiner, A Walker parent Ryan M Fadden student, and Mr Moore of AMA Calgary.

Resolutions Adopted at County Annual Meeting

Three resolutions one dealing with a study of home economics and shop classes in school, one with an extension of the County Home to urban ratepayers, and one with installation of "yield" signs on important county roads.

Students to Speak At Chartter Night Of Rotary Club

Rotary club of Lacombe at a charter night program in the LMC Thursday evening, will welcome students from one county giving speeches in "Adventures in Citizenship"

The five participating pupils are Lou Clark of Canadian Union College, Wanda Landon of Bentley, and Joanne Oldring, Shirley Ellerbeck and Lou Atkinson of Lacombe

The winner will travel to Ottawa on May 16.

Spring Valley Pioneer, Leslie Mathieson Dead

Leslie Mathieson, pioneer resident of the Lacombe district died suddenly at his farm home six miles southeast of town on Saturday, Feb. 17, 1962.

He was 78 years of age, and had been in ill health, recently Rt MP of Red Deer investigated and coroner John McKibbon of Lacombe announced that no inquest would be held.

Born in Scotland, the deceased came to this country in 1903 and to the district in 1912 where he resided for nearly sixty years.

His wife, Isabella, predeceased him on Sept. 23, 1961

Last rites were held from Evangelic funeral chapel in Lacombe on Thursday, with Rev. B. H. Thorkelson officiating. Interment followed at the Lacombe cemetery Pallbearers were Hewson Duffy, Bernard Duffy, Jack Bonville and Joe Lewis.

He is survived by one son, Leslie of Calgary; one daughter, Mrs. C. Duffy of Lacombe; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral Friday Afternoon For Mrs. Bjork

Last rites will be held from the Evangelic chapel in Lacombe Friday afternoon, at 1:30 for Mrs Lollie Mae Bjork, the former Mrs. Charlie Grimes. Rev B. H Thorkelson will officiate and interment will be at the Lacombe cemetery

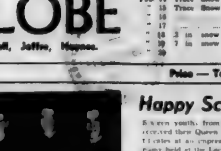
The deceased passed away at Lyvenne on Monday Feb 19, 1962, at the age of 62. She has lived in this district for almost sixty years having come here in 1913.

She is survived by three sons Larry Grimes of Fort MacLeod, Cyrus Grimes of Edmonton, and John Powell of Kinsbro Ill.; one daughter, Bill Grimes of Florida; one daughter, Mrs Ed Underdahl of Lacombe.; 18 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Thought For the Week...

Of all knowledge, the wise and good seek most to know themselves.

Lieutenant-Governor Present



D. Pennington, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta presented certificates to 20 Queen Scout of county Alberta on an impressive ceremony held at the Lacombe memorial centre last Saturday evening. Close to 500 were present to witness the presentations before a backdrop of around 60 flags held by Boy Scouts from 15 troops of central Alberta

E. O. Kumm provincial Scout commissioner, issued a challenge to the Queen Scouts immediately following the presentations Queen Scout Terry Hoyle of Red Deer replied to the challenge

Denny May of Camrose Scout field commissioner, was in charge of arrangements for the evening

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the banquet room of the LMC at which workers of the Queen Scout [illegible] coffee and tea.

Eleven youth, from this area received their Queen Scout certificates at an impressive ceremony held at the Lacombe memorial centre last Saturday evening. Scouts from the district [illegible] Bentley, Lacombe, Wayne, Rimbey, Blackfalds and Tees. Each received a Queen Scout certificate from Lieutenant-Governor Pennington. Mark Golden Anniversary

Wednesday, Feb 21, was a banner day for Mr and Mrs Ross Ross of Lacombe, as a host of friends called to wish them well on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The old-time couple were married in 1912 in Ontario, and moved soon after to Saskatchewan where they farmed until coming to Lacombe in the early 20's.

They farmed 3¼ miles north of Lacombe and retured in town 15 years ago Mr. Ross at 80 years and Mrs. Ross at 77, are both in reasonably good health.

They have five children: Aylmer in Ontario, Lawrence of Calgary, Mrs Jerry (Kaye) Leach of Lacombe Mrs Lou (Eleanor) Chapan of Lacombe, and Mrs George (Norma) Kary of Lacombe

The Globe joins in extending warm congratulations on this special anniversary occasion.

172 Teachers, 3,658 Pupils in County

There are 172 teachers operating 101 classrooms in schools across the county of Lacombe, stated superintendent H R Ross at the annual meeting of ratepayers in the Legion hall last Friday.

Teachers without home rooms include five principals, travelling teachers, bandmaster etc., Mr Ross explained in his report

Total enrolment of students in the county reached 3,658 at September 1961, he reported.

To provide instructions for these pupils, there is a seven-teacher school at Balmoreal; nine-teacher school at Blackfalds; 13-teacher school at Clive; 15-teacher school at Alix, 17-teacher school at Mirror 18-teacher school at Erkville, 23-teacher school at Bentley; and a 56-teacher school at Lacombe [not including specialists or non-home-room principals serving there schools]

Mr Ross applied to qualifications of teachers in this county by years of university or teacher training and classes.

Less than two years of training, 61 teachers, two years but less than three 29; three years but less than four 16, four years but less than five years, 41 five years but less than six, 12 six years or more, 6.

Bursary Students

Mr Ross said that there should be 18 students available for teaching this year Their qualifications vary from two years of training to more than four years "The latter five students should help to relieve the high school situation in part The most difficult area to fill now is in the senior high school."

Mathematics Course

He referred briefly to the new mathematics course put into operation in grades one to three in all schools in the county this year

"Results have been very good and high interest has been shown by both pupils and teachers," he said "Better progress and understanding of arithmetic is being achieved by the pupils than formerly was attained under the traditional mathematics

"The program will be extended to include grade four and possibly grade five in September 1962," he said. "The program will then be introduced one grade at a time until it is being taught right through high school."

Chairman's Report

J. S. McCormack chairman of the educational committee stated that he couldn't foresee reductions in the budget because, "the costs of education don't grow less, they grow more"

Referring briefly to future plans he said "we must [illegible] high school in Lacombe would be developed "to meet very demanding needs over there" An extension to the high school will include five classrooms on the main floor, industrial arts, a [illegible] basement a lecture room, staff visual aid rooms and library

Consideration is being given to the Blackfalds to an addition of "at least two further rooms and possibly four rooms."

Question Period

Geoffrey Fretwell of Clive asked if the committee intended to build recreational facilities in the east part of the county, since there is no gymnasium-auditorium now

A — by the present chairman, A. E. Wigmore — "This question has been discussed but will not be undertaken this year. The county hopes to reduce the total debenture debt in the future. The question will require further study."

Frank Cripps of Clive asked if any survey had been taken to determine the future number of children [illegible] and [illegible] population [illegible] and how long will the increase be maintained in places like Lacombe"

A — Mr McCormack pointed out that principals of various schools are asked for a report on the number of children "coming up" The information, obtained from parents is usually compiled around May or June toward the end of the school year.

The student increase continues in centralized areas. Additional rooms have been completed at Erkville, building will be undertaken at Blackfalds and Lacombe this year and "pressure is on" at Bentley and in the Alix-Haynes district "[illegible] elementary in Lacombe," he said

Herman Lapp of Erkville requested more information regarding financing the 1962 school in that area.

A — from Mr. Wigmore — "We hope to keep borrowing down to $100,000 Costs of construction exceeding that will be paid out of current revenue"

Mr Dyriand of Erkville noted the needs of bus operation. $181,208 "Does this include the mail service?" he wants to know

A — from Mr. McCormack — The education committee was not aware that any bus driver was stopping a bus by rural route boxes for children to pick up mail. If so the committee has heard the complaint. "The matter can be taken up."

County Councillors Returned to Office By Acclamation

J. A. Keeton of Alix and Victor Johansen of Bentley were returned as Lacombe county councillors by acclamation when nomination papers were received by Clerk Ironside of Blackfalds at the annual meeting on Friday.

Signing Mr Keeton's nomination papers for division one were E. McDonald, B. D. Nelson and Ira Mann, all of Alix, and H S Matthews, R. H. Stuart and F. A Simons, all of Clive

Signing Mr. Johansen's nomination papers for division six were Lenus Prkin of Erkville, and G M. Wilson, Herold H Peterson and A. Andrew, all of Bentley

Couple Wed in North To Reside at Lacombe

Evelyn Anne Openshaw eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Openshaw of Whitelaw, Alta., became the bride of Mr. Lloyd George Gimbel youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gimbel of Lacombe, in a pretty ceremony solemnized at the Seventh-day Adventist church at Whitelaw on February 11, 1962.

Pastor R. C. Spangler of Grande Prairie officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in nylon sheer and lace over net and taffeta. Her fingertip length veil fell in soft folds from a pearl and sequin coronet and she carried a bouquet of deep pink roses.

Miss Christine Mason of Fairview was bridesmaid in a dark turquoise silk dress, flared skirt, boat neck, and white accessories. Her flowers were baby white orchids contained with a large white rose.

The little flower girl, Miss Marilyn Openshaw, sister of the bride wore a dress of pink nylon over cotton with white accessories.

Mr. Tom Openshaw, brother of the bride, of Whitelaw, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Dan Stephens and Mr. Glen Owen, both of Bluesky.

Mrs. Stanley Ferguson sang "Happy the Home," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William Openshaw.

The bride changed to a dress of purple sheath with black accessories for the honeymoon trip. The happy couple will take up residence at Lacombe.

Experimental Farm Pavilion Basement Flooded With Water

About four feet of water covered the floor of the basement of the Lacombe experimental farm swine pavilion when it was discovered last week that the water pipes had frozen.

Supt. Ray Richardson of the farm said he wasn't sure whether it was the first time the furnace quit causing the pipes to freeze or whether the flood of water smothered out the furnace.

The small basement area underneath the kitchen part of the pavilion, main part of the building was undamaged.

Individual Cost Low

PLESBICITE on a new swimming pool will be held in Lacombe on Tuesday, March 13. Proprietary electors will be asked to approve a 20-year debenture in the amount of $60,000, to be used with an estimated $30,000 provincial government grant to build a handsome $90,000 swimming pool on the southwest corner of the jubilee auditorium grounds (intersection of 56 avenue and C & E trail.

On a swimming pool vote in January, 1961, 68% of the voting ratepayers approved it. Presumably they did so because a would have passed their lawn on the rate payers' three years of spending taxes. Town taxes are high, so they are in other centres, and there is no relief in sight.

In the forthcoming plebiscite, we wonder how many will look at the figure of $60,000 with interest over 20 years and say dogmatically, "It's too much." How many will take the trouble to figure out in dollars and cents exactly what it will cost in extra taxes each year?

The amortized debenture payment each year will be $3,600.00 as principal, plus interest of $2,280.00 at five per cent or $2,370.31 at six percent. This gives an annual payment of between $5,880.00 and $5,970.31, or between 11 and 1.2 mills.

The present pool operation would likely show a deficit, judging by the experience of other centres. Making a generous allowance for the might income the annual swimming pool cost is two mills.

For the home owner of a home with an assessment of $8,000, this would mean an increase from last year's $320.00 to $400.00 -- or $80.00 a year. The property owner who paid $640.00 for the construction and operation of a swimming pool. This is less than $6.70 per month.

It is on this dollar-and-cents issue that the proponents must weigh the value of a swimming pool against the cost, before he marks his ballot.

Tax Discounts

ABOUT five years ago, the town of Lacombe scrapped a long-standing by-law that offered ratepayers a discount on their taxes if paid by June 30 in the year due. The reasoning behind the move was that council simply added ten percent to the estimates, and it was felt this "expense" was unnecessary and could be abolished to reduce the mill rate.

Without the incentive of discounts, most ratepayers weren't in a hurry to settle their taxes so early in the year. In fact, the majority waited until their business or personal affairs settlement revenue the town had to make temporary loans from the bank to cover operating costs from month to month. These short-term borrowings carried interest charges of $1,827 last year, according to the financial statement.

At last week's meeting, town council decided to introduce a new policy of smaller discounts for early payment of taxes. The idea is not new in Lacombe, but it is new in December.

Ratepayers will now be able to earn a 4% discount on their taxes, if paid on or before March 31 this year if they have the ready cash. Those who still obtain a 3% discount up to May 31 in submitting these discount figures. Councillor Wilfred Moon put it quite roughly, equal" the cost of interest paid to the bank. In other words, the people of Lacombe will be given equ. value interest for the use of their money.

There are some people who make a habit of paying their bills, including taxes, immediately they are received They will benefit by the new policy. The discounts offered are high enough to entice early tax payments from the majority of ratepayers - remains to be seen.

Realistic Representation

OUR noted daily contemporaries, the Edmonton Journal and Calgary Herald, have been doing a lot of talking lately about increasing the representation of the cities in the legislature. They point out quite accurately that the present constituency boundaries, a relatively small number of voters in the country elects a member of the legislative assembly while a much larger number in the city has the same representation.

This is the survival of an earlier time when most Canadians lived on farms, in villages, or small towns. As the shift in population to the cities the legislature no longer fairly represents urban members. It is possible that at the next setting of the provincial house some boundaries of electoral constituencies will be redefined in the trust not in strict proportion to population, however.

At present, there is an allocation of seven seats to greater Edmonton and seven seats to greater Calgary in the 65-seat legislature. The populations of these two cities including suburbs is 600,000, or nearly 50 percent of the total number of people in the province Would the advocates of "representation by population" suggest that greater Edmonton and greater Calgary receive 30 or more seats? This kind of representation would be more unrealistic than the current one

Population is not the only yardstick in any attempt to realign constituencies. There is the consideration of Alberta's greatest industry, agriculture. How many would carry half the MLA's from the two big cities be to farmers' problems and farmers' needs? If all the members were based absolutely on population figures some of them, containing few people, would be very large in area to be quite unmanageable

Carrying the principle to the provincial level, Canada's three biggest cities Montreal, Toronto, greater Toronto and greater Vancouver have four and one half million people, or roughly one quarter the country's population of 18 million. To give these centres one seat for every four in Ottawa is an unthinkable so giving Alberta's two largest cities one seat in every two in Edmonton

Suspicious Circumstances

A department store clerk who played a part in the arrest of a man accused of participating in a bank hold-up was quoted as saying that he was "immediately suspicious" when the man, buying suede a $49.50 purchase, offered to pay cash. The clerkee, apparently, came when he proffered a $100 bill, he said. "I was sure then," said the clerk, "there was something funny about him."

Industry, the publications of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, commented on the story remarked: "Well, we suppose that in this day and age, when credit cheques, charge accounts, credit cards, et al, paying cash for a $49.50 purchase does add up to something approaching suspicious conduct, anyway. It's a sure way to look conspicuous."

The comment, we presume, is intended to be facetious but the story reveals a rather interesting sidelight on our present way of life Not so very many years ago, large purchases by means other than cash would have been worthy of comment. Many monthly charge accounts and installment buying have come more into general use until today the offer of cash payment is, apparently grounds for suspicion

Furthermore, it seems to us, cash buyers may receive a measure of satisfaction and elbow room some risk of paying a higher price than the installment purchaser. It has been explained to us that the urban, in some part, from the fact that many large retailers save more money from financing purchases than from the sales of the goods themselves.

We realize, of course, that this country's economic system was largely be it upon credit and that installment buying has provided a very welcome means some for a large number of our citizens On the other hand, we feel that there is something wrong with a system which looks with suspicion upon the cash purchaser and sometimes penalizes him in the matter of service and even price

We are told that installment buying has, in recent years, become very popular in Great Britian, where it is known as the "never-never" plan. Perhaps the name offers a better commentary than any we could provide

[illegible] IN MILLION

According to "very rough figure" released to The Canadian this morning by city clerk Russell Smith, the assessment for the city of Camrose for 1962 will be about $10,400,000 as compared with a total assessment last year of approximately $8,850,000, representing an overall increase of over 21% million. The new assessment was completed in the manner by provincial assessors from the department of municipal affairs.

The new assessment, says Mr. Smith, is based on 1957 actual fair valuations of property, while the previous assessment conducted in 1955 for the 1956 tax year was based on 1942 levels. It is generally felt that the new basis is far more realistic and a fairer indication of present day price levels.

Agricultural Service Board Report Given at Meeting

May I submit the following report on the activities of the agriculture service board of the county of Lacombe No. 14 for the year 1961

Crop Conditions

A much below average crop of cereals as well as hay was harvested last year due to severe drought conditions which affected considerably with the eastern portion of the county suffering most.

As a result of the above conditions there has been much movement of forage crops and feed grains from farm to farm in our own area however, this supply has been unable to meet demand and there has been considerable movement of feeds both from other parts from areas north, east and west of the Edmonton region

Seed growers do not appear to be in short supply with the possible exception of oats. However, it is anticipated that there may be some demand for seed grains from the southern and eastern areas of the province, and therefore we would suggest that seed supplies be arranged for as soon as possible

Weed Control Chemicals

Weed conditions at the time that spraying would normally be use, was such, due to drought conditions, that spraying was often postponed and in many cases was not done at all. The acreage sprayed from grain grass being cleaned that even with drought conditions weed spraying would generally have been very beneficial

It also becomes very evident that the spraying of some pastures for the control of sow thistle and Canada thistle in particular could have been very beneficial These weeds were also very prevalent on our roadsides last year, and the end of the growing season

In an effort to bring some of the more beneficial chemical areas under control, the county sprayer was used to spray 120 miles of roadside In this regard the service board would like to request that farmers assist us and thereby help themselves with this problem, whenever possible, by spraying the roadside while making from field to field, or from farm to farm with their sprayers

Although the county does spraying for both brush and weeds, the weeds on the road allowance are still the responsibility of the owner of the land adjoining the road to the centre line of the road allowance The board again wish to request spraying and mowing of road allowance be done whenever and wherever possible

During the course of weed inspection work, there were eight town notices served for the destruction of weeds covering 320 acres, and there were eight notices to prohibit the seeding of land covering 320 acres.

Of the five bad weeds, two, namely Field Bindweed and Russian Knapweed, are not known to be present in our area. Hoary Cress has been found in a small patch on one farm, leafy Spurge has been again found on four farms in light infestations Toad Flax is present in many areas scattered in patches on a considerable acreage.

In order to control the above weeds as much as possible there was 8,300 pounds of soil sterilents either sold to farmers, or used by the county on road allowances The county has a special policy on the sale of soil sterilent for the control of five bad weeds.

This policy consists of sharing of the cost of the chemical by the purchaser, one third by the provincial department, one third by the county, and one third by the purchaser

These sterilents consisted of the following kinds of chemical Sodium chlorate, polybor chlorate, and D.B. granular. It has been also estimated that there was 7,000 pounds of 2-4-D used along with 8,100 pounds of M C P by farmers in their spraying plans With its weed control program the service board used 2,000 lbs of 2-4-D on roadsides for brush and weed control.

Last spring we incorporated a small roadside sprayer into a larger three mounted unit, in the county shop. This unit enables us to cover considerably more ground much more effectively, as long as water is available within a reasonable distance.

Pest Control Program

We have again adopted a program of placing 1080 poison at various points throughout the county for the control of coyotes This year there are 11 such baits placed with their location indicated on the County Mosaic as required by regulations governing the distribution of this poison strychnine is also available and has been used extensively in areas where 1080 could not be used

Damage Compensation

Last year at the annual meeting I reported that blood testing was in progress and that approximately half our area had been completed. Testing has now been completed with the possible exception of a few reactors being left to be tested.

His been learned, and unfortunate that the county of Lacombe is now a certified area, although the duration of certification has not been established as yet It might be interesting to note that the total cattle population during the 1961 blood testing was approximately 33,000 head, whereas the cattle population last year was 34,324 head, an increase of 23,000 in nine years

We have also been informed that there were 18,814 samples of blood taken during the testing program and that 146 reactors were found in 84 herds and there was $6,645.00 paid in compensation.

During the course of the regular calfhood vaccination program there were 8,300 calves vaccinated against brucella disease

Farm Planning

We have found that there is an increased interest in the planting of trees in the last two years, and I would like to recommend to the municipal district's council that the following policy be considered.

That it be recommended to county council that payment be made to the Bowman planting tree compensation at the four rods and not more than six rods, at the property line, at the rate of $20.00 per mile for the first year $30.00 per mile for the second year and $10.00 per mile for the third year This payment to be made only if after inspection the shelter belt has been found to be well cared for and is free from [illegible]

It is hoped that this policy will serve a double purpose Firstly it is hoped that planting will, to some extent, compensate for the extensive brushing that has been carried out during the past few years, and secondly, that some protection may be afforded our roads from drifted snow We noticing in planting a total of 31,500 trees last year and they were planted mainly for farmstead [illegible] and protection

Road Cleaning Plans

You will probably notice this item on your financial statement under protection to persons and property

Under the provisions of the agricultural service board act, the county may enter into an agreement with the provincial department of agriculture, and an incorporated association for the purpose of constructing a seed cleaning plant. A number of farmers in the Bentley area were in favor of such a plan, and together with the assistance of the building Construction commenced in the late summer, and was completed approximately six weeks later The plant commenced operation in October, and was officially opened shortly thereafter To date, there has been approximately 80,000 pounds of grain processed in this plant.

The cost of the plant, which was in the neighborhood of $61,000 has been shared equally by the provincial department of agriculture, the county of Lacombe, and the present shareholders of the Bentley, Rimbey and Blackfalds areas, each holding a $17,000 interest

This plant is administered by a nine-member board of directors. Six of these members are the shareholders, two appointed by the county council, and one appointed by the provincial department of agriculture

Mr. Jim Parker, formerly of Stirome, who has had seven years' experience in cleaning grain, is manager at the present time, and has one assistant.

Commercial Vegetable Production
Central Alberta Farm Business Co-op

Is there a possibility that there a room for some commercial vegetable production in this district? Each year a tremendous volume of vegetables are imported from the U S into this part of Alberta.

Recent information from the horticultural station at Brooks indicates that there are good possibilities for commercial vegetable growing in this area.

In answer to an enquiry into this matter Mr Dunc Hargreave, superintendent of the Brooks horticultural station suggests that the most important requirements for vegetable production are good farm operators, deep rich soil, and a source of supplemental water that could be used for irrigation during critical dry periods. He also indicated that he would be glad to come to Lacombe for a meeting with people who might be interested in commercial vegetable growing.

We would appreciate it if those who are interested would contact our office. If there is sufficient interest we will then arrange for a meeting with Mr Hargreave

The World of Trees . . . .

To start down the coast a state or so, in the Carolinas, we start to find two different trees the live oak and the bald Cypress.

The east coast is very fine till the Blue Ridge mountains about 300 miles inland There are shallow inlets which are swamps in they get inland. Reaching from the Everglades of the southern tip of Florida to North Carolina, they are the home of the bald Cypress.

This tree is a conifer which sheds its leaves and has cones about two inches long.

These swamps are a feature here, and home rides are taken in them They are gloomy and usually relieved by large bushes of azaleas. The cypress grows in the water and has an odd buttressed trunk The long roots send up rows of knees caused by the roots buckling up. These rise about a foot above the water and are usually believed to be nerves for air They look very odd

These Cypress are native here [illegible] I believe northern ones There are a few in a pond in Bordeaux Forest, and some very fine ones in a park in Bordeaux France but they were planted there

We usually understand the Cypress as the Mediterranean tree This is a long-lived evergreen which grows upright like a Lombardy poplar Lodenyn's Villa near Rome has a good avenue of these Cypress The villa is a ruin but the avenue is in good shape He was engineer of Rome in 117 A.D

The live oak is an evergreen oak, not much over 60 feet high, but with a wide spread. I paced one and found it stretched over 100 feet, and that is not unusual The leaves are like dark green willow leaves, but the acorns are no other color with the exception of Florida to North Carolina, they are the home of the bald Cypress.

As we get south these are covered with the weird Spanish moss. This is not a parasite like the mistletoe It will grow on a telephone wire

Mark 63rd Anniversary

Mr and Mrs O. O. Beebe, Lacombe residents from 1909 to 1956, celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on Feb. 9 at their home at 5660 Chamber St., Vancouver

Married in Nebraska, U.S.A., Mr and Mrs Beebe resided in Nebraska and North Dakota where seven children were born, four of whom they lost in babyhood

In 1916, they and three three living children emigrated to Lacombe where three more children were born and all attended Lacombe school.

Mr Beebe served overseas in World war one, and travelled back to Lacombe in 1919 a victim of gas and shell-shock. Mr Beebe turned to farm 14 miles northwest of Lacombe but ill health forced his retirement, and in 1956 they moved to Edmonton, later to Penn, Alberta, and in 1958 to Victoria, B.C

Central to improved Mr Beebe's health, he was never able to work again so as a hobby he took up watch and clock repair. He is now 86.

Mrs. Beebe, at 79, still reads a lot, knits, and crochets.

Present for the celebration were Mrs Beebe and wife, of Langford, Cowie (Mrs. A Parsons) and the Fairbairn of Barnby. Roger Beebe and wife of Vancouver and Frank L. R. Beebe of Victoria.

Unable to attend were Mrs. Beebe and family of Calgary, and Ethel (Mrs. Ray Harris) of Victoria.

Mr and Mrs. Beebe have never suffered the loss of a grandchild (there are 11) nor a great-grandchild (there are eleven).

The Homemaker . . .

By Pat Shaw, District Home Economist

Discussion of Moving Parents Into Retirement Home Should Start Long Before Actual Move

Discussion of moving parents into a home immediately after retirement of the policy, and sickness may be the best time to start discussing the matter.

The longer the elimination period, the less the cost.

The Application.

Unlike almost all other types of insurance, the statement made by the applicant on his application are the sole basis in the absence of a physical examination which a company has for determining whether it will write the policy or not. It is up to the applicant to be certain that health histories and other material information are given in full. By signing an application, he makes himself responsible for these statements.

If they are not complete, he may suffer at a later date by reason of a claim for one that is not as fitness very material to acceptance of the risk may have been omitted, intentionally or unintentionally if a statement being true to the best of his knowledge, check it for accuracy before signing.

If the policy should become invalid because of misstatements in the application, it would be the legal right of the company to deny the claim to protect other policyholders. It is most important for the applicant to understand that pre - existent conditions" generally are not covered

Costs

Premium rates depend first upon the benefits offered under the policy. As a general rule the smaller the premium the more limited the contract and the more exceptions conditions and restrictions are incorporated in it. The other most important factors in arriving at premium rates are age occupations and health.

There is no magic which can furnish broad insurance coverage and sweeping protection at unbelievable bargain rates. One cannot buy steak for the price of turnips or a yacht at row boat prices. Most of these offers are associated with loose claims advertising. So before buying read the printed policies and check its contents.

Points to Observe

I Know the company. Most people have a fair knowledge of the insurance company. If it is licensed by the provincial government you can be reasonably certain that the company has measured up to certain standards.

In selecting the company, remember that when you are buying and accident and health insurance, you are buying security against an event you hope will never happen. But it may be many years from now, you want to be sure that the company will be in sound financial condition and will honor all legitimate claims

The important point is, what is the reputation of the company you contemplate doing business with, regardless of whether it is booming or unlicensed in your province

2. Know the insurance representative. If the man dangerous accident and health insurance with you is unaware and represents a reputable company he will answer all your questions quickly and in a straight forward manner. If you don't know him, you may want to ask him for the names of some of his clients whose claims have been paid so that you can check before making a purchase, or you can inquire among friends in the community who may know him as a fellow businessman.

3. Know the policy. When you purchase an accident and health policy be sure you understand all phases of the policy before you buy. Go back to limitations and check them in relation to the policy you are considering

But remember policies will be completely full of nothing else—there are no benefits to be found between the lines No company can afford to expect a claim so pay it on any other basis than actually provided for by the policy The importance of knowing policy cannot be stressed too much as failure on the part of the insured to understand his rights is the cause of many complaints

Millions of claims are filed yearly So it is important that there are complaints How ever, on a percentage basis, the number is small Many of these are confined to relatively few companies which try to take advantage of the public like those which advertise in flamboyant and misleading ways

Other complaints are due to honest differences of opinion Many times these differences are policyholders either misunderstand the actual coverage they are entitled to because of poorly worded conditions of health

An analysis of complaints by better business bureaus might assist the imposition of policyholders understanding all the terms of their policies and knowing what the benefits are and what they are not

The insurance industry depends on good will The overwhelming majority of companies are genuinely interested in rendering good service to their policyholders

Another type of accident and health insurance is offered in Canada This is the Medical Service Insurance MSI is a non-profit organization sponsored by the medical profession of Alberta

Its purpose is to provide comprehensive pre-medical care to the people of Alberta It is independently controlled by an elected board of directors. As MSI is non-profit, there is no capital stock on which dividends are paid There is no commissions of its kind in the province.

Winner: car of the year award

Selected as the "Car of the Year" by Canada Track and Traffic, the nation's leading automotive panel, the Lark was chosen for this award in the face of the best automobile buy of all domestic cars.

Lark has more leg room than any domestic family car built in Canada, more comfortable, well-shaped, functional body—in fact, Lark is "all-new" throughout.

Lark is powered by the Lark Challenger engine, which is the most modern, economical, high-performance engine in Canada.

Lark is backed by a manufacturer's warranty of 60 months or 60,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in workmanship and materials of parts.

This is the kind of reliability that increases your interest and should demand from a car.

Auditor's Certificate

We have examined the balance sheets of the Lacombe Municipal Hospital as at December 31, 1961, the Statement of Revenue Fund Income and the Statement of Revenue Fund Expense for the year ended on that date, and the supporting statements including the Supplementary Detail of Revenue Fund Expense, and the Supplementary Detail of Revenue Fund Expense, and the Balance Sheet, Plant Fund Balance Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of the accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of income, expenses and surplus present fairly the financial position of the hospital as at December 31, 1961, and the results of its financial operations for the year ended on that date, as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

New Democratic Party Group Sponsors Banquet at Bentley

Local Dairy Members Will Attend April "Little Royal"

-Reporter Linda Blisett)

On Wednesday February 21, the Lacombe 4-H dairy club held a meeting at the local district ag- ricultural office. Eleanor was welcomed and correspondence read. The calves will be tagged during the club tour in May.

It was decided to attend the Little Royal at Olds in April and invite the Pee Wee members to have Kamps give a report on the feeding of the young calf.

BENTLEY - About 115 people attended the New Democratic Party founding banquet and meeting held in the Bentley community hall recently.

Robert Clarkin, Blackfalds farmer a provincial vice-president of the NDP and the last president of the CCF which became a part of the new party introduced the two speakers, Neil Brenner and Malcolm Ivens.

Mr. Brenner in a brief, clear and concise resumed how the working people had to organize and fight to improve their conditions and how bad times threw a long time to learn to co-operate. He deplored the exploitation of the western farmers by the land holding companies who resold the land at much higher prices and charged such high interest. His own father had lost his land after years of hard work.

Mr. Brenner is a graduate of the university of Saskatchewan and is now Canadian president of Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers Union. He said that many industries in Canada were only producing 39 to 60 percent of the potential and inefficiency as the result Better planning in Canada is needed but it should be by and for the people and not by the economic companies and financial interests.

Mr. Ivens hated several road blocks to real democracy in Canada and how the new party hoped to overcome them.

He recalled how many of the social legislations in force today had been presented and popularized by the farmer and labour members and later by the CCF such as old age pensions, family allowances and unemployment insurance to mention a few.

Leader Nielsen, provincial secretary cleared the path somewhat between unions and farmers. Representing the party were Helen Ramachuck and Jim Dawson. Farmers who were Ernest Ivens, Lacombe and Reginald Ivens, Penhold. The need for more co-operation between the farmers was stressed.

Herman Dodd of Benalto was convener for the program, and announced the date of the Wetaskiwin banquet featuring the Honourable Mr. Lesage, premier of Quebec, as the principal speaker.

Mr. A. Tennessee was to be guest speaker at the banquet in Wetaskiwin on March 16, announced Mr. Harold Morrison and Mrs. D. Peterson.

Lacombe hospital notes: Admissions Monday, March 5, at 4 p.m. in the hospital, rooms All ladies interested are invited

Legion Auxiliary Meets

The Legion ladies auxiliary met at the Legion-Elk rooms for the February meeting with a good attendance of members and the president Mrs. H. Dickau in the chair.

As a part of our community work donations were made to the Brownies, the ladies hospital auxiliary, and the board of governors of the Elk Legion building, also the veteran's hospital funds. Plans were started for a Legion, and auxiliary social evening to be held in March.

The United church women will meet on Wednesday, March 7, group one in the evening at 8:00 p.m. in the Christian education building, and group two at the home of Mrs. W. Peterson at 2:30 p.m. An invitation is extended to all ladies interested.

Bible study group will meet in the Christian education building on Tuesday evening, March 6, at 1:00 p.m.

The "world day of prayer" service will be held in the United church on Friday, March 9, at 2:30 p.m. All ladies of the community are invited to this service and ladies of the various churches will be taking part. Mrs. Helen Newman of Lacombe will be the guest speaker. Let us all join with the women of the world on this day of prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baun are receiving congratulations on the birth of a granddaughter. Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Park of Calgary. The little girl was born at the General hospital on February 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baun and family of Red Deer were present at the christening of the Holy Rome Catholic church in Calgary of Beverly Jean, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Park.

Band Concert

The Bentley school grad was lucky well filled for the Bentley community band concert with Al Barrigan of Lacombe band master. The band put on a fine concert and the guest artists the male quartette from Camrose the famous Northernaires were wonderful.

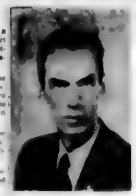
On Provincial Horticultural Executive



H. T. ALLEN

G. M. RAMSAY

Harvey Allen, of Lacombe was re-elected president of the Alberta horticultural association at the annual meeting in Calgary last Friday. George Ramsay was elected secretary-treasurer of the provincial group

Blackfalds Protests No School Grant

BLACKFALDS — At a poorly attended school ratepayers meeting held here Simon Taylor agreed to accept the one year term as trustee for Ed Zak Hawke the Blackfalds representative.

Gordon F. Malet was elected Bundman district trustee for a period of three years. Mary Burrows still has a term of two years as trustee of the Woods Creek district.

Charlie Mayes and Lea Rutten then rolled on reeve Art Wigmore as chairman.

He outlined the educational system in the county and dealt with education under three headings, economic, cultural and religious.

The amazing part was the fact that the grant for the school district of Blackfalds last year was not turned down by the province government.

This very discouraging fact was discussed at great length and principal F. P. Pennock, assisted by Simon Taylor, Harriet Harmon Gordon Miller were asked to prepare a detailed brief and present it personally to the government. The primary issues here are greatly overcrowded conditions in the school rooms, no room for maintenance to come

Ratepayers here contributed the additional one mill necessary but very greatly needed

Scouting Banquet

District commissioner Ellis Moore and his assistant Mr. Park, both of Penhold were guests at the local father and son Scout banquet held in the christian community house

George Tillsen proposed the toast to the Queen. The Scout movement was toasted by Barb ard McBlane, and Mr. Moore made the response. Scott Evans proposed the toast to the fathers and Charles Morris responded

Gordon Miller was presented a club leader and at a going up ceremony Scott Evans became a Scout.

Wolf Cub Derke Sutherland recited a poem and films finished off the enjoyable evening

Congratulations are extended to Mr and Mrs. Don McLennan here Lois Theresa, on the birth of a son (Phillip Arthur) in the Lacombe hospital on Feb 27

High Winds

The wind on Wednesday night and Thursday mornings were severe to the school children as rural students had a two holiday from school To curlers at the Blackfalds bonspiel. A two were on hand but one went on as second

The farther the curler went historical he became. Many of the old fields are here and the one needed most picked up on the rubber ... Ed Zak Hawke ... dishes

Mr and Mrs R. J. Hagg will be guest of honor ... law and daughter Mr and Mrs T. Lloyd, on Sunday Feb 25 where they will celebrate the ... 41st wedding anniversary.

Many Line Concert

The variety concert held Friday Feb 23 in the Blackfalds community hall ... sponsored by the Blackfalds W.I. was a great success.

The concert was varied and lasted a long time ... many and around the village R. J. Hagen was emcee and Mrs. Fisher supplied a lot of delightful music between the numbers

The chairman also presented the following Blackfalds students with cash prizes won in the recent school ... contest: Miss Maureen Rutten Lisa Black ... Frederick Pennock.

Frigid Winter Weather Disrupts Routine of Clive Residents

CLIVE — The Clive branch of the Canadian Legion will sponsor an "all cash" bingo in the Legion hall on March 2 in the evening. Everyone is invited to attend!

Bad Storm Last Week

Still following up the freakish weather, the forecasts were also freakish Penhold reported that the worst spell in 20 years would be brief, and that spring-like weather would return. Wednesday's blizzard in Edmonton weather was a wave causing storm warnings and cold weather Wednesday afternoon the snow arrived, but temperatures at 11:00 p.m. were in the 20-above running. During the night, as the cold wind swept down, temperatures also plummeted to zero. The snow was lifted and swirled around in blinding conditions, leaving some places bare and depositing snow in high drifts. Shovels were kept busy digging out driveways and clearing sidewalks.

The mail man was seven hours late, and residents had a cold walk to the post office, only to find the mail hadn't come as The only phone facility about 9:30 a.m. Thursday, and then it circuled over to more high wind and snow clearing clearing began in the late afternoon.

The women's day of prayer will be held in the Wesleyan hall at 2:30 p.m. on March 9

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meldrum entertained immediate members of the family at a dinner party held in honor of Mr and Mrs. W. Johnson, who celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary on February 23

Mrs G A Fretwell addresses, a gathering of members from Edmonton WCTU groups at the Bergsetlien United church in Edmonton last Saturday the topic was "moral issues of the present day"

Baptist mission circle will meet at the home of Mrs Elmire Mel-

from on Wednesday, March 7 at 2:30 p.m.

Bright sunny weather returned on Wednesday However, it didn't warm up and was zero most of the day. Roads drifted badly in Thursday and Friday, but snow drifts are several feet deep There is one warning though it's less than a month to official first day of spring" March 21 School has remained closed after the "no school" on Thursday.

Congratulations to Edith Fretwell and Gerald Austin on winning the 4-H beef project (calf and combo) contest, and we wish them the best of luck in the forthcoming competition in Lacombe.

A card party will be held at the Civic Legion hall on Friday, March 9, sponsored by the Women's Canadian Legion Lunch will be served Everyone welcome. The next auxiliary meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 13, in the Legion hall. Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Sterling will be hostesses.

Mr and Mrs. R. McLeod of Edmonton were Clive visitors the past week end to have their two daughters, Brenda Dawn and Cathy Lyn Florence, christened in the Clive United church on Sunday Rev C. H. Parks officiated.

Arthur Waldron of R C (Ollan-agan district) former Clive resident was a brief visitor to Clive last week When in Clive he operated a garage and service station which burned down many years ago

The interesting news item in last week's Globe of the 42nd wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs. Boyle in Vancouver, was of interest to many Clive people Those of these family were Clive residents years ago One was Mrs. A Harris, and the others were Rupert and Francis

Francis who was a color band and a wonderful artist To help him paint the true colors he had his paints all numbered Alas, during Clive, he was requested to paint a collie dog The owner of the dog wanted it painted red, cause it had just been run over and died This opened a way for Francis, he requested Several years ago Francis was cited as "man of the month" on Liberty magazine.

This reporter's two sons were friends of Rupert and Francis, and were the recipients of several of Francis' paintings

Mr and Mrs. John Morton and family of New Norway were Clive visitors during the week end, guests of the farmer's parents, Mr and Mrs. W H Morton.

It is hoped that this is the last very cold spell of the winter It was 20 degree on Monday morning and colder Tuesday and Wednesday.

The 5 by year-old son of Mr and Mrs J Duffy came home on Monday after having undergone appendectomy in Lacombe hospital.

Mr and Mrs. C Kane went to Edmonton on Sunday to visit Mrs. Kane's father, Adam Boston, who is a patient in the University hospital.

A brief but nasty little blizzard broke over Clive on Saturday about 10:15 p.m. At times, visibility was practically nil Roads were drifting in, and further wind in Sunday caused near blizzard conditions most of the day

Rockets Sideline Stamps in Four Straight Games

Finals Start Here Saturday

Drumheller's 8-3 win over the Olds Elks Tuesday evening set the stage for a best-of-seven league finals between the Lacombe Rockets and the leading Drumheller Miners.

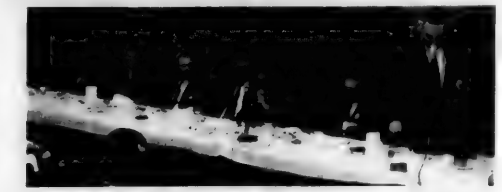
Rocket coach Art Pratt told The Globe yesterday that league secretary manager had set the first five playoff games for the final series as follows:

★ At Lacombe: Saturday night (Mar. 10); Tuesday night March 13; Saturday night, March 17.

★ At Drumheller: Sunday at noonoon (March 11); Thursday night (March 15).

Since Lacombe finished ahead of Drumheller in the regular league play, the Rockets get advantage of the extra game if the series ends in an uneven number of games.

Tickets for the final game here (Saturday) are now on sale for Scullby's Barber Shop and Howeland and green good western. the game should be a close sell-out even in Lacombe's large jubilee stadium.



A large number were on hand Saturday night for the sportsmen's dinner sponsored by the Kinsmen club in the LMC

Sports Dinner Draws Large Crowd to LMC

A splendid evening of entertainment was provided at the first sportsmen's dinner to be held in Lacombe in some 10 years. Chairman Garth Wagner of the sponsoring Kinsmen club reported attendance of 235.

The event in the LMC last Friday night was lively and interesting by some peppy remark from master of ceremonies Lee LaCoste, manager of the Edmonton Oil Kings, and he was backed by an impressive array of head table guests.

Those at Tommy Hudspeth, back-field coach of the Calgary Stampeders, and Joe Ryan, manager of the Edmonton Eskimos, exchanged friendly rivalries off the football field with some choice remarks but they were unanimous on the plus for greater fan support.

There was the humor of Hem Stasiuk, Edmonton Eskimo commentator who is never lost for a word and didn't lack for one at the dinner. The town and district audience was just sorry that he didn't speak longer, when the proposed forum discussions on hockey and football with Henry as moderator failed to materialize.

Ron Nelson, who has earned reputed all-star rating as tackle of the Edmonton Eskimos proved that he was equally at home behind the microphone. He did a fine guest relations job for the season.

Hal Pawson, genial sports editor of the Edmonton Journal shrugged off good-natured jibes from the MC on introduction and got back his own with a crisp talk.

Frank McCool general manager of the Calgary Albertan, delighted the audience by reminiscing on things close to home.

It will be remembered that Frank was genius of the old Lacombe Athletics back in 1941-42, when he and to later stardom with the Toronto Maple Leafs recording three successive shutouts in Stanley Cup play.

But Frank preferred to dwell on his days here, saying how a shower after a game in the old Lacombe rink meant a dousing in cold water. He also referred to sports figure of the time like Bob Lewis (who was in attendance) and some of his old teammates like Art Greene (who attended from Red Deer) and George Brooks.

He suggested there was a great future in hockey for proficient boys who wanted a sports career, since the minimum salary for players in the national hockey league is $7,000 and there is an adequate pension scheme now.

But it doesn't come easy and the boys have to work hard, he added.

Then there was top entertainment by George Stevenson of Calgary who warmed up proceedings at the outset with a comical routine.

Lacombe Pee Wees Win Central Alberta Trophy

Lacombe's all star hockey team won three straight games at Red Deer per peewee hockey tournament last Saturday to win the Calgary Albertan central Alberta peewee hockey trophy for the season.

The local team ousted Red Deer south, 5-4, in their first game, downed Red Deer Hill 5-2 in the second, and came out on top of a 4-3 score in the final against Red Deer Valley.

Other scores in the tournament: Red Deer Hill 7 Innisfail 1, Red Deer Valley 1, Olds 0, Red Deer Hill 5, Ponoka 3.

In the first game, the local squad was hard-pressed by a fast-skating team of Red Deer South players, who were favorites to take it all on the one-day tournament.

High scorer for Lacombe was Bill Lee who made one goal unassisted, and converted a pass from Gary Shaw for a second counter. Terry Towle, Art Randall and Randy Wyrozub all scored for the winners, with Gary Shaw picking up a second assist and Art Randall helping in another.

Semi-Final

In the semi-final game Art Randall counted two goals, with singletons going to Bill Lee Gary Shaw and Randy Wyrozub Assists were credited to Bruce Pedersen Gary Shaw Bill Lee and Randy Wyrozub.

Final

Big gun for Lacombe in the final game against Red Deer Valley, was Randy Wyrozub who scored the hat trick in leading his mates to victory. Bill Lee tallied the other goal for the locals. Art Randall received two assists, while Bill Lee and Gary Shaw each picked up a point for assists.

Coaching the team at Red Deer was Dek Gillespie and the club owners too for the season.

Legion Plans Banquet Mar. 16

Members of the Canadian Legion plan a mammoth parents and family night banquet in support of amateur sports in central Alberta, to be held at the Lacombe memorial centre on Friday, March 16.

Guest speaker at the banquet will be Father Bauer, sports director of the University of British Columbia. Other head table guests will include region provincial execs Bert Rourke, Hon. A. R. Patrick and Frank McCool, managing editor of the Calgary Albertan.

Invitations have also been forwarded to Premier E. C. Manning and Prime Minister John Diefenbaker.

Local Legionnaires, who for the past three years have sponsored a strenuous "support our local youth campaign", have lined up what promises to be a fine program for this evening, and town and district residents are urged to attend the banquet and help encourage the development of sport for youth on an amateur basis.

Reserve tickets are available at Scullby's Barber Shop and News Stand at Lacombe.

The guest speaker, Father Bauer, was coach last year of (Toronto) St Michael's College hockey team, which defeated the Edmonton Oil Kings in the junior championship Memorial Cup playoffs. A fine speaker, he is a sound supporter of youth sport development, and will have a real message for those who attend.

Local Broomball League Playoffs Now Underway

Lacoln broomballers took a one goal lead in the first game of their playoff serse with the Bunbeam squad. The two-game, total goal serse got underway at the jubilee stadium last Wednesday evening, and Bob Schilling's counter midway through the game gave the Lacoln lesm the slim margin of victory in the first meeting.

In the other playoff serse, the Apaches and Jets played to a 2-2 standoff. Bonnie Leach scored twice for the Apaches, but saw his counters matched by Hans Speit for the Jets.

The two serse continues this week, with the winners to meet in a best-of-three final for the league championship.

Regular seal play ended with the Apaches in the top spot, Lacoln second place and the Jets third. The Bunbeam team ended up in the basement of the four-team loop.

L.H.S. Eagles Play Innisfail Here Friday Night

Lacombe high school Eagles meched the central Alberta high school title last Friday when they crushed Ponoka. They play their last regular league game at the Lacombe pool here this Friday evening when the Innisfail squad turns up to provide the opposition.

Prize to this game the Eagles will defend is the Rotary District Basketball Tournament Rose trophy for winning the basketball invitational tournament earlier in the season.

Curling

On February 23 and 24 two Lacombe high school curling rinks entered a bonspiel at Benalto. Bill Stewart's rink with Carol Thompson, Ray Bailey and Murray Gilpatrick won the grand prize.

The second rink skipped by Larry Wenzlaff, David Wigmore, Allen Quick and Grace Kemps won first in the second event.

Last week end, Rod Jeglum's rink attended a bonspiel at Alix.

The second season saw Rockets maintain their two-game lead when each team contained two Lough McMillan and Dicks. Dan Hagen was the best game of the finals as failed for the locals and Johnny Lendahl and Don Lee for Blackfalds.

Even with the score 5-2 against them, the visitors roared back and caromed it to 5-4 on goals by Harvey Linnell and Teddy Danchuk.

Ponoka Marksmen Lead Scoring Race

Johnny Young, veteran Lacombe Rockets centre-man, was the only Rocket to place in the top ten scorers as league secretary treasurer Fred Rowett released final figures for regular season's play.

Ron Tookey and team-mate Bruce Lee ended atop the heap with 64 points apiece in a nail two points above Young, who had 62 points.

Most valuable player award went to Archie Brott of the Olds Elks who received three votes. Johnny Young received two ballots in his favor for this award. Ron Tookey, Viv Bourke of Lacombe and Dale Goudreau of Red Deer, one apiece.

Ron Tookey also won the

Please Vote on March 13

NEXT Tuesday March 13, is an important day for the town of Lacombe when a swimming pool plebiscite is held for the second time in 14 months. The only difference in the two votes is that $40 000 is being requested for debenture borrowing this time compared with $37 000 in January 1961. The extra sum is well worth the type of swimming pool which has been planned by the town council. The pool will not only provide recreational facility but will also be a beautiful structure admired and enjoyed by others.

There are over 1 600 ratepayers on the roll who are eligible to vote Lacombe, only 856 exercised their franchise with results being 358 in favor and 220 opposed. The 69.1% majority failed to reach the minimum two-third proportion required. There are signs that next week the "yes" voters will be better organized providing transportation for

Report Successful Year At Alix Annual Meeting

ALIX Annual ratepayers' meeting was held in the village hall on Monday evening, Feb 26 attended by approximately 15 persons. Mayor R B Colbert read the councillors' report stating that the council for the year was composed of L. Rosie, C. Walter (one whom term of office expired in Oct.) but and so he did not desire another term. Harold Patrick accepted the nomination as councillor by acclamation.

Other officers are Ralph Herbert, secretary-treasurer, Bob Rosie village foreman, Larry Wilson, utility man on use, to the AAAA for the duration of the rural season and K. J. Forsyth village constable.

During the year a sizeable length of sidewalk was constructed and the village office completed.

There is a stockpile of 1,000 yards of crushed gravel on hand to be distributed on the streets in the spring. Edmonton council was responsible for 22 of the 69 mill rate paid during the year.

The village office holds title to the Alix tennis and curling rinks, which are leased to the AAAA, who are responsible for current expenses. The 1961 levy for this was sold for $256.20. The camp kitchen is being used and appreciated but the low water level of the lake is a matter of serious concern. Any suggestions as to just this level will be appreciated

Edmonton Tire Department

Fire Chief A. Lunds reported had the water pressure tests the fourth Monday of each month for a return of hydrants, flush, films and information on methods of fighting different types of fires. The hydrants consist of 15 valves, which number includes the chief, deputy chief, secretary and two captains.

During the year 12 calls were answered. Six of these calls were in the village and six rural. Total fire damage in the village during the year estimated at $3,000. During fire prevention week inspection of commercial buildings was carried out and a number of hazards discovered.

Fire chief Lunds thanked the council for co-operation, and the citizens for assistance. A vote of thanks for their volunteer services was rewarded.

The small attendance can be attributed to lack of interest on the part of the ratepayers, or it could be interpreted as compliments to the village council doing such a good job, as no one need give civic affairs any thought.

In discussion after the meeting, ideas on the street corners, when any complainers didn't turn up at the meeting.

Building Prospects Good, Bentley Ratepayers Told

BENTLEY The annual ratepayers meeting of the village of Bentley was held in the Parish hall with 28 ratepayers present on Monday night Various reports were given and discussed before the election of officers. Mr. W. Hedges was a good report of the village's activities.

He congratulated the ratepayers of Bentley for their neat, well-kept and garden and lawn competition last year and urged a continuation along this line.

Principal A. W. Bruce also commented on the good appearance of the village and the fine work done by the students in the spring clean-up campaign.

Mr. Hedges reported on the village's sidewalks, hard pans, trees and the completion of the [illegible] on the Iron-pan plant.

The skating rink, dressing rooms and fences were completed and a recreational committee has been formed to look after the [illegible] skating, rink and other sports activities.

The fire hall has been extended to house the new tanker truck which has been purchased. The fire brigade has been reorganized with W. L. Thorp as fire chief. Regular practices are held twice monthly. Inspection of large buildings has been carried out and all premises will be inspected as time permits.

Weeds and grass on alley ways and vacant [illegible] will be cut this spring.

The street numbering has been completed in the village.

Garbage pickup has been instituted with a weekly pickup. It is hoped all residents [illegible] with the provisions of the garbage by-law so [illegible] effective.

The dog by-law was revised to make it illegal for dogs to run at large at any time. There is no charge for registering dogs, and tags are issued free. But a $5.00 penalty will be incurred by the dog owner should a dog be found at large and impounded. If unclaimed after 24 hours they will be destroyed.

Building prospects in the village for 1962 are a new creamery for the present office and post office. Several new homes are expected to be built. As lots are becoming scarce in the village, the council is negotiating for the acquisition of additional land to be used for residential lots.

Attendance Good Despite Weather At Clive Legion's Cash Bingo

CLIVE — In spite of cold weather the Legion ladies' auxiliary held Friday evening was fairly well attended. H. M. McCormack was the luckiest cash prize as well as another smaller cash prize.

The meeting of the Baptist mission circle has been postponed until March 14, and will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Meidrum at 2:30 of the 10th. Special speak[er] will be Mr. R. Liddell.

The women's world day of prayer will be held in the West [illegible] church on March 9. Through all [illegible] the same will be given to the project [illegible] should have been Church.

The day after last week's storm left Clive with thermometer dropped to 40 [illegible]. One farther north at Ted and it was 10 below at the home and 36 at the barn. Whatever it is, it's been much too cold too long. And not much re[illegible] in sight according to the weather man.

The future skating carnival has been canceled this past two Saturdays, due to poor weather conditions. However, it is hoped to have it on Wednesday was the new date set, weather permitting.

Too bad the mild weather did not reach here. Even so, there was a slight moderation on Sunday morning. At 8:30 a.m. it was 20 below zero, at 12:30 p.m. it was 10 above zero, in the sun. However, it dropped to 15 below zero again Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McCormack attended at Red Deer on Tuesday, Feb. 27, the funeral of their uncle's father-in-law Mr. Brett who died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Fr. and Mrs. V. McCormack. RCAF station, Penhold. Mr. Brett formerly of Calgary had made his home with his daughter, and family for some time past. Also attending the funeral was R. McCormack, also of Clive.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blakeborough have been in Clive after spending the past two months in Calgary, where Harold was attending "Tech" school there.

Callers at the home of Mrs. Erma Cochrane on last week were Mrs. Ann Wesling, Mrs. R. McCormack and Mrs. Gertie Duffy. Mrs. E. Cochrane was on the sick list during the week, and it was necessary to have a doctor come to Clive and treat her.

Darlene Kane who is employed at Red Deer was home for a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kane. Ronald Kane who has been working in Northern Alberta, has now gone to HWT, where he is working with a seismography crew.

Cull Rink Wins Bonspiel Held by FUA's

About thirty rinks from surrounding districts participated in an FUA bonspiel at the Lacombe curling rink last Saturday with Don Cull's foursome from Spring Valley winning first prize.

Each of the rinks from FUA points played two eight-end games during the day, and despite the bitter cold had an enjoyable time. Winners were determined by the point system.

Playing with the winning Cull rink were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cull and Mrs. Bob Dodd of Joffre. Second prize went to Bill Reid's unbeaten rink of Joffre third to Frank Beyte and fourth to C. Thacker of Morningside.

In charge of the draw were Lawrence Henderson and Phil Ackerman. Ladies from the Spruceville club operated the lunch counter.

Hugh Stewart Takes Bride in Edmonton

Spring bouquets decorated the ... Knox United Church, Edmonton, ... the wedding of Miss Shirley Elaine Beckman and Mr. Hugh Stewart.

The Rev. R. Hanchey performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beckman of Edmonton, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart of Lacombe.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was lovely in a waltz length gown of white organza and net over taffeta with ... fingertip length veil held ... of white feathered carnations.

Debbie Beckman was her sister's flower girl and wore an identical floor length gown. Her headpiece was a band of white carnations and she carried a basket of sweetheart roses and carnations.

The groom's best man was his brother Mr. Bill Stewart and ushers were Mr. Pat Mickey as attendant, Mr. David Beckman and Mr. Bert Beckman ushered the guests to their pews.

Prior to the exchanging of vows Miss June Lapp of Lacombe sang "The Wedding Prayer". During the signing of the register she sang "Because".

The bride's mother wore a green printed silk ... with matching white accessories, and a hat of white and green organza petals. A corsage of white carnations and stephanotis completed her attire.

The groom's mother wore a sheet green brocaded two-piece sheath dress and a hat of green to tone. Her corsage she wore white carnations and white stephanotis.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church ... Mr. Beckman, brother of the bride acted as master of ceremonies.

The bride's uncle, Mr. John Helm proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom's ... responded. The toast to the bride's ... maids was given by Mr. Bert Beckman.

Mrs. Pam Mick ... in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Jasper the bride chose a navy two piece suit with navy accessories.

Upon return Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will make their home in La... ...

Blackfalds Man Weds Local Girl

BLINDMAN Friends and neighbors in this district would like to congratulate Edmund Lundin on his marriage to Mary Ellen Brasley on Saturday, March 10 in the United church, Lacombe. Rev. B. Thackeray performed the ceremony, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sandner of Lacombe.

Good wishes go to the young couple for many years of happy married life.

Miss Lillian Iroshnik of Edmonton, was home for the week-end to attend the wedding of her brother.

Barth Brewer was a Calgary visitor on Wednesday.

The bridge club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Eggen at Red Deer on Wednesday evening. Three tables played, with top score going to Bob Farewell and low to Orun Eggen.

Tim Tomorrow is a patient at the Lacombe hospital.

Miss Virginia Hueppelheuser visited in Edmonton last week end.

Quite a few of the informals in the district are still in evidence for traffic following the blizzard of last Thursday night. We hope this will be the last storm and spring will soon make an appearance with good weather and no wake.

Anyone with news ... asked to phone 2-2047. It will be greatly appreciated.

The free, family skating party held at the arena on Sunday afternoon March 4 was thoroughly enjoyed by a good crowd who attended. Skating race for juniors a married men's skating race, married women skating race, broom ball, etc. provided a pleasant friendly pastime.

Talk on Nigeria

Dr. Irma, Perth chapter of the I O D E held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. N. Hrynyk on Tuesday evening. March 6 Mrs. C. Parks was welcomed as a new member. Members discussed setting up a bursary for academic awards at the school. Everyone enjoyed a well-presented interesting talk by Mrs D. Rix on Nigeria.

A display of work done during the first part of 1962 and an afternoon snack will be held in UFA hall on Saturday March 31, from 2:30 to 5:00 p.m. Matter of attending the provincial conference to be held in Calgary was tabled. Agent meeting will be held at the S. Herbert home on Tuesday evening, April 3.

Mr and Mrs N. Hrynyk and family motored to Medicine Hat for the March 3 week end.

Snow Removing

Street clearing of snow operations were speeded up after Thursday evening's blow by the employment of A. Mann's "cat" which piled up mounds in the centre of Main St., making a good wall to divide the village. Snow drifts, shoveling, etc., has been the major concern of everyone. A good turnout of WI members were gathered at the home of Mrs. Frances Wagner on Wednesday ... Mr were glad ... have Miss Astrid Lodi upon present her paper on United Nations ... prospects at their meeting. ... they all wish Astrid success in her competition in the Rebekah ... and hope ... be brought to the April meeting.

the bigger the need for a Chevy Heavy!

The tougher the job, the harder the haul, the more reasons to turn to a Chevy Heavy.
In Chevy Heavies truck power is tailored to the job. There's new meaning to High-Torque power in the husky 348 V8 and the mighty 409 V8* engines. Durability is another reason for owning a Chevy Heavy. It's evident in the massive ladder-type frame ... the extra strong Independent Front Suspension that combines with Variable-Rate Rear Springs to lessen shock ... and in the unitized construction of the rugged, good-looking cab. It pays to team up with a Chevy Heavy on tough tasks. See your Chevrolet Truck Dealer now.

YESTERDAY— SURPLUS

TODAY— EMPTY BINS

WILL YOU FILL YOUR GRAIN BINS IN 1962?

In one short year the combination of a light crop, more export sales and increased feeding has removed most farmers' surplus grain.

What about this coming season? Indications are that all grain grown in 1962 can be marketed. Alert farmers are planning now to produce maximum crops of grain and forage — by using Elephant Brand high analysis fertilizers.

The proper use of Elephant Brand can increase your crop by 25% or more. This can mean extra profit to you in a year with a promising market. See your Elephant Brand Dealer. Plan to fertilize for maximum yields.

Two-Day Short Course Here Gives Valuable Farm Information

[illegible] and [illegible] tures for pasture, crop and dairy-ing prospects, and use of fertilizers and chemical sprays were among subjects discussed at an excellent agricultural short course at the Lacombe pavilion on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week

Speakers on opening day were Orland Bratvold and Ray Dixon, both from the Alberta department of agriculture, and Dr V E Mellon [illegible] animal [illegible] of the university of Alberta

Second day speakers were Mr Bratvold, and from the experimental farm in Lacombe A D McFadden, Don Walker and Henry Eliesen

Pasture Mixtures

Alfalfa should not be overlooked in pasture mixtures. Mr Bratvold said on Tuesday, as it has been well proven that the inclusion of some alfalfa in pastures increases the carrying capacity considerably

Blues [illegible] should be given to different grasses for different [illegible] such as crested [illegible] Mr Bratvold advised for early spring, wheat grass and brome for midsummer, and creeping red fescue for late fall.

Prospects for Dairying

Mr Dixon pointed out that much of the surplus of butter produced is caused by surplus milk being shipped to eastern Canada

He said that about 66% of the farmers in Alberta milk cows and that the average production per cow is about 6,000 lbs of milk annually whereas herds which are on the provincial dairy herd improvement program have an annual average production of 10,000 lbs per cow

He gave considerable information on roentelia control Mr Dixon pointed out that milking machines should be checked regularly Sanitary conditions are very important

Hay Tedding

Dr Meidel gave an interesting talk on bloat He pointed out that the use of a bone administered orally along with vegetable oils has proven more satisfactory in relieving bloat than puncturing the paunch.

He stated that this treatment will save an animal in as many cases as will the puncturing method, and it is not as hard on the animals. The more stemmy the weed is, the less chance there is of bloat

As feed lot bloat is very common in this area this [illegible] were many questions directed to Dr Meidel on the subject

Hay Prospects

Mr Bratvold returned the second day to point an optimistic market picture for grains pro[illegible]

There would undoubtedly be an acute shortage of oats by next summer and he predicted a ready sale for all grains produced At the same time, there doesn't appear to be any reason for increasing production of rapeseed and flax as there is presently a surplus which will probably continue on into next year

Mr Bratvold also advised [illegible] mustard seed in this area and it has no financial advantage over rapeseed and could be detrimental to the production of more rapeseed

Does it Pay to Spray?

Mr Fraser gave statistical information on [illegible] Bill Smith [illegible] that over a three year period the average infestation of weeds was 234 per square yard While there were 30 different species of weeds found, the most common were wild oats, mustards pig weed, wild buckwheat green foxtail, Canada thistle and sow thistle.

Crops on stubble land 40% more weeds than crops on fallow The three-year average was in crop yield due to competition was 15% By spraying with 2,4-D these losses were reduced by ½

On the basis of this study the [illegible] Bisection [illegible] Mr Fraser said if no spraying were done every aged 27 million bushels of wheat as 31 million dollars annually

The losses due to weeds are [illegible] were under dry conditions than when moisture is plentiful Therefore greater than smaller benefits are likely to result from weed spraying in a dry year

Use of Fertilizers

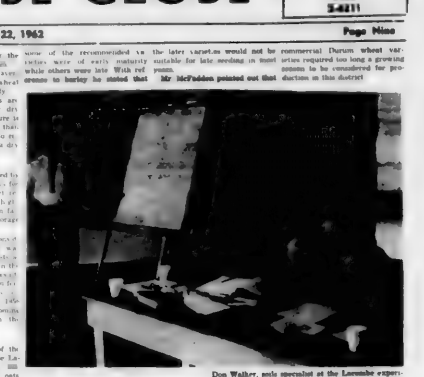
Fertilizer usage was discussed by Mr Walker At present practically grains and hay, average not [illegible] tures from fertilization are [illegible] for grain grown either on [illegible] or stubble than for forage grown for hay

It was pointed out that considerable variation in returns was experienced with forage tests at the experimental farm and in the Lacombe district generally Tests run very good results from fertilization Phosphorus was [illegible] tests conducted since 1954 show that nitrogen is becoming more essential along with the phosphorus

Grain Varieties

A D McFadden head of the plant breeding section at the Lacombe experimental farm discussed varieties of barley, oats, and wheat of interest to farmers in the district He compared the varieties recommended for production with those [illegible] recommended from the standpoint of yield and maturity

Mr McFadden pointed out that snow of the recommended [illegible] the later varieties were of early maturity suitable for late seeding in most years while others were late With reference to barley he stated that commercial Durum wheat varieties required too long a growing seasons to be considered for production in this district



Local Authorities At Short Course

Don Walker, soils specialist at the Lacombe experimental farm, gives an illustrated chalk talk on soil tests and fertilizers at a two-day agricultural short course at the same pavilion on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week Seated at the table are Henry Friesen, another experimental farm speaker, and district agriculturist Walter McNary who was chairman Attendance was disappointing Staff photo

There was a fourth game attended since. Another cash bingo will be held in the Legion hall on Friday, March 30.

E. Dillon was a business visitor to Edmonton the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Porter, formerly of Clive were, Clive visitors this week.

Now comes the time when agricultural pursuits push up in the ground and get zapped by frost. Home owners are busy ditching around their property to prevent water entering basements.

Noon temperatures in the sun on Friday registered 40 degrees. There is hope now that the winter may be on its way out.

Mrs. Cynthia Hrabeck spent the week end in Clive.

Pools of water running everywhere, at the time goes into its sixth day. Young children are busy testing out rubber boots in the deep puddles.

It was 43 years ago on St. Patrick's day that this reporter arrived in Canada from England with her two eldest daughters, Lilian 2½ years and Margaret (Peggy) a few months old.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harrow attended the funeral in Edmonton of their daughter Peggy (the late Mrs. C. Hampson) on Wednesday March 14. They were accompanied by Pete daughters, Mrs. Kuntan (Lilian) of Blackie, Mrs. S. B. Combs (Helen) of Big Valley and C. Harrow of Medicine Hat.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

The Clive ladies auxiliary to the Legion met at the Legion hall on March 13, with nine members and one visitor present. Various committees were heard from and the usual business transacted. The next meeting will be held at the hall, on April 10 with Mrs. M. Hudkins and Mrs. W. Payne as co-hostesses.

A bake sale will be held at E. Dillon's store on Saturday, March 24, from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m., sponsored by the Clive ladies' auxiliary to the Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Heald of Calgary were recent visitors in Clive, taking back to Calgary Mrs. Heald's mother, Mrs. W. Morton. She spent several days there and returned home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Morton of Edmonton were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morton.

A special service in the Clive Baptist church will be conducted on March 25 at 11:30 a.m. by a group of students from the Baptist leadership training school. The service will include special musical numbers, and everyone is welcome to attend. Last Sunday morning the service was conducted by Sidney Waterman of Red Deer formerly of Clive.

Mr. and Mrs. ... Smith of Lacombe were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kane.

Red Cross Campaign Reaches $2,000 Mark

Red Cross campaigner Mrs. Fred Rimes reports that due to ... receipts from the campaign to date are $00.50 She hopes to hear from additional canvassers in the near future. In the meantime we find that little verse on this issue sent out by the Red Cross need quarters is applicable to us all

"What, giving again?" I called in dismay,
"Must I keep on giving and giving again?"
"Oh no," said the angel looking through.
Just give until God stops giving to you."

Polio Campaign

At their regular monthly meeting held in the UFA hall on Monday, March 13, the Canadian Legion were again undertook to sponsor the annual campaign for funds for polio victims and research. They hope that the needed appeals will meet with favorable response. A social evening for veterans and their families is to be held in the hall on Thursday evening, April 26.

Water, water, water, everywhere, and what a welcome sight as it heralds the arrival of what we hope is spring with all its promises.

St. Patrick's dance held in the community hall under the sponsorship of the Lady Foresters was the only fairly well supported on March 16 when music was supplied by Mrs. Partridge's orchestra from Delburne. Bill McDermand as floor manager did a splendid job of keeping things active and interesting so that all who attended thoroughly enjoyed the event and felt that some of their friends had missed out on a very good time. Novelty dance prize winners were awarded small trophies.

Mrs. Norman Russell will appreciate those who took pins to the area, picking up their pieces which haven't owners' names on them, at her home. Please call and claim your pin piece

Two Fires Result Out

About 8:30 a.m., Alix volunteer firemen answered a summons to the Becker Hotel Market, where a fire inside the building owned by Miss Jona Mackie, did considerable damage, most of which was caused by smoke and water. Thanks to the prompt response of the fire brigade, little damage to the building resulted.

Five siren summoned the brigade again about 1:30 p.m. Sunday to the scene of a burning semi truck trunk owned by Parnell's Co., which had ignited when the driver pulled up at the Purity 99 gas station to stop long in replacing the broken fan belt. As soon as the ignition was shut off the overheated motor caused the fire to break out. Quick response to the call brought the fire under control after some damage to the interior of the cab and motor.

Party For Seniors

Senior citizens will gather for a social whoopee party at the Berkeah lodge on Thursday afternoon, March 29. Each member is asked to bring a small item as a whoopee prize, and, of course, all those in the senior group are invited to be present.

The home and school association hope for a good turnout on Wednesday, March 28, at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium when Mrs. Barbara Cormack will be guest speaker

Get-well wishes to Miss Gail Wilson, Red Deer, who is a patient in Red Deer hospital.

Many Valuable Hints Given At Homemakers' Short Course

General ideas on consumer buying, and on planning and landscaping homes provided the procedural theme for an interesting homemakers' short course at the LMC on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. J. I. Woodrow of Lacombe chaired the meeting the first day and Mrs. P. A. Simons of Clive the second. About 60 ladies from the town and district attended sessions were Mrs. Homer Rivenbush, clothing specialist from the Alberta department of agriculture; Miss Pat Mearchild, home economist at large; P. D. McCalla, horticultural supervisor for the Alberta department of agriculture, and Mrs. R. Marlatt, provincial president of consumers association of Canada.

Labelling Laws

Mrs. Rivenbush discussed labelling laws, and what a label on

Ladies Attend Short Course

Above, part of the crowd is pictured at the two-day homemaking short course for ladies held during the Lacombe provincial centre banquet room on Tuesday and Wednesday. Fifty to sixty ladies attended each day to participate in the valuable discussions held by Mrs. J. I. Woodrow and Mrs. P. A. Simons. Coffee breaks were provided by the co-operative Lacombe and district board of trade and central Alberta agricultural society. — Staff

Tree Planting

Mr. McCalla went into various aspects of planting trees and their situation in relation to home grounds. It would be fatal, for example, to plant a spruce tree too close to a picture window since it would grow over the roof and obscure the view.

He discussed where trees are available at the Nurseries, and under a farm improvement plan for shelterbelts. He answered a number of individual questions.

"Does it Pay"

Miss Marshall gave a thought-provoking address on the subject does it pay.

She discussed the cost factor of a home freezer against what amount of buying it can save foods compared with fresh meats.

She asked the ladies to do a comparative cost study, including meat, vegetables, fruits, milk, etc., and to come to some conclusions.

Consumer Buying

Mrs. Marlatt discussed a wide variety of topics concerning management of the consumer.

She said how grades of meat are marked in slaughter-houses.

She warned that a wardrobe of clothing can be fatal to child development and the adoption of a doctor if in doubt.

Mrs. Marlatt also challenged the audience to consider themselves as customers buying canned foods. Sometimes imperial cans are greater on a budget payment plan" than the purchaser realizes

4-H Beef Club Members Tour Alix Bank

(Bill Barrett, reporter)

Harold Gulliver, manager of the Royal Bank at Alix, conducted a very interesting tour of the bank for members of the Beef East Lacombe 4-H beef club at their last meeting.

All members came back to the school for the meeting. Roll call was given for second and third year members. Rotary club calendars were discussed and decided to be carried on as a club project.

Banners were judged by Sonya Walton, Mrs. Walton and Mrs. McGonigal. Jim Lee Beresford's design was decided for the banner.

The next meeting will be April 12 at Sargent continuants, commence at 8:00 p.m.

Adventists Attack Sunday "Blue Laws"

The Lacombe Seventh-day Adventist church had thirty-seven delegates at the 33rd biennial session of the SDA Alberta conference in Calgary recently including Mr and Mrs R C Anderson, Dr and Mrs J McKibbin, Mr and Mrs Mel Anderson, Mr and Mrs M S Fisher and Mr and Mrs C Kingdom.

President J W Bothe of Calgary director of the religious liberty department of the church was the principal speaker at these business sessions.

A 12-phase brief was formulated for presentation to the provincial government regarding legislation forbidding commercialism on Sundays. Among the points:

"That nowhere is it laid down in scripture that Sunday is the Christian's sabbath, but on the contrary it is taught that the seventh day (Saturday) is the only day observed by Christ and His apostles as the sabbath day — a day of worship.

"That the issue of commercialized sport and other secular entertainment is transcended by the larger issue of religious liberty and separation of church and state.

"That any civil law that weeks to prescribe one's mode of worship, or day of worship, is an unconstitutional intrusion by the civil authority."

Marilyn Wilson Guest Speaker at Lacombe 4-H Beef Meet

(Reporter, Ralph Blakemore)

Monthly meeting of the west Lacombe 4-H beef club is to be held at the Legion hall on March 9 Bobby King led the 4-H pledge after business was discussed.

Two members, Faith Ogilvie and Dee Graham read their reasons on their placings of a group of feeder steers of a recent judging day.

After the meeting was adjourned Dale Berry introduced the special guest Marilyn Wilson of the Blindman Valley beef club who has two years age membership. She is won the highest award (4-H — an all-round expense trip to national 4-H club week in — and only told about her trip but also how a 4-H member may obtain this high honor.

After being thanked by Graham Ogilvie a lunch wound up the evening.

Spring Valley 4-H'ers Compete In Public Speaking Contest

(Shirley Armstrong, reporter) by Shirley Armstrong and Maureen Bentley

Regular meeting of the Spring Valley thirteen "thrifty thousand" was held on March 14, at the home of Lynda Fraser.

Roll call was answered by a two-minute or a five-minute talk, of Mrs E L Simpson (nurse), and musical selection provided entertainment.

Betty was presented with a lovely array of very useful gifts by the hostess for which she expressed her gratitude. A beautiful lunch was provided by Mrs Simpson and helpers.

A ping "A night out" was given by Lorna Armstrong, Margaret Pangle, Maureen Hainsworth and Shirley Armstrong.

Mrs. Fraser and Lynda then served lunch.

Bentley CPR Foreman, A. Zaksauskas Retires

Alphonso Zaksauskas, CPR section foreman at Bentley, will be retired effective May 1, 1962 Due to taking annual vacation in which he is entitled, he actually will come work on Wednesday, March 21

Mr Zaksauskas entered service with the CPR MOUTHPIECE Party Railways at Bentley on April 16, 1930, so that he is really no stranger to this district.

He was transferred to the position of sectionman at Sedgewick in 1931, to Superb, Sask., in 1943, and to Bulwark, Alta., as section foreman in 1952.

He worked at several points on the Edmonton Subdivision as a section foreman until his transfer to Bentley on Nov. 1, 1956, where he has resided since.

Mr and Mrs Zaksauskas both enjoy good health and plan on making their home in Bentley.

Late E. Sumlak Laid To Rest at Fairview Cemetery

Last rites were held Wednesday from [illegible] for the late [illegible] of Lacombe for Emil Sumlak Lacombe and Ritchie district resident

Deceased passed away at the Lacombe hospital on Monday March 26, 1962 at the age of 56

Rev. [illegible] officiated at the service and interment was in the Fairview cemetery

Born in Galicia, the late Mr. Sumlak came to this country with his parents in 1910 and settled west of Ponoka. He was married at Ponoka in 1924 and [illegible] Lacombe since 1946

Besides his wife the former Hattie Elizabeth Campbell, he is survived by one son, Leyle of Lacombe three daughters, Mrs. G. (Evelyn) Bushey of Rimbey Mrs J (Vida) Bergen of New West minster, and Mrs. F (Ethel) Reed of San Francisco, eight grandchildren, and one brother, [illegible]

Board of Trade Protests Removal of CBX

Protest from the Lacombe and [illegible] against the removal of CBX radio transmitter at Lacombe was made to the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation by night letter last Thursday

Surprise was expressed by board of trade officials here who learned that any objections had to be in the hands of the [illegible] by Friday March 23

No advertisements of this date as one date were circulated locally although Lacombe has come, terms to oppose the move of CBX to the city since the subject was first brought about two years ago.

CBX transmitter was built three miles east of Lacombe back in 1947 and has served a wide segment of the population of Alberta since that time

The Lacombe and district board of trade learned today that the board of broadcasting governors are holding a meeting in Winn peg on April 2 with respect to the removal of the C.B.C. transmitter at Lacombe and that groups opposed must have their briefs in your hands by March 23.

"The Lacombe and district board of trade regret that the governors did not deem it necessary to allow their public notice in the Lacombe newspaper.

"The board of trade contend that adequate coverage is being received from the privately owned [illegible] area of the province by CBX. that poor coverage of the [illegible] area is the result of a [illegible] and that the control area can only suffer in terms of reception by transferring the transmitter to Calgary."

Only $477. Collected to Date For Red Cross

Donations to the Canadian Red Cross fund campaign are lagging badly in this district according to word from local president Dirk Gillespie

Total contributed on to date are $477, toward a quota of $2,300 Of [illegible] the campaign ends on March 31

However about 50 bush [illegible] still outstanding in the hands of canvassers and it is hoped when these are turned in that the objective will be approached

Orum Young heads the rural canvass, Mrs. Dirk Gillespie the residential

Oil vs. Farming Problems Aired

Canadian petroleum officials met with county of Lacombe councillors here last Thursday to discuss problems that arise in the operation of Alberta's two largest industries, farming and oil development.

Tearing up roads or grass fields to lay pipeline without proper compensation from oil companies, was one complaint raised by county chairman Bill Lee.

Another objection voiced by councillor Art Keeton of Alix was the movement of heavy oil derricks that do damage to roads.

The visiting oil delegation suggested that if the company concerned was notified and informed of the time, place and circumstances, an adjustment for the road damage done would be made.

County secretary George Brooks pointed out that this was easier said than done Contractors and sub-contractors do not like and it as often difficult to trace down the company

Another point brought up by councillor Lee was the odor problem and what he termed the "excess burning of oil" in the Joffre oil field area, southeast of Lacombe

It was explained that the odor results from tests made to determine the sulphur content of the fields, which are sent to the health department of the provincial government by request

The delegates had no immediate answer to Mr Lee's charge about the burning of "so much oil" in the Joffre pit The black smoke that pours out has given his district the name of "Black Valley"

150 Bulls Entered to Date For Spring Sale

Only 150 bulls of all breeds were entered up to Tuesday of this week for the March 30 bull sale being held on May 23 and 24 under the auspices of the central Alberta agricultural society

Secretary-manager J A McKinley advises that the deadline date for entries is next Saturday March 31, so any farmers planning to consign bulls for the sale should submit entries immediately

Canyon District Pioneer Passes on At Hospital

A pioneer resident of the Canyon district, Mrs. Rebecca Ball passed away at the Lacombe hospital on Thursday March 22 1962 at the age of 78 years

Born Rebecca Ernest in Lorndon Ontario on July 11, 1873 she was married to Charles Ball at Calgary in 1893 by the Rev. G W. Dean and has resided at the farm home east of Blackfalds ever since

She was predeceased by one daughter, Mrs. L. W Bailey (Fanny) in 1936, and her husband in 1939

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J W Clark (Mary) of Seattle Washington, three sons Douglas of Benalto, Harold and Ernest at home, 19 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren

Funeral services were held from the Blackfalds United church on Tuesday with Rev. G. C Seward of Bentley officiating

99th Birthday

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Fred and Grandad Albert Jackson, who passed away April 1, 1961.
How I wish you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more;
In my memory you are with me,
As you always were before.
Lovingly remembered by Hilda, Mrs. Marion and Family. 26-1-p

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Fred Calderwood, who passed away on March 31, 1961.
His is gone, but memories remain
And we know he's free from pain.
In our hearts is hoarded deep
Things of sadness we must keep.
Days of sadness still recall to us
What we lost in losing you.
Now the little hands that nestled
Are folded, dear one, on your breast.

Social Credit Leader Speaks At Lacombe Legion Hall

An enthusiastic public meeting [illegible] at which Dr. [illegible] ... [illegible] ... [illegible] ...

The Removal of Snow

HAVE Lacombe residents noticed how efficiently the storm sewers have cleared away the first spring [illegible]?

Last year there wasn't enough snow on the ground to give the new storm sewers in residential areas a good test. Some of the water even succeeded in penetrating the ground.

This year has been different. The frost has gone down several feet and the earth is still hard. There has been more snow and the first week of thawing temperatures has created many small pools but few large lakes and rivers. Thousands of gallons of excess water have been funnelled into the storm sewer system.

Bouquets to the town work force in opening the sewers so promptly and giving the water a chance to escape. While we're on the subject, and before the water runs in full course we'd like to congratulate the workers also on their snow-clearing jobs in downtown Lacombe. They had a few hefty snowfalls and high snowdrifts to contend with [illegible] Well done foreman Orville Saunders, and [illegible]

Provincial Omnipotence

MORE than a few thinking people in communities like Lacombe are becoming apprehensive about the growing power of the provincial government over administration on the local level.

The gradual shift of responsibility from municipal councils to provincial authorities is not complete by any means, but it becomes apparent with each passing day that towns and hospitals and school committees must refer more and more of their business to Edmonton "for approval".

The town of Lacombe wished to borrow $40,000 to build a swimming pool. The residents of the proposed by-law were forwarded to the board of public utilities for approval, to ensure that the money would be borrowed at an interest rate of six percent or less. The swimming pool is contingent on a $30,000 provincial government grant, as well as a $7 000 pool grant to make up the total cost of $84,000.

The Lacombe municipal hospital board several years ago started a sinking fund, which after 11 accumulated was to be used to help defray the cost of a modest nurses' home of around $40,000. Then the provincial government entered the picture and [illegible] Edmonton "for approval".

The educational committee of the county of Lacombe requested permission to proceed with the erection of a school addition at Lacombe and another one at Blackfalds in 1962. The request at Blackfalds was refused because the village populations did not warrant extra school rooms. Local administrators, it would seem, are not capable of sound judgement in deciding [illegible]

This shift in autonomy from the municipalities to the province is not to the liking of legislative members, we are sure. It was not brought about by their good for more power but by a set of financial circumstances where the municipalities had become poorer and the province richer. Grants and hand-outs from the senior government have tended to open the door to greater supervision and control.

This threat to local autonomy has been raised in the current session of the legislature and several cabinet ministers including Gordon Taylor, Alfred Hooke and Ivan McDonald have leaped to their feet in defence. Their quick and urgent denials only prove there is substance in the charge.

The Farmer Takes a Wife

THERE is something quite sweet and romantic about the story of a 38-year-old farmer from Calgary who journeyed to Newcastle, England, this month to claim a "pen-pal" for a bride.

Most men are a lot slower than that. They court one or several girls over a period of years during the age of gay bachelorhood. Then, one day, it dawns on them that it's time to settle down. They thought longer over the choice of gas beauties they've squired around, and they try to single out one lucky girl who best answers the qualities they're looking for in a life-long mate.

Of course, the current "steady" holds the inside track, and if this girl is truly interested she isn't standing still while the guy tries to make up his mind. Like as not, she's thinking of it for him. Although she does the prodding with such guile that he thinks he's [illegible]

Newspapers Essential

THE merger of some newspapers to [illegible] cut costs, and the closing of other papers forecasts a contraction of the industry which is not in the best interests of the people. The fewer publications there are, the fewer are the number of editors and publishers who are finally responsible for the dissemination of news. The ethics of good news reporting and the ideals of the newspaper industry remain high, but there is nothing like competition to ensure that all sides of a question are properly presented to an informed public.

Over in England, two daily London newspapers have recently ceased publication. This caused Cecil King, an official in a publication chain there to survey the field and predict that other papers are also "headed for extinction".

He bases this gloomy forecast on the high cost of union labor and reduced advertising revenue that shrinks profits.

It will be a sad day for residents in any 'one-industry' city if they ever have to do without their daily newspaper. It is their main source of national and international news. They may obtain headline news from the radio and television, but only the newspaper can give detailed day-by-day information with background stories and interpretive [illegible]

Reflections of the Times

A Threat to Autonomy

It is evident that the Social Credit government in Alberta is determined to inject an end to local governing boards in this province.

It is systematically pushing toward centralization in all phases of local self-government and elimination of control by citizens in their own communities. This, through resolute plans to establish the county system, a system that threatens the autonomy of municipal councils, school boards, hospitals, town planning and welfare.

Recently, the minister of municipal affairs, Mr. Hooke was reported as saying school boards are as obsolete as the [illegible]

Strenuous objections to this statement has been made publicly by John S. Cormack, Q.C. of Edmonton who served on Alberta's royal commission on education and who [illegible] comment condemning the existing system of education in this province.

Of school boards Mr. Cormack has this to say:

"At one time in Alberta we had 200 independent school districts governed by 11 800 school trustees By 1952 Mr. Hooke's government by a stroke of the pen had eliminated most of these districts and replaced them with 50 school districts governed by 300 trustees. Already these 300 are being liquidated in rural areas under the relentless compulsion of county government, which, when completed, will contain no elected school trustees as such. Thus, within a generation, 11,000 elective offices have been written off, in Mr Hooke's language, as so much obsolete machinery.

"But school boards are not machinery They are ordinary people, all of them voluntarily and actively working and working hard for the future of our children — as well as keeping an eye on the goings-on in the department of education in Edmonton. They are men and women who are elected every year by persons who have expressed through them their hope for the kind of education, direction and leadership they want for their children And what may be more important these 11 000 offices are the training ground for public life Many an eminent political figure has started his public life as a humble school trustee Local school boards, along with other local governments, are the first bastions of democracy"

WEST TRAILER COURT

A general meeting of the Claresholm chamber of commerce Monday night passed a committee to prepare a brief on the establishment of a trailer court.

A court designed for use by persons working on highway construction in the immediate area Facilities for overnight holiday trailers and tourists could follow once the semi-permanent court was established

Those at meeting held little hope of a private resident erecting a trailer court with facilities comparable to the town north of here. It is the general consensus of opinion that unless something equally as good as the court in Stavely is built, highway workers will drive the 10 miles back and forth.

Time Time Used Wise

Every day farmers call in our office enquiring as to the location of seed. In order to help farmers locate good seed we provide a listing service in our office Farmers with seed to sell should list it with us immediately

Treat Your Seed

There is no form of crop insurance available today that will return grain growers more for the premium involved than seed treatment The response to seed treatment is so much reflected by many farmers the crop variety the vitality of the seed, the diseases present on the seed and in the soil, the type of seed treatment, and how efficiently it is [illegible]

But, year in and year out one fact is certain, seed treatment is more than pay for itself It will return dollars for the pennies invested

What It Does

A recommended seed treatment chemical, properly applied to the surface of the seed, performs the following important functions for us:

(1) Disinfects the seed and destroys the seed-borne organisms which cause smut, seed rot, seed ling blight, and other diseases.

(2) Prevents seed-borne organisms from destroying the seed.

(3) Insures better field stands which in turn helps to control weeds.

(4) Increases the value of the crop by eliminating diseases which lower the quality of the [illegible]

(5) Increases yield, In other words, if you want to ensure stronger plant stands, greater yields and less disease in your wheat, oat, barley and flax fields in 1962, treat all the seed you plant.

Extra Protection Needed

This year, dry soil is likely to be a serious hazard in the establishment of satisfactory field stands of grain. It is an established fact that the longer seed lies unprotected on the soil the greater the chance for it to fall victim to diseases — some of which thrive in dry soil.

If the seed is protected by a good seed treatment chemical it can often resist the attack of these enemies until the moisture is enough for it to begin to grow This is why farmers should treat all their seed this spring

Approved Chemicals

The original mercurial compounds are the officially approved chemicals for treating the seed of cereals and flax Formaldehyde and copper sulphate are no longer recommended for this purpose Then, of course, there is always the mercury seed disinfectants on the market today They are all government approved and suitable for the purpose claimed on the label.

It must be remembered however that chemicals containing mercury are poisonous. Follow label directions and precautions carefully Again we say seed treatment — sound, low-cost crop insurance Play it safe — treat all your seed in 1962.

Cows are Cows

A cow completely suits many milk manufacturing machine It is encased in untainted leather and covered on the four vertical movable supports one on each corner

The front end contains the eating and grinding mechanism as well as headlights ear tabs and a shock absorbing device on each horn

At the rear is the dispensing apparatus and an automatic fly [illegible]

The central portion houses a hydro-chemical conversion plant This consists of the fermentation room and storage tanks connected in series by an intricate network of flexible plumbing

This section also contains the heating plant which includes automatic temperature controls, pumping station and main ventilating system The newest disposal apparatus is located at the rear of this vertical section.

In brief, the externally visible features are: two loakers, two benders, four grinder - uppers, four hanger - downers, and a crushy-mushy

There is a similar machine known as a bull, which should not be confused with a cow. It produces no milk, but has other interesting uses.

The World of Trees . . .

Last week, we noticed that owing to the drift of the Gulf Stream a small kind of palm grows in Ayrshire Scotland but even the south of England is by no means tropical.

There is no definite latitude, north or south, to mark the tropics.

Palms will grow 2,500 miles north of the equator in Rome and the same distance in Cape Town to the south, which leaves a large proportion of the land in our world in the semi - [illegible]

The first I saw of the tropics was in Honduras in Central America about 30 years ago, we were so far south as Cristobal on the Carribean side of the Panama canal. As we came back the cruise passengers were taken up a tropical river while the ship was loading bananas. (We had 60,000 bunches on board when we docked in New Orleans)

The river trip took most of the day I noticed the lush growth of the vegetation (over 150 inches of rain falls here). Coconut trees were everywhere, also banana plantations where they had chopped out the jungle. The banana is not a real tree and after it fruits, dies.

It grows about 10 feet high from shoots. It does not grow well where it is windy. It will stand no frost. It has leaves about six feet long and six inches wide.

The flower could be called ugly. It looks like a maroon purple lily hanging down on the end of a bunch of fruit about the size of the little finger which point upward.

The bunches have to be handled very carefully and are loaded and unloaded with benders, like a binder canvas, only much longer as they have to go from the dock to the ship's dock. And of course from dock to dock.

Since the rainfall is adequate there is not much cultivation done. Just the jungle trimmed with a machetie which is like a big heavy butcher knife.

Bananas are also grown in gardens (very poor gardens) by the natives. They plant the shoots which I believe take 18 months to grow a bunch of fruit, but since other shoots are coming up they have a fairly dependable supply [illegible]

163 Blood Donors Attend Bentley Red Cross Clinic

BENTLEY — There were 163 donors at the Red Cross blood donor clinic held in the school gym on Monday of last week. The clinic was sponsored by the Bentley Elks with the ladies' hospital auxiliary and Gulf Wolf association assisting. Thanks to all who gave blood and helped in any way with this worthwhile project.

The last general meeting of the UCW will be held in the Christian education centre on April 11 at 8:00 p.m. Members of all units and any other ladies interested in the United church women's work are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart of Camrose visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Seward on Sunday.

Fine Fashion Show

Spring fashion show in the school gym sponsored by the ladies' hospital auxiliary attracted a large number of ladies and girls to see the latest in spring fashions.

The beautiful clothes from Mrs. Audrey Bartlett's Lacombe Specialty Shoppe were modelled by ladies from Bentley, Lacombe and Blackfalds and included coats, hats, suits, and dresses as well as a preview of sports wear for the summer.

Mrs. A. Herman was the commentator and Mrs. W. C. Dutton played with the singers being the pianist. The stage was decorated with baskets of flowers from Dick and Peter's Variety store, and the models walked through a room-twined arch out onto the stage.

Taking part in a program were Mrs. C. Carruthers, a solo, Aila and Iwola Joan Knight duet, Mrs. J. Knight and Mrs. H. P. Iverson, duet. Annette McKenzie accordion selection, and Mrs. L. Craig, a reading "the business of keeping young."

Mrs. Herman presented flowers to Mrs. Bartlett and a corsage to Mrs. Dawson. Mrs. Don Dodson won the door prize. Tea was served to all the ladies.

Safety is SHA Topic

Boundary home and school association held the March meeting at the school gym with a fine attendance. Mrs. L. Craig reviewed the highlights of the items to be found in the home and school news. Mrs. F. Fraser read some of the resolutions that had been handed in, and these were discussed.

Principal A. Bruns introduced the guest speaker Hugh Canon, pub. relations man for the Calgary Power. "The Hazard Display by Calgary Power was very interesting and the topic was "Safety for the Hustles. Look Up and Live."

This was a very informative address and if practiced should help to avoid accidents. The film on mouth to mouth method of resuscitation was very informative.

Women's Auxiliary

Members of the Order of Royal Purple held a social evening in the Elk Legion rooms and entertained their husbands. What was played with the winners being Mrs. Mc. J. Morrison 1st; Mrs. K. Gheeger, men's high; Mrs. Wilson low; Jim Garvey, travelling prize. Mrs. K. Gheeger's host lunch was enjoyed after the card games.

Pins Presented

Attendance pins were given out at the United Sunday school one year pin to Peter Seward, second year pin to Birdie Park; five-year pins to Margaret Allen and Donald Allen; seven year to Girl Callins, eight-year to Kathy Bruns and Bonnie Jean Hicks; nine-year pin to Janet Hicks.

Twelve Sunday school teachers of the Pentecostal Tabernacle attended the regional Sunday school convention in Edmonton last week.

Dr Gray of Medicine Hat was a recent visitor at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. Peterson.

Rev. John Mowatt of Edmonton spent several days last week visiting at the home of h.. parents Mr and Mrs. E. Mowatt.

Mr and Mrs. Herald Peterson left on Tuesday to spend a week's holiday with relatives and friends in Vancouver and White Rock.

TRY BRAISED COD FILLETS WITH A LEMON PAN SAUCE

BRAISED COD FILLETS
2 tbsp butter or margarine
2 lbs. defrosted cod fillets cut into serving pieces
Salt and Malkin's pepper
1 egg, beaten
½ cup cornmeal or semolina

Corn meal

Melt butter in a deep frying pan or Dutch Oven. Season fish generously with salt and pepper on both sides. Dip in flour, then in egg, then in cornmeal. Brown in the hot butter. Add cornmeal or bouillon and cook until fish flakes apart when tested with a fork. Remove fish to warm serving platter and keep warm. Stir into the drippings of fried fresh boiling water to make a sauce. Pour over fish.

School Hi-Lites

(By Herb)

Basketball came to an end two weeks ago when the Eagles played in the provincial playdowns in Red Deer and in the semi-finals. The boys had previously come first in their league and had won the district playdowns.

Curling enjoyed a good year with nine rinks participating in a round robin draw. Rinks enter ed bonspiel in nearby centres and came home with some prizes. Red Jeghan rink of Bill Ford, Linda Haskell and Danna Bain was the curling final against David Wagoner's rink.

A school dance was held at the high school gym with the Knockabouts supplying the music. Everyone was given so all an announcement.

Students have put aside sports and other extra-curricular activities, and are studying for the Easter exams this week. Easter holidays, of course, are eagerly looked forward to.

Forty Ladies From Meadowbrook Attend Dinner Meeting of WA

MEADOWBROOK — March meeting of the WA held with Mabel Kinley in Onoway was very successful event!

Close to forty people attended. There was a beautiful dinner served to all. The ladies were mainly added to by having the White Elephant sale. The WA is grateful to all those who attended and patronized this annual event.

Plans were made to have the April 12 meeting with Lizzie Gilliland. The date for the annual Easter tea at Meadowbrook is April 25.

The ladies of the WA are asked to have a couple of aprons ready, in connection with the tea. It is hoped that all will be willing to do their part to patronize the tea.

The money earned by the WA is spent in many good ways.

Busy Logging

Logging and sawing is in full swing out Meadowbrook way. The Ivan Rileys, Percy Frizzells and Jack Burtons are all in the business.

Baby Bonus Can Help to Buy College Education

Most parents are only too well aware that it takes a good deal more than brains for a boy or girl to go to college. That's why far-sighted mothers and fathers who want to give their children the best possible in life plan far in advance for the rising costs of higher education.

For many Canadian parents the monthly family allowance cheque provides an opportunity to lay the groundwork of a savings program designed to cover the costs of higher education for their children.

Family allowance cheques for one child if deposited in a B of M savings account until the age of 18 will total more than $1,000, including interest but bank pays 3% a fully sum towards a college career

If you're in doubt as to what it might cost in the long run to send your boy or girl to college, why not drop in at the Lacombe branch of the Bank of Montreal. Fred Parmeter, the manager, will be glad to give you a copy of the B of M folder outlining a typical education savings program which can easily be adapted to the special requirements of your family.

Alix Girls to Speak In Contest at Red Deer

ALIX — Everyone enjoyed the Wolf dance Eddie [illegible] speeches given by the girls' [illegible] Sherry Shepherd and Marie Shortt, in the semi-final public speaking contest sponsored by the Rebekah and Oddfellows lodges. Unfortunately there were no entries from other points in this area of only five, but we are glad that the local girls will represent us in the finals to be held on Red Deer on April 6, and sincerely hope that the girls will be merry fun in winning the trip to New York.

The comments of the judges, Rev. K. Cullison from Lacombe Mr. Delibaut, from the department of extension at Edmonton and D. MacNaughton of Stettler were very interesting and should prove helpful guides for future speakers.

A present appreciated the out [illegible] of the competitions as given by Mr. Hinman of Penhold. We are glad to know that the judges' opinion of the [illegible] training.

The men of the Anglican church have had two evening box during which sanding and varnishing of woodwork has been accomplished.

Mrs. Dorothy Marryat's friend and relatives were very glad to hear that after a [illegible] [illegible] at the Lacombe hospital on Thursday of [illegible] is [illegible] at home.

The program presented in CKRD entertainers in the area [illegible] hall under the sponsorship of the curling club was enjoyed by all who attended. Unfortunately the event was cancelled due to the home and school meeting, hence the attendance was not as large as anticipated. Hearing moving people on radio was a thrill for many who could not leave home, and some who spoke did exceedingly well.

Congratulations and best wishes to Barbara Hanses and her bay band, who were united in marriage recently in a quiet ceremony in Red Deer.

With regret, friends and neigh bors will bid Mr and Mrs. Vern Booth and family farewell shortly when they leave to assume a more responsible position with the Calgary Power Co. in Taber. Everyone wishes them the best in their new surroundings and work.

Among those who enjoyed the drama festival held in Red Deer recently were Mr. and Mrs. H. Hrynyk, Mr. and Mrs O. C. Smith, Mr and Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs. A. Sowell, who attended all five plays.

Mrs. Howitt enjoyed a visit from her sister Mrs Tours of Medicine Hat, with whom she motored back and forth attending festival week. O. C. Smith, accompanied by Frank Woodward, Ronald Purkis and P. Marryat, motored to Calgary on Friday evening to attend a dinner conference of Anglican church representatives in the Calgary diocese.

Don't forget the FWUA meeting on Saturday, April 7. Please bring your donation of articles for the auction services.

Leaving Alix

Another of the respected farm ers of the district had farewell to the Alberta farming days last week when several of his friends gathered at the R. Purbis home on Thursday evening, March 29, to express their regrets at losing a good neighbor, and to wish him all the best in his home land in Scot land, where he is returning.

Among those present were Mr and Mrs. Geo. Morris, Mr and Mrs J. Allan, Mr and Mrs. R. Bennett, Mr and Mrs Peter Mac vat Mrs D Walton and Sherry.

After a short sing-song with Mrs. Walton at the piano, lunch was served and Sherry on behalf of his many friends, presented him with a remembrance gift. The very best wishes of all go with you Jim!

Mrs E Holsworth's sister, Mrs Hand of Toronto, is a guest of her relatives in the west. Mr and Mrs. Kendal Greenwood of Ver milion were also week-end guests at the Holsworth home.

Members of the Dr Irene Parl by chapter of the IODE express appreciation for assistance from their generous friends who con tributed their materials for the tea Saturday afternoon, for inter est displayed in their exhibit, and for patronizing the event.

The shipment of goods display ed was unfortunately misselected fol lowing the tea and sent to the packing rooms in Calgary for re distribution.

Large Shipment

This shipment totalled 197 ar ticles and was made up of 26 baby quilts, 25 large quilts, 13 pair of Korean socks, 11 toques, 11 pairs of knitted mitts, 10 child's skirts, 1 boys' shirt, pair of new long un derwear, three matine jackets, two sweaters large pair quilts, [illegible] and a scarf.

In addition to the shipment of goods to Calgary, the committee in charge of the Alix Red Cross Bazaar realized $21 profits of good used clothing, the wise country, and $1 donations by the collecting [illegible] last report.

Red Cross supplies [illegible] Mrs. Fred Rouse report [illegible] $245.00 for linen required [illegible] Mrs. Rouse also reported [illegible] of the sewing committee [illegible] Mrs. Rouse [illegible] sewing [illegible] and [illegible] by her.

Garden Expert Gives Early Planting Tips

Use a polyethylene mulch this spring when transplanting your [illegible] melons and cucumbers, advises H. Allen, horticulturist at the Lacombe experimental farm. Experiments over the past three years have shown this a worthwhile practice.

The recommendations is to sow the seeds indoors at three-inch pots around May 15 and transplant in the open when danger of frost is past. The pots can then be placed in the ground without disturbing the roots.

Clear plastic is best, Mr. Allen advises. Three-foot widths of 2 mil plastic were laid down before planting, and holes six inches in diameter were cut out to insert the plants. The cucumber and muskmelon plants were placed three feet apart in the row. Edges of the mulch are covered with soil to prevent their lifting in the wind.

In the hot, dry summer of last year the plants came along almost as well without as with the mulch, but in the more normal years of 1959 and 1960 mulching increased the yield of cucumbers by 1960 the cucumbers under mulch yielded three times as much as those without mulch. The yield of muskmelons was increased by 50 per cent by mulching in 1960, but in 1959 the yield was 1.7 times as great on the mulched area. Three feet apart in the row. Edges of the mulch are covered with soil to prevent their lifting in the wind.

Georgina Evelyn Reitsma Pretty Bride at Bentley

Bentley United church was the setting for the marriage on March 10th of Georgina Evelyn Reitsma, youngest daughter of Mr George Reitsma and the late Mrs Reitsma of Bentley, and Casper Otto Froebel, second son of Mr and Mrs. Arnold Froebel of Calgary.

Rev. O. Seward performed the marriage ceremony

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride looked radiant in a floor length gown of white over taffeta featuring a scalloped neckline with short sleeves and a skirt of self-toned all-round Schiffli embroidery in three tiers.

The cut crystal and seed pearl crown held her bouffant veil of illusion and lace length veil in place. She carried a nosegay arched on a white Bible with streamers of ribbons.

The bride's only jewellery was a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were the matron of honor, Mrs. Theresa Kirk of Edmonton, sister of the bride and Miss Annette McKenzie of Bentley as bridesmaid

The attendants were identical dresses of aqua silk organza featuring bouffant street-length skirts with round neck lines and three quarter length puffed sleeves.

Mrs. Kirk and Miss McKenzie wore identical white matching hats, gloves and shoes and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Miss Debbie Kirk, the flower girl wore a white nylon dress with matching white accessories She carried a tiny nosegay corsage of white carnations.

Ronald Reitsma was best man for his brother and Gerald Froebel and Gordon Froebel, brothers of the groom, ushered. Mrs. Reitsma, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of red sweetheart roses.

Following the wedding, a reception for seventy-five guests was held in the Christian education building. A three-tier wedding cake made and decorated by Mrs Ken Granger as a gift to the bride and groom centered the head table. Daffodils and candles enhanced the tables.

Rev B. H. Thackeray acted as master of ceremonies and Rev. O. Seward proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded.

Telegrams were read from Switzerland Montreal, Victoria and Vancouver

Out of town guests were from Prince Albert, Sask. Kamloops, B.C., Calgary, Edmonton, Saskatoon, Rekville, Red Deer and Lacombe.

For a wedding trip to the northern States and B.C. the bride changed into a beige and white suit with beige accessories and a tiny nosegay orchid corsage

Carnation and Simplot Join Forces For New Potato Industry

Carnation Company Ltd., and Simplot of Canada Ltd., recently announced an announcement by the companies, have joined in a new enterprise to be called Carnation Foods Company, Ltd., for the manufacture of a complete range of frozen and dehydrated processed potatoes for the retail, institutional and industrial trade.

Centre of production will be at Carberry, Manitoba, where a new plant, to cost an estimated $10 persons, is being constructed According to company officials, the facility will be the most complete potato processing plant ever built, with four lines processing potatoes in various forms. The Alsberg processing method, a Canadian development will be used to produce the instant mashed potato form.

Carnation Company Ltd., a 68 year old Canadian dairy products processor is a leader in quality and research with plants in the provinces of Ontario, Quebec and Alberta. The latter has just opened an Edmonton plant to provide a substantial market for farm products.

Simplot of Canada, Limited, has available an organization which has the benefit of many years of research and experience in the processing and distribution of potato products.

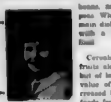
The Homemaker . . .

Miss Pat Shore, District Home Economist



The purpose of this column is to give you, the homemaker, current up-to-date facts on new advances in the business of homemaking, and solutions to problems of use to you as wives and mothers.

I have, therefore, decided to start a series of articles on nutrition. These articles will deal with nutritional requirements, components needed for health and ways to get that home-budge to work for you and your family. Keep the quote in mind "The right foods add many years to your life, and more life to your years."

Nutrition is the science that deals with food at work — food on the job for you. Modern knowledge of food at work brings a new kind of mastery over life. When you — and your family — eat the right foods, add many years to your life and more life to your years.

The right food helps you to be at your best in health and vitality. It can even help you to stay young longer, postponing old age. An individual well fed from body's point of view is the picture of long prime of life. But at any age you are better off when you are well fed.

Food's Three Big Jobs

1 Food provides materials for the body's building and repair. Proteins and minerals (and water) are what your body is chiefly made of. Children must have these food materials to grow on and all life long the body continues to require supplies for upkeep.

2 Food provides regulators that enable the body to use other materials and to assemble the important work in the line and materials and protein, too.

3 Food provides fuel for the

Body's Needs, A to Z

From Vitamin A to the master oil films, a list of nutrients chemical substances that the body needs to maintain from food would total more than 60. And there may be some not yet discovered.

You can put nutritious knowledge to use without being introduced to all of the body's A-to-Z needs. When daily meals provide sufficiently for the following basic nutrients, you can be reasonably sure of getting the rest

Protein

Protein one named from a Greek word meaning "first." Surely a hundred years ago, it was recognized as the main soft tissue in all of the body's muscles and organs, skin, hair, and other tissues. No single substance could build and renew such different tissues and protein has proved to be unequaled for that.

Proteins in different foods are made up of varying combinations of 22 simpler substances called amino acids. If need be, the body can make its own supply of more than half of these amino acids. But the remaining amino acids must come readymade from food. And to get these from food in special ones, the body needs them all together either in one food or in some mixture of foods. The best quality proteins have all of these especially important amino acids, and worthwhile amounts of each.

You get top-rating proteins in foods from animal sources, as in meat, poultry, fish, eggs, milk and cheese. Lesser amounts of these proteins are needed each day, as is no advantage to include more in each meal.

Next best for proteins are soy-

Outstanding Movie "Cimerron" at Lux

Next April 9 - 10 - 11

A rare combination of color types, the wide-screen, full-color outdoor adventure and historical are expertly blended together in "Cimarron" which comes to the Lux theatre for three big fast-starting days next Monday.

Glenn Ford portrays tough, resourceful and passionate Yancey Cravat, a man who can't let Maria Schell's character go off to the unsettled western territory without coming along.

There are thrilling, action-packed scenes of cattle drives, Indian attacks and romantic interludes.

Turn Sod For Swimming Pool

A special sod-turning ceremony was observed on the site of Lacombe's new swimming pool, southwest corner of the arena grounds on Wednesday morning of last week. Three of Lions Lacombe citizens who displayed particular interest in swimming in the past were invited to handle the shovels (foreground, left to right) Frank Adamson, Mrs Don McCormick and Marwood Strain. In the background are town officials left to right: councillor Will Hunt, just out of picture, secretary Frank Lacey, councillors Lou Hrtzh, Bob Miller, Wes Jack on, mayor Ronald Gordon, and councillor Ivan Stonehocker. President of the construction firm, Ken Nyback of Camrose Swim Pools Ltd., states the $60,000 pool will be completed by or before June 15.

Bluffton Man Heads District Wool Growers

P R Chubb of Bluffton was elected president of the central Alberta wool growers association, at the annual meeting at the Lacombe Hotel last Thursday

George Flewelling of Lacombe is vice president and G H Fawcett of Lacombe, assistant treasurer

The secretary reported that 30,000 pounds of wool was handled during the year 1961, an increase of 14,000 pounds over 1960. The average price was 28½ cents per pound, an increase of two cents over 1960

Shipping dates for 1962 will be the first week in July.

There was one resolution adopted, for the consideration of the government.

"That Canadian lamb sold over the counter be labelled, red or blue, similar to beef."

Directors elected for the ensuing year were W Guenther of Spring Lake, Norman Hindle of Wetaskiwin, William Matejka of Pocaska, A. S. Jones of Bluffton, and from Lacombe, William Ogilvie, R. Dackett, Harvey Fleming and Howard Woodrow.

Postpone Building at Blackfalds School

Provincial government screened its position on a school construction grant at Blackfalds this year by approving the addition of a science room and a library worth $1; reason for grant purpose chairman Art Wigmore told members of the educational committee in session Tuesday.

However, the original department stand not to allow grants for classrooms is unchanged, Mr. Wigmore continued.

"We still need a couple of more rooms at Blackfalds," said Mr. Wigmore. "So maybe it would be better to wait until next year and do it all together."

Committee member Bill Lee added, "I agree with the chairman. If we can squeeze by somehow this year, it will be more economical to build a larger unit next year."

The motion to defer the building program at Blackfalds until September 1 was carried. The delay in no way affects the government grant of a later date, it was pointed out.

New Police Car To Be Purchased, Council Decides

Town of Lacombe will purchase a new police car and trade in the 1961 model, it was decided at a meeting of council Monday

Accepted was the tender from Ferguson Motors of Lacombe for a new 1962 Plymouth Savoy 8 four-door sedan, for a difference in price of $875 with trade.

Councillor Murray Boyer, chairman of the police committee said it was up to council to settle the question whether the 1961 police car which now has 29,000 miles should be kept, or held over until fall when, it is thought will be close to 50,000

The feeling was "buy now."

Other bids were received from Anderson Motors, Manning Motors McTaggart Weeks & Mc-

Council Ponders Best Way to Clean Streets

Operation of the street sweeper on a regular basis was advocated by councillor Murray Boyer at Monday night's council meeting.

Councillor Wes Jackson, who heads the public works committee, said signs are being prepared to block off roads from traffic for short periods so the sweeper can clean hard-surface streets without the hindrance of parked cars.

He couldn't agree that regular sweeping was somehow on set days each week, however, because of fluctuations in the weather

There were other suggestions advanced at the meeting, too, one of them from councillor Reid of Miller who thought that a water tank working down the middle of paved streets ahead of the sweeper would flush dirt to the gutters and save time and wear "It front of the new post office would cost 50¢ thereon on hot summer days, too, he added

Councillor Jackson thought a water tank under pressure might [illegible] cost $1,000 "We'd better leave that this year, then," said councillor Will Hunt

This ended the street cleaning discussion, but there was lots of other business coming under the heading of

Alix Principal Requests School Improvements

Principal Nick Hryaph of Alix outlined by letter a 13-point program of school repairs and improvements for consideration of the educational committee which met in the county office on Tuesday.

He said there "appeared to be a need for more school accommodation next fall" pointing out a strong possibility that grade one would have two rooms next year, and that grades eight and nine would each have 38 students.

He also drew attention to the lack of gymnasium and library facilities at the school.

The 12-point repair program he suggested:

1 Construction of a sidewalk on the west and north side of the school yard, and some seeding of the grass.

2 A new incinerator for the present 15 classrooms to replace the old one which was built when there were six rooms.

3. Addition of linoleum in the old parts of the school to reduce the heat.

4. A science room for the junior high school.

5. Need for painting parts of the school corridor and classrooms.

6. Construction of a baseball [illegible]

7. A new [illegible] to the [illegible] basement and in the [illegible] room.

8. [illegible]

9. [illegible]

10 Additional clothes racks in the entrance way

11 Tree planting around the school.

12 Some construction to give the staff room more privacy

Education committee member Arthur Keeton of Alix said "most of these things" can be considered under the coming year's repair program He said the "big worry" was the accommodation and where one or more new classrooms were going to come from.

Vern Booth Family Honored at Farewell Gathering at Alix Hall

ALIX Friends of the Vern Booth family expressed their best wishes for success and happiness in their new undertaking and home at Taber when a well attended gathering in their honor was held in the community hall on Wednesday evening, April 4.

Appreciation for all Vern and Marie have done for the community and appreciation of service for the gay times having with create, were voiced together with an ingratulations, for a promotion with the Calgary Power Co. All the best to you folk, and welcome to Verne's successor, Dave Kerr of Lousana.

Mixed Mustard Class

Customers of the Bonnie Moat Market more than familiar words of friendly greeting exchanged while doing their shopping Mr and Mrs Gus Bonnar have decided not to re-establish the business after the fire spoiled so many of their stock recently. Best wishes for a long, pleasant period of retirement is offered Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bonnar.

Captain and Mrs. Eaton are home after spending the winter in Phoenix, Arizona.

Bubble Dance Held

The Cubs made a thorough job of canvassing the village for bottles on Saturday, April 7. Unfortunately, the failure to advertise their plan for the drives slowed up the job of collecting.

The Scouts are back along the ridges of Haunted Lake again, and photographers are busy with numerous trying to get pictures of the beautiful sky creatures.

The junior high school really dispelled the statement that "teen conference to be held on Banbury at Mar. 28.

The annual canvass for funds for the cancer campaign was launched and the full re-operation of all is requested for these volunteer canvassers who will be visiting village and district residents in the near future. Please note that CADP employees and business personnel will be visited at the scene of their work duties rather than at their homes. No person will be contacted at both places. Please be generous.

Everyone who heard the guest speaker, Mrs. Alice Nielsen, give a well organized talk and demonstration of the art of collecting, propagating and caring for cactus will not forget the impression gained from her. The effective method in which she speedily arranged a miniature rock garden using a planter, a few pieces from the rock collections and a number of cactus with a few small ornaments for color, all combined to make an interesting, attractive garden.

May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. I Pannell with Mrs McNally and Mrs. Pilhaps as co-hostesses. Mrs. Hazel Cliff's resignation as treasurer was accepted and Mrs Elsie Ekvall accepted the office.

Mrs Amos of Calgary is a guest of her sister, Mrs. N Russell and other relatives in the village and district.

Bingo Big Bottom

Compliments to the bingo committee on the big hall visit done. Through their efforts they hope to be able to turn over approximately $3,000 to the fund, and of course we'd like to add our congratulations to the winner, Ralph Morsal of Tees who is richer by $1,000.

Bravo to the scout master Albert Rotterdamer and his troop who despite chilly weather undertook a week end camping project at Tail Creek last week end.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs Herb Hoppe on the birth of a son.

Cambro-Lacombe Oil Well Location is Prepared For Drilling

Application has been made by Superior and Cambro oil companies to drill an oil well in this area to be known as Cambro Lacombe.

The well is located on Crown land leased by Cambria in section 18 township 40 range 26 which is about 10 miles southwest of the Chigwell oil field and three miles north of the Bantl production in the Joffre field.

The well has not been spudded in because of the road bans which have been in effect in the county. Further word was received Tuesday that drilling has been suspended at least temporarily.

Raise 300 Pheasants In Lacombe District

A pheasant farm will be established on the Ernest Farr farm northwest of Lacombe by the Lacombe fish and game association, it was announced this week by association president Fred Dobrinski.

Present plans call for the purchase of approximately 300 pheasant chicks from the government hatchery at Brooks (at a cost of 15 cents per bird). New pens will be built on the 40-acre farm as soon as weather conditions permit and the birds will be carefully tended during their tender weeks.

As soon as the birds are old enough to fend for themselves, they will be released in the Lacombe area.

"We are deeply appreciative of Mr Farr's co-operation in donating his land and his time to permit us to raise pheasants for release in this area" Mr Dobrinski noted.

Alix Board Trade To Press For New Hospital, Dentist

ALIX. At a recent meeting of the Alix board of trade, O C Smith was named vice president and Reg Martin secretary-treasurer. The president will be named at the April meeting.

A letter from Bentley board of trade urging a vote for a new site was filed, and Alix decided to support the move for such a service.

The local board of trade will become members of the central Alberta chamber.

Advertising was to be done for a dentist.

The matter of trying to establish a hospital will have its first buzz around at the next meeting. H Hoppe and F Woodward are the membership committee.

IODE Welcomes New Member at Monthly Meeting

April meeting of the Lord Lascelles chapter IODE was held at the home of Mrs A Whyte on Monday of last week, at which Mrs R Moore was welcomed as a new member.

Plans are underway for the chapter's annual rummage sale to be held May 5 at the Scout hall, and several bridge and whist drive scheduled for May 18 at the I.M.C.

Mrs M R. Ross, regent and Mrs M C Malone as standard bearer, are the representatives attending the IODE provincial chapter in Calgary on April 9, 10 and 11.

On Friday, April 6, the Lacombe Lord Lascelles IODE presented the local police force with a picture of the Queen to be hung in their office.

On hand to present the picture to chief of police Crest Schur, was Mrs M R Ross, regent and Mrs. G Sweet, standard bearer.

St. Cyprian's WA Members Plan Easter Tea

Afternoon branch of St. Cyprian's WA met in the parish hall on April 3, with twelve members and one visitor present.

The meeting opened with the "living message" litany, prayer for the bishop's mission, and the WA member's prayer. It was moved that the AYPA would receive $6.00 for their help at a wedding reception. A motion was also made that the branch pay half the taxes on the rectory. It was decided that 200 bethlehem envelopes accompany the Easter bread.

Plans were laid for the Easter tea which will be held on April 22. Final arrangements were also made for the rummage sale. Mrs G Ramsay gave a report on the diocesan WA meeting which was held in Calgary.

The meeting closed with the prayer partner's prayer, and a prayer by rector R. Collison. Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs Ramsay.

The next meeting will be a study meeting in the parish hall on Tuesday, April 17.

New Federal Building Credit to Lacombe

Lacombe's federal building, constructed by Fraser and Rice of Edmonton at a cost of $185,000 is a fine addition to the community. It provides modern working quarters for postal employees, adequate lobby space for customers and a farm credit corporation office on the west side for the local supervisor. Harry Hetsch. Official opening will be held in May or June after the grounds are landscaped. — Staff photo

Those April Showers

Here we are well on into the month of April. District farmers are looking forward to another spring seeding season. With a little more moisture soon than usual, the odds

Members reserves in the soil have been steadily declining since the fall of 1960 . . . this part of central Alberta has suffered crop failure of great crops despite . . . timely June rains and subsoil moisture have carried us well on you. This generality holds true but it does not go far enough.

Better crops can be expected if June rains are plentiful and moisture reserves are to be better against a dry summer. A thrashing put away an hour or a hour's day is more. Even if reserves, don't guarantee a bumper harvest, they spell good return at seeding time. They

NDP It Will Be

NEW democratic party officials have taken the green to look for adopting the initials, NDP, to identify the new political party that to grow the name in full or all terms "a sign of leadership" one source from party headquarters is reported to have said.

He obviously has no more news paper experience than the person who first originated the lengthy title. New Democratic Party. It's a wonder that party followers went along with it at the founding convention. They might have guessed that three words bundled together to make one name would be subject to a shortened version in time some would.

They could look to the recent ex perience of the Conservatives who put "Progressive" before their name and

The Law in Fine Print

A contemporary wisely penned a few terse story about an unfortunate man who was an innocent victim of circumstances, and paid a penalty according to the law.

He removed the old license plates from his car just prior to driving downtown to buy new ones. The bundled was then in the time it took him to park, enter the building, purchase new plates, and come out again, the police

Always a Bigger Boss

The protest by premier Manning about provincial rights being endangered by federal government changes in financial policies will bring many a smile to the lips of municipal authorities in the province of Alberta. They are just as worried about local autonomy with provincial grant money. Relatives as Mr Manning professes to be in his government's relations with Ottawa.

It all depends on who is in the driver's seat.

The premier attempts to prove his contentions by pointing out that the provinces are restricted in their revenue sources by the BNA act, which leaves them short of funds to finance

Reflections of the Times

The Bright Future of Drumheller

The Drumheller area is chosen as the site for a new Canadian penitentiary. At this time there is no need to remind our readers that the Mail has supported the efforts made by local organizations to direct attention to the area as a suitable site. We are pleased indeed that the long period of approach suggestion, invitation recognizance and possible approval is at last in sight.

Long have we felt that Drumheller had a part to play in the district and in the province well beyond recognition earned to date. As days go by it seems to us to be becoming increasingly clear that Drumheller has but one way to go, and that is forward into the future distinguished well beyond the dreaming of most who have shared our destiny to date.

We feel there is a whole of life in our community. Given the lift of a broader vision and the courage to press forward towards its attainment we have no doubt that the name of this city will mean more in the days to come than we can imagine.

Drumheller grew with explosive violence its ranch lands became farm lands, coal mines attracted business and labour, we have the stimulation that comes from being a railway centre We can't imagine this city ever in our time dropping out of sight as a coal producer but certainly that is no longer our main step Recent years have seen our city growing and brightening in so many ways that we have sometimes wondered what is holding us back.

Natural gas is now part of our normal way of living. Drumheller is the centre from whence electric power flows to a great area in our province our water and sewer systems have both been brought up to date, our street lighting has been improved building of homes, schools, hospitals and other amenities in the newer part of the city compares favorably with similar developments in other centres.

The broad hint of the coming of a penitentiary seems to fit well into developments of recent years We feel that this story will be but one of many great strides forward that our city will take in the years not too far in the future.

improve the mental outlook of all people in an agricultural community and district like our own.

The absence creates a certain pessimism over crop prospects.

Last year this area experienced what was in virtually every way a crop failure for the first time in history. Nobody wants a repeat performance particularly with the likelihood of a strong market for farm products.

So April 1962, as well as the month of May holds an unusual influence over our economic destiny.

Everyone hopes for lots of April and May showers to build up our soil reserves and to build up our confidence so this rich mixed farming region will do its usual farmers could be assured of a bumper harvest. Don't want to put all our eggs in one month's basket

TAX EXEMPTION

Third and final reading was given the Camrose by-law exempting industrial machinery from taxation at Monday's meeting of City Council

By passing the by-law Monday evening, council answered an urgent letter to Mayor Hume from Page-Hersey Tubes Limited

The letter gave a fairly firm assurance the new mill would be coming to Camrose if the by-law were passed Mr. Moore wrote "I have been told to assure you that, should the by law be passed construction of the mill would start almost immediately in Camrose."

The letter previously stated, "Page-Hersey Tubes are most anxious to, and in fact must, finalize plans for their new western mill. As I explained on my last visit to Camrose, the extra taxes involved on assessment including machinery, could mean the difference between success or failure for this new project and as a matter of fact decide where this plant should be located."

Dams, Dugouts and Irrigation Projects

The Lacombe agricultural services board is sponsoring an all day meeting on April 17 at 1:00 p.m. in the Fleming Memorial centre for all farmers in the area interested in dams, dugouts, irrigation projects and any other water conservation project.

Murray Gillespie, supervisor of PFRA will be present to discuss the financial assistance policies which are available to farmers interested in water conservation projects

Many farmers have already taken advantage of the PFRA policies to put in dams and dugouts last fall and now have a good supply of water in storage for summer use

The agriculture service board policies which will assist farmers in the repairing of waterways will also be discussed at this meeting.

A very worthwhile project sponsored by the agriculture service board is their roadside seeding assistance policy The policy is for the sum of five dollars per day Jim Schaalan, field supervisor, is in charge of rentals, and can be contacted through the county office

The World of Trees . . .

By T. H. Newman

We have run out of all the northern trees I know anything about, and have to go south into the warmer countries The feature there is the palm, although they grow on a large percentage of the earth's surface

They don't enter much into our lives

But the date palm and the cocoanut palm, to mention two, are to the peoples of their region, as important as the seal is to the Eskimo

Palms are different to other trees They have no growth rings The centre of the trunk is spongy The outside may dull an axe

Nearly all have just one trunk But the Australian Nard Inner roof trunks form one root All seem to have their leaves in a tuft on the top of the tree

There are at least 1,500 kinds and may have been among the earliest trees. A Creek palm grew in the coal age, and at the Grand Canyon a set of palm fossil roots were for sale (of course fossil) too!

Fossil palm trees are found in the Royal Palm as growing in a park in Babylon and nowhere else Wherever it grew in his time it has certainly spread its habitat since

To take up our trip to the south we had reached South Carolina which is the most Northerly place in the N S where palms grow A small palm grows there, the Sabal palmetto, and stretches south to the Everglades where also the cabbage palm grows in clumps The bush on top can be eaten but will kill the palm

These native palms only grow about 50 feet high and the leaves are of the fan type

We must mention a bush palm. the palmetto, growing all through this country from Louisana south It grows to about eight feet high and is considered a weed

There is also one native palm growing around Palm Beach on the coast in Florida. the Wild Florida palm. It is also a fan leaved palm and is the one used in avenues as far south as Sacramento Its old leaves hang down and makes it look ragged It will stand some frost and still live

Odor From Sulphur Gas is Major Subject at Oil Forum

Air pollution from gas which is of concern to residents in the Lakeside-Canyon area, on the fringe of the Joffry at field, was one of several controversial topics raised at a profitable open forum held at the Lacombe memorial centre last Friday evening.

The public meeting was sponsored by the Lacombe and district board of trade in co-operation with the Alberta division of the Canadian petroleum association Board of trade vice president Jack Bechart was chairman for the night's meeting.

Moderator Bud [illegible] Clarke, Oil Co. Calgary, Kroy Cudis, California Standard Co. Calgary, Don Parkhill, Canadian Superior Oil, Calgary, Clair Ames, BA Oil, Stettler, and Carl Koch, BA Oil, Redwater.

Also in attendance were Hon. A R Patrick, Q.C., MLA and Hubert Bonnerville, dep. minister of lands and mines.

About 100 farmers from the district attended and obtained information on the subject. Questions from the floor came thick and fast. Many farmers had their crops damaged by sulphur gas in the area last fall.

Most of those present in the meeting were the conservation officers, industrial officials, RCMP officers and [illegible] about 20 miles east of Lacombe.

Acquaintances were renewed as old friends met and new questions were answered. Also, the matter of safeguarding public welfare was discussed and some time was devoted to the matter of farmers' claims.

The topic was covered by Hector Lecuyer, assistant manager, Harold Scott, manager of the Lacombe district, stressed that the presence of the atmosphere was checked right on farms, ranches and passed point from farm buildings.

Earl Giles of Tees, living on the Clive oil sector reiterated his experience of settlement he obtained from B-A Oil Co for point damage done to his house. He also said the pipes are up to the steel in his machinery which never happened "before the oil wells came."

Mr Cudby, an authority on air pollution, pointed out that corrosion of metal was caused by ferrous oxide in the air as well as ferrous sulphide from the gas.

In other words, it is difficult to assess how much rust and paint damage is caused by gas, and how much in a natural way by air and the elements and changes in the weather.

He said that there are government restrictions on the amount of pollution allowed in the air, and that tests are taken constantly by government and by industry to ensure that contamination does not exceed the limit

Even the ordinary exhaust from automobiles creates a pollution problem in the confines of big cities, he stated And the rain used with sand on roads in winter corrodes metal parts under a car

He cited these examples only

There were many other questions at the three hour meeting at the conclusion of which coffee and doughnuts were served Among them

Q How much [illegible]

Q. How [illegible]

Q Why doesn't a farmer obtain the royalty on gas produced

A. About 90% of the oil rights in the province of Alberta are owned by the crown. We all

Clive Family Holds Party Marking Anniversary

CLIVE A family party was held at the home of Mr and Mrs W Burton to celebrate the 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday of Mrs Burton's parents, Mr and Mrs R McCormack.

Present were Mr and Mrs. Vern McCormack of Calgary Mr and Mrs A Smith and family of Edmonton, Mr and Mrs E McCormack and family of Edmonton, and Mr and Mrs H McCormack of Clive Mrs Burton is a daughter of the honored couple, and was the former Marjory McCormick.

Balmy Day

Wednesday's (April 4) temperature at 10:00 a.m. was 58. A warm, sunny day. Roads were drying rapidly, and the snow has almost gone.

We are sorry to know that Mr. W Hill is a patient in the Lacombe hospital.

We are also pleased to hear that Mrs E Somerville, who was hospitalized, is now feeling much better.

Reno Reynolds, son of Mr and Mrs. Jack Reynolds, graduated from Olds school of agriculture with an honors degree. Congratulations, Reno!

This reporter was not responsible for the error in the funeral notice of the late H H Hecht. The notice was sent in by someone else, and not by this reporter.

The Clive United church could not accommodate all who came to pay respects to the late H H Hecht. Many who attended had to stand outside the church.

Mr and Mrs. E. L. Reynolds who have spent the past two months vacationing in Mesa, Arizona, returned home last week.

Guess Fly Overhead

A large flock of Canada geese were seen over Clive on Monday, April 2, heading north. They seemed very large, almost as large as swans, and their loud honking was heard very plainly as they flew overhead.

Jack Sloan, former Clive resident, now living in Edmonton, was a visitor to Clive on Wednesday His late parents, Mr. and Mrs F Sloan, owned and operated the Clive hotel up to the time it burned down, during the big fire" about 34 years ago.

Clive Anglican WA will hold a bake sale in the store of K Dillon on Saturday, April 14, at 2:30 p.m

Mrs George McKinney of Red Deer has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. H Hecht G McKinney of Red Deer and Hilmo Hecht of Edmonton and Mrs Clive visitors on Thursday.

House Senior Citizens

A party was held in the Baptist church for Clive and district senior citizens on Friday, April 6. A program had been arranged, which was enjoyed by all, and a lovely lunch was served Mrs. T Coote received a bouquet of flowers as the oldest lady present, and W Hall received a gift as the oldest gentlemen present

Mr and Mrs. Chris Sorenson and Mr Goldar of Calgary were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs. E. Kenworthy

There was a large attendance in the Baptist community centre at the telephone meeting last Wednesday.

Joan Kumlin, daughter of Mr and Mrs. C Kumlin of Blackfalds, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harrow, won the UN speaking contest, and will go on a trip to New York in June

April is living up to its traditional rag and showers. But the showers are not heavy enough to do much good. A good general wet snow or good rain would be beneficial

The Baptist mission circle met at the home of Mrs. Harold Hilsabeck on Wednesday, April 4.

Mrs Jones Vale and Mrs G A Fretwell were delegates to the IWMS at the southern Alberta association of the Baptist church. This was the annual convention and was held in the Kingsland Baptist church in Calgary on Friday, April 6.

The CGIT affiliation meeting will be held in Clive Baptist church on April 17, at 8:00 p.m.

A brisk "April showers" fell over Clive and district on Wednesday evening, April 4. Later in the evening it was mixed with snow It did not last very long. East of Clive it was heavier, and one motorist coming to Clive from the east said it was one of the worst snowstorms he had ever driven in. The snow was wet, and the flakes were large and thick. Visibility, he reported, was absolutely nil. As he neared Clive the snow abated and was almost over when he reached Clive. The snow disappeared in Thursday's sunshine.

There will be a cash bingo in the Legion hall on Fri., April 13. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wickenberg and Mr and Mrs. Dawson Roland, both of Edmonton, were guests during the week end of Mr. and Mrs. M. Steadman.

Mrs Wickenberg and Mrs Roland are the former Thelma and Lourita Steadman.

Mrs. D. Grant underwent surgery in Lacombe hospital on Friday

L. Switzer of Mirror visited his mother, Mrs. Emma Gschwendtner, last week.

Mrs E. Gschwendtner received word of the birth of a great-great-grandson, born to Mr and Mrs George Fammachon of Cordova, Alta. This makes eight great-great grandchildren for Mrs. Gschwendtner She has numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren living. One of these days she is going to make a list of all her family names. The list should be a lengthy one.

CBX Here May Survive For Defence

CBC's 50,000-watt radio transmitter located at Lacombe may be kept intact as part of the emergency broadcasting system that would be used in the event of nuclear attack, according to a Canadian Press news release last week end.

The news story with the dateline of Winnipeg reported on a meeting of the board of broadcast governors to consider plans to organize the Lacombe station as one in favor of new radio outlets at Edmonton and [illegible]

[illegible] that the CBX transmitter here was still sound an adequate job.

Other protests were sound by private radio stations in Calgary [illegible] on the premise that the [illegible] CBC would reduce [illegible] and likewise affect [illegible]

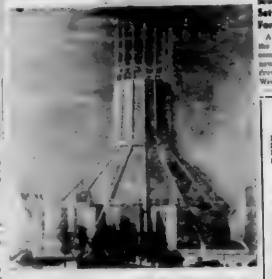
J. Alphonse Ouimet, corporation president told the BBG in effect that the Lacombe transmitter "is not to be used by the CBC elsewhere and that the tower itself might be dismantled and sold for scrap metal."

Later, however, Mr Ouimet indicated that the CBC has raised the matter with the federal government of the use of the transmitter complex with terror in the country's emergency defence system.

The emergency broadcasting system already has been set up by the CBC and the army and federal communications commission (CBC) to provide both pre-attack public warnings and post-attack information on [illegible]

Several key CBC and privately owned radio stations across Canada are involved in the system the Canadian Press story continues.

They would be taken over by the army at the onset of any nuclear attack and be linked in national and regional networks



New Cathedral

Work has now started on the new Roman Catholic cathedral at Liverpool, England that will be completed in 1966. The new cathedral will be largely of reinforced concrete and in the shape of a taut cone of about 250 feet diameter at the base, sweeping to a central tower, the topmost pinnacle of which will be more than 300 feet above ground level. The design, chosen from 300 submitted in open international competition, is for a "church in the round" to seat a congregation of 3,000.

Pioneer Wants Cowboy Hat

Town of Lacombe received some-times received strange requests, and one of these was from a 74-year-old pioneer from Winnipeg who asked mayor R A Gordon for a cowboy hat.

If this request was granted, and he wore matters in a number of other Alberta towns in a similar vein, he might end up with a whole closet full of white Sort sets.

A few excerpts from his letter are worth reprinting for the interest of old-timers and young residents alike:

"I helped build the [illegible] tracks and railroads right through to the Rockies. That was around 60 years ago or more, the time we shipped from Winnipeg by CNR coaches in trainloads of 300 men.

"We worked through Ireland, Okotoks, Lacombe, on to Calgary away up to Edson the end of the line We built the old Grand Trunk railroad beds through the forests, sleeping by teams of horses and hand scrapers, from Edson where the only sign of civilization was a half dozen Ft Mc[illegible] to built to keep the peace.

"I later worked on farms and ranches . . on the old-time steam threshing machines, and the three-man shovel turns handled long cuttin- - - - two men and a centre man feeder Each of th. two men had to cut the twine that bound each sheaf and had to use pocket knives

"Oh, what memories I have of the good old times in those days Tough Rough and Wild, Ye Yippee

"Now I have edium returned for the oldtime western cowboy sleuch feh hats, known as Stetsons, I believe, and Mr Mayor I'm hoping you can get me and send me one, dark or light color and necessarily a ten-gallon one Size 7¾ or a size larger as nowadays I wear a steel band across the top of my head to hold a conductor for my hearing aid as I am deaf

"Could you get and send me one of these hats free, as notar ably I'm an old hardscrabbler living on an old age pension, in return I'd be glad to see you may time you are in the west

"Thanks in advance, and good luck to you and yours"

Glen Oats Variety Proves Worth Here

Yield - maturity relationships are something to which our Canadian cereal breeders have given considerable thought. Surveys over the past several years have shown a very definite association in Alberta between early maturity and lower yield, and between later maturity and higher yield.

At the Lacombe experimental farm, however, cerealist Dr M L Kaufmann has for some time maintained that although the relationship does exist, we have not yet approached the limit of maximum yield with early maturity.

The objective of the cereal breeder be indicated particularly for prairie conditions, is a cereal variety early enough to escape the fall frost, that will at the same time yield satisfactorily.

This year was introduced among the varieties of grain recommended for central and northern Alberta an oat variety that combines earliness with a yield approximating that of some of our later varieties.

Glen oats has ripened at Lacombe four or five days earlier than Rodney and a week earlier than Eagle, with yields approximating these later varieties. In the Peace River region the average over a four year parsed has been around three days earlier than Akwright with about the same yield.

Glen oats, says Dr Kaufmann has thus both earliness and yield to recommend it. Another point in its favour is that it is resistant to the grey speck disease of oats, caused by manganese deficiency, that has shown up in recent years on some of our soils.

Although it has a less attractive kernel than some of the other varieties its hull percentage differs little from that of Garry or Eagle "Glen" is a product of MacDonald College, Montreal.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

April 4, 1962

The Editor,
Lacombe Globe,
Dear Sir:

The 1962 Heart Fund campaign has been the most successful that we have had since the organization of this Foundation late in 1956. This success is due, to a great extent to the excellent cooperation we have received from the communications media in Alberta.

On behalf of the directors and members of the Alberta Heart Foundation please accept my sincere thanks for your valuable support.

Yours Sincerely,
Stephen D Gibbon,
Executive Director.

Balloon "Hops"

Balloon - hopping was a sport originated before the last war, and was revived at the second Battle of Britain show Visitors to the show were invited to go balloon - hopping themselves. The balloon is 18 feet tall and is filled with hydrogen gas Weighted by sandbags, it only becomes airborne when a man pushes himself off with his legs. One enthusiast, Wing Commander Turnbull of an RAF parachute division claims that he can hop 80 feet up and 100 feet along When the momentum of the hop is lost, the sandbags bring the balloon to earth

5-Year-Old 'Lost', Hitch-Hikes Home

A five-year old Red Deer boy visiting in Lacombe had the police and many town residents in consternation last Friday night when he "went missing".

But John Heinen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Heinen of Red Deer, was perfectly capable of looking after himself. He just hitch hiked a ride home to see his mother and dad.

Lacombe police joined other searchers in the neighborhood when the report arrived at 9:30 p.m. from the Andy Wirsta home where he was staying that the boy was lost. He had been missing three quarters of an hour then.

At 10:05 o'clock, a phone call from Red Deer brought the welcome news of his safety.

Police asked young John if he wasn't frightened standing on the highway with cars whizzing by. He replied that he was crowded in stand well back in the ditch.

Lakeside-Canyon Farmers Help Neighbor in Distress

Light Horse Members Make Summer Plans

Thirty members of the La- horse light [illegible] met recently at the home of [illegible] pavilion to discuss plans for a day's excursion to the Gem pr Cheshiers quarter horse ranch on Sunday May 27.

The group will charter a bus and anyone interested must make reservations with Mary Henderson or Lorne Mulley before May 3.

Mr Cheatham will arrange for a program to cover the time spent at the ranch. Everyone is requested to supply their own lunch, and coffee will be served at the ranch. The transportation charge will be $3.50 per person.

Plans are also underway for a gymkhana to be held in Lacombe on June 1st and the Lacombe light horse show on July 15. Chairman of the trail ride committee, Chester Waldera, has promised a trail ride in the near future as well.

After business had been discussed, Mrs T G Golder showed slides of light horse conformation activities.

The Meaning of Easter

TOMORROW, a dominion-wide holiday will be observed as business and commerce stops for Good Friday the first day of Easter week end. Perhaps too many Canadians view Good Friday as the first Canadian statutory holiday since January 1. They forget the spiritual significance.

Easter week end is the commemoration of one of the basic tenets of the Christian faith. It is the anniversary of the resurrection and ressurrection of Jesus Christ. It is a powerful and comforting reminder of the immortality of man. It is a symbol of man's faith in God.

Jesus Christ was a human being on earth who demonstrated the force of good. He backed the talk. He made the [illegible] and [illegible] of God.

This week end, we should humbly remember the meaning of Easter. We should reassess our values in the light of the teachings of Jesus Christ, who believe the crucifixion assumed [illegible]. Let not your hearts be troubled, he believe in God believe also in me.

[illegible] needed around the world today.

How to Save Children's Lives

[illegible] 4 Point out to the latter the locations of all exits and the telephone.

5 Emergency telephone numbers for local fire and police departments should be left near the telephone.

6 Find out the location of the nearest fire alarm box.

7 In the event of fire, wrap children in blankets and get them out of the house first, then fight the blaze.

8 Call the fire department immediately, giving your location, at the first smell of excessive smoke or gas.

9 If a fire occurs, don't turn on or off any electric switches which might cause an explosion.

10 Don't overload a house even if the fire in a small one, smoke or gas [illegible].

65 m.p.h. Speed Limit

THE legislature has empowered the provincial cabinet to increase speed limits to 65 m.p.h. where it is deemed advisable on two-lane highways.

It wasn't so long ago that a public protest was heard over the decision to raise the speed limit to 60 m.p.h. on four-lane highways. The Globe's voice joined in this chorus, though not lustily. It was our contention then that motorists could cover a good deal of territory travelling at 60 m.p.h. and that the extra little time saved at 65 m.p.h. was not worth the greater accident hazard.

Experience has proven that the accident toll has not risen as a result of higher speeds. This is commendable and a tribute to the safety factor that exists on all four-lane highways.

The same built-in protection cannot be claimed on two-lane roads, where unwarranted traffic is a constant threat because of the jack-rabbit habits of motorists impatient to pass slower moving vehicles.

It is on these roads that excessive speed is so often the cause of [illegible].

Certainly the government should exercise prudence in extending a speed limit of 60 m.p.h. which is fast enough to allow any careful driver to reach his destination in good time and in safety.

Is Thrift Out of Date?

THE 1958-62 Progressive-Conservative administration led by John Diefenbaker will go down in history as the spending-est government on record. Not only has it made a reputation for throwing thousand dollar bills around your money and mine) but it hasn't had the political fortitude to raise enough income to balance expenses.

For the fifth year in a row, another [illegible] deficit has been chalked up by the federal government for the fiscal period ending March 31, 1962. Finance minister Donald Fleming has shown a consistency by bringing down another budget forecasting a further deficit of some 700 millions.

Governments should be adopting a reasonably close "pay as you go" policy like most Canadian families as a matter of sound business principles. Even on those budget planning days of "buy now and pay later," the average Canadian goes into hock only as far. Maybe up to the neck "to keep up with the Joneses." [illegible] Economists would call the Jones's look like peters.

The nation's debt is calculated at over 13 billions, or about $715 for every person. The Conservatives can be proud of the fact that they've personally been responsible for about [illegible] of that total, since they came up during a short five years in office.

Debt charges, most of it interest on this borrowed money, is an astronomical 640 million dollars a year. This represents about one-eighth of the budget.

As The Globe has stated before, there are many fixed costs which the federal government can't reduce. There is no excuse, however, for election year best like higher old age pensions and higher tax exemptions that plunge the country further in debt.

If this type of thinking persists, interest debt charges will hit a billion a year very shortly.

Reflections of the Times

Provincial Hansard Needed

Alberta should put an end to the rumor and misquotations which dotted the speeches made in the legislature by establishing a provincial hansard or at least some official record of the debates.

Last week an Edmonton radio station and TV news broadcast quoted the minister of highways as having said the Wetaskiwin Chamber of Commerce lived an employee for having written a letter to The Wetaskiwin Times supporting the proposed highway route 12 miles west of the city. The misinformation had been broadcast many times before a correction phoned in from Wetaskiwin finally got on the air.

In view of such obvious errors, and the dim view some newspapermen and newsmakers take of press reports, one would think they would welcome an official record.

They don't.

For more than 10 years a motion has been made to introduce a hansard and each year is defeated by the government majority. They claim it would cost too much but we suspect the real reason is that the members have an inclination to speak "impromptu" and are not sure that their words would look good in print. Without an official record is a easy to deny reports and claim misquotations of thoughtless remarks.

Albertans must rely on the press for information and debates in the legislature. Everyone else is forbidden to make notes, a rule that appears ridiculous where there is no official record such as the hansard provided by the federal parliament.

It was gratifying to note increased support for official records of debates from government members this year. The members in committees hansard was proposed again this session by Ernest Watkins, Conservative member for Calgary-Glenmore, and was supported by four Social Creditors.

WILL YOU FILL YOUR GRAIN BINS IN 1962?

In one short year the combination of a light crop, more export sales and increased feeding has removed most farmers' surplus grain.

What about this coming season? Indications are that all grain grown in 1962 can be marketed. Alert farmers are planning now to produce maximum crops of grain and forage — by using Elephant Brand high analysis fertilizers.

The proper use of Elephant Brand can increase your crop by 25% or more. This can mean extra profit to you in a year with a promising market. See your Elephant Brand Dealer Plan to fertilize for maximum yields.

Vitamins in General

Nearly 30 vitamins that are known or believed to be important in human well-being have thus far been discovered. A few more vitamins are known to be important to such creatures as fish, chickens, or insects, but not to people.

When you eat a variety of food you are pretty sure of getting a well-rounded assortment of the vitamins you need — except perhaps vitamin D. And you may also be getting other vitamins still undetected in food, but serving you past the same. Separate doses of one or more selected vitamins are best taken under doctor's orders.

The following vitamins are of particular importance in planning family meals.

Vitamin A

Vitamin A is important to the young for growth. And at all ages it is important for normal vision, especially in dim light.

In one way or another, many vitamins help protect the body against infection, and vitamin A's guard duty is to help keep the skin and the linings of nose, mouth, throat, lungs and intestines in condition. If these surfaces are roughened, bacteria can invade more easily.

You can get vitamin A from some animal foods. Good sources are liver, egg yolk, butter, whole milk and cream, and cheese made from milk or cream. Fish-liver oils, which children take for vitamin D are rich in vitamin A besides.

From many vegetable foods you can get carotene, which are yellow orange substances that the body converts into Vitamin A in the liver. Dark green and deep-yellow vegetables are especially good sources. Margarine, a vegetable fat, is now fortified with vitamin A or carotene.

Some vitamin A can be stored in the body. A average amount of vitamin A in your system may be drawn upon, if on any emergency

The B-Vitamin Family

Thiamine riboflavin, and niacin are the most generally known and best understood of the B-vitamins. Getting enough of these to feed helps with steady nerves, normal appetite, good digestion, good morale, healthy skin.

When these B's are seriously wanting in diet (the need is basic) and pellagra follow. But for more common of these vitamins are inadequate cases. The stomach grouch the jazy-bones, the nervous state. The blues-with, vague complaints, may be showing effects of food providing too little of these important B's.

Other B-vitamins are folic acid and vitamin B12, both important for healthy state of the blood.

One way to make sure of reaping your B level is to use regularly bread and cereals from whole grain or enriched so as to restore important B-vitamins.

Getting ample milk in the diet is important for B's too, for riboflavin in particular.

B-vitamins play a part in converting food in foods into energy. It follows that anyone who eats plenty quantities of refined foods and sugars also requires more food containing B-vitamins.

Vitamin C

The first vitamin separated from food was vitamin C, also called ascorbic acid. Vitamin C throughout the body can't be kept in good condition without vitamin C.

When diet is very low in this vitamin, gums are tender and bleed easily, teeth swell and hurt and muscles weaken. In advanced stages of vitamin C deficiency, the disease called scurvy results. This misery used to attack sailors on long voyages when they got no fresh food. In time they found they could fight scurvy with lemon, lime or sour orange juice and so relieve especially good sources. Margarine, a vegetable fat, is now fortified with vitamin A or carotene.

Some vitamin A can be stored in the body. A average amount of vitamin A in your system may be drawn upon, if on any emergency

Vitamin C is destroyed by exposure to air, by heat, by alkalies (such as baking soda) and by copper and iron utensils. Vitamin C is water soluble, so that cooking vegetables in large amounts of water can cause a big loss of vitamin C. Cooking vegetables in a small amount of water, or steaming them, saves vitamin C.

You need some food rich in vitamin C daily because the body can't store much of this vitamin. All of the familiar citrus fruits are bountiful sources of vitamin C. Other worthwhile sources of vitamin C include tomatoes and tomato juice canned or fresh, fresh strawberries and cantaloupe; also raw cabbage and some green vegetables such as broccoli, green pepper, brussels sprouts, kale, spinach, potatoes and sweet potatoes.

Vitamin D

Vitamin D is especially important to the young, because it works with minerals to form straight, strong bones, and sound teeth. An individual should get some of this vitamin regularly, at least through the growing stage. It is also important for pregnant women and nursing mothers.

We get vitamin D from sunshine and from certain foods. The sun's rays striking the skin

Anglican Young People Start Stamp Campaign For Mission

Regular meeting of the St. Cyp. rian's ANPA was held in the parish hall on Monday, April 9.

At request of rector R. H. Collens, it was decided to donate 10 more new prayer books to the church. This will make a total of 30 prayer books which this organization has given to the church in the past year.

It was decided to collect used postage stamps for the mission to lepers, as inter-denominational organization. Stamps to be used are to be torn, not cut, from their envelopes. Anyone wishing further information on the project is invited to phone 2-3172 and ask for Elaine, or, if out of town, one may write to Box 1042, Lacombe. This is a non-profit venture. The support of the citizens of the Parkland would be greatly appreciated.

The girls were asked to help at the tea sponsored by the afternoon branch of the W.A to be held on Saturday, April 28.

The Red Door rally will be held this year on May 18, 20, and 21. Members planning to attend this annual function are requested to be present at the next meeting in order that an accurate count may be made. The total cost of this rally will be $4.00.

Following the business meeting, a talk was given by the rector on the meaning of the last section of the Apostles' Creed. This was another in a series of talks on the Book "Teach Yourself the Faith."

The afternoon lunch was served by Miss Dorothy Marryat, Mrs. Dorothy Hargreaves and Miss Ann Ostrop.

The next meeting, a following-up meeting, will be held on April 30. Weather permitting, the group will be a scavenger hunt.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Under an amendment to The Public Lands Act enacted by the Legislature effective April 5th, 1962, all lands previously designated as Settlement Areas, now classified as public lands.

The former isolated lands will now be administered as follows:—

Non-Settlement (Green or Forestry Areas)

In these areas of the Province reserved for forestry purposes, the former school lands which are now public lands will be dealt with in the same manner as other public lands. Lands in these areas are not available for homestead leases, homestead sales, cultivation leases or agricultural and tree farm sales.

Settlement Areas (yellow areas)

In the settlement areas, the former school lands which are now public lands will become available on and after Monday, June 11th, 1962, for application under the provisions of The Public Lands Act, including application for homestead leases, homestead sales and agricultural and tree farm sales. Acceptance of applications will be subject to any existing reservations or dispositions.

All persons holding a cultivation lease of school land which has now become public land in the settlement areas will be granted priority to apply for the conversion of such cultivation lease to a homestead lease, homestead sale or agricultural and tree farm sale. An application for the conversion of such cultivation lease in these areas will not be accepted until on or after Monday June 11th, 1962. A homestead lease, homestead sale or agricultural and tree farm sale application will not be granted unless the applicant is eligible and the land is found suitable for such purposes.

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

V. A. WOOD
Director of Lands

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS AND FORESTS

RE: Public Lands Formerly Classed as School Lands

Settlement Area (white area) That area generally lying South of the North Saskatchewan River, and East and South of the Canadian Pacific Railway between Edmonton and Calgary and Banff.

In that portion of the Province except in the Special Areas, all persons holding a cultivation lease on April 5th, 1962 will be given priority to December 31st, 1962, to apply for the conversion of such cultivation lease to a homestead lease, homestead sale or agricultural and tree farm sale. An application for the conversion of a cultivation lease in this area will not be accepted until on or after Monday, June 11th, 1962. A homestead sale or agricultural and tree farm sale will not be granted unless the applicant is eligible on April 5th, 1962 and the land is found suitable for such purpose.

The legal representative of an estate holding a cultivation lease in this area of the Province should communicate with the Director of Lands regarding the possibility of conversion of the cultivation lease to a homestead sale or an agricultural and tree farm sale.

General Information

The holder of a grazing lease comprising or including farm or school lands which now have become public lands will not be given priority to apply for the conversion of the grazing lease to a homestead lease, homestead sale or agricultural and tree farm sale.

The changes in classification of school land to public land will not affect the administration of former school land presently held under permit, lease or sale.

Further information may be obtained upon communicating with the Director of Lands, Department of Lands and Forests, Natural Resources Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

VILLAGE OF ALIX
GARBAGE BY-LAW
BY-LAW NO. 202
Being a by-law of the Village of Alix to provide for the storage and removal of garbage and household and garden refuse.
TO BE EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 1962
The Municipal Council of the Village of Alix enacts as follows:
1 Every household shall provide at his own expense a garbage container of zinc or galvanized iron, not more than thirty (30) inches in height nor more than eighteen (18) inches in diameter and such container shall be fitted with a tightly fitting lid and two handles. In the event that any garbage container has insufficient capacity to contain two weeks accumulation of garbage the householder shall provide extra garbage containers as described herein. These containers shall be cleaned periodically
2 The householder shall deposit all household garbage in the said container. All garbage shall be drained and wrapped in paper before being deposited in the container. No fluid shall be deposited in the said container.
3 Garbage containers shall be kept tightly closed at all times except when garbage is being deposited herein or removed therefrom.
4 Containers shall be kept on the householders property near the lane in such position as to be readily accessible to the Village employees.
5 (a) All householders and owners and operators of business premises are required to burn, in an incinerator, situated upon the property of such householder or operator all cardboard, newspapers, printed matter or wood
(b) No person shall burn or be responsible for the burning of any waste material before noon on or after sunset on any day of the week, on Sunday or before the hour of 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon on Monday
(d) No person shall burn any waste material, with the exception of garden refuse, except in an incinerator, unless such burning is covered by a permit to be obtained from the Secretary-Treasurer of the said Village The coming into force of this By-law does not mean that the householder will have to dispose of large barrels presently used for burning rubbish but the householder must, with the passing of the By-law, not place or leave cans or similar containers containing material in the burning barrel.
6 All tree trimmings, shrubbery, bush ends shall, if not burned, be tied in bundles and deposited neatly on the property of the home.
7 Ashes from the incinerator may be deposited and placed in a container, to be picked up by the garbage collector but such container when filled shall not exceed 75 lbs
8 All persons using the Village nuisance grounds are hereby required to place all waste material a substantial distance away from the driveway used in the said grounds and any persons wishing to dispose of any dead animals shall make immediate and adequate provisions for the burial of the same
9 Nothing in the By-law shall be deemed to require the collection and removal of any trade or manufacturer waste, being waste or residue resulting from the erection or removal of any building or part thereof but such material shall be conveyed by the owner at his own expense to the dumping ground.
10 The Village of Alix will provide trash cans at convenient public places in which persons discarding cigarette boxes, paper wrappings or other things of like nature, shall deposit such trash Every person depositing such trash on street, lane or other public place within the said Village shall be guilty of an offense
11 A warning notice in the form set out in Schedule "A" hereto annexed which is declared to be part of this By-law may be served by the garbage collector of the Village of Alix on any person committing a breach of Sections nine (9) to seven (7) inclusive of this By-law and such warning notice may be served by the Village Police on every person committing a breach of this By-law
11 A notice in the form set out in Schedule "B" hereto annexed which is declared to be part of this By-law may be served by the Village Police upon any person charged with committing a breach of any of the provisions of this By-law. The person so served shall in addition to remedying the condition complained of, pay to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Village of Alix or to other person designated by the Council, the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) within the specified time of seven days of the date of the notice in lieu of being proceeded against by prosecution for the alleged breach of this By-law If the person so charged fails to pay the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) within the specified time of seven days, The Alix Police shall prosecute the offender under the Provisions of Section 11 of this By-law
12 Every person guilty of an infraction of this By-law shall be liable upon summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) and costs and in default of payment thereof to a term in the nearest common gaol not exceeding fourteen days

To Make Home in District

Mr. and Mrs. RONALD MILL

Former Bentley Man, Kenneth Summers Married

St. George's-in-the-Pines Anglican church at Banff was the scene of a double-ring ceremony on Saturday, April 7, when Rev. Paul Glover united in marriage Elena Gail McKinnon, R.N., and Kenneth John Summers, both of Banff.

The bride, a graduate of Regina Grey Nuns school of nursing, on staff at the Mineral Springs hospital at Banff, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McKinnon of Regina. The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs C. Summers of Bentley

Given in marriage by her cousin, Thos. W. Quayle, the bride wore a floor-length model of white silk organza over taffeta, styled with fitted bodice with lily-point sleeves, a V-neckline with wide collar, edged with silencon applique, the bouffant skirt featuring front panel carrying similar applique.

Her cloud veil of scalloped tiers of silk illusion net, mated from a crystal coronet, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, and heather, centered with a white orchid. Her only jewellery was a diamond pendant, gift of the groom.

She was attended by her cousin, Miss Betty Ann Boston of Regina, who wore a mauve nylon sheath with matching lace overskirt, white accessories, and carried a bouquet of white roses stephanotis and heather

Little Miss Shannon Quayle, in mauve nylon sheer, carrying a basket of white baby mums, stephanotis, pink rosebuds and heather made a charming flower girl.

The groom was attended by Mr. Robert Gardner Jr of Banff Uldarees were Mr. Garry Summers, brother of the groom and Mr. Dale Rash, cousin of the bride.

Miss Lillian Notland sang "O Perfect Love" and "A Wedding Benediction" Mrs W Larsen was the organist.

Following the ceremony, a reception for about 65 guests was held at the Mountaineers Lodge, where Mr. Ben Butterland, uncle of the groom, was master of ceremonies. Miss Eileen Grant, R.N., was in charge of the register.

For going away the bride donned a sage green wool suit with beige accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

After a honeymoon trip to Reina and points in the U.S.A., the couple will make their home in Banff.

Ron Hill of Mirror Weds Lynn Macey

A quiet wedding took place in the Sisters St. George's Anglican church with Rev. Hurst officiating.

The bride Marcy, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Lyle of Ack, and Mr Henry Ronald Hill, eldest son of Mr and Mrs John Hill of Mirror were united in holy matrimony on March 23 in the evening.

The bride given away by her father, wore a white bouffe with lace bodice and pearl neck lace with matching carriage. A white net veil secured to a head dress completed a bouquet of

After the wedding, the couple left for a short honeymoon. The will reside in the district for the time being.

Sisters Meet After 35 Years At Family Reunion

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Leroy Mackey of Ponoka on the week end of April 15 when Mrs Mackey's mother Mrs Evelyn Sauve was reunited with her sister, Mrs George Dixon of Kincardine, Ontario after 35 years.

Visitors included Mrs. Dixon, Mr and Mrs Mahr Hartwick, and their son, Wayne of Kincardine. Mr and Mrs Eugene Sauve and family of Devon, Alberta, Mr and Mrs. Glenn White and family of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sauve and family of Colinton, Alberta; Mr and Mrs Walter Sauve and family of Drumheller, Mr and Mrs Joe Willis and family of Castor; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wood of Edmonton, formerly of Lacombe, and Miss Ellen Swanstrom and Miss Champayne of Calgary.

Mark 25th Anniversary At Elkhorn

ELKHORN Mr and Mrs George Schwindt, who celebrated their silver wedding on Easter Sunday, had between 30 and 40 relatives at a turkey and ham dinner. The two sisters of the bride, who were bridesmaids 25 years ago, were able to be present; also one of the best men.

Also in attendance were three brothers, Harry, George and Peter Schnell, all of Castor; Mrs. Hazel Brechel, Mr. and Mrs. C. Giebelhause and family, and Mr and Mrs. Gordon Poffenroth and family, all of Red Deer; Mr. and Mrs L. Grimes and Kim, Mr. and Mrs. John Helsen all of Crossfield and Ron and Les Trasdi of Ponoka

The table was centred with a lovely three-tier wedding cake made and decorated by daughter (Myrtle) Mrs. Poffenroth of Red Deer

During the afternoon and evening about 100 friends and neighbors called and extended best wishes to the happy couple They received many lovely gifts from the family in the afternoon, and in the evening from the community many useful and nice gifts along with a sum of money Here's wishing them many more years of happy married life!

Jehovah Witnesses to Meet

One of the world's fastest growing ministerial societies never "graduates" its ministers "Christian development never ends and the Christian minister can always advance in ministerial qualifications" These are Jehovah Witnesses.

For that reason the organization provides a continuous training program, a feature part of which is to be a three-day convention scheduled for April 27, 28 in Lacombe Their spokesman ...Art Stauffer, presiding minister of the Lacombe congregation ... "Since their beginning Jehovah's witnesses have been a preaching fellowship." Mr Stauffer said "During the past ten years the Witnesses have doubled their numbers in North America, multiplied five times in Asia, more than six times in the Pacific Islands, seven times in Europe and Africa, more than twelve times in the Atlantic Islands and nearly fifteen times in South America.

"As a stimulation to the preaching methods of the Witnesses the Lacombe assembly carries the theme 'Faithfully Increasing Our Praise to Jehovah' The assembly program is really an extension of the regular training program conducted in all congregations of Jehovah s witnesses." Stauffer explained

The Lacombe program to be held in the memorial centre, will draw about 25 local ministers and hundreds of other representatives from 12 surrounding congregations C E Stratton of Toronto district supervisor will be the attendant

The public is cordially invited to attend all sessions

Second Look Essential on Farm, City Girl Finds

Tom, the village philosopher, says the best education doesn't come from books and blackboards and such, but from taking a second look at things. That's the one that counts, he figures, and a second glance can often save you from making a fool of yourself

To illustrate his point, Tom tells the story of his niece, Daily, who visited from the city a couple of weeks ago.

"I took her around to see my brother Ed, the one who runs a farm. "Oh, what a strange looking cow", says Daily, "Why hasn't she any horns" So Ed says, "Well some cows are born without horns and never had any, and others shed theirs, and some we dehorn, and some breeds aren't supposed to have any at all There's all kinds of reasons why some cows have no horns, but the reason this one hasn't is because it isn't a cow. Effie's a bossie!

Which leads us to wonder if a second look isn't called for sometimes in personal planning. If you find your money slips through your fingers, consider regular savings with a Bank of Montreal savings account. Deposit as much of each pay cheque as a B of M savings account. In that way you make sure of getting your share of your own income

Alex Bartoski, ...ent of the Lacombe branch of the B of M will be happy to tell you how easy it is — and how profitable.

Industrial Giant

In dynamic Alberta, smokestacks jut against the horizon stretching from the rolling plains in the south to the green forestlands of the north.

And yet a scant decade ago, the province was in short pants industrially.

Manufacturing's spectacular growth which has seen hundreds of plants spreading the length and breadth of the province is one of the most astounding chapters in the saga of Canada's Cinderella province.

Here is a fresh redwood preserve that first boomed on the richness of its farm fields and then found spectacular growth in oil and natural gas. Industry almost overnight has blossomed out into one of the province's oldest echoings but its development is new today.

In Alberta, thousands of different articles pour from factory production lines today and about the list grows weekly.

Cold stark figures tell part of the story — in 1961, manufactured products in Alberta were valued at a billion dollars, investment in provincial industry on the same year soared to $132,000,000.

And the potential prospects for the future are even brighter.

This year for example half a dozen major industrial projects have already been announced. These include a $30 million newsprint mill at Whitecourt, a $7 000 000 pipe mill at Calgrose and other multi million dollar projects.

Farther off on the horizon are a possible $100 000 000 steel industry in the Peace River district of northern Alberta and a $80 000 000 heavy water project in the south.

Hon. A.R. Patrick, Alberta Minister of Industries and Development puts it this way. "Our volume and range of manufactured products continue their year to year rise.

While the huge industrial projects steal the headlines, a quiet revolution has been underway on every segment of the province's industrial front.

Says Mr. Patrick, "As the province has increased in wealth and in people, an ever widening range of services industries becomes necessary and in demanded. These are the industries which increase the amenities and enjoyment of the society in which we live."

What factors have propelled Alberta's climb to industrial greatness?

Hilton Hamoff of Toronto, after who headed up the Alberta Chamber of Commerce last year sees them this way.

"The variety of raw materials [illegible] advantages of a central western location and a greatly expanded local market are the factors contributing to the phenomenal growth of manufacturing in Alberta," he says.

He adds "Large and small enterprises are sharing in this development and all segments of the province are growing at a relative pace."

Looking into the future Mr. Hamoff said "The signs of to day and long range forecasts indicate that the growth pattern of the future should far exceed the past developments as each succeeding year exceeds the previous year."

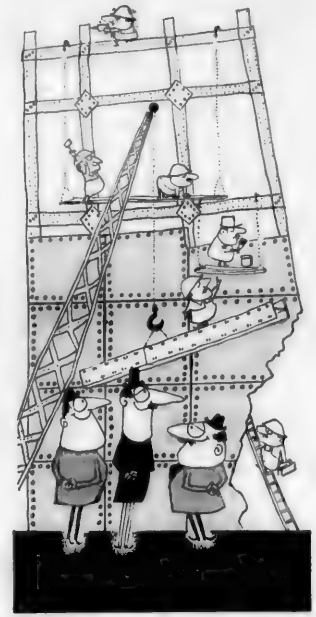
YOU BUILD ALBERTA WHEN YOU BUY ALBERTA-MADE PRODUCTS



YOU

- ★ Put money in the hands of your own customers.
- ★ Create more jobs for Albertans—Relieve unemployment.
- ★ Make TAX PAYERS out of TAX RECIPIENTS—thereby lightening your own tax tax burden.
- ★ Put money directly into local circulation for use by local industry and business.
- ★ Provide future jobs for your own, or your neighbour's children.
- ★ Increase the volume of local business and enable business to contribute more to municipal taxes.
- ★ Make possible the growth and development of allied industries.
- ★ Diversify the business and industrial potential of the Province.

What may seem to be a cheaper price on imported goods may actually cost you more in increased tax burden; loss of customers buying power for your own goods or services. If the article meets your specifications and requirements—look for the MADE IN ALBERTA label. What ALBERTA MAKES—MAKES ALBERTA!

BUY ALBERTA MADE PRODUCTS

"Buy Alberta" Drive Keeps Dollars Home

The "Buy Alberta" program is now in its fourth year in the province. In June of 1963 a group of responsible citizens met and formed a committee to promote a campaign that would point up the benefits of buying "Made in Alberta" products in "economy-conscious" residents.

Drawn from all walks of life these astute observers realized the importance to the stability of local economy of buying an increasing amount of locally produced goods and services. It was their objective to encourage greater manufacturing in the province and to persuade people to buy these manufactured articles [illegible] objective the committee members saw that [illegible] greater wealth a [illegible] of dollars circulating within [illegible] of goods, groups or manufacturers [illegible] greater amount was injected [illegible] economic [illegible] The idea appeared and was through retail outlets [illegible] ing billions of dollars.

Many of the items imported could not be grown, or manufactured or a practical basis, within the Province. On the other hand a large proportion of this expenditure could have been retained in our locality through the purchase of Alberta made goods. It was found that the richest province in petroleum was, indeed, importing gasoline.

Air conditioning equipment Persian rugs, coffee makers, asphalt roofing paper and mushrooms were of other things were being imported in spite of the fact that Alberta manufacturers of these items were endeavoring to find a market for their products. Thus millions that could directly benefit Albertans were being sent out of the province.

While it is recognized that some imports are necessary, the many times as Alberta's dollar is spent within Alberta the more direct and intimate bene fit he will derive from it.

Alberta's population has increased greatly in recent years. It is true that expenditure industry in the province has absorbed a good percentage of that increase but there is a darker side to the picture. In the years following World War II it was true that there was building after devastating losses could compete most of our manufactured products as well as our agricultural produce

Now 17 years later, a broad buy-off period has set in and it is becoming more difficult to dispose of our surpluses. Added to this is the advent of the "War Babies" into the working force. Employment must be found for them and if we are to keep our children with us, it must be found at home.

This must be done by establishing and supporting local industry, manufacturing and service. People engaged in these activities have values when buy, in turn, your hard earned dollars through retail and wholesale outlets, providing additional employment and purchasing power. The more times this circuit is completed, the more benefit can be derived from the original dollar.

It is the first place that dollar was stopped out of the country those benefits would be lost. When it is considered that one out of every four dollars paid goes into the workers' returns it will be seen that every four average spending families can provide the livelihood for one more family by spending their money on local products.

The increase in spending power means more revenue for the farmer through the consumption of cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry, dairy products, cereal grains, wheat and other agricultural products.

Another concept that the committee is establishing is the fact that a cheaper price tag on a foreign made article does not mean that it really you less. The price you pay includes the cost of raw materials and labour paid elsewhere plus transportation costs and municipal taxes [illegible]

Only local wholesalers and retailers realize a small profit from the handling of these goods. You are supporting several people outside the province when you could be supporting Alberta workers and industries yourself. You are depriving the government of a source of revenue and increasing your share of the taxes used for supporting the unemployed.

. . . modern power facilities, like Bearspaw Dam, near Calgary, keep pace with province's growth

Export To Spur Industry

With governmental assurance of gas export, the natural gas industry has taken a definite upward surge. In its wake it carries a number of associated industries.

Already hundreds of millions of dollars is being spent on pipelines throughout the province and additional millions will be spent on gathering systems and on gas processing equipment and plants.

Alberta Conservation Board estimates our gas reserves in or in the neighbourhood of some 27.2 trillion cubic feet. Of this about 17 trillion cubic feet is marked for export, over a period of 25 years. This will leave about 10 trillion feet of gas in reserve. With estimated local consumption of about 2½ trillion cubic feet there will still be about 6½ trillion cubic feet of natural gas in reserve.

It has been estimated that over $100 million is being spent on extending gathering systems and an additional $80 million on processing plants. Drilling activities are continuing on the export market again.

On the basis of the increased gas production comes the question of marketing and possible export of increased gas products, including condensate, butane, propane and others.

Because of the demand for these products, when yield high or percentages of gasoline and are easier to handle it has been estimated that production of natural gas liquids will reach 75,000 barrels per day with some 2000 tons of sulphur daily. Other authorities are even more optimistic and set the figure far higher

Present market requirements are some 850 million cubic feet of natural gas, daily, being exported to California and the northwestern states alone

This outlet for natural gas and natural gas liquids will open the entire petroleum industry in Alberta to new records. The development of allied industries through the use of petroleum and natural gas by-products is almost too vast to comprehend. Many new industries are created the day when they can come and locate in this resource rich province.

In addition to this, gas reserves will be added to at an estimated rate of about 2 to 3½ trillion cubic feet per year. If this trend continues, there will be some 14 trillion cubic feet of reserves at the end of 1966. This figure, for safety's sake, is of a very conservative nature.

Natural gas sales are approximately one billion cubic feet By 1982 this figure will have doubled. Natural gas liquids production will be tripled to about 3,000 barrels daily and sulphur production, as a by product of natural gas processing will reach 3,000 tons per day.

BIG BOOST FOR ALBERTA

CALGARY POWER'S 'WALKING DRAGLINE' TO UNCOVER 2½ MILLION TONS OF COAL A YEAR!

This is any language is a lot of coal—and it is the amount Calgary Power's Wabamun plant will be using annually by 1967. By the fall of this year, coal will be used to produce electricity at Wabamun, giving a tremendous boost to one of Alberta's basic natural resources. In five years, the consumption of coal at Wabamun will equal the present total coal production in the Province! It's one more example of how private enterprise is playing a major role in the future development of Alberta's economy. Sound business management and skilled engineering assure that electricity is produced for you here in Alberta at low cost.

New Iron Industry Rises

In Alberta the oil and natural gas portion of mining has been a major importance. The annual production figures for the mineral industry [illegible] to approximately [illegible] billion, and of these the petroleum section accounts for the greatest part.

Now, however, a new phase of mining is developing in the province and present indications for its growth are marvelous.

An exciting frontier of this is the discovery of iron ore in the Upper Hay area [illegible] Alberta. Representing the Alberta Government, these scientists [illegible] the find and estimate its value as being, although more data [illegible] some 4 billion tons of iron ore. Then [illegible] of the province [illegible] for the new province.

Already about 75 carloads of the ore have been sent to Birmingham Alabama, for testing and the results have caused a good deal of optimism in the region. A new Edmonton company has said it hopes to build a $100,000,000 smelter in the north.

The development of such an industry is by no means [illegible] it means [illegible] new [illegible] railroads, [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Canadian, Northland Utilities Serve Vast District

By J. C. Bain
President, Canadian Utilities Limited and Northland Utilities Limited

If rate of electric power growth is to be used as a yardstick in measuring business conditions then Alberta has had another year of steady expansion. This has been reflected within most communities in east central and northern Alberta served by Canadian Utilities Limited and its affiliate Northland Utilities Limited.

Rate of growth for Canadian Utilities during 1961 will give one about 9% per cent thus forming a pattern established in 1960. Northland will also have an increase similar to that of Canadian Utilities. Commercial, residential and large power consumption added to the steady growth of the old customers.

However C.U.L.'s greatest per centage increase was recorded in the commercial and power fields as larger populations ever lives. This is attributable to natural population expansion and also general agricultural conditions surrounding these centres. Domestic power consumption realized next in percentage rise per cap ita both in rural and urban communities. Also, new rate structures opened up last year, have since developed rapidly creating added market for new

The balance of growth increase occurred in the industrial sector. A favorable recovery in the lumber and oil industry in northwestern Alberta as well as a resurgence of oil activity in the east-central part of the province were significant factors.

Covered by Future

Expansion of Canadian Utilities facilities has been geared to meet future demands for power. By 1964 almost all major power plants on the company's system will have been doubled in capacity. Two of these have received additional generating units in the past year.

Early in 1961 an 8 mw kilowatt gas turbine was added to the Sturgeon plant in northwestern Alberta. Later in the same year, a new 30,000 k w gas turbine was installed at Vermilion plant in east central Alberta. plans are underway to add another unit at Battle River.

Almost half of C.U.L.'s 1961 budget of $7½ million went toward completion of the Vermilion addition. The balance went for improvement and additions to existing facilities. Another $2½ million was spent on extensions to bring 1,700 new customers on to the system. Transformer and conditioners were also made for street light conversions bringing modern mercury vapor lights to urban communities.

Power For The Yukon

Service is also being extended by Canadian Utilities' subsidiary in the Yukon Territories and Alberta. The Yukon Electrical and Hydro Companies spent the major portion of their 1960 capital budget to bring electrical service to new areas. The Alberta subsidiary the McMurray Light and Power Company, rebuilt its power plant last year and has added more generating equipment in 1961 to keep pace with growth in that area.

Serves 47,000 Customers

By the end of 1961, Canadian Utilities and its subsidiaries were serving 47,000 customers, an increase of 1,700 from the previous year. Almost 600 farms received power in 1961, under Alberta's Rural Electrification program, bringing the number of farms served by C U L to 14,000.

Electric facilities were also extended to serve 14 govern ment microwave installations between Grimshaw and Hay River on the Mackenzie Highway. Generating facilities along the route to Hay River in the North west Territories are sufficient to look after residential, farm and commercial activity developing in the immediate area.

With the federal government's decision to proceed with the Pine Point railway extension, it is expected that these and other communities will develop "more rapidly. Hay River, too, (Continued on Page 8)

EXPANDING AREA served by Canadian Utilities and Northland Utilities demands big new power generating facilities, like the one pictured ABOVE. Besides areas in central Alberta, the companies serve the Peace River district and much of northern Alberta where exciting new development is taking place.

A LOOK TODAY AT TOMORROW'S PROGRESS

Alberta's use of electricity increased five fold between 1947 and 1960. These were the greatest years in the history of Alberta's development; and a significant illustration of the importance of electricity to our way of life.

As the pace of progress increases, so will the demand for electricity. With this in mind, Canadian Utilities is planning and building now for a great tomorrow. Canadian Utilities will continue to supply low-cost electric power to help you live and work better, electrically.

sited on the only natural harbor on the Great Slave Lake, is also expected to benefit enormously from this project.

The anticipated development of iron ore deposits in the Wabasca area in northwestern Alberta, is noted with great interest. We are hopeful that if this development materializes, it will have the effect of diversifying and improving the local economy thereby stimulating markets for electric power.

Balance of Northland's 1961 capital budget went for extensions to natural gas services. A 15-mile company owned transmission line has been extended into the communities of Falher and Grouseville, adding 130 customers to the system.

The Future

Our prevailing economic climate is perhaps the most important single factor responsible for Alberta's expanding economy. Accordingly, I look forward optimistically to the future.

Looking further ahead, more emphasis must be given to diversification, with an eye to the export markets. While import substitutes are being made in developing our primary industries, secondary industry has not kept pace. For it is this area of our economy that offers vast sources of employment. Measures should therefore be taken to encourage manufacturing industry, through tax incentives and other means, to enable them to compete more effectively in the export market.

SYMBOL OF PARTNERSHIP

Albertans see those lighted derricks often. Wherever they are — in the night blackness by one of our modern highways, or off in the wild foothills — they symbolize two partners working together for a better, more prosperous Alberta.

Electricity and natural gas provide the energy and raw material for Alberta's industrial progress. Northland Utilities is proud to have played a role in the development and distribution of these key resources.

As new industries move to Alberta, Northland is growing and developing to meet their needs for low-cost fuel, raw material and power in the form of natural gas and electricity.

"Plastics," Byword Of '62 Living, Loom Large In Industrial Future

The word of modern living is "plastics". We use the word dozens every day because it has become an integral part of our life and language. Early discoveries led us that plastics are distinctive that means years ahead of molded in recent years it has become a synonym for shaping and moulding and durations.

We all remember the word "bakelite" as a reference to the first man-made plastic and to our early experiments. Plastics is a new and huge industry affecting nearly every phase of our existence and in Alberta it means prosperity.

Most plastics are derived from oil or another form of hydrocarbon. These are by-products of petroleum and natural gas production and refining. It is easy to see how petrochemical plants are turning out the basic materials for plastic manufacture. Polyethylene, from natural gas, is turned into flake and pellet form to be extruded and transformed into such products as polythene pipe, polythene film, food containers, drinking cups and packaging. Expanding bottles, home hobby and [illegible] dolls.

From in the event that "at some sooner should replace power supplied by gasoline and other petroleum products, the petroleum industry would still continue to dominate our lives in terms of plastics.

Here in Alberta the plastics industry is flourishing. Huge

EDMONTON RICH MARKET

About 85 of all Alberta manufacturing is carried in the Edmonton area. 40 of Alberta's 1 billion population lives within 100 miles of the city. Edmonton's trading area covers some 400,000 people and the annual income for Edmonton residents exceeds 529 million dollars. All this points Edmonton as being the sixth largest retailing city in the district of retail sales.

Alberta Power Potential Big

One of Alberta's greatest assets and a major attraction to outside industries is the tremendous power potential. Endowed with one of the greatest oil and natural gas resources in the known world, and with vast reserves [illegible] and lignite, Alberta is also blessed with extensive resources in hydro-electric power. No matter what section of Alberta you may consider, an ample supply of cheap power is close at hand.

The extensive development of diversified manufacturing in Alberta has been the direct result of the development of the power industry in the province. Today the average Albertan is using 2 ½ times as much electric power as he did ten years ago.

In 1950, the average person consumed about 882 kilowatt hours. That figure is now estimated at about 2,424 per person. The projected figure for 1961 totalled about 3,100 million kwh representing an increase of at least 10% in power generated over that of a year ago. It should that figure of 1961 increase per year continue the power output in Alberta will double within seven years.

With plant capacity estimated at about 900,000 kilowatts at the end of 1960, the output in 1967 would reach some 1,800,000 kilowatts. Thus in a seven year period following 1967, a similar doubling of capacity can be expected.

Buying Alberta made products wherever possible makes good sense. What Albertans make makes Alberta

LOW COST POWER

The cost of electric power in Alberta should remain relatively stable in the future because thermal plants burning low cost fossil fuels will be built to supplement or have loads and hydro plants will be used to handle peak loads. Interconnection projects to move in rates that are relatively low from [illegible] per cent of main centre [illegible] Alberta [illegible] in North America.

Growing With Alberta

AND SERVING FARM PEOPLE

Since 1923, when Alberta farmers joined together to set up their own grain marketing co-operative, the Alberta Wheat Pool has been growing with Alberta.

Today the Pool is one of the province's large and successful business organizations. It is distinctive, however, in that it is entirely owned and controlled by the farmers it serves.

WORKING FOR FARMERS

The Alberta Wheat Pool exists solely to meet the needs and wants of Alberta grain and seed producers. Its facilities — all farmer-owned — include:

302 COUNTRY ELEVATORS
407 ANNEXES
3 SEED CLEANING PLANTS
23 SEED WAREHOUSES
3 TERMINAL ELEVATORS
A HEAD OFFICE BUILDING

POOL ELEVATORS OFFER SERVICE AT COST

Over the years the Alberta Wheat Pool has been operated on a service-at-cost basis, with earnings being returned to members on a patronage basis.

Since 1923 patronage dividends distributed by the Alberta Wheat Pool exceed $30,000,000 — a saving farmers have made by using their own facilities.

Patronage dividends, on a per-bushel basis, in the past five years have been as follows:

	Wheat & Flax	Oats, Barley and Rye
	- cents per bushel -
1956-57	22	11
1957-58	50	25
1958-59	63	31
1959-60	46	23
1960-61	17	76

These dividends have been paid in excess of full market value for grain; proving beyond a doubt that — POOL PATRONAGE PAYS

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL

FARMER-OWNED CO-OPERATIVE

Seed Processing Plant Mushrooms

Western Canadian Seed Processors Ltd., at Lethbridge, one of the newest co-operative projects in the province, is the latest of Alberta's many industries to put the hydroponics principle to use for mass-production of mushrooms. The hydroponics principle involves the growing of plants in a liquid nutrient solution instead of soil.

Since the hydrogen is being produced by the electrolysis of water, high purity oxygen is also available as a by-product at a rated maximum capacity of 200 000 cubic feet per month. It is expected that the sale of oxygen will make hydrogen available to the Company at nominal cost.

The Plant is now equipped for the cleaning and grading of seed for marketing, the extraction and recovery of vegetable oil and by-products, principally oil cake meal, from seeds, the refining, hydrogenation and deodorizing of the extracted oil, and the marketing of its products to basic industry.

The almost comparable fully-integrated plants are located in Los Angeles and San Francisco, California.

Western Canadian Seed Processors Ltd., is one of the most important home industries for the economy of the province.

"Pool" Soon Marks 40th Birthday

As the Alberta Wheat Pool approaches its 40th birthday, which will be marked in this province in 1962, it continues to make steady growth and to attract an ever-increasing share of the grain delivered in Alberta and British Columbia.

In the past crop season those farmers authorized a record 61.8 per cent of their grain through the co-operative facilities of the Wheat Pool. The fact that this figure has been increasing steadily over the past decade indicates the interest of farmers of this province in self help and the realization of the benefits obtainable through the operation of their own co-operative enterprises.

Another indication of the growth of the organization is that in total membership in the Pool will reach more than 30,000, also a record figure for recent years. It is significant that in every one of those members is actively engaged in farming.

Over the years the farm-owned Wheat Pool has continued to expand its facilities in order to serve the needs of its member patrons. At present there are 222 country elevators in 171 towns and the annex, with a total capacity of 42,400,000 bushels.

Most of the grain marketed in Alberta moves into export through Pacific Coast ports. For this reason the Alberta Wheat Pool has concentrated much of its terminal facilities in that area. It now operates a 7,200,000-bushel terminal at Vancouver, the largest in Canada's West Coast and considered to be one of the most modern and efficient grain elevators in all of Canada.

Another terminal, with a 2,500,000-bushel capacity, is owned and operated at Port Arthur to take care of the Pool's shipments to the Lake-head, consisting mainly of coarse grain, flax and durum wheat.

Since 1927, when the Alberta Wheat Pool took over the Alberta Seed Grower's Co-Operative, it has added to its seed marketing and handling facilities. Today it has seed cleaning plants at Grande Prairie, Camrose and Sangudo, and over 50 seed warehouses located through out the province.

Each year it handles close to half of the seed marketed in Alberta — the country's largest forage seed producing province — and it is now the largest seed marketing organization in Canada. Last year the Pool took delivery of over 18 million pounds of forage seed and made shipment to seven Canadian provinces and 14 foreign countries.

As well as marketing cereal grains, and forage and cereal seeds, the Alberta Wheat Pool has assisted and now represents for its members. It also handles fertilizer.

Farmers who organized the Alberta Wheat Pool set it up as a co-operative basis and since its inception in 1927, it has made direct savings for its patrons amounting to over $30,000,000 — this being the amount returned as patronage dividends. On last season's deliveries alone patronage dividends amounted to almost $2,200,000.

These savings have gone to member patrons, but every district in which a Pool elevator is located has benefited since these dividends have been returned to the local community and have added to its prosperity.

Two years ago, construction of the Alberta Wheat Pool's new head office building in Calgary was completed. This modern, eight-storey building is one of the city's finest. Wheat Pool offices occupy only half of the building at the present time with the balance being rented.

There is thus room for any additional staff that may be required as the organization expands in the years ahead.

The Alberta Wheat Pool is in a strong financial position, for in addition to its physical assets it has built up a working capital of over $5 000 000 which would act as a business should the organization encounter periods of adversity in the years ahead.

All of the properties and assets of the organization are owned by the members. This ownership rests with the reserves members have acquired as a portion of their patronage dividend payments. These reserves in the hands of members, totalling $14,511,000 are constantly being revolved so that at all times they remain with farm people who are in a position to make use of Pool facilities.

Over the years, control — as well as ownership — of the Alberta Wheat Pool has remained in farmers' hands. The control is exercised by the members through 30 elected delegates. Delegates in turn elect a board of directors: G.L. Hamerich, of Lamont, is president of the Alberta Wheat Pool. He was first elected to the board in 1944 and was made president in 1957.

Other members of the Pool's board of directors are Nelson Wahn, Vermilion, first vice-president, A.J. Macpherson, Delia, second vice-president, O.T. Bjornsberger, Balzac, Geo. Brathwaite, Red Deer; Gerald Oberg, Forestburg; and Frank White, Spirit River.

A.T. Baker, a former board member and large-scale farmer from Vermilion in the southern part of the province, is general manager.

Since joining together to get the most from Wheat Pool nearly four decades ago, Alberta farmers have provided themselves improved grain handling facilities and expanding services to meet the needs of a changing agriculture. These changes are now taking place at a record rate as the trend continues toward larger and fewer farms, better roads,

Our business is GROWING

I asked Grain Growers like the farmer who plans for the next year the following year the years ahead cannot be complacent with its established services and facilities. Alberta's our business must be growing beyond today's demands — expanding on a planned and orderly basis to meet tomorrow's.

Among the U.G.G.'s recent achievements is that endeavor were the completion of the four million bushel capacity terminal at Prince Rupert, increasing the company's total storage capacity to over 19 000 000 bushels and the acquisition by U.G.G. of the Canada West Grain Company Limited with its subsidiary, the Red River Company Limited.

Both these new facilities the one to provide adequate Lakehead grain storage space, and the other to supply farmers with grain storage need — have been developed so that U.G.G. can better serve west ern agriculture the farmer and those who depend upon him for his produce

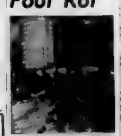
Paving CutsCattle Foot Rot



Paved cattle yards provide the most important step in preventing occurrences of foot rot. The germs which cause the disease need soil and paved lots keep the cattle yard or dairy yard cleaner and free of mud.

Cattle foot rot needlessly cuts the profits of dairyman and livestock producers. Losses come from poor condition and several secondary infections, according to Dr. E. Crosby Howe, University of Nebraska extension animal hygienist. Lower milk production and lower gains are results of foot rot.

Foot rot can occur in any class of cattle. It tends to be seasonal, showing up in spring and fall, but may happen any time of the year and under almost all possible conditions.

The first noticeable sign of the disease is pronounced lame ness. Usually the affected foot swells. Swelling may extend to the knee on the forelegs or to the hock on the hind leg. Eventually, the animal's temperature rises and it goes off feed.

Occurrence of the disorder can be reduced by providing cattle with clean, dry footing. The germs causing the disease needs mud or wet manure to grow in.

Paved dairy yards and feedlots won't harbor these germs. Paved lots eliminate mud and can be cleaned regularly in any weather to prevent manure build-up. Concrete paving is most important around feed bunks and water tanks where cattle stand, according to Dr. Howe.

Another benefit of paving is that it keeps dairy cows cleaner and increases beef cattle gains. Dr. Howe points out that paving will pay for itself as well as reduce the incidence of foot rot.

Diversity Keynotes Alberta Agriculture

Balancing Alberta's growing industrial sinews has been steady streamlining of the province's role as a key agricultural area of the Canadian West.

Prepped on a diversified platform of field crops, livestock and poultry production, Alberta's agricultural future appears solidly prosperous.

Today, a scant half-century after horse and ox teams rolled under the first ends of many acreages a new breed of farm, or has stepped into the role of the Albertan on the land.

Mechanized equipment manned by specialist operators rolls smoothly across the broad fields seeding and harvesting crops as a fraction of the time needed by former workers. Scientific has taken a large stride into the livestock industry as well where hundreds of head of cattle and beef are tended by a few well trained workers at the controls of the latest machinery.

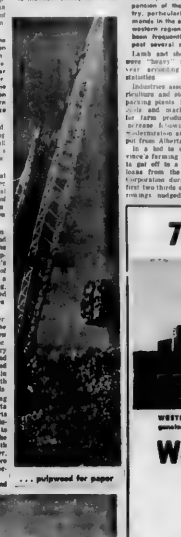
The trend to still more specialized farm methods, larger land holdings per operator and introduction of new cultivation and animal care methods seems assured. While Alberta's agricultural output continues to soar the number of persons drawing a direct living from the soil continues to decline. Farming like industry, has become the province of the specialist.

Riding across the province some the turn of the century the transition in farming modes — still expressed in the storied Peace River country hulking in Alberta's northwest corner.

There boom-travelers still hack their first holdings from the virgin countryside. But just a few miles to the south, in some districts, the latest farm equipment and techniques are in sharp contrast the last pore of change in today's agriculture in

... in the south, ranching forms a big part of agricultural picture

... rich land produces wide range of crops



... pulpwood for paper

The past decade has seen the sprouting of new production trends on the Alberta farm. Represent are others the province's production last year pushed to a record quarter million pounds. Despite the drought Fescue — production of a new grass crop for western farmers has blossomed since the war.

Hefty sales of grain abroad coupled with slackening of crop production during the dry fall of 1961 has trimmed Alberta's wheat stockpile to a four year ex levels in a decade.

Quality of grain marketed at the end of 1961 was near the highest in years nearly ideal harvest weather across much of the province helped cushion in part of the dry weather and low yields in some regions.

Fodder shuttled with govern ment assistance from north and central areas of Alberta to the drought hit south, last year helped preserve some of the West's largest cattle herds in spite of the dry weather there was a minimum of "distress" selling, a likely support to continued steady production on the live stock front.

Federally inspected slaughterers last year easily topped the two-million head mark, a new record for Alberta. Milk production from the province's dairy herds touched the billion and three quarter pound level, and despite a substantial rise in sales, failed to keep pace with the increased population totals.

Prospects point to an upswing in demand for prime Alberta beef, hogs and poultry products in the years ahead. With raising of cattle tied strongly to available grazing space, and the surge in population growth south of the Canada U.S. border, North America, more and more looks to Alberta to provide necessary food supplies.

Production of poultry and eggs hit a healthy crop this past year, and seemed ideally to maintain steady levels de spite a slackening of prices in the wake of poultry production. Need for further expansion of the poultry industry, particularly to supply demands in the expanding north western region of Canada, has been frequently cited in the past several months.

Lamb and sheep marketings were "heavy" in Alberta last year according to government statistics.

Industries associated with agriculture and stock production, supplying plants hatcheries feed mills and marketing facilities for farm products showed an increase following the swing to conservation and outward output from Alberta farms.

With slicing of the heavy back log of farm stored grain in the West and the prospect of future in gai off in a record start in grain sales abroad, prospects looks fine for Alberta farm and corporations during 1961. In the first two thirds of the year, how ever greater yields from the land in a field that recently rumings nudged the seventeen Alberta's permanent mainstay

Petroleum Association Voice Of Oil Industry

A trade association that began as a "one-man, voluntary" organization of business companies designed to assist its members and its industry in dealing with mutual problems in several of the following areas: accounting practices; trade promotion and relations with government on pipelines and the general public.

Historically the Canadian Petroleum Association is considered among the pioneer trade groups of Canada although it had its beginning under a different name and in a relatively small sphere of activity.

The beginning dates back to 1927 — thirty-five years ago — when The Alberta Oil Operators' Association was formed by a group of pioneer operators who felt that situation was destined to become a petroleum and natural gas producing area.

One year later in 1928, this organization was overhauled and revised, and it emerged as The Oil and Gas Association of Alberta.

In 1937 another group holding divergent views came into being under the name of The Petroleum Producers' Association. This new organization merged with the younger group under the name of The Alberta Petroleum Association.

Following the Leduc strike in 1947, the responsibilities and interests of the industry mushroomed in all four western provinces, and the industry then formulated the Western Canada Petroleum Association to meet its ever increasing responsibilities and interests.

During the next decade following the Leduc strike, the Association expanded the scope of its activities and interests and out of this diversification emerged the Canadian Petroleum Association with a national charter of operations.

Just as the American Petroleum Institute is recognized as the leading voice of the industry in the United States, the Canadian Petroleum Association is the prime trade association of the industry in Canada with its central interests focussed on the exploration and development of oil and gas.

The Canadian Petroleum Association now has nine committees to which it owes its ancestry and has been developed step by step with Canada's oil and gas industry. Therefore, the Canadian Petroleum Association has developed the habit of answering to the field of legislation.

Today, the Canadian Petroleum Association is constantly present at work with governments and departments in Ottawa and the provinces belonging to evolve legislation suggesting improvements to existing regulations and discussing and resolving problems that inevitably arise as the industry develops and its benefits its petroleum.

The principal objectives of the Canadian Petroleum Association are twofold:

(a) To establish better understanding between the petroleum and natural gas industry and the

(b) To encourage research into between the petroleum and natural gas industry and Public Authorities, and public and other bodies.

To provide a forum for the

Federated Co-op Fills Stores Across Prairies

Background to formation of Federated Co-operatives Limited was the steady growth of retail establishments, organized on a co-operative basis by groups of individual consumers, in communities across the Provinces and in Northwestern Ontario.

They did this by co-operating a company to their own locality, in which they, as the users of this company's services were also its shareholders or owners.

Some of these co-op companies were incorporated as early as 1928; some are still being incorporated today. For example, during the past five years, there have been about a dozen new co-ops incorporated in the Federated area. On the other hand, there has been a goodly number of discontinuances mostly when a small co-op amalgamates with a large co-op.

These companies in local communities are called "Retail Co-operative Associations".

In the late 1930's, these local co-operatives decided to pool their purchasing power, for better advantages to themselves. To accomplish this, they organized their own wholesaling: Manitoba Co-op Wholesale Society in 1938, Alberta Co-operative Wholesale Society in 1939.

In 1944 a group of local co-operatives in the petroleum field joined forces to construct their own refinery in Regina. This company was called "Consumers Co-operative Refineries Limited."

In 1946 the Saskatchewan Co-operative Wholesale Society and the Consumers Co-operative Refineries Limited merged to form Saskatchewan Federated Co-operatives Limited.

In 1953 Saskatchewan Federated Co-operatives Limited and Manitoba Co-operative Wholesale Society merged to form Federated Co-operatives Limited. In 1957 Alberta Co-operative Wholesale Association established with Federated Co-operatives.

Federated, at the present time, provides goods and services to about 274 consumer co-operatives with approximately 262,000 members and approximately 80 governmental and institutional members.

In Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario, Federated Co-operatives is in the field of petroleum, grocries, hardware, dry goods, furniture, tractors, and stock foods.

Federated is a "supplier" organization — a service of the retail co-operatives themselves as it is owned by them and serves only them. Therefore, it is the retail co-operatives which have an impact on the private economy in the consumer area.

Every community which has a co-operative finds that the co-operative conducts its business in an orderly manner, without disrupting the normal business activities of the community. It maintains private and when price reductions are made or margins reduced, the co-opera tive is a rule in the follower and not the leader. Through patronage refunds (or, occasionally) will get goods and services at cost

PACIFIC PETROLEUMS LTD.

The Fastest-Growing Major Company in Canada's Fast-Growing Oil & Gas Industry

In the past four years, Pacific Petroleums Ltd. has doubled its production of crude oil, condensate and natural gas, built its net assets, achieved a 150% expansion in its sales of refined petroleum products, Pacific's gross holdings cover more than 17,000,000 acres of proved and potential Canadian oil and gas lands. The Company holds interests in 3,761 oil wells and 791 gas wells participating directly in nearly 20% of all the productive oil and gas wells in Canada.

This native Canadian company, founded in the pioneer days of Alberta and British Columbia petroleum development, has become Canada's second largest producer of natural gas and the largest producer of crude oil. VIEW OF THE RIMBEY GAS PLANT from the east shows the gas treating section to the left of the 250-foot chimney and liquid hydrocarbon processing facilities to the right of the stack. Processing raw gas from the nearby Westerose South (Dick Lake) and Hemaglen-Rimbey fields, the multi-million dollar plant is operated by British American Oil for a group of 27 companies with interests in either or both of the fields. The plant's capacity to deliver 200 million cubic feet of pipeline sales gas per day is equivalent to about 40 per cent of Alberta's current average daily requirements.

British American Oil's position as one of the largest producers and processors of natural gas in Western Canada was further strengthened early in 1961 with the opening of a giant gas processing plant at Rimbey, Alberta, 30 miles south of Edmonton. B-A, which is a major shareholder operates the plant for a group of 27 owner-companies.

In addition to the interest of owner companies in the Rimbey plant the company owns gas plants at Pine Coulee, Crossfield and Nevis has an interest in several other plants in the province and operates refineries at Calgary and Edmonton.

B-A's Calgary refinery commenced operations in 1929 and at that time supplied fuel to the crews building the Alaska Highway. During 1960, a revamp of the plant's process equipment increased the combined crude oil and condensate processing capacity from 6,700 to 9,000 barrels per calendar day.

The modified units can process up to 9,300 barrels per day if economical crude oil is at other time from the Pincher Creek gas plant. Associated with this revamp a 7,150 barrel a day naphtha desulphurizer was completed for pre-treatment of all re former charge stock.

The Edmonton refinery which has a crude oil processing capacity of nearly 1,000 barrels daily, went into operation in 1951, and recently had embodying facilities installed to handle condensate available from gas plants in the area.

tionship between the public and industry. Through meetings with municipal councillors, publicity releases, emails and other similar activities, the Association constantly endeavours to explain differences which may exist and which if unchecked might well develop into major problems.

The relationship between the industry and the public must necessarily be a two-way street. The Association would appreciate the assistance of Albertans in forwarding its program. It stands ready to serve not only the industry, but Alberta as well.

LETHBRIDGE INDUSTRY TIED TO PRODUCTS OF SOIL

In the Lethbridge district of Southern Alberta there has been for many years a thriving industry based on the products of the soil. Many of them look to products of the soil for their raw materials. Barley and cheese factories are situated throughout the region and honey is refined for use in the local districts and across Canada.

A healthy economy exists where manufacturing is based on products indigenous to the area. Such is the case in Lethbridge where coal, oil and natural gas are available in abundance to supply fuel for growing and the soil products.

at Port Moody, near Vancouver.

The latest step in the company's growth in Alberta was the consolidation this year of B-A's Alberta and Calgary regional offices in Calgary and the Alberta division and Calgary district marketing groups and products supply data processing and transportation departments into one office building.

The move into the 14 storey headquarters named the "British American Oil Building", was but the latest step in what event a new refinery — one of the largest office moves B-A's sixth — began operating ever in lake plare in Alberta

Boat Building Industry Growing

In recent years, the use and development of boats for leisure and recreation has increased in great measure and Alberta's myriad lakes and streams are alive with every conceivable type of floating device for our recreation.

A visit to any lake resort during the summer months will show you the supremacy once that dain makes of these boats for sports (canoes row boats, punts and other man-powered boats are only a small part of the tremendous fleet of pleasure craft.

There are the "Sea Flea", with huge motors capable of sending them flying across the water at over 40 knots, sleek Chris Crafters with inboard and outboard motors, trimlined family boats and big motorsun type pleasure cruisers.

For the racing enthusiast there are the picturesque yachts and yachts of various sizes down to the little sloops with their one man crews.

Pleasure boating in Alberta is fast becoming big business. No lake, river or stream is complete without some sort of water craft and with the recent rapid growth of power, the possibilities for boat ownership are increasing.

In Alberta, the business of boat building is by no means a new venture. For well over half a century this industry has flourished here. It has seen many changes and it has performed well in passing years to preserve its existence.

Craftsmen who served their apprenticeship in the old centres before the turn of the century have patiently followed the trends and are still turning out quality craft right within our borders. The sizes and shapes have changed and even the materials from which the boats are built but the high standards of workmanship have remained unchanged.

The heavier woods such as teak and oak are seldom used in modern pleasure craft construction and most boats have given way to laminated and plywood which are lighter in weight and capable of being handled with greater ease. These new materials are every bit as sturdy as before.

Molded hulls and decks have replaced the older types and modern construction methods have speeded the building time but the craftsman is still a safe, dependable boat for present day enjoyment

Modern fuels for Canada's homes and industries

The British American Oil Company Limited produces safe, clean economical fuels from three natural gas processing plants and six refineries for homes and industries across the nation.

A growing nation must have abundant sources of energy, and petroleum and natural gas are expected to meet two-thirds of Canada's vastly increased energy requirements by 1970.

British American is planning and investing now for its contribution to— and share in—Canada's future.

Alberta Forests Basis For Humming Industries

Crackle of chain saws slipping through stands of choice Alberta timber echoed across the province with fresh intensity this past winter, mirroring a revitalized building industry in prospect across the West.

With stocks of lumber trimmed through active efforts and a tapered-off woods activity in 1961, most lumbering operations predicted a perked-up take of timber products by mid-1961.

Despite the slim-ed down cut of forest products from the record volumes of 1959 1960 the past year was one of cautious exploration on the Alberta lumbering scene.

A far flung lumbering and pulpwood production enterprise at the Peace River country was consolidated under ownership of Canadian Forest Products Ltd. Head of Vancouver Talk of a pulp production facility to be tacked onto the Arim a northern Alberta operations reached the pre-speculation stage before the venture was postponed.

Across the north central area of Alberta scores of sawmilling operations each employing from a few dozen to several hundred men opened out in illness of first of sawn lumber and pulpwood products despite one of the free rural waterfs on record.

The snappy temperatures brought a dividend for the bush workers, though. "The season of one hundred days"— when shaky bush roads are formed by winter's frost — this year stretched to an unusual-March finish, providing the longest spell of suburban wood operations for several seasons.

Plans [illegible] a second major Al bama pulp mill to be spotted in the Whitecourt area, are said to the final stages of preparation. Recently, officials of Alberta West Forest Products, who are placing the enterprise received a six months' extension of their original agreement with the Al berta Government. The arrangement for pulp-lease plans to the Whitecourt district was extended to 1981.

Pioneer of the pulp industry in Alberta Northwestern Pulp and Power Limited a sprawling Hinton plant published on newsprint a third of a million cords of timber in the past year.

Bleached sulphate pulp from the Hinton industry is ranked with the best in the world. In 1960, the firm processed about 750,000 tons of pulp produced from stands of spruce and lodgepole pine [illegible] slopes of the Hinton region.

Resistance hangs on a steel line town perched in a scenic foothills setting, the Hinton pulp mill cost 43 million dollars to put into operation.

Logging operations in the province received fresh stimulus in 1961 from a truncated schedule of Crown timber dues agreed upon through negotiations between the Alberta government and the lumbering industry.

Despite absence of a dramatic upswing in forest cuttings during 1961 there were heartening pointers to better times ahead. Although rated "somewhat low", prices for lumber products re-

Forest Fire Prevention Is Your Responsibility

FARMERS - Remember these safety rules

1. Be sure you have a burning permit.
2. Never burn brush or grass on dry windy days.
3. Have a good fire guard around the area.
4. Have sufficient help to control the fire.
5. Burn up-wind. Never leave fire unattended.

CAMPERS

Choose a rocky place or clear a patch of ground for your campfire removing all inflammable material. When you are finished be sure the fire is out - safely out — by downing it with water or covering it completely with dirt so that it will not start up again.

TRAVELLERS

Your car has an ashtray. Be sure you put cigarettes and matches in the ashtray. Do not throw lighted matches out on the roadway. Do not throw burning cigars or cigarettes out of your car windows. If you see a fire that may be out of control notify the nearest Forest Ranger, R.C.M.P. or Municipal Office.

"Buying Alberta" Spurs Growth

Alberta is one of the most richly endowed places on earth. Its resources are vast and diversified. With very few exceptions, all the necessities of life are to be found within its borders.

It is strange that under these circumstances we should be worried about a recession or more drastically a depression. In the beginning the pioneers found everything to meet their requirements within the area where dwelt. These of course were the basic requirements of food, shelter and clothing.

From the early days, agriculture was the basic industry, and our prosperity depended directly on it. If the farmer was prosperous all our people shared that prosperity. If the farmer was not prosperous, that condition reflected on all the residents, rural and urban.

One year's crop failure could plunge the province and in fact the whole country into gloom. Where the success of a region depends on one industry, this is to be expected and it is an unhappy situation. This is not peculiar to Alberta alone.

The answer to that problem of economic stability lies in the establishment of secondary industries. . . . industry . . . profitably established in Alberta . . . to the extent . . .

The province is well endowed . . . and a large exporter of petroleum and coal products. There is little doubt that more refineries, gasoline absorption plants and gas dehydration plants will be established.

A steel industry using . . . deposits near . . . has been started in the province, opening the door for value production from available coal resources. Alberta coal also presents excellent possibilities for manufacturing activated carbon, artificial graphite and carbon electrodes.

There is a growing market for furniture and plywood manufacturing using the province's own lumber and wood products. This market at the present is valued at nearly $2½ million to farms outside the province's borders.

all branches of manufacturing in all industries. With the trend to urbanization, with more and more people moving to the cities and larger towns, it becomes necessary to provide a source of employment for them.

We must make these factories attract as benefit to us. They must be and must be underpriced and useful citizens.

The way to accomplish this objective is to provide jobs for them, the way to provide jobs is to establish and support local manufacturing industries and services.

Approximately one dollar out of four spent on manufactured goods goes into salaries or wages for the worker. This means that every four families will support the family of one worker in their purchases. The actual proportion will be higher, to support a family in Alberta in Canada or in Japan China West Germany or any other foreign country.

The money spent for foreign imports leaves the country to be of no immediate use to Canadian workers, Canadian economy and you. The best part of Alberta families is destined by our concern it determines the future conditions under which we shall live and the provision of goodwill or support for future generations, our own included.

Alberta . . . a . . . of the products we use from day to day and from . . . Right at home we have such products available as salt, sugar, cereals, flour, . . . meat, fish and vegetables, dairy products (as well as . . .), natural fuels, . . . , condensed milk, potatoes, . . . , pulp, . . . , plywood, plastic pipe, . . . , iron pipe, . . . , tires, fibreglass and . . . , ammonium sulphate, acid, asphalt, building supplies, . . . , explosives, . . . , refiners, paper products, . . . , shoes, . . . , leather, . . . , lighting fixtures, . . . , . . . , . . . , . . . and many others.

By spending our money on these home made goods we put our money directly back into circulation giving buying power and living power to ourselves and our neighbors. This money is re-invested in Alberta its resources, industries and under such circumstances may above all on its people. The need for seeking outside capital for business would be reduced if we kept the billions we spend on foreign imports at home to work for us.

It is to our personal advantage and benefit to consider these matters carefully. Every dollar invested in Alberta industry pays dividends to every Alberta family. Think it over and "Buy Alberta" first.

Hinton: Alberta's First Pulp Mill

North Western Pulp & Power Ltd. is the first pulp mill in Alberta. Owned jointly by St. Regis Paper Company (Canada) Ltd. and North Canadian Oils Ltd., North Western is operated by St. Regis, which also controls and sells the output. Located on the banks of the Athabasca River, 36 miles east of beautiful Jasper National Park and the Canadian Rockies, this ultra-modern plant is equipped to turn out 150,000 tons annually of the whitest and strongest pulp made—ALBERTA HI-BRITE.

To ensure a perpetual wood supply, North Western has long and roughly 2,000,000 acres of timberlands from the Province of Alberta and now has an option to lease an additional 7,000,000 acres in the event of future expansion.

In planning for the operation and conservation of this vast area, North Western's highly trained foresters use the most modern techniques known to modern science to preserve the timber growth and beauty as well as future regard for future generations.

Roads and camps must be built, trees must be felled, trimmed, cut into 100-inch lengths, stacked, measured and hauled to the woodyard, under supervision of the Woodlands Department, to furnish most of the 300,000 cords of Lodge pole, pine and White Spruce needed annually.

Settlers and private contractors supply the remainder thus providing additional income to North Western's neighboring farmers and settlers.

North Western Pulp & Power Ltd. has one of the most modern and comprehensive plans and reforestation programs in the Dominion of Canada, constantly speaking a perpetual supply of pulpwood is assured by taking no more than there is to equal the natural annual growth in the pulpwood lease.

Mr. Stanton said, "What this world needs is a world ruler and a world government. Such a gov- ernment has long been promised in the pages of the Bible, and all Christians pray for it every time they pray the Lord's Prayer."

He further stated "that neither Communism or Democracy will ever be successful in ruling the world. God has promised a Theo- cracy which will meet all man- kind's needs.

Twelve were baptized Satur- day afternoon following the spe- cial discourse on the need for every true Christian to be un- morsed in water as a symbol of their dedication to do God's will.

The Saturday evening program was devoted to examing the mer- its of Johnny's witnesses on a local scale. Mr Stanton brought to the attention of the 15 congre- gations present the splendid 22% increase in ministerial servants obtained in the last 12 months. Attendance at congregation meet- ings showed an 18% increase.

Twenty-five Jehovah's congre- gations in Lacombe, along with many unbaptized persons, were present. Art Stauffer heads the local group.

4-H Dairy Club Members at Bentley Make City Tour

(Wilma Brawner, reporter)

On Thursday, April 26, the Bent- ley 4-H dairy club went on a tour through the central Alberta dairy pool in Red Deer This tour proved very educational and in- teresting to us all.

Members also toured the poul- try plant right next to the CALDP. This was a most interesting place, showing how chickens are pro- cessed before sale in stores.

"Girl of The Night" Screen Attraction At Lux Next Week

Formerly verboten by the pro- duction code, the subject of pros- titution has been creeping into modern motion pictures.

But never more unanimously and daringly than in the vast gulf across attraction coming to the Lux theatre next Monday- Tuesday and Wednesday

The picture entitled "Girl of the Night" casts such lovelies as Anne Francis and Kay Medford along with established names like Lloyd Nolan and John Kerr

ALIX — Congratulations and best wishes to Mrs Annie Roland on the occasion of her 94th birthday on Saturday, April 28 at the home of her daughter, Mr. H Bremness here in Alix

Born Annie Beerchell in the township of Lindsay, Essex county, England, she married a chartered accountant Augustus J Henri Roland, in 1893 In Australia (Qua) and daughter Alice (Ria) were born in London

In 1901 Mr Roland was joined by his physician that unless he took a long sea voyage he would not survive a year hence, he and Mrs Roland decided to emigrate to the U.S.A. where they at tempted to establish themselves in California which proved fat to fail

In 1903 they came to Red Deer and a few months later to Content, where a cluster of shack tents, but a small village now Mission

Mr and Mrs Roland secured a homestead in the Carroll district and while the house was being built Mrs Roland and the children lived in a tent in the Cunningham yard

She has memories of learning to bake bread, shoot wild birds which supplied welcome variation to meals, handle Canadian stove so that the house was warm, cook food, cultivate garden on freshly cleared land, and handle laundry for the family without the conveniences in her English home

She declares today I never regretted coming. I loved it all It was such a challenge

Mr Roland proved the climate a healthy one before he passed on eight years ago at the age of 87 years

Mrs. Roland enjoys musical entertainment, and until very recently accompanied senior citizens' sing-songs on the piano at Alix. She is a member of St. Pancras Church, and Women's Auxiliary. She has been interest in flowers, plants T.V. and local and world news

Mrs Roland has one grandchild Mrs. Bremness, and a great-grandchild Mrs. Bremness' daughter Mrs. Ralph Lindsay

Mr and Mrs Roland do not get together very often, but they enjoy their annual visits as served to about 25 guests by Mrs Hopp and Mrs Glen Whitecotton

She conducted well attended Easter services every afternoon at three points of the Lamerton parish on Easter Sunday while Rector of Alix Rev. Bennett was away on a holiday with her daughter, son-in-law and niece Mary while Dennis enjoyed the activity of a farm holiday with his uncles near Olds

Seniors Entertained

A family get together of the senior citizen club closed a very pleasant afternoon as guests of the Ladies' Auxiliary on Thursday, April 26 The club members gathered at the Rebekah hall or were picked up at their homes and taken to the Carroll community center, where they were entertained by bongo and a general social gathering, with a lovely lunch served by their hostesses

Lengthy Recovery

Mrs. Nels Dechert's friends, relatives and neighbors were glad to welcome her home after a prolonged treatment for the injury received at the time of a road accident in the fall of 1960. The treatment have necessitated periods in the University hospital in Edmonton and in Lacombe hospital.

Nels Mortenson, Floyd Mann and a number of other members of Alltyn Mann's construction crew were working at Wabamun where a road for the coal trucks delivering coal from the huge drag line to the boilers at the Calgary Power plants is being built. In view of the extremely heavy loads to be hauled, this road will need to be able to "take it".

Residents and neighbors of the village are glad to see the crushed gravel being spread on village streets. It is hoped that this will end the oft-repeated remark, "Well, we knew we were in Alix by the rough, rocky streets."

Enumerators for the coming federal election, Edith Herbert, Robert Simmons and Nellie Schiewe are busy this week counting noses

Get-well wishes to Mrs Thomas Parkinson, who was quite sick when taken to the Lacombe hospital on Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs Jack Rhodes of Strathmore were Alix visitors last week end when they brought Mrs H Rhodes home, and returned to Strathmore with Mrs I Anderson and Bonnie Living stone.

Mrs M Boe and daughters of Red Deer were guests of Mrs Marie Booth during the holiday week.

All good wishes to Vera Booth and family as he starts his work day

Qualified Instruction Offered Youngsters In Rifle Shooting

Lacombe rifle and pistol club members are now offering courses to junior (10 to 16 years of age) members. It was announced this week by Bill Pelzer, club president.

We are offering a training course, compulsory for all juniors joining the club for the first time, which will consist of four one-hour training periods to cover all phases of safe gun handling, both on the range and when out hunting," Mr Pelzer told The Globe.

All juniors who supply their own guns must first have their weapons approved by the instructor before it may be used on the range in the jubilee stadium. After juniors have completed the training course, they will be allowed to shoot at the times all bullseye clubs shoot, and may take part in all junior rangers' functions.

WINS $50.00

Jack Koningsveer won the $50 as president-of-the-month of the month of Lacombe athletic association - $50-a month club. An announcement was made at the county girls' Monday evening

Dry in This District

The light rain of Saturday evening and light snow of Sunday morning did not amount to much in the way of precipitation. Further north it was different From Wetaskiwin on to Edmonton everywhere was dampness. They didn't need the moisture due to the heavy winter snowfall. Some acreage was under water, and ditches were water-filled This district could use more rain this week.

Sympathy in with the James Cidley family, in the loss of a young wife and mother last week.

Recent visitors to the home of Mrs Emma Gschwendtner were Mrs Mervyn (nee Doris Thomas) and three children of Port Burwhitherson, Mr and Mrs H. Thomas and children, and Mrs A. Wagner of Clive

Car Wash Held

The Clive Baptist young people held their car wash at the farm of Mr and Mrs. John Bell They had it shortened rain in the evening. Not enough rain to do any good, but enough to moisten newly-washed cars. Funds were for foreign missions

Reunion Party Held By Lake Bend Club

(Special to The Globe)

LAMERTON — A very happy and memorable occasion was celebrated at the Lake Bend Community hall when members of the Lake Bend community club gathered to honor Mr and Mrs Jack Jarvis on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

John Jarvis served as MC at the social supper which followed.

Mrs Jim Pilsbee and Mrs Hugh Stevenson welcomed the guests

Mrs. Hugh Stevenson gave a resume of club activities and reminiscences from its inception in 1936 to the present

Then a group of models presented a hat parade in the merry mood of everyone.

A delicious lunch was served and the table was graced with a three tier anniversary cake made by Mr Miller of Bashaw and beautifully decorated by Mrs Ray Skinner

Mrs Maggie Jarvis was honored by being asked to cut the first cake. She has been the only lady of continuous membership and service since the club's form

Mrs. Jessie Beder and Mrs. Bessie Curtis of Edmonton Mr and Mrs Bill Martin of Camrose, Bill Meeker of Hay Lakes, Mrs Della Bailey, Mrs. Ford, Mrs Scott Mr and Mrs Lee Hauck and Mr and Mrs Walter Tyler Mrs A Carr, all of Bashaw and Mr. Ed Colbry and Mrs. Lou Clarke of Mirror

Bentley Pair Wed Fifty Years

Mr and Mrs J C Land, pioneer residents of the Bentley district, welcomed all friends at the Bentley Christian education building on Wednesday May 2 from 2:30 to 5:00 on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

It was built in Devonshire, England, on May 1, 1912, that Mr Land married the former Ruth [illegible]

They moved to Canada in April, 1913, and Mr Land worked at the Tilley irrigation ditch out of Calgary for a year "We pulled up to Bentley Creek intending on the farm 6½ miles southeast of Leslie in March, 1914, Mr Land recollected.

He worked on the phone line to Lechhart (last fall) and during 1914-15 was mailman on the Lechhart - Leslie post office run. These were the days of the old mail cart pulled by horse. "Even the Indians were having their last battles in the area," says Mr. Land.

They retired from active farming in 1940, and are now comfortably settled at their small home at 5222-48 street in Bentley.

Mrs Land has been nearly blind for about two years, and has suffered two strokes, but still remains cheerful Mr Land has taken over cooking duties as the kitchen, and bakes rare to much of his own gardening as possible.

Mr Land was 75 years of age on April 6, and his wife will be 75 next October.

They have one son, Herbert, on the farm across the road from the old homestead, three daughters, Mrs. Charles (Alice) Arrowsmith of Spruceville district, Mrs. James (Ada) Hazelrigg of Bentley, and Mrs Eddie (Ruby) Mottus of Bellwin. Mrs. who will be visiting with the family next July.

The elderly couple have six grandchildren, one step grandson and one step granddaughter; and one great grandson

The Globe joins in extending warm congratulations on the special occasion.

Lincoln Organizes For New Season

(Reporter, Hazel Street)

April 28 meeting of the Lincoln Sports club was held in Lincoln hall with 23 members present and six joining the club. This makes a total of 41 members.

There will be a dance in Lincoln hall this Friday, May 4, with the "Cave Brothers" supplying the music.

The Lincoln sports club members will be canvassing the surrounding districts for any donations cash or any articles of value that can be sold.

This will be done the latter part of May, and all money from this sale will go to the building funds of Lincoln hall Any donations will be appreciated.

The talent night program postponed on April will be held May 18, with a dance following. Anyone wishing to take part in the program, phone 2-6226 or 2-2332. There are cash prizes for winners.

The Lincoln sports club has three ball teams to challenge one age group, 14 to 19 years, one age group, 14 and under; and one women's entrant, married and single

We would appreciate any clubs or ball teams contacting the club secretary, Mrs. R Street, before joining the club. This makes it possible to avoid conflicting dates.

Richard Street and Ronnie Smith were asked to coach the senior ball team again this year. The first ball game was with Spruceville on Sunday, Lincoln winning.

Lawrence Dool and Howard Kenley are coaching the junior team again this year, and they have had no games so far.

Those on the committee for the May meeting are sandwiches, Mrs. Richard Street and Bert Saunders, cakes, Ronnie Smith and Dorie Wilson; cream, Verona Kenley.

The committee for the May 18 dance are Ronnie and Marie Smith, John and Audrey Wilson, Martin Wilson and Claude Unwin

There will be a clean-up day of the yard at Lincoln hall on Sunday morning, May 9, at 10:00 o'clock

That's all for now

Dances Not Popular

[illegible] but it is obvious that Lacombe is not a good "dance town."

Lacombe is a good hockey town and proved with most centres, despite dwindling attendance. It is a fair curling town and an excellent golfing town. It is a poor volleyball town, judging by the response to Jayhawker Homecome and other similar programs. There are a few systems that come to mind, and the public reactions describe the interests of the town and district.

Dancing is one recreation that does not seem to function in the community. Various organizations have attempted to sponsor dance functions in the past without success. There was an assembly dance winter series inaugurated by the experimental farm staff some years ago. They were poorly attended, and lost money. The Kinsmen Club of Lacombe has attempted to organize a similar group of dances during each of the last three years. Each complete has represented a "good crowd." These dances have lost money.

Even town hall has had trouble attracting sufficient numbers to their dance socials. It appears that many of the younger set prefer travelling in comfortable cars to dances in other parts of the district.

Two annual dances in Lacombe have become a ritual and a success, the hospital nurses' pre-Christmas semi-formal, and the student-sponsored Christmas prom. These are exceptions.

The ballroom clean they still like to swing and sway on the dance floor. Their husbands? Those dashing youths of yesteryear apparently love their recreations with advancing age. It's the man who grumbles about keeping step to music as they trample over their partner's feet.

Maybe that's the real explanation.

Too Many Kennedys

THERE is evidence to be seen in publications from south of the border that too many Kennedys may be marring the political scene just like too much salt may spoil the broth. A certain amount of something from a John Kennedy as president is good, but an system of Kennedys from the same salt shaker may be too much.

The president's brother Robert is already part of Washington's governing body as an examplar attorney general. The latest to seek political fame is 30-year-old Edward Kennedy, who has announced his decision to contest the Senate seat at Massachusetts this year. The Washington Post was moved to comment:

"The Kennedy family is an undeniably attractive as it is plentiful. But there can be too much of even a good thing.

The word dynasty is sure to be [illegible].

Observers feel that the youngest Kennedy might prove to be a source of embarrassment to the president if he wins the Senate seat. his views might clash with the chief executive. If he loses, it would prove that the Kennedy magic isn't invincible and irresistible at the polls.

What Kind Are You?

A lot of people are like weather-vanes — no good unless pushed.

Some are like canoes—they need to be paddled.

Some are like kites—if you don't keep a string on them they fly away.

Some are like kites—they are more contented when petted.

Some are like footballs—you can't tell which way they will bounce next.

Unlimited Possibilities

THERE was an optimistic note of possible cooperation when Soviet premier Khrushchev invited the United States to send its space hunter-killer to the USSR, following Col. Glenn's flight around the earth.

That is an imaginary offer, and one that could lead to better and closer relations in other areas. We have looked on many fine concrete steps taken by either country some to consummate Mr. Khrushchev's idea.

It would reduce the tremendous costs of space experimentation. One rocket sent into the atmosphere could be tested by both nations, instead of a separate rocket for each. More brains could spend successful research. As missiles and trips become more common, some kind of agreement will be needed anyway to provide assistance in rescuing satellites grounded by emergency landings.

President Kennedy has explained the United States is deeply committed to explore outer space "for the benefit of all mankind."

Russia is just as involved and just as interested in space studies. It is only common sense that the two countries should try to pool resources. All they need is mutual trust.

If by some miracle they should get that well together, the groundwork would be laid for an extension of cooperation to settle problems that are troublesome and costly right here on [illegible].

Reflections of the Times

The River

Newspapers from almost anywhere in Canada during the next few days and weeks will be telling stories of people being drowned in rivers or lakes or another as the ice goes out. Our own river has taken its toll on the past. We hope against hope that this year will not add a name from our midst to the list of those who will annually claim the dues immediately [illegible].

In the westerntime the ice on the river seems an ancient. It is no such thing as a short cut. It is such fun to skate on for more miles than can ever be ground into a skating rink. The river is fun.

Comes spring and we begin to wonder when we will be able to take the short cut for the last time We wonder how much closer we can get to the hole in the ice before the ice will break Each dares the other and at last we have another event from which

Reminders To Seed Growers

The following reminders for seed growers have been taken from the new edition of Alberta Wheat Pool monthly and I would strongly suggest that all seed growers give them careful consideration

"Remember that "limited generation" of registered seed is in effect for all cereals this year Be sure the generation you use will be eligible for re-registration. [illegible]

Be sure to send on suitable land Check CECA circular No 6 Allow at least the minimum isolation strip around your crop

Place your plots where there will be no traffic across them

Thoroughly clean all the equipment used to handle or sow your [illegible]

Have all your certificate tags until your new crop has been registered

Keep your isolation strips clean Remove off types plants and plants of other varieties from plot as soon as possible

Test prove that money invested in certified seed will repay you [illegible]

Apply for inspections as soon as you sow your crop These will be no guarantee of inspection if your return is late

Fill out two copies of your application form for inspection and CECA membership as soon as you receive them and send both copies to the plant products division, 3773 Federal Public Building Edmonton.

Make sure all questions are answered and that both forms are filled out the same

Members who have moved please report your new address and membership your old one

Farmers planning to grow registered seed for the first time should contact our office and request a copy of the bulletin Rules and Regulations of the Production of Pedigreed Seed."

The time is close at hand for the planting of gardens, shrubs trees, etc in and around our farmsteads One of the best ways to make sure your plantings are successful is to plant recommended [illegible]

In order to help you make your selection of recommended varieties the Lacombe branch of the Alberta department of agriculture in co-operation with the [illegible] commission has made available a very suitable publication called the Alberta horticultural guide The is available upon request from our office

The World of Trees . . .

By T. H. Newman

We now come to the date palm This tree is older than man's history It is native from Persia across North Africa and the Arabian [illegible] to the Canary Islands

The fruit grows in large bunches, and is very subject to any dampness which causes it to mould These bunches may contain up to one thousand dates and there are four or more bunches to a tree which is 50 or 60 feet high.

In these dry desert places where dates grow, early man probably moved his camp to the palm areas

I believe there is a relief in the British museum showing an Assyrian god fertilizing the female flower by using a small piece of the male flower tied to a female flower, a practice used today there by spreading the unproductive male trees over more ground. The insects actually spread the pollen

The date is extensively cultivated in Arizona and inland California I noticed at Indio, a budding project had recently been on the date plantation as they had avenues of date palms Three trees would not yield well as a lot at work is required to grow [illegible]

Letters to the Editor . . . . .

To The Editor:

As the town council and county of Lacombe have received some criticism in regard to the airstrip for Lacombe, I would like to clarify some points

First — It has been suggested that the town council is lending financial support for the flying club, which it has failed to do so earlier for the curling club I would like to point out that the town's interest is not as support of the flying club but solely for acquiring an air strip for Lacombe.

As the flying club is similarly interested in obtaining a strip, they are endeavouring to supply well over half the cash needed. It is also agreed that the title of the property in question shall be held by the town.

Second — regarding criticism of the county council. I feel that constructive criticism is welcome, and I am sure that the county council feel the same—however it is my contention that the letter in last week's paper was most unjust and certainly not called for

The person who submitted the letter, I suspect, was not fully aware of the issues involved and while I am interested in Lacombe getting an airstrip, see no need for the malignment heaped upon [illegible]

How do I know spring is here? Here spring hats are appearing. Yes, they are new, either past "a the millinery shelf or remodeled by the fair fingering as ever for [illegible]

It is always fun to browse around in the hat shops looking for the current fashion and try on a few to see how becoming they are You can do this with considerable satisfaction keeping a few things in mind

Look in your closet to see what your wardrobe is for the season If a new hat goes in your shopping list this year, the costume with which you plan to wear your new hat should [illegible] top.

Because a hat [illegible] an important finishing touch, keep one eye on the latest designs and the other on your full length image in the mirror. Avoid overdramatic hats; determine the success of your top beauty treatment

Use the mirror to see how your image improves if when [illegible]

Wearing glasses, your hat shows most of your forehead

The face is large and the figure ample you wear a fairly bushy hat with upward lines

Your figure is short and petite, your hat is scaled logically to your dimensions and on the vertical lines.

The face is drawn and the skin blotchy deep dark shades in hat material are most flattering

Your features are irregular in [illegible] hat with soft [illegible] a fluffy line most

Your figure is tall and slender, a matronly outfit a [illegible] hat with a forward tilt [illegible] feature

But Why Bother With What You Can Do With Your Old Straw Hat?

To freshen straw: First use a soft brush to remove dust. Remove water spots by brushing with a soft brush in the same direction always. Be careful not to soften. Try cloth moistened with carbon tetrachloride to remove grease and creamers from the band. Some goods and creases can be removed by steaming. Otherwise it is difficult to reshape straw It is possible to dye a fine smooth straw a dark or shade by using a commercial [illegible] dye.

Yellowing can be removed by pressing it between two layers of waxed paper to refresh and crisp If more lasting stiffness is desired, dip it in a solution of 1 teaspoon of gelatin to one cup of water Squeeze out excess liquid and stretch the veil to its original shape by pinning it to a flat surface

Glossary can be refreshened by steaming and reshaping with the fingers This may be just what is needed to make your hat take its place again at the Easter Parade

Nursing

A WORTHY PROFESSION

Should you become a nurse? Every nurse who honors her profession knows the deep satisfaction of helping others. To be of service to those in need is a rewarding and fulfilling occupation. Can you be tolerant, generous, adaptable? Bring these qualities to your nursing career, and you will be successful and happy in your chosen field.

Your school of nursing provides a valuable professional education, which may be combined with university training leading to a degree in nursing. As a graduate, you would live in residence. Board, lodgings and uniforms are provided by the hospital. A small allowance is given to help with sundry expenses, and a certain amount of financial assistance may be obtained through grants, bursaries and loans. Excellent career opportunities await you on graduation. You will be welcomed in hospitals, health services, industry, caring for private patients, and in teaching and administration.

We would like you to see our hospital facilities. Please accept this invitation to visit with us, and bring your parents and friends.

Now's the Time to Plan for Your Child's College Career

Like everything else these days, the cost of getting a college education keeps going up. If you want your son or daughter is ready to start college, the money required ought well be beyond your means.

That's why the practical plan is to start saving systematically while your youngster is still very young Many parents who can afford it begin by earmarking their family allowance cheques for a special educational fund at the Bank of Montreal. They find it adds up tremendously over the years Cheques for one child, saved in a B of M account until the age of 18 total more than $1,000, including the interest, the bank says And, of course the money is always available in case it's needed for some unexpected emergency

Alex Bartelli, accountant of the Lacombe branch of the Bank of Montreal, will be glad to give you a copy of the B of M's folder designed to help you calculate the cost of giving youngster's higher education program What you save today can be a good deal toward unproving your youngster's chances to get the best possible start in life when high school days are over

E. J. TAYLOR
100,000 CUSTOMERS
A Message from the President of Northwestern Utilities, Limited.
A new milestone in our service to Albertans was reached this month . . . our 100,000th customer began to enjoy the many benefits of natural gas.
This is a significant event in the history of natural gas service . . . a service that began in 1923.
It reflects the rapid growth which has come to Alberta, for at the end of the last war, Northwestern's total serving only 18,000 customers
In a 17-year span we have added 82,000 customers. Today we serve 75 communities . . . and of these, 68 received natural gas service for the first time in those same 17 years.
In 1943 the Viking-Kinsella field was the sole source of supply. Now 14 separate sources, discovered at great expense by the producing industry, contribute to your comfort.
Through our nearly 40 years of operation, we have tried constantly to provide all the gas required by our citizens now and in the future, and to provide the finest possible gas service.
As a company dedicated to meeting the needs of the people of Alberta, we have played a significant part in contributing to the economy of our province through your by now universal use of gas wells, pipelines, distribution systems and related facilities.
Above all, we have helped Albertans enjoy higher standards of modern living through the provision of efficient natural gas service. In spite of today's much higher cost levels, this has been accomplished while helping to keep Alberta's gas rates virtually the lowest in North America.
Natural gas, indeed, has played a large part in the continuing upward surge of Alberta through the availability of ample supplies to industry.
As we pause for a moment, we would like to restate Northwestern's continuing policy:
"The company's policy is to provide the best possible gas service at the lowest possible cost consistent with the highest standards of safety and dependability."
B. J. Nelson

One of the more than 30,000 Pool members now receiving patronage dividend cheques

WHEAT POOL MEMBERS HAVE DONE IT AGAIN!

By delivering to their own Pool elevators, they have saved themselves another $3,511,000.

Pool agents are now distributing patronage dividend cheques on 1960-61 deliveries. This dividend, made possible by the loyal support of the Pool's farmer-owned facilities, totals:

WHEAT & FLAX 8.3¢ PER BUS.*
OATS, BARLEY, RYE, RAPESEED 2.82¢ PER BUS.*

*About one-quarter of the dividends is being paid out in cash, and the balance in reserves.

On 1960-61 deliveries, this dividend has meant an extra

$10.46 FOR EVERY 200-BUSHEL LOAD OF WHEAT
$200.00 FOR EVERY 4,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT

Since joining together to form their own marketing co-operative, Alberta Wheat Pool members have made direct savings through patronage dividends amounting to nearly $30,000,000

Few Farmers Can Afford to Pass Up Savings Such as These

This year, join the thousands of forward-looking farmers who deliver to the Pool. Be an Alberta Wheat Pool member and reap the benefits of marketing your grain co-operatively

Education Costs Top $1,769,000

At a final meeting held Tuesday, in the county office, the education committee approved total estimated expenditures for the year 1962 of $1 769 766. Actual expenditures last year amounted to $1 705 [illegible].

On the revenue side the provincial government, founded on a program fund is expected to give $1 678 809. The committee agreed that an additional 12 mills on equalized assessment was required to [illegible] to complete the budget as mentioned 14 mills last year.

Because of the corresponding equalized assessment formula ratepayers in the county of Lacombe will contribute a smaller school requisition, this year.

Clive and Mirror taxpayers will also pay slightly less toward school costs. The other participating municipalities all show slight increases (as shown in the accompanying table).

[illegible] teachers' salaries, [illegible] compared with last year's [illegible] of $904,42[illegible]. The teachers are due to meet Wednesday night, May 9, to consider a new salary schedule offered by the education [illegible].

Bus operation is estimated at $105,000, [illegible] maintenance, [illegible] compared with last year's [illegible].

Debt charges are almost on a par with 1961, at $181 175 as against $185,383. This is made up of a retirement of $104,523 in principal and interest of $76,652.

Capital expenditures provided for revenue are estimated at $65,000. This covers $35,000 for the high school addition at Lacombe (over and above the $150 000 debenture borrowing) together with $5,000 for school furniture and $25,000 for [illegible] new [illegible].

Other main expenditures are plant operation and maintenance $194 000, instructional aids $80, 200, and office administration [illegible].

TO MEET MAY 16

Education committee agreed to meet in special session next Wednesday, May 16, at 8:00 p.m. at the county office, to open tenders for the proposed high school addition at Lacombe. The wing "road on" to the present unit will give the equivalent of 12½ more school rooms, and an architect's estimate of the cost is $300,000. It is hoped to start construction work as soon as possible.

Mark Golden Anniversary at Blackfalds

Mr. and Mrs. JACK MILLER — Staff Photo

Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Married 50 Years

Mr and Mrs J V N Miller of Blackfalds will be the recipients of congratulations on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary to be observed at an "open house" at the christian education centre at Blackfalds on Saturday May 12

They will be pleased to receive all friends and neighbors between the hours of 2:30 and 4:00 p.m.

One special guest will be G N Finn, who officiated at their marriage at Hardisty back on May 13, 1912. Mr. Finn is now out of the ministry, and works at the customs office at Red Deer.

Mr Miller was born in Ireland and came to Canada in 1904. He took a homestead in 1906 near Hardisty. Mrs Miller, the former Ellen Foulds, came out from Scotland in 1912. She had never been on a farm, but "soon learned as a bride" that year.

Mr Miller served overseas during the last two years of the first world war, 1917-18, and on return was appointed postmaster at Blackfalds, succeeding Mr Bailey in 1920.

He remained postmaster from 1920 until retirement in 1953. During that time he was active in community affairs, serving on the school board at Blackfalds for some years, and as secretary of the village for 15 years.

He is a life member of the Eureka lodge in Lacombe, but rarely attends meetings these days because he has no car.

Mrs Miller has always been active as a member of the WI of the United church, and supervising a girls' club and the old Crusader club. She was always keenly interested in Sunday school work.

Mr. Miller is 78, Mrs. Miller 80 [illegible] thankful to be "in [illegible]."

They have one son, Pat of Fort Saskatchewan, one daughter Mrs Don (Dora) Paterson of Calgary; and three grandchildren.

Best wishes are extended to them on this special anniversary occasion.

Lacombe Residents Hospitalized After Highway Accident

Mr and Mrs Albert Scott of Lacombe and Peter Moro of Edmonton were sent to Lacombe hospital following a two car collision on No 2 highway just north of Morningside last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs Scott, who operated a hairdressing shop in Lacombe suffered a badly crushed foot and was taken to the University hospital at Edmonton on Tuesday.

Mr Scott, 50, is still in Lacombe hospital with a fractured pelvis Mr Moro, 68, is also in hospital with fractured ribs and lacerations to the head.

The Moro and Scott cars collided on a highway that was wet with slushy snow at the time.

Base Course Tenders Called For New Highway

Local residents may be raising on a dust-free hardsurface base-coat on the new No 2 highway bypass west of Lacombe around about next fall.

The provincial government is calling for tenders for laying a base course prior to paving some 24 miles on the divided four lane highways from just south of Wetaskiwin to the point 4½ miles south of Lacombe where it rejoins the existing No. 2 highway.

This work is expected to start more than one [illegible] and will represent the first stage in a 5 final paving program scheduled for [illegible].

Construction of the base course could be completed this year in time for use by traffic next fall if the summer is favorable for road building.

As Mrs R M Farewell, Blackfalds correspondent, stated last week, highway crews are now on the job completing the grading and gravelling program. A gap of about one mile remained incomplete near the village when the work was suspended last fall.

Various stages of construction work has continued almost unterrupted on the big cement culvert which will support the divisional overhead which intersects No 12 highway about 1½ miles west of Lacombe.

When the superhighway reverts to the final application of hot mix asphalt, first [illegible] time next year it will complete a continuous divided highway 80 feet wide on [illegible] sufficient for two traffic lanes 12 feet wide plus an inside and outside shoulder.

Total cost of this 24-mile program is expected to exceed seven million dollars.

Survey Work North

In the meantime survey and engineering work is going ahead this year on the next sections of the superhighway that will link the point north of Lacombe to south of Ledue a distance of about 30 miles.

This portion of the new highway by-passes Wetaskiwin by about 12 miles, which drew a storm of protest from city officials.

Rockets Hockey Club in Dire Financial Straits

The future of the Lacombe Rockets hockey club does not look bright . . . . if a basis of judgment can be formed from the attendance at the annual meeting held below the town office last Friday evening.

Only eight men were out for the evening . . . ng members of the executive and two members of the press. The meeting was postponed and a new date will be set shortly at which time the financial statement will be presented and officers elected for the new [illegible].

Although the meeting broke up at any official business enacted, it became evident that the recent hockey club appeal for financial support from hockey fans in the district was not been a success. Only $100 in donations has been received to date, and the bills for about of the $3,000-plus net which the club has yet to crack.

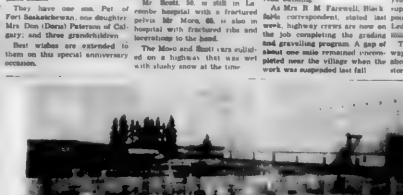
Lacombe Swimming Pool Construction Well Along



Swift progress being made on the construction of Lacombe's new $65,000 swimming pool is illustrated in the above picture taken over the week end. The 75 by 42 foot pool is outlined in the foreground, and the concrete blocks show the beginnings of the locker building in the background. Pool dimensions are 82 feet by 75 feet. The pool will be ready for use in June Off to the northeast in the photo is jubilee stadium.

Experimental Farm Tests Livestock, Cereal Crops

The 1961 season was the driest on record at Lacombe. Total precipitation for the year was only 12.20 inches as compared with the long term average of 17.74 inches," according to information supplied by the Lacombe experimental farm in its booklet entitled 1961 Research Highlights.

The dearth of precipitation has resulted in a steady decline of moisture reserves in the soil dating back to the fall of 1956, and there has been a "steady decline of moisture below the 12-inch depth from near field capacity to near permanent wilting point."

A wide variety of research work at the experimental farm is reviewed in the booklet. A brief resume of the livestock breeding section and of cereal crops shows an active year other sections will be covered in later articles in The Globe.

Lacombe Hog

The Lacombe breed continued a steady expansion through 1961 and ranked third in total swine registrations for Canada.

Lacombe hog breeders now number over 200, and total registrations of Lacombe hogs exceed [illegible].

Lacombe Beef

A large beef cattle herd consisting of 240 head of breeding cows is involved in a selection program to examine the rate at which genetic improvement in growth (measured as yearling weight) can be improved.

With poultry, a similar selection study is in progress to increase egg production. A careful recording of changes in egg quality accompanies changes in the production level.

Laboratory Mice

Animal breeding is a slow business, and to speed up examination laboratory mice are being used in tests. They pose problems comparable to those found in swine, and with faster litters and larger populations studies can be maintained more cheaply.

There rapid reproductive rate permits breeding research each year equivalent to five years for swine or 10 years with beef cattle.

Cereal Crops

Varieties of cereal crops are evaluated for production in specific areas by conducting comparative rod row tests at different locations served by the Lacombe experimental farm.

Here is a brief description of some new varieties:

Conlinbeck wheat possesses more resistance to stem rust than Thatcher, but in other respects it is similar to Thatcher. In central Alberta, where stem rust is not normally serious, other variety should prove satisfactory.

Pembina wheat, distributed to growers in Manitoba and eastern Saskatchewan in 1960, is highly resistant to stem and leaf rust. When grown in Alberta it fails to produce as well as Thatcher or [illegible].

Glen oats, developed in Quebec, is slightly earlier maturing than Garry and appreciably [illegible] the latter maturing Rodney and Eagle. It was recommended in 1962 for production on the black and grey soil.

Selcon barley is a two-rowed rough awned variety which matures about the same time as Parkland. It is eligible for the 2 row CW grades. While it does not appear on the list of recommended varieties in central Alberta it is a variety well worth watching.

Jubilee barley has been tested the past two years and is a late maturing, six-rowed smooth awned feed type barley. When grown under central Alberta conditions it is similar to Husky in all respects. Another variety to watch closely.

Keystone barley, licensed for [illegible] 1961 [illegible] rowed smooth awned feed barley type with a high degree of resistance to loose smut. While it did not perform well at Lacombe in 1961 other tests indicate it to have good yield. Further testing is necessary before it can be properly evaluated.

Nugget — a new rope-seed variety is not recommended in central Alberta. It is a late maturing Argentine-type variety that seldoms fully matures in this area.

In tests at Lacombe during the past two years, it outyielded and had a higher oil content than any other Argentine-type varieties in areas where it can be grown successfully, it will no doubt replace the present recommended variety Golden.

Howdy Stranger!

Bev Jones of Lacombe had the interesting experience on Saturday of meeting a man who was a prisoner-of-war on his shop floor only 18 years ago.

Bev was introduced to Hans Zander, now a farmer in the Bashaw district, who served in the German navy in the second world war. Bev was in the Canadian navy. The two of them had already met under difficult circumstances, although they were unaware of it.

During the course of discussion Hans said he was on the German U-boat 104 during the war.

"That's the sub we sunk off the coast of Newfoundland," Bev exclaimed in surprise. It turned out that Hans was one of 24 prisoners dragged out of the wreck and taken on board Bev's frigate Swansea. The date was December 27, 1944.

Hans came to Canada in 1952. He worked on the A. Karvi farm in the Lakeside district for about six years before getting a farm of his own at Bashaw.

When Hans [illegible] came to Lacombe to visit Bev, probably [illegible] another on the street but [illegible] encountered [illegible] until this chance encounter.

High Winds Blow Shingles Atop Stadium

High winds with velocities up to 60 m.p.h. damaged some shingles on the roof of jubilee stadium last Friday.

Councillor Ivan Stonebridge of the town's recreational committee reported that "a large number of shingles were twisted and torn" by the wind, particularly around the flattened crown on the top part of the building.

About $150 was spent last year repairing leaky parts [illegible] of the skating rink and at the last meeting it was decided to seek an estimate on further repairs.

The wet before Friday's wind rainstorm and damage is now more extensive. The bill for probable repair work this summer will be considerably greater.

Excellent Golf Course

LACOMBE'S public golf course is looking prettier by the day. A rain would "grow things up" just as it would freshen the countryside and brighten crop prospects.

However fairways are in remarkably good condition. The roots and tree stumps left over in the new back nine are gradually diminishing. The eighteen hole course holds promise of the best season yet for town and district golfers.

Three thoughts come to mind after reading a piece in the Financial Post about 1962 being "the busiest, most crowded year in Canada on the golf links."

Public courses across the country are apparently being swamped with new and old golfers alike "Queues at the first tee are as long as ever," the Post reports "There's not a chance that you'll be able to sleep late on week end mornings . . . if you're a pay-as-you-play golfer."

This leaves private clubs for golf hopefuls, but invitation fees and season's fees are costly and in most cases there's a "waiting list for at least two years."

Spend a summer near Lacombe and other towns also it. Take a notion to have a few holes of golf, so you have a three-minute drive from the house to the first tee Barely do you have a lengthy, waiting period.

Then play a few holes leisurely, with out being pushed by impatient golfers from behind, or being forced to wait for slower players ahead

All this on one of the best golf courses in the country For a few dollars a year.

Course we don't know how lucky we are

Public Sanction

RED Deer is to have a new city hall — courtesy of the apathy of the people Dandiine date for a ratepayers' petition requesting a plebiscite on the proposed expenditure of $675,000 for borrowing passed last week, and mayor Bruce Brittain is reported to have said "I am very happy the citizens have given council the go ahead signal for construction of the new city hall."

Did they? Not really They turned down the city hall vote less than a year ago, and it is not likely their sentiments have changed that quickly

All that's happened is that council at Red Deer proclaimed they would build a new city hall unless objection was raised by the required number of people, and they won their point by default The old M D of Lacombe council used a similar section of the act to obtain a new county office after it had been turned down by the people

New Licence Plates

THERE has been quite an outcry from a few indignant residents in and about town who were "picked up" driving their cars last week without new licence plates after the deadline In many cases they had purchased the plates but neglected to change them

Ignorance is no excuse of the law, and neither is neglect nor forgetfulness Ample warning was given prior to April 30 that there would be no extension beyond that date, after which new plates would be subject to

It is understood that some people carried over plates but didn't get around to having them put on the car Shill, they have only themselves to

A Ballot Needs Both

CAPE Breton voters will have a choice of three men named MacInnis, when they cast their ballots for the federal election on June 18

Malcolm MacInnis of Sydney, N.S. is MDP candidate. Donald MacInnis of Glace Bay is seeking re-election for the Progressive Conservatives and Allan MacInnis of Glace Bay is Liberal standard bearer.

This oddity has a humorous element We're almost envious of the editor, who will be the only man in the country with enough courage to predict the election outcome in his constituency. Max will win!

There are also anxious overtones The election ballot contains the names of the candidates, but not the names of the political parties they represent The apparent thinking behind this is that voters when they pick up a pencil in the seclusion of the polling booth should have a knowledge of each candidate before they mark 'X'.

This is probably a correct assumption in a democracy but we'll lay odds that a good many are bewildered by the choice of names showing no political affiliation The public should be well informed, but how do you account for the individual who phones up on election day to ask where you vote"

At any rate, we have deep sympathy for cage Breton voters who must choose between MacInnis MacInnis, and MacInnis

This is a pretty strong argument for recommending that the names of political parties be printed alongside the names of candidates on all ballots It would save confusion and embarrassment, and we see no reason why it should be an affront to well-informed voters as some persons have suggested

Taxing Private Dwellings For Business

It took a little town the size of Okotoks to come up with the answer. Not that we are in favor of a business tax but in case a town was considering such a tax they could take a "leaf from the Okotoks notion."

The additional assessments incorporated in the Okotoks motion has been bothering us for many years Consider a town where a business tax was levied Because of expense the Ma[illegible] so many evaded the tax several was unfair to those paying for the privilege of maintaining a place of business

The Okotoks town council amended the town's business tax by-law to include home-operated businesses as eligible for assessment Electricians, repair and service men, carpenters and building repairmen will have their property assessed at $5 per square foot, veterinarians $20 per square foot, gunsmiths $6 per square foot and auctioneers markets $1 per square foot.

The Okotoks council may have gone further and included home beauty parlor operators, painters, delivery men, insurance and persons working for patent medicine firms They could also assess persons operating two businesses under the Okotoks plan

The telephone company will not permit advertising of a phone number for anything business under an ordinary residence phone The customer pays the business rate if he wishes to use the number for business purposes, although it may be in his home

On the surface it is not quite "Crich" to permit persons to operate from their residence while other people in possibly the same business or related businesses, must maintain a store and pay all the expenses which go with such an operation

Okotoks council is on the right track for any town with a business tax and they could go further if more revenue is required.

BUSINESS LOST AT BLACKIE

Another business has been closed in Blackie because of fire The Blackie Meat Market, owned and operated by Sam Sutter, burned to the ground on Monday

The fire started during the night and was first noticed by Jimmy Montgomery at about 3.30 a.m. Monday He rushed into town from his farm one mile east and gave the alarm by ringing the fire bell

Cause of the fire is unknown The building and contents were partially covered with insurance but the fire caused a great loss not only to the Sam Sutters but to the village as well.

BUILDINGS UP AT DRUM

Building permits issued for the first three months in the city of Drumheller are running well ahead of the pace set during the January-March period of 1961 In the first 90 days of this year, permits exceeded the corresponding figure of last year by $16,111. City works superintendent Al Guppy said that permits valued at $52,000 were issued in March, as compared to $38,975 in the same of 1961. The three month total this year comes to $117,700 well up over the $101,589 figure of last year

Indications are that Drumheller will establish a new record this year in the value of building permits issued.

GREEN ACRES

By District Agriculturist Walter McNary

Another Look at 2,4-D and MCPA

Both 2-4-D and MCPA have been in use for approximately 15 years. It might seem reasonable to assume that everything possible has been learned about the uses and actions of these herbicides but such is not the case New uses and methods of use continue to be introduced but the standard practices are very often wrongly

As a general rule MCPA is less harsh to crops than is 2,4-D and therefore MCPA should be considered for use in such crops as flax and oats. Only when the weeds present are not susceptible to MCPA should 2,4-D be used in these crops. When 2,4-D is used in flax, as for example to control Russian thistle, the treatment should be given before the flax is three inches tall and the spray volume increased from the usual four gallons per acre to 10 or more gallons

Even wheat and barley can be injured by 2,4-D and MCPA, and for best results the timing of the application is of considerable importance Treatment should be given only during the "safe" period unless the weed infestation is so dense that the only alternative is to plough down the crop

Much has been said about the volatility of the ester formulations, particularly the esters of 2,4-D As a means of retaining the herbicide in the crop area, safety and also to reduce the vapor hazard to susceptible crops, garden plants and ornamentals, low-volatile esters of 2,4-D are being marketed

These low-volatile esters overcome the problem of vapour drift but the spray droplets are as subject to wind drift as are the droplets of any other mixture Therefore, the low-volatile esters must be used with as much caution as the other forms of 2,4-D when the wind is blowing

2,4-D and MCPA are not the only herbicides that can be used on the farm Many other materials are available for specific purposes or for use in particular areas Consideration should be given to the use of other materials when non-susceptible weeds or susceptible crops are involved

The label on the herbicide container is intended to be more than ornamental The label provides valuable information to the purchaser and should be read thoroughly and the instructions heeded

The World of Trees . . .

By T. H. Newman

In my notes on trees I seem to have run out on all those I know personally.

There are many more trees of use to man Some like tea, cultivated 2,500 years B.C

In modern times from India and China and the adventures of the clipper ship Captain Bligh and the Bounty brought breadfruit trees to the West Indies

In 1876, from up the Amazon in Brazil, seeds of the Hevea rubber plant) were gathered. They appeared to be perishable, and were rushed to Liverpool by steamer, then to London and a heated greenhouse in Kew

Portable greenhouses were sent to Ceylon from which the present plantations were started It's actually a rather small broad leafed evergreen up to about 50 feet high I saw them in the Malay

One man in a shock was looking after a bunch of trees on hilly ground I gathered he was not making much. The bark is cut on a slope and the latex greenish white stuff drips into a cup. The Goodyear Co. owns large plantations there.

The bushes look like English box, a small not evergreen bush Only the tender leaves are used

Coffee probably originated in Ethiopia It is now the chief money crop of Brazil. It would take much more time and more knowledge than I have to enumerate all the trees of use to man

I will finish my notes with possibly the oddest tree I have known, and certainly of no use to man It is the Indian Banyan tree, in the Botanical grounds of the contents of the contain ed are in best serve the intended purposes. The main considerations are to use the materials at the correct rate and at the proper time otherwise unsatisfactory results will occur and weed control will be far less than should be expected

Tertary Bookwheat

Alberta's supervision of soils and agricultural [illegible] K Lotsas, strongly advises farmers in that province to avoid planting any seed containing tartaric buckwheat. Investing in certified seed is the safest way of ensuring that the many areas of this province which are not yet contaminated remain free from this weed

Many [illegible] grain seeds are used in this way the farmer hand cleaning devices is rarely time checking the seed if there is any doubt about tartary buckwheat being present A good way of checking is to spread the grain on white paper If tartary buckwheat is found you could be in for serious trouble later on Very thorough cleaning at a good seed cleaning plant might remove this weed from oats and barley but complete removal from wheat is almost impossible

No grain containing tartary buckwheat can be certified for seed Furthermore there is only a very small tolerance for tartary buckwheat in commercial grain For example, not more than five seeds of this weed are allowed in about a pound of top grade grain

In commercial grades of wheat [illegible] buckwheat darkens the flour and in rusting barley it adversely affects the malt Top grade oats containing the weed cannot be used for rolled oats or other processed products

Tartary buckwheat, which is already established in a field, can be controlled and prevented from reseeding itself by whatever crops such as early maturing barley planted in June and seeding the field to a forage crop for several years The herbicide 2-4-D ester 4 lbs an active ingredient to the acre is an effective weapon against tartary buckwheat, provided the weed is sprayed in the early stage of growth

Mr Lobay urges farmers who have a tartary buckwheat problem or some are not acquainted with this weed consult their district agriculturist District agriculturists also have information on sources of clean seed

The Editor
The Lacombe Globe

Dear Sir:

The recent suggestion by Mrs Rose Wilkinson that towns with fluoridated water have signs to warn their visitors is proof of the old adage that if you wag long enough you will eventually get the point [illegible] Mrs Wilkinson is one enthusiastic booster of the Pure Water Society

The people of Red Deer for Mrs Wilkinson's benefit, are proud of their fluoridated water and they are proud of themselves in that they were sensible enough and cared enough for the [illegible] to vote [illegible]

Will not the city of Red Deer honor this woman by taking up at full speed her one single utterance of common sense on this subject of fluoridation"

Won't the towns of St Albert Wetaskiwin, Lacombe and others all of whom have natural or artificial fluoridated water take up a similar programa"

The present generation of children on this continent has largely been deprived of fluoridation benefits by fear-mongering societies such as the Pure Water Society This evil will only be undone when larger numbers of the public become more educated on the subject.

The towns in Alberta with natural and artificially fluoridated water have a great opportunity and duty to hasten this education.

The writer pledges himself to $25 00 donations to such of the first two towns who "warn" their visitors of their fluoridated water.

Lightning Causes Grass Fire On Alix Farm

ALIX Mr. Carroll reported quite an unusual occurrence on his farm situated just west when a vivid flash of lightning caused the dry grass around the field to burst into a blaze. It it had not been checked, serious damage would have followed. Fortunately a neighbor Mr. Ott was passing nearby and hurried to the burn and were just managed to put it out immediately. Such an occurrence reveals the extreme dryness of the season and the threat lightning is under such conditions.

Bonnie on the local lakes are becoming a customary sight, and their hunting never fails to impress all who are fortunate enough to see the graceful, sparkling, white birds flash over the smooth clear water on a bright morning.

The residents of Lake Street appreciate the fine improvement being carried out on the lake shore recently by the municipal park board. It is pretty green, which adds to the landscape immensely.

Tom Alix pub's appreciated Mr Eric Jamieson's giving them the opportunity to help themselves by cleaning their old lot cleaning up the golf course On Wednesday and Thursday at last week the rub pack turned out in full force and under the supervision of their club-master, Wilson McDermand, and his assistants willingly did a good job cleaning up the rubbish.

Trucks were provided for hauling debris, and cars for transportation. Mrs. Jamieson gave an unexpected treat by opening and heating the clubhouse, where she kindly invited the boys and treated them to hot chocolate and doughnuts.

Proceeds will be used to help defray cost of camp supplies Anyone also having a project on which the boys could work, may by contact the club-master or his assistants.

Parents are asked to remember the monthly meeting Thursday evening, May 10, at 8:00 o'clock. Please arrange to attend.

Sympathy is offered Mrs. Bissey, Mrs. Bedford and Mrs. Simmons and family in the recent bereavement in the death of a loved nephew and cousin, Mr. Beardsell in Red Deer last week end

Clive Reporter Caustic on Poor Spring Weather

CLIVE — By the time The Globe is printed for this week's edition, it will only be 10 days before spring (What spring?) is over and officially summer will commence. It seems that of recent years that part of Alberta has missed out on a "real" spring.

It's a long time since our spring has been a normal one with balmy days, then showers etc. We have gone from near zero called "spring" into summer. This year the spring season has been cold, blustering an abnormally long cold winter. Cold winds do not make for enthusiastic gardening.

Congratulations to Bessie Kehler on winning the trophy for the 4-H speaking contest. Also congratulations to Jimlee Senecal, who came second, for the other Clive members, who made a good effort and received honorable mentions. They had a very efficient leader Clara Senecal.

Such disappointing weather! A good block, promising rain cloud comes up only to be dispersed by strong winds. This has been the pattern for the past weeks. A little rain and snow mixed fell here Wednesday evening, and lasted a few exact minutes.

Snowmakers take note. The lanes would beat a path to the door of the first man who would manufacture a cool, light garden hose — one that would keep us dirt and dust. We wonder why some bright, ambitious guy has not thought up a garden hose long before now. It would certainly be a boon and a time saver.

A gas furnace has been installed in Clive United church, and extensive remodelling has been done recently.

High winds on Friday caused soil drifting, and the day, though sunny, had limited visibility due to dust.

Fire Squelched

About 10:00 a.m. Friday, the fire siren sounded when a fire was evident at the rear of the pool room here. It was confined to the two lean-to and was quickly under control. It is believed that hot ashes were blown into the building during the strong wind. It could have been disastrous, as all the buildings in that block would have been endangered if the fire had not been controlled so soon.

Farm Fire

A very short time after the fire in Clive at rear of the pool room, a call came for help, and the fire wagon from Carl Glenn of the Sargent district. Several small buildings were burned. The truck was back in by noon, as fire was under control.

Instead of buying a well-known piece of music, "The Rebuns Rebuns" purported it would be appropriate to call it "The Winter's Return". It is only a matter of six weeks until summer officially commences, and so far we have had no sure spring to the year.

A mixture of rain and snow gave some much needed moisture to Clive district. Even mud is a welcome change from dust. The rain began Sunday afternoon and just about a quarter of an inch from the community it fell as snow, blanketing that area in white. Quite a distance, a longer period of rainfall would have been appreciated, but at any rate we [illegible]

Carl Glenn, in talking about the fire at his farm on Friday morning, said but for the help of friends and neighbors who came first everywhere around, and the timely help of the Clive firefighting equipment, that he would have suffered a complete loss.

Mrs. G. A. Fretwell addressed the Edmonton district WCTU at Beverly United church in Edmonton, last Thursday.

Those living south of town report that they did not get the congratulations that Clive received on Sunday.

Blindman District News

BLINDMAN — Miss Shirley Weeden of Calgary visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weeden over the week end.

Mrs. Art Brewster and Dale are spending a few days in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Beathcoff and daughter of Medicine Hat have been visiting Mrs. Beathcoff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ironside of Calgary have left on a holiday to the Seattle World's Fair and the west coast before leaving for Whitehorse where Mr. Ironside will be working.

Mrs. Kevin Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Brewer were home for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rabel have moved from Calgary to Blackfalds and are now living on the old Melvin Amundsen farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stanley and family of Edmonton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stanley.

Two Shepherd of Calgary spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Long.

Mrs. Owen Eggen of Red Deer has been busy enumerating in the district, in preparation for the June elections.

Dennis Hueppelheuser spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Hueppelheuser.

Douglas Smith of Champion was a week end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hueppelheuser.

Flight Lieut. and Mrs. Alan Sather and family of Penhold visited at the home of Mr. and Mr. Martin Hueppelheuser on Sunday.

The meeting of the Clive Baptist WMS was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Edmonds on Wednesday, May 2. There was a good attendance. President Mrs. J. Cole and Mrs. G. A. Fretwell reported on the recent Baptist convention held in Calgary. Mrs. R. Rainbirth took the "Study Topic". A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. S. Grove and Mrs. Harold Hibsbech.

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Morton were Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Morton and family of Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morton and boys of Red Deer and Mr. and Mrs. John Morton and family of New Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Northcott and Mrs. Asaac Wagner were visitors to Rocky Mountain House, guests of former Clive residents, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Dunton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenworthy spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod of Dunsdale. Mr. McLeod was one time the principal of Clive school, and will be retiring from the teaching profession in June. They will make their home in Calgary.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Emma Gschwendtner were her son Lewis of Mirror. Mrs. Gladys Hounsah and Mrs. Annie Bachur also of Mirror and Mrs. Heptner her daughter and four grandchildren, all of Erickville. Mrs. Heptner recently lived at Chase, B.C., and now returned to Bellville to reside there.

Old Makes Way For the New

Construction of the new Lacombe Co-operative Association building is underway on the corner of 51 street and the C & E road was demolished in the space of a few short hours on Wednesday of last week. It was built about 1906. The corner lot will become the home of the proposed new $40,000 farm implement parlor being built by Gunn Farm Equipment Ltd.

The new building will be 44 feet long on one side, and 102 feet long on the other. There will be an ample parking area 24 x 96 adjacent to the funeral home. The undertakers hope to have the home in operation by mid-July. Staff [illegible]

A Deep One

● Councillor Wes Jash on, chairman of the public health committee was the target for complaints from fellow councillors at Monday's meeting over the number of potholes on town streets this spring.

"Then there's another hole as 52 street west of the post office," councillor Wilf Hunt chimed in. "Why it's as big as a man hole."

"It is a man hole confessed councillor Jashson.

P.S. The town grader was unveiling this almost at 7:00 a.m. Tuesday.

Bakery Business To Open in Town

Application to operate a bakery in the former Jack's Men's Wear premises in Lacombe was received from Nicholas J. Van Buul and approved by town council at its regular meeting Monday night.

The business is to be known as Town and Country Bakery, and Mr. Van Buul said it have taken built by N. C. Andersen on Ellis property south of the hospital. Initial plans for an addition to the Anglican church were studied.

Deputy mayor Ivan Stoneback was in the chair in the absence of mayor R. A. Gordon.

north of the county workshop on 36 avenue. The problem was referred to committee. Mr. J. Mellroy and his committee.

Council gave approval to a building plan for an addition to the rectory of the Catholic church, and to an $11,000 dwelling to be family.

Council considered a request from Remis Hansen for a sewer service statement to a 20-unit [illegible] parks he proposes building at

Businessmen's Delegation Objects to "No Parking"

A three-man delegation attended the meeting of town council Monday night to request a revision of the recent by-law banning parking on the south side of 50 avenue, west of 51 street.

John Gilmour, Lorne Shelley and Harold Hemmerich, told council this "no parking" ruling created a hardship on their customers and affected their business.

They suggested two alternatives: parallel parking on both sides of the street instead of angle parking on one side, or else the introduction of 30-minute parallel parking in front of their businesses for the convenience of shoppers.

They also asked if something could be done to improve the appearance of the vacant lot on the corner of 50 avenue and 51 street which could be "a good parking lot".

These questions were left with councillor Murray Boyce and his committee.

Adjourn After Midnight

It was a busy night for council which dealt with a 25-item agenda and heard two other delegations.

Archie Van Eaton was granted to call council's permission to place a bench on the sidewalk on 50 avenue in front of his barber shop, "similar to the Lion's Bench there" Permission was granted, so long as the bench does not obstruct the walk.

John Benzewell, representing Nesco Aluminum Ltd of Calgary was in attendance to bid on repairs to the roof of jubilee stadium. He suggested two sheets of aluminum over existing shingles and shingles to make the roof waterproof.

The matter was left with councillor Ivan Stoneback and his committee pending the arrival of other tenders.

Three-Day Bull Sale Here Next Week

A total of 410 purebred bulls of the three beef breeds are listed in the sales catalogue for the third annual sale to be held at the Lacombe pavilion next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 22 - 23 - 24.

The sale officially starts at 10:30 a.m. next Tuesday when Aberdeen-Angus go under the block. This will be preceded by the judging of Angus at 8:00 a.m.

Program continues with the judging of Shorthorns (70 head) at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, with the sale to start at about 12:30 p.m. the same day.

On the final day, May 24, judging of all Herefords will commence at 8:00 a.m., with the sale to start at approximately 10:30 a.m. There are 30 polled herefords and 125 horned herefords in the sale.

These bulls come from some of the finest herds in the province, and a big influx of visitors is expected in town.

Auctioneers are veteran Clarence Dawson of Bentley, Murray MacKenzie of Lacombe, and Garfield Ogilvie of Tees. Ring men are W. T. Dawson of Bentley and Al Chiswell of Lacombe.

The central Alberta agricultural society assists in the sale, and secretary J. A. McKinley of Lacombe advises that an official of the Canadian national livestock records from Ottawa will attend the sale and prepare immediate transfers of registration certificates to buyers.

Rose Assessor

The worthy of the assessors who have carefully checked and noted houses in the village recently is evidenced with a somewhat ghostly air, as everyone wonders what the difference their estimates will make in the yearly taxes.

Overseas Expansion

Friends of Mr and Mrs Lyman Bailey are glad to hear that their grandchildren Larry and Dianne Huntley, are recovering satisfactorily from severe burns they suffered when a gas stove exploded in the suite in their home in Prince

Mr and Mrs. Allan Huntley and Dan Bailey, who are with the RCAF in France, had gone to Paris for the evening with neighbors after putting the children to bed and requesting their hostess to call them if anything untoward were to happen.

About 12:30 a.m the landlady and her husband were aroused by a terrific bang upstairs and when they ascended they duly discovered the suite in a mass of flame A burning drape fell over the living room couch and third degree burns, while Dianne suffered first and second degree burns

Both children were rushed to the hospital in Vegreville in time in less than ten minutes after the accident The doctor stated that fortunately the scars will disappear in time, and the Huntleys who lost their possessions in the fire have secured a small house near the base.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, William Henry Brown who passed away May 17, 1953

You are only on God to day
I hope to day I know
I visit you dear husband
And place flowers on you grave
I talk to you dear husband
But you never answer back
I watch the hill we used to climb
We were always together
And sometimes I feel dear
I hope you feel me near
By Mrs. Brown and family

In loving memory of my dear husband, John H. McCormick who passed away May 21, 1961.

Sweet memories are simple each
Like dew on the grass at dawn
Like spring and 6 weeks
Like a bird that sings
Just a memory from dusk to dawn
Sadly missed by wife and family

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all our friends and neighbours for coming so quickly after our call for help. Many thanks to the men and all who came to help us save the barn.

Mr and Mrs C. Olson

We would like to thank all our friends and neighbours for their kindness in our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. Beulah Burk, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Burk and family

I wish to thank the Bentley community staff for the good care and kindness to me while a patient there. Also thanks to the members of the Bentley U.F.A. and I extend heartfelt appreciation to my wife and visitors who thanks to their kindness helped to make the burden of illness lighter.

— A. Rhimd, Box 115, Sidney

Thank you for such nice cards and birthday gifts received while in hospital.

Mrs. Ed Wilson

We would like to thank all our friends and neighbours for their many kindnesses to our home in Pine Lake during the sudden passing of our son-in-law.

Gordon Club Float Exchange Attracts 32 Visitors

Regular meeting of Lacom- bea Garden and was held in the basement of the Town Hall on Monday, May 7th at 8:00 p.m. with 32 members present Dennis Buchanan presiding. The following committees were heard:

Hostess Aiken on the picnic- tees Buchanan on grade three students Jon Aiken on the prin- cipal for the picnic Invitations O Yeomi on the treat of children- tains on outdoors gardens and Mrs Jack Martin on annuals and perennials.

D.A. Dow introduced the guest speaker, Jay Rogerson of Lacombe Nurseries, who gave an interest- ating talk and demonstration on grafting. Jay pointed out that the main reasons for grafting were to obtain desirable plant species or to multi- ply varieties which do not read- ily propagate.

The meeting concluded with the annual plant exchange be- tween members and mutual ship premium distribution over a cup of coffee. The premium dis- tributing the year was Merle Gleam (lettuce) supplied by La- combe Nurseries.

Blackfalds Couple Wed Fifty Years

Congratulations go this week to Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Tayles of Blackfalds, formerly of Lacombe district, on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, May 6th.

All friends are welcome be- tween the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. with a dance to follow. And don't forget to bring your appetites.

They were married in Lacombe on May 14, 1912 at Rosedale Lane and then, just a few days later, they moved to Lacombe district where they farmed for many years.

He married the former Rose Bloomfield on May 14, 1912 at Rosedale Lane and then, just a few days later, they moved to Lacombe district where they farmed for many years.

The first three children born to the union were Joyce now Mrs. Len Beach of Stauffer, Ronald of Edmonton, and Peter who was killed in an unfortunate accident four years ago.

The family moved to Canada in 1926 and Mr. Tayles farmed in the Elkhorn district nine miles straight north of Lacombe from 1926-43, on the farm now operated by A. Twisted.

Two daughters were born here Edith, now Mrs. John Davies of Wetaskiwin, and Joan, Mrs. Wal- lace Graves of Blackfalds. They have 17 grandchildren, and one great grandson.

Mr Tayles joined the army in 1941, and served with the veter- an's guard "looking after prison- ers most of the time" at places like Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Beebe

He received his discharge in 1945 After spending a year at Courtenay on Vancouver Island, he and his wife returned to take up permanent residence at Black- falds

Mrs. Tayles, who will be 70 next October, is in good health and still interested in church of England work She was active in the Red Shield and Salvation Army during the years at La- combe

Mr Tayles, who was 70 last November, is also in excellent health He belongs to the church and to the Canadian Legion. He is fond of gardening, and keeps up a beautiful landscape which at- tests to his words, "I love trees."

He also loves his pipe, which he- smoked continuously during the interview Mr Tayles said he's al- ways been a kidded about it, but I don't think it hurts me "

The Globe joins the district in extending best wishes to the hap- py couple

Lincoln (14 years and under) team had these first game Sunday at the hall, winning against West Branch.

WHEN WE GET PICTURE TELEPHONES WE'RE GOING TO GET A LOT OF FUN OUT OF CALLING WOOD NOW HERE.

But no matter how much advancement science gives us, there are still a few basic facts which remain unchanged. One is experience and know-how and we have both when it comes to doing machine work. Then there's service and the machine in the world can give you service like we can at our machine shop. Then there's equipment and we have the equipment to do the job you need done efficiently economically, quickly.

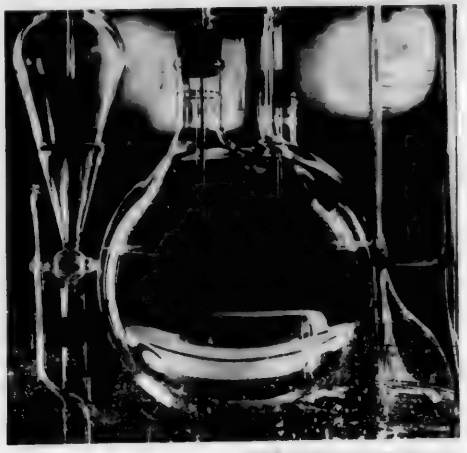
90% of all oil company product research in Canada is done by Imperial



The fuel you run on, the future are being designed today in Imperial's ultra-modern research laboratories at Sarnia, by scientists and technicians who are working to ensure that gasolines, for today's cars and tomorrow's, are tailored to top performance. In the last ten years alone, Imperial has spent more than $15 million to build the equipment needed to bring you first-class fuels.

At Imperial Oil's laboratories at Sarnia, Ontario, more than 200 scientists and technicians are working to improve present petroleum products—and to develop new ones. Their research covers many fields, from gasolines to hour-shold detergents. Another 130 scientists and technicians are working at Imperial's Calgary laboratories on ways to find and produce more Canadian crude oil and natural gas. Imperial does more research than all other oil companies in Canada combined.

Tees Farmer Gets $313 Award After Accident

A farmer of the Tees district whose truck was in collision with a school bus that was swinging out of a farmer's driveway, late in the afternoon of March 2, 1960 was awarded a damage claim of $313.00 following a hearing before Judge D M Gardiner in district court in Red Deer Tuesday.

Plaintiff, represented by H F MacDonald, was Kenneth Knight Defendant in the action, bus driver Stanley Lloyd Heald of Clive, representing J A Berkingham of Edmonton, lost a counter-claim for $75, the damages to the school bus.

Judge Gardiner said he thought the main onus was on the bus driver, who was not paying strict enough attention as he came out of the farm driveway after letting off the Knight children Mr Knight was returning home and the collision occurred as he turned into his driveway.

Preserve Winter Clothing Carefully

It would seem contradictory at this point to start us by talking about preparing for next winter but, careful storage of winter clothing at this time of year is a must.

Woollen clothing should be stored clean in an airtight place.

The moth is a little insect with a very bad reputation A look at some of its habits may save disasterous results.

Wool is not the only fabric for which moths have a yearning but also fur, feathers and wool blends. They won't touch clean cotton, linen or any of the synthetics.

The full grown moth does not feed on fabric at all It is the eggs they lay that develop into worm-like larvae that actually do the damage When you see a moth flying around, that is the danger signal Check pockets, cuffs, and folds in stored garments for eggs and then take action.

Dry cleaning kills all stages of moths but doesn't forestall any future moth damage If a moth proof process is applied to clothes, it lasts only until the garments are laundered or dry cleaned again

Fumigants or moth killers have to be concentrated to be effective Clothing stored with moth ery flak in boxes, closets or bags must be airtight Tape can be used to close boxes or cover cracks and perforations to assure safety

Moth crystals evaporate The length of time that they are effective depends on the airtightness of the closet or storage container It is a good idea to check after a few months to replenish the supply if necessary

Don't depend on a cedar chest as being the absolute answer to the moth problem. It can be but only when tightly sealed and if the clothing placed in it is moth-free.

Moths can thrive at any time of the year They like warm dark places and buried woollen over winter ages them too

It is a good idea to label any non-transparent storage container as then, one article can be located with a minimum of effort

Containers with moth preventives should be put at the top of the closet on garment bag so vapours will filter down through the garments

Alarming, but true! Every year, moths destroy enough wool to clothe approximately one million people.

Ghost town or just asleep?

On the surface, a ghost town and a sleeping community look much alike But there's a tremendous difference beneath the surface . . . a paused but healthy economy . . . a population asleep but ready for the next day.

Another invisible factor, just below the surface, is insurance. Insurance in its many forms protects the community when it is awake or asleep . . . against the risk of loss from fire, accident theft, liability claims and the multitude of other hazards we all face from day to day.

Without the protection which insurance provides, most thriving Canadian municipalities might well be ghost towns. Without that protection, which comes only when the actuarial losses of the few can be spread among the many, most of the enterprises which make our Canadian cities, towns and villages could not have been undertaken. The tremendous financial risks of sudden disaster would have made each enterprise too one-sided a gamble with time.

Greyhound Offers Special Bus Tours To the World Fair

This year the United States will have the biggest ever influx of western Canadian visitors and their destination will be Seattle's Century 21 World's Fair according to the general traffic manager of Greyhound Lines of Canada Ltd

F L. Bingen said that his company is finding the World's Fair the most popular tourist drawing card in years Special bus tours originating in Calgary have been sold out within hours, and others are still pouring in.

With an eye of a clairvoyant to the "World's Fair Fever" the company has just announced thirty extra tours to cope with the demand. Most of those are nine-day or 13 day escorted tours.

The fact that bus tours eliminate the necessity of [illegible] reason for their popularity In Seattle, both passengers will be accommodated in new airport rooms, with kitchenettes [illegible] table baths. In most cases the [illegible] won't have to use it, [illegible] swimming pool though we can't guarantee that to every one," said the Greyhound spokesman

Five tours on which seats are available left Calgary on May 17 Full bookings are expected on all the tours which are scheduled to run until mid September

"Ladon" colloidal silica particles coat the nylon fibers and prevent dry soil from adhering The un-attached mill is then ready to be examined away

Commercial dry cleaning of rugs is removing all of the "Ladon" thereby a "Ladon" sham pen should be used on the carpet or it will have to be treated again after the cleaning

The applications of silica produces a harsh hand in the carpet and decreases the light fast ness of some dyes

There are many uses of Ladon colloidal silica in industry, such as fabric anti-slip or water setting treatment, and improvement in adhesion to fibers and fabrics However the Much we are interested in is the ability to increase water resistance

DuPont's have developed two types of water repellent finishes using "Ladon" The first resistant is known under the trade name of "Elvanol" Elvanol is a polyvinyl acetate emulsion An other product developed by Du Pont is "Elvanol" This contains polyvinyl alcohol Both the Elvanol and Elvanol show a remarkable increase in water repellency The repellency of water are stains that are soon borne will also be repelled. This is of any fabric that is water proof or water-resistant

The third type of repellers are those that are used to stop grease borne stains This type was developed by the Minnesota mining and manufacturing co and is known under the trade name of Scotchgard Scotch Stain Repeller The treatment of utilizes the compounds known as fluorochemicals

The characteristics of Fluoro chemicals are utilized in the formation of Scotchgard Stain Repeller The repeller is odorless colorless and completely harmless

It is applied by coating each and every fiber with invisible film so that the breathing quality and appearance is not effected on the treated fabric Scotchgard can be applied to any light or heavy weight fabric

The fibers are treated that a continuous film is formed which means the finishes to soak in quite literal the staining agents, such as the water or oil that they can be gently blotted away As for the types of stain which not really seep down among the fibers they can be removed with ordinary detergent spot remover without leaving a ring and water borne stains are removed simply with a damp cloth

Furthermore the oil-repellency of the finishes remains fast through at least five commercial dry cleanings in view of the stain repellency which has cut down the frequency required for the dry cleaning, this indicates that Scotchgard finish offers a life assurance to the wearer Scotchgard can be used effectively on men's suits, jackets slacks and ties, on women's coats, suits, sportswear and in the home on all types of upholstered furniture and drapes

In conclusion, I would like to emphasize the difference between unresisted water repellent and oil and water repellent fabrics

1. Untreated fabric Both the oil and water splashes will be soaked up immediately Dry cleaning will remove the water stain or a water borne stain but the grease will leave a lasting ring

2. Water repellent fabric treated with water repellent compound, trade name may be "Permel Plus," or others The water will be repelled but again the oil stain will remain even after dry cleaning

3 Water and oil repellent fabric A fabric sample treated with Scotgard in comparison will repel both oil and waterborne stains The oil stain must be blotted up carefully shortly after the contact takes place

The various repellers are useful in their own way to the consumer and the property of effectiveness of each should be considered and one suited to purchasing a suit, skirt or [illegible]

Oil Industry Rapped At Lakeside Meeting

Elnora, near the "alphabet" area, is the centre of renewed activities on development oil wells in the Joffre field are being cleaned up to a depth of 6,000 feet, landowners held Tuesday evening at the Lakeside hall

The farmers complained about the manner in which the oil pump bases were being buried, and voiced disgust at the growing piles of pipe and refuse left by crews at the sites of wells in the Joffre area

One farmer cited a case where [illegible] was left [illegible] but failed to produce any gravel for a period of five years in spite of heavy fertilization and the farmer is paying taxes on this land of five acres or more on the basis that the land is of agricultural worth."

Farm Land

Before the conclusion of the meeting, a local organization affiliated with the provincial rifle [illegible] ground rights and pastry league was formed, with Henry Lembicz president and Ken Morton vice-president.

Officers elected included Harry Korrit as secretary and Henry Lendry, M. Keller and Harry Munce as directors The latest executive will be expanded to include other landowners in the area.

Dr. Leo Laycraft, provincial geologist, was present to discuss the various aspects of the oil producing area which make up the Joffre field.

Roger Lebel, provincial president of the citizens' mineral rights and native league was present at the meeting and stated that his league had already arranged a meeting with Canadian petroleum association officials to discuss the shape in which oil well rights should be left.

This is a rather unique case in Alberta he stressed. Because the Joffre field was one of the first to be abandoned in the province" He emphasized that because of this, clear understanding should be reached with oil companies so that oil well sites should be left in a condition suitable to both the landowner and the companies involved.

He emphasized that at the meeting to be held in Calgary, the citizens' league would demand that the heavy concrete well bases should be removed from the land completely and not merely buried, that the gravel around well sites and on access roads should be disposed of satisfactorily

Mr LeBoul also outlined the aims and objectives of the league which he claimed called for a "better deal" for Alberta in oil rights profits for all Albertans, better surface rights protection, and a 6% gross mineral rights for all landowners.

A resolution was presented to the meeting which outlined various points which should be taken up with petroleum association officials at the meeting in Calgary on May 30

The resolution called for a proper cleanup and restoration job on all abandoned oil well sites It referred to the provincial conservation board regulations as "inadequate" in dealing with this problem and stated fleth that well sites roads and pipelines are being left in an "unsatisfactory" condition

As an added fillip the resolution calls for continuance of rental payments on the well site land until the clean up job is completed to the satisfaction of the land owner.

About 30 landowners of the Joffre area attended the meeting

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Ida May, who passed away May 27, 1958.
We watched you suffer, we cried to see you go.
All we can do is say God bless you.
When the time comes we shall meet you.
Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by daughter Dolores, Ted and grandchildren Russell, Dennis, Bobbie and Charles. 20-1-tfc

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Rev. Bethel Harry, also Grace Pratt Model and those that sent flowers and cards of kindness at the time of mother Alice Hamby's death. Mr. McMillan and sons wish to extend their deep appreciation to those that helped in any way to make it a very happy 50th anniversary for us.
— Charlie and Kathleen Lund 24-1-p

We would like to thank all our friends for the lovely cards and flowers that were given to us and to the Benjamin friends for using their cars to the Beattie funeral and for their gift and the purse I know. We would like to thank everyone who helped in any way to make it a very happy 50th anniversary for us.
— Charlie and Kathleen Lund 24-1-p

Mr and Mrs Frank Tolboe of Morinville on the occasion of their golden wedding wish to thank their family for the wonderful gift they received. Also to the Blackfalds community and Ukhaw for the wonderful shower tree. To people who have offered and the ladies who decorated it. For the wonderful gifts of flowers including the Lacombe Globe, also the beautiful cards. Not forgetting the Baptists and Mr. and Mrs Evans for the music for the dance.
If we have accidently left any one out please forgive.
The money tree we are hoping to use for a trip to the United States and friends the first together in fifty years. Again we thank you all for the most memorable in our entire age. Again thank you one and all. 24-1-p

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the merchants for their generous contribution to the rummage sale.

Music Festival In County Schools

The crowd photographed informally at the Lacombe elementary school auditorium last Thursday is a sample of parent and family interest in the music festival held at various county schools. Arrangements for the festival were made by Gerry Edwards, county music supervisor, and adjudicators were on hand to offer advice and constructive criticism of numbers presented by students in the junior grades

Grade Two Pupils On Stage

Here is Miss Darlene Beckman's grade two class at Lacombe presenting a rhythm band number for a big audience in the elementary school auditorium. The children supplied a varied musical program with choruses, folk dances, action songs, and some piano and instrumental.

NEW BOARD MEMBER

Horace Boloy has been appointed representative for the Lacombe and District board of trade on the central Alberta industrial development board replacing Alex Ellis who has been in ill health the past winter. At a meeting last week, the board of trade included a word of appreciation to Mr Ellis for his valuable service as Lacombe delegate on the board for several years.

Travel Bureau Planning Active Summer Season

A demonstration of genuine friendliness", the bureau hopes, will encourage tourists to enjoy their visit here, prolong their stay, return again and recommend Alberta to their friends.

The goal for the industry is to double its volume and value annually.

Food retailers, storekeepers, restaurant owners and service station operators, now their operations could easily handle increased tourist business without additional expense of overhead, would share in the bulk of the dollars extended. Retail and department stores could expect to grow an additional $35,000,000 annually, restaurants and food stores about $22,000,000, and service stations and garages about $12,000,000, of which one million dollars would be gasoline tax.

Roadside purchases and refreshments would put another five million tourist dollars into circulation, novelties and souvenirs would account for three million, and revenue to hotel and resort keepers would swell by $17,000,000. Another $7,000,000 would be spent on transportation.

Eventually, according to the travel bureau, tourist dollars would reach all phases of Alberta's economy as the primary recipients of the revenue redistributed it to buy supplies, pay taxes and employ labor. One of the first industries to be benefitted by tourists spending would be agriculture; farmers would profit almost immediately from the increased sale of butter, eggs, meat, cheese and vegetables.

We Ask You to Help Build Tourism in Alberta . . .

- Be friendly, courteous, helpful all year round.
- Tell visitors about your local area's activities and attractions.
- Invite them into your home. ● Show them your garden – your prize hog – dairy herd.
- Invite them to your dance.
- Get acquainted with them in your campground.
- Share the secret about your pet fishing spot.
- Erect local directional signs to points of interest.
- Point up! Clean up! Smarten up!

But Mostest - Be Friendly, Be Courteous, Be Helpful

Visitors are coming... Let's be friendly!

Vacationers spent more than $70,000,000.00 in Alberta last year. This year will be bigger and better if we are all more FRIENDLY, HELPFUL AND COURTEOUS.

The year-round beauties of foothills, prairie lakes and parklands and the Canadian Rockies make Alberta an all-year playground with skiing in the winter and hunting in the fall adding to the event-filled summer months.

Tourists are YOUR customers: whether or not they're satisfied customers is YOUR business. Your business grows in volume and prosperity if your customers enjoy their visit here, prolong their stay, return again, and recommend Alberta to their friends.

MAKE THE TOURISTS' PLEASURE YOUR BUSINESS!

our anniversary SALE

Leal's

This week, Leal's observes its 13th year of business in Lacombe . . . . 13 years of building confidence and a larger stock to provide residents of central Alberta with finer merchandise at reasonable prices. Thirteen is considered by some to be an unlucky number . . . . but there's nothing but good luck — and good shopping values, in this 13th Anniversary Sale which starts today. Thousands of dollars of first grade merchandise has been marked down drastically . . . our way of saying "Thank You" for the support and patronage which we have enjoyed during the past 156 months of neighborly service.

The Challenge To Youth

(By Elaine Collisson, grade ten)

[illegible] enough to have been blessed with a form of life known as democracy. This did not occur by chance, nor was it lovely given to us. Our ancestors had to work for every freedom, often giving up their lives that we may remain free. And we, the adults of tomorrow must carry on from where former greeks have finished. We owe it to them to continue their good work. Where there is POVERTY we must help. Where there is DISEASE we must find. Where there is ILLITERACY we must teach. Where there is TYRANNY we must free. Where there is HATRED we must love. Where there is WAR we must bring peace. Where there is COMMUNISM we must sow the seeds of democracy and Christianity.

An almost impossibly large task as set forth for Youth, for it is only the training of youth that God can say this to help achieve His goal.

The Case For Esperanto

(By Peter McCormick, grade ten)

The word Esperanto is of far too little concern to most Canadians. All through school, the only mention it receives is a catty phrase hidden in the Grade nine language text. Our library has but one book that even mentions Esperanto.

What is Esperanto? Esperanto is a language [illegible] the world's answer. Invented by Dr. L. L. Zamenhoff in 1878, it is the world's simplest language. Shifting all the irregularities and superfluous complexities that plague us on we stream through "Le Frateneo Vornat." The number of rules has been cut to the bone (16) and so far exceptions there aren't any.

Where is Esperanto? It is everywhere. Being an international language, it has followers of all lands and races. Europe and South America are its strongholds, and the Afro Asian nations are rapidly coming to appreciate its promise. No longer the cultural dependence on French and English. With Esperanto, a nation can retain its individuality and pride without being left by the way. We in North America have been slow, some day we may pay for our recalcitrance.

Why should we learn Esperanto? All too well has man shown his aptitude at brutality and war, bloodshed and atrocity all too often has man let the tongue rule his reason. No more! Two world wars have shown us that this must end, and man must mature from hatred and violence to love and peace. An international language while it does not guarantee peace, at least removes many possibilities for misunderstandings. It is only a first step, but a big one.

Esperanto is Esperanto's goal, to supplement, rather than replace, all other languages. It aims to become the world's common second language.

Dr Zamenhoff published his first brochure under the pseudonym "Doctor Esperanto", meaning "one who hopes." The name has carried over to his language, and rightly so. An Esperantist is one who hopes. For improved international relations today, and a world united tomorrow.

Success

(By Betty Graham, grade eleven)

Each person has a different interpretation of the word success. Some people connect it with the building up of a great fortune. Others feel that success is found in having their name in bold letters across the front page of some newspaper. Many, and numerous are the [illegible] make up success for others. Recognition, popularity, athleticism, and fame are all considered big successes by these people.

However success does not necessarily include any of these features. Success actually is the feeling of accomplishment that comes from having done something well.

It is a personal effort for you to get out of something only what you have put into it. The personal satisfaction of having completed a project as well as you could is far more important than being held up for recognition and [illegible] the onlooking world.

Success is not connected entirely with the achieving of small goals. It is a climbing process. The building up of these accomplishments one by one leaves us found only in what you do. As a member of this human race you have a right and duty to struggle and battle to succeed in happiness. It is what you personally have done to develop the talents and abilities which nature has bestowed upon you and only when you have developed these endowments to their fullest will you be able to honestly say "I have been a success".

National Pride

(By Elaine Scrabe, grade twelve)

A recent editorial in McLean's Magazine commenting on a very important Canadian issue, stated "Not enough Canadians care two pins about it, one way or the other." Unfortunately this is uncontestably true, not only about this particular issue, but of almost all things of national concern. (Canadians are often not even conversed about last hikes planned by a government, and if they are concerned they are more often unaware of the situation at all!)

This lackadaisical attitude of Canadians [illegible] to white concerning governments, to educators, and, I might add, to parents. Ask any five or ten year old child of normal intelligence and with normal access to television and radio, to tell you the name of the President of the United States and he is identify a picture of him and he will be able to do so, but ask that same child to name and identify a photo of the Prime Minister of Canada and the odds are that he will not be able to do it! This is most certainly not an example of a high level of national pride.

The average Canadian today actually knows more about American Foreign Policy than he knows about Canadian Foreign Policy (he may not even know who the Canadian Minister of External Affairs is!)

My Average Canadian as well up on his Hollywood films but it is very likely that he is under the impression that [illegible] is known as a tolerant Canadian who should be made more aware of their national heritage. We are not educating a generation of young Americans but a generation of [illegible].

[illegible] Schools across the Pledge of Allegiance is the American flag every day of their school life. Surely that is a constant reminder of a national heritage. Canadian school children [illegible] is a flag in the classroom (and often there is not) it is a Union Jack which is not truly the Canadian flag. Until we have a distinct national flag this cannot be remedied, but school children should be made aware of their national responsibilities in some way each day whether it be in the singing of the national anthem or by recognition of the national flag (official or otherwise!)

Canadians should be encouraged in their support of Canadian cultural activities and institutions. (Incidentally, a few more reforms in the CBC might make it slightly more palatable to the average Canadian public!) In general an all out effort by the government, by educators, by communities, and by parents to build up our national pride should be made soon, before it is too late and we lose all of our national distinction!

Canadians—wake up! or these "two pens" about which you don't care, are going to jab you rather painfully [illegible].

Have we a Dairy Princess?

The Alberta dairymen's association, the provincial milk and cream producers association and the Edmonton exhibition association have jointly agreed to sponsor the 1962 dairy princess competition. There are to be contestants from eight zones of the province and these zone winners will compete against each other during the Edmonton exhibition week.

The overall winner will be crowned Alberta dairy princess 1962 and [illegible] competing nationals, competition at the Canadian national exhibition in Toronto during August. The expenses of this trip will be paid by the three joint sponsors.

Requirements must be between 18 and 27 years of age and may be married or single. They must be prepared to demonstrate machine milking and cleaning and must have a pleasing appearance, deportment, poise and self expression.

If any farm community feels they have a young lad, who would make a suitable candidate for a dairy princess, they should contact one of the following zone committee members: D. MacFarlane, Red Deer; R D Prew, Red Deer; W. L. McNary Lacombe. This year's entrants of Red Deer, Lacombe and Rocky Mountain [illegible].

Two Hereford Bulls Top $1,000 Mark

Two bulls topped the thousand-dollar mark at the 1962 bull sale sponsored by the central Alberta agricultural society, and both were for prize Herefords sold at the Lacombe pavilion last Thursday.

A high of $1,200 went to Harry Cutler and Son of Lacombe for the grand champion, Zenito Dooald Basil, purchased by N. T. Dawson of Bentley.

Second high of $1,050 went to Charles A. Cutler of Lacombe for the reserve champion, Zenito Basil, purchased by Neilson Bros., of Bentley.

These two prizes helped establish an average of $673 for each of four Herefords consigned by the Cutlers.

The Hereford breeders did a reasonably good sale, as 100 horned bulls brought a splendid total price of $66,215 for an average of $661.

This was broken down into 88 bulls over 18 months of age which passed $67 686 for an average of $768.67. Eighteen bulls under 18 months grossed $7,740 for an average of $430.

In addition gross sales of $15,289 were paid for 23 polled Herefords for an average of $477.50.

There were many bids over the $700 mark, but boosted average prices and made sales official as well as owners happy.

It was a pleasing finale to an excellent overall sale.

Shorthorns

A spirit of optimism was evident among farmers after the recent spring rains, which seemed to be reflected in the generally high prices paid for purebred stock at the annual bull sale completed at the Lacombe pavilion on Thursday.

Wednesday's auction of 61 Shorthorn bulls grossed $31,400 for an average price of $362.10 Stock breeders noted this was a better figure than that achieved at most other sales in the province.

Meteor or Plane?

A motorist seen in parts of western Canada from Regina to Vancouver confused at least two residents in this locality Monday night.

Lacombe police received an emergency phone call about 11:00 p.m. Monday from a motorist travelling from Stettler to Lacombe who reported "a plane crash eight miles east of town."

No sooner was this call checked out and proved false than another phone call arrived from a farmer west of Lacombe (Jackfish Lake) who was convinced an airplane on fire had crashed to the ground near his place.

In each case, the description of "yellow and blue flashing lights" was similar. Against the dark sky, pieces of what was apparently the meteor broke away and resembled a stricken aircraft.

Annual Art Exhibit at Memorial Centre Today

A pleasing art exhibit will be open to the general public at the Lacombe memorial centre Thursday, May 31, from 2:30 to 5:00 in the afternoon, and 7:00 to 9:00 in the evening.

Mrs. N. C. Brown, club president, advises that "100 or more" paintings in oils and water colors will be on display.

These works will be the product of 20 members of the Lacombe art club, who have been meeting regularly during the winter season under the direction of Dr. H. Wohlfarth, assistant professor of art in the department of extension at the university of Alberta.

A number of Lacombe artists have made rapid strides in their painting skills, since the club was first formed 12 years ago.

Tea will be served in the afternoon, and a cordial welcome awaits all visitors.

Parking By-Law To Undergo Revision

A new by-law restricting the "no parking" ban on the south side of 50 avenue will be presented to town council at the next meeting on June 11, as a result of representation made by a business ... delegation in early May.

Councillor Murray Boyce at the meeting last Monday night said that his committee was prepared to recommend parallel parking on both sides of the avenue for one block only, between 51 and 52 street, and council can approve or reject the proposed by-law change at the next meeting.

Councillor Ivan Stonebraker advised that the LMC auditorium floors will be re-finished and relined. For this reason the hall is "reserved" from June 8-15, and no bookings will be accepted during this period.

He also told other members of council that W. H. Rose has been hired to mow the grass at the cemetery.

Oil Stoves

Councillor Boyce wanted to know when the public works department intended to initiate the usual street oiling program. "People want it now to keep down the dust not July or August," he declared.

Councillor Wes Jackson said street oiling would be done "when the weather is a little warmer." Some of the streets he has in mind for oil C. & E. to 50 street avenue, from the C. & E. to 50 street and 52 street, from 52 avenue ... to 54 avenue.

To Clear Property

Councillor Boyce sought and received approval of council to hire a truck at town expense to clear away old auto wrecks from residential property, with the sanction of the owner.

If the owner refuses to allow the town to haul away unsightly wrecks, then the town will take action under the nuisance by-law and force the owner to clean his property at his own expense.

Thought For the Week...

The future is no more uncertain than the present.

Swim Pool Opening Likely on June 15

Cross water safety official Mayor R. A. Gordon suggested that the pool be opened by some little girl, preferably from a large family.

Superintendent Graham said he hoped to obtain two girls from Red ... summer recreation ... to do a synchronized swim. He also expressed a desire to ... water safety display and a short ... by some divers.

Heavy Schedule

It looks like the swimming pool will be a constant user judging by the initial schedule worked out by Mr. Graham.

He expects swimming instruction to take up morning hours, from approximately 9:00 to 12:00 noon, for grade seven and eight classes who will come over from the school on the basis of a double period to the end of June.

Afternoon 1:00 to 2:00 - ladies' hours to swim; 2:00 to 5:30 — public swimming, 5:30 to 6:00 — diving instruction or more life saving, 6:00 to 7:00 — men's hours to swim 7:00 to 9:30 public ... skating. On evening ... a varied schedule like swimming group ... water polo team, or revisits by local entertainers.

This June schedule will be replaced by other types of swimming activities for children in the big basin from early June ... August.

Big Shell

Prospective staff calls for four lifeguards or instructors, one full time office girl or cashier and one night watchman to prevent vandalism.

Wayne Armitstead of Lacombe has been hired as Mr. Graham's assistant, and Jim Faber of Fort Saskatchewan is one of the lifeguards. Other applications are being sifted.

Candidates Invited to Joint Forum

Political campaign for the federal election next June 18 is swinging into high gear, with a number of forum meetings scheduled in this constituency under the auspices of the farmers union of Alberta.

Electors of Lacombe and district will have an opportunity to ... the four candidates in this riding who have been invited to attend a joint meeting scheduled for the LMC on Saturday, June 2, at 2:00 p.m.

The four incumbents are Harry Moore of Wetaskiwin, Progressive-Conservative, Ronald Gordon of Lacombe, Liberal; Fred Horner of Bowden, Social Credit, and William Strachan of Calmar, New Democratic Party.

Each speaker will be given 20 minutes in advance his platform, and a further five minutes for rebuttal. Written questions will be accepted from the audience directed to any candidate in a 30-minute question period.

D. C. Whitney, FUA director of district zone, will be chairman for the evening.

Important Meeting Of Retail Merchants On Friday Evening

Retail merchants of the town of Lacombe are urged to attend an important meeting below the town office on Friday, June 1, starting at 8:30 p.m.

This meeting has been called to discuss the forthcoming business shopping days, and is of vital importance in planning this proposed mid-summer shopping festival.

Shopping days committee chairmen Don Vickerson held a meeting with his committee members Monday evening when tentative plans were discussed for the coming shopping spree.

Legion Car Bingo at Jubilee Stadium Saturday

A 1962 Plymouth car is the grand prize to be given away to some lucky person attending the Lacombe Legion's giant car bingo at Jubilee stadium this coming ... Saturday, June 2, at 9:00 p.m.

There will be 12 games played in all, with other valuable prizes including a bedroom suite and a kitchen suite.

Chairman "Chuck" Morris advises that bingo games will start promptly at 9:00 p.m., and it is hoped to run off the entire series in one hour "so that the ... don't get too hard."

Come and support the Legion, and enjoy an evening's fun with the chance to win big prizes.

Circus Comes To Lacombe

Wild animals and top circus performers will combine their talents in three mighty entertainments to present a two-hour show at Lacombe's jubilee stadium next Tuesday and Wednesday June 5 and 6

The big Smith & Dale circus comes to town under the auspices of the Kinsmen club of Lacombe.

Four shows are scheduled, with two each day at 4:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

There will be many entertaining acts, according to chairman Bob Bain, but one of the best will be the famous Wallendas, a troupe of seven aerialists who appeared on Ed Sullivan's nation-wide television network.

Three other performers and other acts will be announced later. Many of the trained animals will be in the show, including elephants, camels and zebras, and more than 120 members of full entertainment.

Advance tickets on sale at the Tom-Boy Store office reduced rates for children.

A mammoth parade will kick off proceedings through the downtown streets on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

The New Democratic Policy for PEACE

Canada can play a vital role in preserving world peace. In international affairs, a New Democratic government will:

- Work to strengthen the United Nations and its agencies.
- Give dynamic leadership in the promotion of universal disarmament, which has become an essential condition of human survival.
- Reject nuclear weapons for Canada, oppose their extension to any other country, and work fully with other non-nuclear nations to this end.
- Seek a reappraisal and change of NATO's policies and objectives, to make NATO an effective instrument for peace.
- Assist the development and economic growth of newly developed nations.
- Steadily enlarge Canada's program of economic aid, loans, and technical assistance to under-developed countries, to two percent of the national income.

258 Blood Donors At Clinic Monday

After a slow start in the afternoon, attendance at the Red Cross blood donor clinic pushed up in the evening, during the one-day visit of the mobile equipment at the Lacombe memorial centre Monday.

A satisfying total of 258 donors gave blood, which will be used to supplement blood bands in all hospitals. There were only 76 donors in the afternoon, but a further 182 in the evening made the LMC a busy place.

Convener Mrs. Bill Soley expressed satisfaction at the turnout, which was echoed by Red Cross officials.

Members of the Lacombe Kinette club, which sponsored the clinic, assisted their assistance

Alix Sees Fashion Show

ALIX A better than usual audience gathered for the home and school meeting in the auditorium on Wednesday of last week when grades eight and ten girls presented a well organized fashion show. The report by Eunice Newton follows:

The stage for the show was attractively decorated with blue and yellow streamers with tall floral flowers attached. The back wall of the stage was effectively screened with a barb drop drawn by Marion Bell of the nursery theme illustrated in the show which depicted girls carrying a teddy bear, a toy dog or baby buggy.

A comedy number was presented by Miss Rodger's dressed as an old fashioned teen-ager and a worthy modelling her costume showing a present day girl just how to walk in, or talk about our interest the questions of the day.

The girls themselves modelled with the assistance of their home economics teacher Mr. Smith had made All upper-class the efforts of Diane Sims and Doreen Arabel as presentation and Marion Prince for costumes with the practical art Acknowledgement Mrs. Morris for giving the class school time to practice, and to all who came to the program.

The hors d'oeuvres of coffee table chairs, etc., made at the shop added interest.

Anyone wanting a nice treat should go out and look at Mr. D. Buckley's trophies which is in full bloom now.

Red Deer last week end. Among those whom we wish success is Mrs. Beth Fenske of Ogre, who was a visitor at her mother's home when she went to Red Deer for the exam and visited other friends in the village.

Mrs. Mary Ware, accompanied Mr and Mrs W Robinson to Ogre for the holiday week end when they were the guests of Mr and Mrs. Mel Fenske and sons. During the visit they enjoyed renewing acquaintance of pioneer country and describe Ogre on a new little lake nestling in the heart of itself by a vigorous tree growing project.

Big Clean-Up

On Thursday evening, May 24, a number of the Alix Cub-Brownie troops met at the school house to add to their funds by undertaking a clean-up campaign of the H Parlby farm. After work hours, all enjoyed a huge bon fire when hot dogs and buns were rushed up was learned and provided best for the thoroughly enjoyed wiener roast.

Anyone else wanting such assistance please call the leaders. Mr McDermaid 13 Gulliver or Mrs. Kirk know and the boys will be glad to do your job.

We hope to hear that Charles Sloane and our valued milkman, Gordon Olson, are both released to practice, and to all who came in the program.

90% of all oil company product research in Canada is done by Imperial

At Imperial Oil's laboratories at Sarnia, Ontario, more than 200 scientists and technicians are working to improve present petroleum products and to develop new ones. Their research covers many fields, from gasolines to household detergents.

Another 130 scientists and technicians are working at Imperial's Calgary laboratories on ways to find and produce more Canadian crude oil, and natural gas. Imperial does more research than all other oil companies in Canada combined.

Every barrel of crude oil contains some of the sun's heat. Imperial research works to unlock more of this energy. After five years' intensive research, Imperial found a chemical additive which makes more heating oil available from Canadian crude oil. One important result: less oil imported to heat Canadian homes.

PREVENT ANEMIA AND SCOURS

The one essential element lacking in sow's milk is iron. You supply this element, prevent anemia and obtain faster weight gains when you inject pigs with PIGDEX Injectible Iron at 2 days of age.

At the same time stop scours. Give your pigs one dose with the simple AUREOMYCIN PIGDOSER. In this way, you give broad-spectrum antibiotic protection to pigs at the earliest moment — before they start eating a dry feed —to help prevent scouring and keep baby pigs thriving.

Clive Pioneer, Adam Boston Passes Away

Adam E Boston of Clive who first came to this country 50 years ago, died at the Lacombe municipal hospital on Saturday, June 2, 1962, after a short illness. He was Age 72

Last rites were conducted by Rev. C H Parks from the Eventide chapel at Lacombe on Thursday afternoon. Pallbearers were O Wagner, M Wagner, J Bey fields R Reynolds, L Burke and Webb Miller

The late Mr Boston first came to Clive in 1911, and farmed for several years before moving to Nebraska, U.S.A. He returned to Canada in March, 1927

From 1930 to 1935 he operated a grocery store at Clive He was interested in sports, and in the early years played a good deal of baseball with the Clive team

His wife predeceased him in 1955 He is survived by one son, Bill of Clive, three daughters Mrs. C. Hall (Anna Rose) Kane of Clive, Mrs N (Alta Mae) Morrison of Lacombe, and Mrs. C. (Betty Lou) Morrical of Edmonton.

One brother, Tom of Alma, Nebraska; and two sisters, Mrs Bess McFarlane and Mrs. Agnes Stockman of Alma, Nebraska

Scouts May Qualify For Trip to Greece

Queen Scouts Keith Murphy of Bentley and Blackfalds and Janice Bennett of Clive will represent the Diamond Trail district in provincial-wide competitions for the right to attend the world's Boy Scout jamboree to be held in Greece in 1963.

The two boys were judged at the Boy Scout-or-ee held Saturday at Gull Lake, where Boosts from all parts of the district attended to take part in the entertaining and instructive program.

Keith is the 18-year-old son of Mr and Mrs M. Murphy of Blackfalds, while Janice is the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bennett of Clive

The one-day Scout outing was attended by a number of district and provincial Scout officials.

Village Gull Lake Boundaries Expanded By Ministerial Order

Boundaries of the village of Gull Lake have been extended The Globe learned this week from village secretary-treasurer G T Jackson of Lacombe The order approving enlargement of the village boundaries was received late last week, but has been made retroactive to January 1, 1962, for taxation purposes

The new area added to the village includes the strip of land between the "beach road" and number 12 highway during the lake The puts such areas as Dalli's Store Woellner's store the ball park, and the provincial park on the east side of the lake within the boundaries of the village

Brakes OK?

IF YOU can push the brake pedal down within two inches of the floor—or if you have to "pump" your brakes to stop short—burner drop over and let us check them for you right away.

In a few minutes we can tell whether it's just a matter of getting air-bubbles out of the hydraulic lines, or replacing the brake shoes—but in those few minutes we may be able to save you serious woe on the road! Don't let this delay. Come see us quickly, won't you?

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Randy Lindsay who passed away June 7, 1958.
At the age of 11 months and 11 days.
As the years have passed since we had to part
But loving memories never die.
To live with us in memory still,
Not just today but always.
—Ever loved and remembered by
